BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2009 by Tony

It was really bad weather. Thunder storm was destroying everything. The time was only 5pm. It was mid July but dark grey clouds made it really dark. Sue was sitting next to fire and getting angry with herself. The decision she made to come here was really not a good idea. She could easily wait for few more days. But now it was too late.

Sue was a very pretty and beautiful girl. She has such a soft and smart body. With her hands full breasts and long legs she could easily be a main attraction to anyone. Her mum and dad died last year and she was living in one bed room apartment. She was working as a sales lady in very famous company, so her salary was wonderful. Her dad was left so much for her that she even could live porch live without working. Her mother and father had very beautiful house across the country right in the middle of the forest. Sue used to go with her parents to spend holidays there. She loved that house and woods around it.

Her parents told her to be careful of wild animals. She still remembered that day when she was playing in woods. She was trying to catch a butterfly and gone deep into the woods. She heard some strange noise. That time sue was only 13. So she got scared. She was about to scream when she saw a big black gorilla standing right in front of her and straining at her left. Then within a moment gorilla jumped towards her.

She closed her eyes and screamed. When she opened her eyes she saw a big brown wolf was laying on the grass with no motion and gorilla was standing next to it and looking at her. Then gorilla moved forward towards her. She was looking right in his eyes, but all she could see in his eyes was kindness for her. Gorilla quietly tapped on her head, turned around and disappeared in woods. She could easily see a big scar on his left shoulder. She came back home and told everything to her parents. She was really scared after that incident.

Sue was now 21. But she still remembered that day and thinking if that gorilla was not there God knows what would happened to her.

One day she came back from work and getting ready for shower when she had a phone call from her family solicitor. He wanted to meet her. She asked him to come over and have meal with her. While they were having dinner he told her that her father has a land in South cost which she wasn't aware off. Sue told him that she doesn't know anything about it and if she can sell that land because it was useless for her. James (solicitor) told her that there is a problem. The documents for the land were not with James but her father kept them in his country house. So she has to go there and get them.

Sue thought it is good because she hasn't been there for last two years and she needs vacations too. First she thought that she will ask her friend Kelly to go with her but then she decided to go there by herself. She wasn't sure that what condition the house would be so rather then getting embarrassed in front of her friend, she should go by herself and if house needs any attention she can fix it without getting worried to come back quick.

She took two weeks off from work in case if she needs to stay there longer. Sue packed her bags and got everything ready which she could think off can be handy in her forest house. She left her apartment at 2am. It was long drive. When she was about 50 miles away, the weather got really bad. It was raining and thundering. The time was 3pm. Sue was very tired off driving but she wanted to get home before it starts thunder storm. By the time she got there, it was really dark and puddles were everywhere because of heavy rain. Sue got into the house and took her luggage inside. She was completely wet and soaking. She quickly checked whole house and luckily it was still in good condition and everything was working. She put her silky gown on after shower. Made cup of tea for her and then sat next to fire.

Here she was sitting next to the fire and getting angry with herself. But after a while she was ok and enjoying her cup of tea and thinking of her old days which she spent here. And then she thought of that gorilla which saved her life. And from nowhere she kissed in the air for that gorilla to say thanks and then she smiled for her foolishness. Thunder was really bad and she was getting scared that how she is going to spend night here alone. She wished that even if she had a cat with her, it would make big difference.

Suddenly she heard some funny noises from outside and she got really scared. She quickly checked main door and windows to make sure they are fully locked. She heard it again but this time it was more clear. Then again. The noise was very close to door. She listened very carefully. It was animal noise and it was in pain. That gave Sue some courage. She went to the window which was next to the main door and tried to look outside. Because there were dark grey clouds which made dark everywhere, so she couldn't see anything.

After a while when her eyes got used to of the dark a bit, all she could see something big black next to the door and moving very slowly. She was still scared. Didn't know what it could be. And then lightning solved her problem. She could easily see that it was big black giant gorilla sitting right in front of the door and trying to avoid the rain. She took a deep breath. Now she was feeling sorry for him but still there was no way that she was going to take any risk.

It was dark again and she was waiting for lightning again. But from deep inside she was happy that at least there is some one around her although it is wild animal. And then it was lightning again. This time it was really bright and what she saw in that bright light, she couldn't believe it and she was so so happy and excited. She could easily see that big black giant gorilla and a big scar on his left shoulder. She thought for a moment that this big beast could be harmful for her but next moment she decided to let him in. Even if this beast going to hurt her, it doesn't matter because the life she is enjoying is given by this gorilla anyway.

Without thinking of any danger, she opened the door. Lightening again, she looked in his eyes and he looked in her eyes. Then she moved a side to give gorilla access to come in. First gorilla hesitated but when he felt warmth coming from inside the room, he slowly moved and entered in the room. So many leaves and rain came in the room with him. Sue closed the door. Gorilla was in bad condition. He was bleeding from his left front paw. Sue was standing only a meter away from him.

She looked at him. He was the same gorilla who saved her life but he was grown. He was almost double the size now. Gorilla was looking in her eyes, like he had recognized her. She went inside the house and brought two big towels. She spread one towel next to the fire on the floor. She wanted gorilla to come forward and sit on the towel. Still she didn't want to make any silly move. Slowly she moved closed to him. She was looking small doll next this giant beast. Then she touched his black fur very carefully.

Gorilla didn't mind. She moved her hand on his fur. By doing this she had very strange feeling somewhere inside her. She looked in his eyes, it seemed that he is no harm to her. Then she started drying him off with other towel. Then she hold his paw and tried to move him forward toward the other towel. He obeyed her and followed her. When he sat on the towel, she went inside again and brought her first aid bag. Now she wasn't scared at all. She hold his injured paw in her small hands, cleaned the blood and put bandage on it. Sue stood up and cleaned all the floor and came back and sat next to beast. All she could see in his eyes kindness for her. She looked at him and said, "Thank you so very much for saving my life.”

She knew that he couldn't understand what she was saying but she carried on. "I was so happy when I saw you at my door. I didn't care about any danger you could do to me. But I was pretty sure that you wouldn't hurt me because if you wanted you could hurt me few years ago. I am so glad that now I can help you."

Beast was looking at her and when she finished he raised his arm and touched her silky hair. It looked like that he understood what she said. He put his hand back of her head and pressed her towards him. She didn't resist and moved closer to him. Gorilla was now in good condition. Fire made him warm and gave him energy. She was so closed to him even she could feel his hot breathing.

Gorilla raised his other arm and she couldn't control herself and got very closed to him and then climbed on his lags and put her arms around him tried to give him a hug. But he was too big for her to put her arms around his back. She looked in his eyes again, laughed and hid her face in his black hairy chest. She didn't noticed that by doing that her silky gown's front had opened. Now her white big breasts with pink nipples were pressed to his hairy chest too.

Sue could smell his soft hairy chest. The smell was so nice that she couldn't control herself and started kissing on his hairy chest. She could feel her shaved tight pussy was getting wet. She was getting so aroused that she took her gown off. Now she was all naked sitting in giant black gorilla's lap, kissing his hairy chest. Gorilla really liked it and he started moving his hands on her back. Then suddenly she felt some thing hard and hot on her bum.

She looked down and smiled. It was his black dick who was getting hard. She looked at him again and kissed his chest and moved downwards. She was still kissing his chest and then belly and then down and then she was a inch away from his huge black dick. The smell was so strong that she could feel it even from a inch distance.

She touched it with her hand. It was about two inches round and a foot long. Sue started rubbing her hand up and down on his shaft. Then without thinking, she kissed the top. It tasted bit salty but she liked it. Same time her hand was on his huge balls. She could feel the heavy weight of his balls in her hand. They were huge and full of his cum. That made her even wetter.

She started kissing his huge shaft from top to bottom. It was hot and hard. With other hand she started rubbing her wet clit. Sue got up and put arm around his neck and with other hand she pulled him back softly. It seemed that gorilla knew what she wanted. So he just lay on his back.

Sue again started kissing him on his neck and all the way down to his belly. Now her legs were wide opened around his neck and her wet and hot pussy was right in front of his eyes. He sniffed in the air and he rubbed his hands on her naked bum. Then he felt her wet pussy and started rubbing it and put his finger in it. Sue sighed with joy. His huge dick was now fully erected. She put her hand around it and went forward to kiss it again.

Meanwhile gorilla took his finger out and smell it and then when she was about to kiss his dick, gorilla pulled her over to his face with his massive hands. He sniffed her juicy pussy and then licked it with his long rough tongue. His hot, long and rough tongue made her even wetter. She opened her legs as wide as she could to give him easy access to his hot pussy.

Gorilla started to lick her and put his long tongue deep inside her. It was too hard for her to take and she screamed with joy and started Cumming. While she was Cumming, she pulled his belly hair but gorilla didn't mind. He really liked the taste of her juices and swallowed every single drop of her juice. Gorilla wanted to continue but she wasn't able to take it any more. So she pushed herself forward and dropped herself on his big hairy belly.

After couple of minutes she managed to get some energy and then her hand was once again on his big shaft. Her one hand was going up and down on his fully erected dick and other hand was massaging his big balls. She started kissing and licking his dick all over.

After kissing it she opened her waited mouth and sucked it and tried to take it in her mouth as much as she could. She was rubbing it on all over her face. And then there was a time she was waiting for. The gorilla made very funny noise and his dick stiffened. She quickly opened her mouth and sucked it deep. Gorilla sprayed his sperm in her mouth. Something very hot hit back of her throat. She tried to drink all of his sperm but it was too much to drink.

Gorilla cum was none stop. His cum was running down from the sides of her mouth and dripping on his balls and hairy legs. Taste of his sperm was awesome. Once gorilla finished Cumming, Sue started licking his cum from his balls and from his hairy legs. When she dried him off completely, she just put her head one of his leg. She was still holding his dick in her hand and watching it going down slowly. She kissed it again closed her eyes Sue couldn't believe her luck that she had best time of her life with black giant gorilla.

It seemed like five minutes when she felt something hot and sticky on her hand which was on gorilla's dick. She opened her eyes. Gorilla was peeing and his piss was all over his balls, legs and on her hand. Sue wasn't a dirty girl at all so she didn't like it especially the strong smell of his piss. She quickly got up and went to bathroom to wash her hands and got some wet clothes to clean up the floor.

When she came back, she saw the ape was standing on his fours. Sue sat down on her knees next to his legs and put one hand on his buttock to push him a bit forward. His buttocks were dark black and free of any hair. When she touched them, they felt like leather. She bent forward to have a close look. Suddenly she realised that his ass hole is getting bigger and popping out. She quickly moved and ape was shitting.

Sue just hold her head with both hands and looked at ape. When he finished she moved him forward and cleaned his mess with one hand holding her nose because the smell of his piss and shit was very strong. Weather was much better now and time was almost midnight. But still she was not going to take risk to spend whole night alone in this big house. He was the best company she could have ever wished for, so she wasn't going to lose this company in any case.

After cleaning up she went back to big beast, sat next to him and put arms around his neck and looked in his eyes. He was looking very innocent. Sue kissed on his big nose and said, "Look my dear lover what you have done? Now it's time for you to have a shower, so come with me. Mummy'll clean you up and give you nice shower."

She knew that he wasn't understood what she had said to him. Then she stood up and held his hand and slowly walked towards bathroom. Surprisingly beast followed her. She took him to the bathroom. First she forwarded herself and sat into the tub and then pushed him slowly. She didn't want to scare this big beast. If he got scared he could be very dangerous for her. The beast was too big for tub so she had to come out.

When she opened the shower and rinsed water on his feet, the beast got bit scared but then he calmed down. She rinsed warm water on his legs then on his belly and then on his whole body. She shampooed him and gave him shower. When she had done it, she held his hand and indicated that he should step out. She tried to dry him off with towel but that towel wasn't big enough for his huge body. She went to the bedroom to get something else to dry him off completely.

Gorilla quietly followed her.

Because she wasn't living there she didn't have any more towels. She took out one of the bed sheet and started to dry him off. Gorilla seemed to like it and he was again on his fours. She reached to his back to dry his buttocks. They looked very shiny and cleaned. She took long time to clean them. And then not knowing why, she started rubbing her hands on them. His buttocks were not as soft as his other hairy body but they were hot.

She touched his ass hole and started rubbing her fingers on it. Somehow by doing that she was getting horny again. She thought that his whole body was cleaned now after shower so kiss on his buttocks wouldn't harm. She put her legs in between his back legs. Now his ass cheeks were inches away from her face. Nice fresh smell was making her mad. She bent forward and put her lips one of his ass cheek and then on other.

It seemed that her lips got glued to his ass cheeks. They were hot and she didn't want to remove her lips from there. Then her tongue started working on them. She was now kissing and licking them passionately. Gorilla didn't move at all. He was enjoying with this new experience. And then forgetting that it was very nasty she kissed on his ass hole. It was even hotter than ass cheeks. Again her tongue came out and she was licking it and putting her tongue inside it. Her erected tits were rubbing against his large black hot shiny balls and she was getting wetter.

When she realised that she was not getting enough, her right hand moved from one of his buttock to in between his legs. She grabbed his large balls and started stroking them. Other hand moved to his big hard iron shaft which was getting even bigger. Her hand was now going up and down on his big dick. She crossed her legs and was about to cum. His long shaft tip was now rubbing on her upper thigh. She moved forward and pressed his dick towards her hard tits and belly.

Now his big balls were resting on top of her tits and his huge dick was pressing on her belly. The movements of her hands were now getting faster and faster. She was madly kissing and licking his bottom of his balls, his ass cheeks and ass hole and rubbing her whole face on them. Same time when she managed to put her full tongue inside his ass hole, gorilla growled loudly and she felt hot sticky white sperm sprayed all over her tummy and on her inner legs. It was like that someone has opened hot tab on her.

His cum was never ending. And then her climax made her to cum as well. She rubbed his cum all over her tummy and on her boobs and then sucked her soaked hands. Then she bent down and put his dropping dick in her mouth and whatever was left over she swallowed it. She was still holding his dick which was still hard but she didn't have courage to move it up and down.

She moved her hands and crossed her arms around his back and rested her face on his beautiful buttocks and closed her eyes again. After few minutes she got up, had quick shower. Gorilla was now sitting on the floor with closed eyes. After long drive in terrible weather and hard exercise with beast she was feeling too tired and sleepy now. Her king size bed was waiting for her but she didn't want to sleep alone on it. She went to ape and kissed on his big rubbery cheek. Ape opened his tired eyes.

Once again she held his hand and somehow managed to bring him on her big bed which was certainly big enough for both of them. It was completely new experience for beast. He sat down on soft bed. She laughed at him lazily and again she put her arm around his neck and with other hand she pushed him on the bed. Now gorilla was lying on the soft bed. She squeezed herself towards him and her face was buried once again in his hairy chest.

Gorilla put his hairy arms around her which gave Sue more comfort. She never felt so safe and comfortable in her life after her parent's death. She covered them with blanket. Sue got scared for the moment or two that she was in the bed with a beast that can harm her any time but then her tired mind could think anything else and her tired eyes closed and after few moments she was sleeping in beast cozy soft and warm arms.
