BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2010 by Natsu

Nia slammed her home's door behind her. She was PISSED!! Yet another day where she couldn't get the orgasm she was after. Nia was the manager of her company's local office. She had fucked every guy there and not even the monster cock of Ben the accountant was enough for her.

She had even gone after all the girls in the office. Nothing worked. A few weeks ago she had set up an orgy for the entire building even that failed she couldn't get the great orgasm she was after. She felt a rubbing on her shoulder wish brought her back to the present. It was her dog Titanus.

A dog of five feet in height and extremely strong. Seeing him always made things feel better and her failures seem less important. But not today, today she had to have a release and if others couldn't do it then she would do it for herself. She got to her bedroom and stripped and began thinking about every many she had ever fucked. All the while finger fucking herself. She was wet.

But not enough but what she didn't know was that her juices were causing a reaction in Titanus. He didn't know what was going on usually when this smell showed up it was from behind closed doors.

But he liked the smell so he decided to taste it. Nia felt a lick that brought a gasp to her mouth.

Titanus was eating her out. She felt better then she had in a long time. And then a thought occurred to her what if she fucked Titanus it would get that feeling. The very thought brought her to orgasm.

Titanus now knew what was going on his mistress was horny. Most people thought that because he was so big he was dumb but in reality he was probably one of the most... average intelligent dogs in the world. But all the same he could feel his cock coming out of its sheath. Nia looked under Titanus and saw the cock and knew she had to taste it. She then preceded to suck on it coaxing it all out of the sheath. She began to deep throat Titanus's 22' long 3' wide cock. She got it all down her throat and that was enough she thought time to be fucked. She presented her ass to him and he moved up behind her not needing to mount he was that tall. His dick found her pussy almost immediately and he immediately got it in her. As soon as that happened his cock expanded from 3' wide to 8' wide.

Nia gasped knowing that her dog was what she needed all along and remembering that the reason she had problems getting her orgasm's with guy's was because her pussy was just to danm big. But not this time this time she was getting what she needed. And she wanted more she flipped herself and wrapped her legs around Titanus for the feel of fur on flesh. Soon she felt something HUGE hitting her pussy. It was the knot. Titanus wasn't about to let his bitch/mistress get away without taking the know. So with one great thrust he got the knot in her and locked them.

He then pumped harder than ever. Nia was in heaven Titanus was pounding into her big time and the knot was just exquisite. Titanus knew he was about to cum and so he pounded harder still and then he came. It filled her seeking her egg's. Nia couldn't believe how good the cum felt, her body was so sensitive she was aware of everything. Or so she thought the reason Nia was so hard to please was because she had a certain gene which allowed her to be impregnated by the first type of animal to cum in her. So when Titanus's sperm found one of Nia's eggs it fertilized it with Nia not knowing that she would be having a surprise in about 9 months. If Nia had know she wouldn't have cared at least not right now she was consumed with pleasure and that was all she cared about.
