BEASTIALITY STORIES

Emily had been on the equestrian club at her college for some time. She was very close to one horse. His name is Stormy. He was a large, brown stallion with silky hair. Emily had grown fond of her horse over the course of the semester.

Emily was a gorgeous girl. She was in her first semester of college and, with her looks, easily could have fit into a sorority rather than the equestrian club. Her long dark hair went past her shoulders and her breasts were above average.

The rest of the equestrian club had gone and it was getting late, but Emily was told to brush Stormy before she left. With all the other people gone Emily went to the part of the barn where Stormy was kept.

Emily unlocked the door, entered the room, and closed it back up. She had never been in the barn alone before and was a little scared, but felt better when she was with Stormy. She began to brush him and he seemed to enjoy it. Not just because of his vocal reaction, but also because his penis began to grow.

Now Emily had seen a horse erection before. But she had never been the cause of one. Stormy obviously owed his growing member to this beautiful female. The thought of her effect on Stormy began to make her mind run wild.

Emily went to the back end of Stormy and bent down. She was so close to a penis that a human male could only dream about having. She reached her hand out and touched it with one finger and pulled away quickly. She thought to herself just how similar it felt to other members she had felt. ...and now her curiosity was being slowly replaced with lust...

She looked up at Stormy who was looking back at her. She looked back at the biggest horse dick she'd ever seen. It made her bite her lip. Emily did something then that she never even expected. Emily reached her hand out and grabbed Stormy's giant erection. She squeezed it ever so slightly in her hand and started to get very turned on.

Stormy breathed loudly and was clearly enjoying it. Emily watched her one hand move up and down the roughly 2 foot penis. She jacked the horse off faster and faster. Then she had a thought.

Emily had been with guys who were above average. But when else would she have an opportunity to be with a penis like this. Emily slowly removed her clothes and thought about what she was about to do... lust growing in her. she was standing naked next to stormy. She went back to his horse member and bent down again with only one thought in her mind... taking it in herself as deep as she could.

She went under Stormy facing up, and rose with her legs and hands so that she was doing a sort of crab walk. Stormy's penis, grew even more since Emily had been jerking him, and she was unsure. But she slowly moved forward until the tip of his huge dick was on Emily's lips. Then something happened that she did not expect. Stormy moved forward and he entered Emily who screamed in pleasure.

She was surprised that it didn't hurt. The wetness from anticipation and curiosity that it went in relatively easily. Emily took in as much as she could handle but it was only a fraction of it. She moved rhythmically having Stormy's horsehood going in and out of her. She could not believe it, but she was in ecstasy.

Emily moved him in and out of her and after only a few minutes she was cumming. Her screams echoed in the barn as she climaxed. she thrust him into her one last time and fell to the floor... content... but not completely content.

She went back to Stormy's cock and she grasped it with both hands. She was determined to make him cum as she did. She worked her hands, sliding them up and down his horse cock. After about 5 minutes, she was furiously jacking him off. And she stopped for a second, remembering that she had yet another tool.

Holding the giant cock of Stormy in her hands and still jerking him, she put the tip in her mouth and sucked it like she'd never sucked before. She licked all around the massive head and Stormy's reaction let her know he was enjoying it.

She put her mouth around the head again and felt Stormy's muscles tense, she didn't think too much of it because many muscles tense while aroused. Her mouth was suddenly filled with hot horse cum and she instinctively swallowed just to make room for more. She was obviously surprised but realized she didn't mind the taste. In fact, she was turned on even more and she swallowed every drop she could, but was overwhelmed and it cascaded out of her mouth as well. She got horse cum all over her breasts. When Stormy was done his cock popped out of her mouth still dripping. She used her hands to corale the cum into the center of her breasts, and then she licked it all off her fingers.

Emily would be staying later with Stormy a bit more often now....
