BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2007 by poe_boy

I actually have been very afraid to even mention this story anywhere at anytime due to certain per say personal information stuff.

In that I'm speaking of the fact that I worked at a rather nice 5 star hotel now I'll not mention where by any means whatsoever but I was the maintenance director there and thusly on call and such and visited many rooms for problems with this and that which many tennants per say have..

But on this paticular day I was called to a suite which had adjoining rooms etc. and had been told the tennants were gone and their dog was with them so I could go in room and fix problem( toilet related) and so gathered up needed items from warehouse and headed to the room to do the work order and these being outside suites meaning you entered them from outside and saw their land rover was still parked there and was questioning that but having known as well they were there to pick up a brand new one from a local dealer in our area so dismissed that and continued on per say..

So as was our customary habit to knock and announce ourselves and hearing no=one answer I entered the suite and gave not one thought to anything going on at all .. That is until I went into the bedroom and bam... I was frozen in my tracks as their huge dog that was some type like what they hunt lions with in africa etc. and I swear my heart stopped beating and I could not for the life of me engage my feet to get the hell out of there in any way shape or form..

But that wasn't even the whole of what was going on for there on the bed was the elderly woman maybe 50 yrs old or so greying hair of long once blonde like length and she was pushed over the bed on her belly her towel laying there on the floor somewhere in that area and the huge dog was turning his head to me giving me that move and your dead growl and she laid out totally naked before him and his huge snout plowed up between her legs as her pleadings of oh no don't bite me i'll let you do it and not knowing that his intentions and growlings were at my ass for intruding into all this damn mess to begin with..

So here I was scared as i've ever been in my life and each movement from me made him turn and growl visiciously at me and I knew damn good and well he meant it and had I moved he would have attacked me and most likely killed me.

so frozen in my tracks and being to afraid to do a thing I couldn't leave nor do one thing to help her hell what would I use to fend off this huge ass killing animal my screwdriver wow that would be like pissing him off to really attack my ass then.

So I was bound by mental anquish and grief to have to watch this action going on just feet before me and powerless in any way shape or form to stop it .

And somehow my mind had said she'd been showering and was about to get dressed having dropped the towel beside the bed she now was captured on, and the huge dog now lapping at her cunt lips like crazy as his huge tongue seemed to cover from her belly up to the crack of her ass even in long swoops of tongue as she was shaking all over and scared to death herself since every growl from him she thought was meant for her to accept his doing damn well what he wanted with her but really because I the damn idiot intruder had come into that room at the wrong damn time and place...

Well she was trying her best to crawl up onto the bed and escape the thing she feared most was her own dog now using his huge tongue to lick her entire mound and up into her ass cheeks as she was pleading oh please oh please no don't do this and the huge dog just seemed to follow her up onto the bed and then once there she tried to lay on her belly and he absolutely gave this gut wrenching growl and begin to use his huge snout to absolutely push it from her mound upwards telling her he wanted her to assume the position and she was crying and shaking all over and pleading with him to stop but he had one thing in mind and one thing only and that was that she was going to be his bitch and his slave.. That just seemed to hit me that way about it all sort of that gut feeling thing..

Well as luck would have it my damn radio sounded off and that made him even more pissed off so I had to move as easy as I could to not make him lunge on top of me then and there though the woman on the bed now head long forced into the very headboard of the bed and now cried out I'll do it i'll do it j ju just don't bite meeeee.

Still not even aware that I was even there at all and thinking her huge killing instinct pet was viscously growling at her to do as he ask and may have been in part that but seeing him turn his huge head to me and that look in his huge black eyes of I'll kill you in a moment certainly made me aware of his dominance and the fact I was intruding in his territory and to him I was like a damn thief that had broken into the room at the wrong time and sure as hell wrong place..

Well once he seemed to be aware I certainly was frozen in my tracks and made a slave of his being the absolute master of the moment he turned back to his woman master who's ass was churning and trying to stop all this somehow someway but her body was shaking in absolute fear of him and he just leaned his huge head down and nudged back up with it from under her mound which her cunt lips were goldenly fleeced with greying like hair and moistly covered from his tonguing over it all and she then raised her ass up in the air placing as best she could her legs to support her in this semi sort of on all fours way yet from her not fully succumbing to his want for her to be in an all out fully open position and then gave her yet another growl of menacing sound and she absolutely then raised her ass even higher and spread her legs pleading the whole time doing this that he wouldn't attack her and he did in fact nip at her butt cheeks which were not by any means old looking in that regard just slightly sagging and still nicely rounded proving she worked out a lot at her age to keep herself in good shape..

So as soon as she had raised her ass higher and he had made her open her legs by nudging at each of her inner thighs making her spread them for him!! And as at last this was done her head was plowed up into the headboard now from her trying in vain to escape this unwanted happening and in fact it seemed to me he was absolutely raping her..

But she was crying and still pleading for him to stop but he paid her no attention at all and just dove his huge head right down between her open legs and began then and there to lick her mound like crazy his tongue covered every single inch of openness between her legs and it spread from inner thigh to inner thigh at her mound as he licked her this way several times as she pleaded oh no don't oh please don't but he then just started licking her pussy lips wildly and strongly and as he lapped at her lips he made her slim body move about from his powerful tongue doing this to her as she lay buried face into her pillow plowed up against the headboard of the king size bed and then he absolutely began to try and shove his huge thick black spotted tongue into her cunt and she cried all out when he did that and shook all over as her cries of him stopping seemed to fade and suddenly this strange like moaning sound began to come from her as he was litterraly trying to make her cunt stretch open to accept his huge tongue now curled up as it sank into her cunt but just the tip seemed to be able to do such but he continued and continued to do it over and over again as now her ass was quivering and shaking from his assault of her pussy and even more so was the fact that indeed she was getting wetter and wetter from it now !!!

As I tried to come to grips with seeing such a thing not even belonging there in his presence at all and seeing her being made to do what he wanted was even more so a gruilling with the thoughts and feelings of seeing actual beastiality going on right before my eyes!!!!

As the sounds of the wetter and wetter licking began to get louder and louder as I watched his tongue digging deeper and deeper into her now spread widely open cunt and she was grunting and groaning and her whole body quivering and shaking wildly as she was by no doubt getting the best damn tongue action a woman could ever want or even dream of but not by a man no, it was her own pet doing this honor as slowly and surely her moans were getting louder and louder as the sounds of his sloppy tonguing of her cunt got louder and suddenly she seemed to shakely tense her entire body up and gave out a loud crying moan of pleasure as she came all over his assaulting tongue as he lapped every last moment of her juices up and I was doomed to stand there and watch this creature have his bestial way with her!!

Well the sloppy licking stopped and he just removed his huge head and snout from between her legs leaving her cunt now gaped open and wet as hell for my eyes to see and as if he knew this he turned his head to me to see that I was indeed still his captured audience and I swear I think that's what he wanted !! It was as if that look in his huge killer instinct eyes was telling me that as he turned back to his mistress now still in position with her legs wide open and her cunt still showing the after effects of his tonguing her pussy out but good with his huge tongue.. As she seemed to just be moaning in after orgasm ways.

And then suddenly I saw him raise his whole huge body up and it seemed as if some lion was now over his kill and then and there he just absolutely jumped onto her back covering every ounce of her being with his huge body and wrapped his front legs around her slim yet full womanly waist and gripped around them tight absolutely embedding his huge legs into her soft womanly skin and once that was done he scooted his huge hind legs up closer and closer to her open legs and raised ass now twitching and shivering as she was trying in vain to say stop oh no no no not this no you you can't do this but he heard not one thing of it and in fact I think he absolutely lowered his huge ass head and gave her a nip on her neck and she was pleading the whole time for him to stop!!

Well that's when I saw it !! His huge penis of deep red burning color was out of his sheath the tip was solidly long and very pointed and something a bit odd about it as I recall all of this in my mind that it had a very long pencil like thing that seemed to be attached to his tip yet seemed not to be... Of course now I fully know what to hell that is but then I had no damn idea of such things..

Then he began to poke at her between the legs hitting each inner thigh and leaving a very wet trail of his cock moisture on each one and ran his cock up through her cunt lips spread open from his tongue assault moments earlier and through her triangle of womanly public hair greying in fact from her age and his cock slid up through it and seemed to go all the damn way to her belly button as if he was showing me and making her feel that he was going to put all that inside her!!!

Well that happened several times over then as if he had gotten lucky he hit the mark and slid the tip into her pussy and she slung her head up and cried out oh no oh please no oh it's it's hooo hooo hoooo it's hoooo and then as if he was rebounding himself and moving his hips into place and adjusting his huge back legs he shoved his huge hips forwards and sank into her pussy in one long agonizing lunge that made her cry out and scream oh it's too bigggggg oh don't oh please I I I can't take it as if he could hear her pleading cries of it all but I sure could!!!

Then as if he had gotten just what he wanted into her as yet he began to go to town on that pussy and I mean he was absolutely drilling that dog cock of his into her pussy like there was no tomorrow and she was trying to scream out it was too big and hurting yet every time he lunged that huge thing a bit deeper she could do nothing but shake all over and gasp for breath as he plunged into her pussy madly and wildly and it was starting to take its toll on me as I watched this beast taking her like a bitch dog in heat and then suddenly she absolutely flung her head up and screamed out oh nooooo therrrrreeeee oh nooooo therrrrreeeee as I saw his cock then go a lot deeper into her and she was screaming out oh no wh what what are you doing innnnsideeeeeeee meeeeee and then she was crying out something about it being hotter than hell as best she could then suddenly she seemed to slump over into her pillow and still crashed up against the head board as she was and her whole body was shuddering and shivering and her ass was jiggling like crazy as he was fucking her like she'd never been fucked and then I saw something I had never in my life given one thought to and that was that now slapping at her widely spread open cunt lips now gushing juices from around the stretched as hell fit of his huge cock was a ball that was slamming against her cunt lips like crazy like one of those paddle balls from years ago that you used that board and it had a damn rubber band on it and you pounced the ball back and forth off it..

That was what seemed to be going on before me now as he was absolutely trying by how he was screwing her for all she was worth to get that huge thing inside her pussy and it loudly and wetly slapped at her cunt as loud moans of absolute pleasure were coming from her now as even her own hips defied her mental knowing this is not something any woman should ever do and yet her body was betraying her mind's ability to not enjoy this as she began to mutter strange sounding mmmm nnn mmm sounds in her pillow as he was screwing her hard and with driving fast fury and then suddenly bam!!!! As she was undoubtedly having her most powerful orgasm ever that ball like thing went right up into her pussy and then she really screamed out what what's that that that oh it huuuuurts oh it's too biiiiiiiig as her cries of it faded absolutely seconds later then replaced by loud and ever more pleasurable grunts and groans and her whole body shuddered all over and and I really think the poor woman lost all consciousness then and there and she was coming all over what cock wasn't in her and I swear I could see that just above her triangle of golden blonde like hair and greying in it a huge knot was showing in her there!!!!

I was so confused and yet so damn turned on that at last I was watching a woman getting her pleasure from a dog.. I'd had fantasies about it hell yeah.... But damn what a waste of a fantasy to have it actually happen before my eyes and in such a reality to be a damn frozen in my tracks and scared for my life way to have it happen...

Welll he was still fucking her but more deep thrusting like with short stabs of his hips now as his head seemed to go skywards and a sudden howl like escaped him as then she cried out oh it's toooo Hooooottttt oh please no donnnn't and then she faded back into some strange world of total subconsciousness and her ass was shaking and jiggling all about and then and there I swear I could see her belly swelling out like she was being absolutely impregnated before my eyes as his huge sack of balls was jerking and shaking all over and I knew then and there he was coming in this woman forcing her to somehow take all this come he had for her and her belly swelled like she had suddenly been pressured up inside her and I swear I could see her belly rippling and moving and she must have absolutely came like crazy because her juices were pouring from her cunt all over this intruding dog cock now buried to lord only knows where inside of her...

Well I have no idea at all how long all this had taken I first of all was far too damn scared for my life to think of such a thing as that.. And secondly I moved my body a bit after he had shoved that knot of his inside her and then something in my mind just said he couldn't get loose of her and so let me tell you what I got the hell out of that room and went to my office and sat there as if traumatized from some absolute bad event in my life and the front office had called me repeatedly and finally coming to my senses some I answered the phone and told the lady at the front desk that their damn dog was in that room and he damn near attacked me and that's why I was sitting back at my desk and was trying to get my damn mind and body back from knowing I was but a damn moment from death...

Now I've never related this story to anyone at all but the whole of the story is that I did go back to that room and found the headboard crashed from the wall onto the bed and all over those sheets was what had to be cum from her and him and I had to absolutely switch mattresses to let that one dry first of all and be cleaned secondly and absolutely decided it was a waste and threw the mattress away...

Yes I did see her again the next morning in fact when they were having breakfast in the lobby where we served such for our guest and she was surely walking about a bit slowly and her husband had to hold her plate because she was hurting so much in her belly and I of course knew what that hurt was about!!!!!!

Well that's the end of my story about that and it took me days to get over the damn trauma of that moment in that room and I swear I had nightmares for days and days about it all being relived in dreams and would wake up in some cold sweat but you know what I had one hell of a hard on to!!!!
