BEASTIALITY STORIES

This is my first time every telling this story to anyone. Its my first time and its all true.

I never had much luck with keeping girlfriends and so i went 24 years as a virgin. I knew i wanted my first time to be special but i had no idea it was going to be THIS special.

I was liveing with a friend who owned two female dogs, one little and one great (great dane that is). A few months after moveing in to a spare room with my friend i left my room to grab a bite to eat. I noticed some blood on the floor and wondered what had happen. I asked my friend. "Did you get cut or something?" He replied "No, Why?" I told him that there was some blood on the floor while i pointed at it. He walked over and looked at it and said " Oh, that, thats just from the dogs....its that time for them."

"That time?" I asked...(if you can't tell i was pretty ignorent when it came to the reproductive part of a dog) "Yeah" he said "There in heat"

"Oh, there ready to mate?"

"Yeah, you could say that." he said "But the poor things won't get too. I can't handle puppies right now."

"Why don't you get them fixed then" I asked.

"Don't care to spend that kinda money. As long as they don't get out of the back yard and no males get in the back yard they should be fine."

Just at that moment the great dane walked by me with her tale lifted up. The feeling i had when my eyes caught sight of her swollen vulva made my heart skip a beat. With her butt still toward me and my eyes fixed on her sweet spot she stoped and turned her head to look at me. At that moment I SWEAR her eyes where saying to me "Do you like what you see?" The feeling i got made me feel like jumping on her right then. But i knew i couldn't with my friend still in the house. I knew he would think I was a perv because he has made it very clear to me that sex with anything OTHER then female humans is a major TURN OFF for him.

A couple of days later I was in my room playing a video game and my friend knocks on the door. "Come In" I said.

"Hey it turns out I have to go outta town for a week and I leave tomorrow. Can you feed the dogs while I am gone?" Sure I said with out even realizing at that moment that me and a in heat female dog where going to be left 100% ALONE for a WHOLE week. (And what a week it would be).

The next day came and he was walking out the door just as I was getting up to go to work. "See ya man and don't forget to feed and let the dogs out ok."

"Sure thing man." I said as I walked into the kitchen to see a lovely slinder Great Dane sitting there wagging her tail. She almost never wagged for anyone else unless they had food. So I patted her on the head and said "Your masters gone, Hope you don't mind me takeing care of you." She always seemed to enjoy MY companie more than anyone else's. She would ALWAYS sit with ME over anyone else. I opened a can of dog food and feed both dogs, then went to work.

I got home from work that day stressed out and ready to relax. I was not at ALL thinking about doing what was going to be done that night. And so the weekend was just.....about.....to begin. It was a friday night and i didn't work the weekends so I was in the mood for some fun. I didn't have a GF at the time and I didn't care to go anywhere and didn't realy have the money to anyway. I let the dogs outside so they could take care of there buisness. The little dog never wanted much to do with me so she always stayed as far away as she could. I turned on my computer and checked my e-mail. The only thing i had in the inbox was from BF. I had found this forum a couple years back and enjoyed the things i saw on here. I decided yeah I will log back into that site and snoop around for some things to help turn me on. As the site booted up I let the dogs back in and ran back to my computer.

Still completely unaware that there was a perfectly willing and ready female sitting on the sofa ready for ME to show her a good time, I logged onto BF and started to snoop. The first picture I saw was of a female dog's vulva in heat and THATS when it hit me. "Hey, that looks just like...." I thought as the next pic I saw was of a guy pleasing HIS female dog. "Guys can actually have sex with female dogs?" I thought. "Is it really true or is this some edited picture?" At that moment the Great Dane barked at something and pulled me away from the computer. (And I am glad she did).

I went into the living room to see what she was barking at. As I walked out there I heard people outside making noise. "They must be having another party next door" I thought. As I turned to go back into my room I looked at the Great Dane who was standing at the window with her rear toward me. My eyes stared at her head and moved down her body slowly desiring more and more of her the closer I got to the rear. Her perfect pink vulva was bigger than the first time I had seen it. I instantly saw the picture of the guy pleasing his female dog in my mind and soon found myself moving toward the Great Dane. I knelt down next to her and started petting her on the head. At the feel of my hand she looked at me and licked my cheek and started to wag her tail. I slowly worked my way toward her rear and then down along the back of her back leg. Unsure of what might happen when I started to touch her swollen vulva I grabbed her collar with my other hand and slowly and gently ran my fingers up and down her vulva. The tail didn't stop wagging and she made no motions of being displeased. I then moved my fingers that were petting her vulva and just gently started to run them along the inside of the lips. Taking care to ONLY put the very tip of my finger inside her. I was still unsure of what I was doing and being that I never had sex with anything or anyone before I didn't want to hurt her. Or upset her in some way. I then decided to move into a better spot so that I could see what I was doing. With me sitting right behind her and her tail still wagging with delight at my every touch I spread her open. The smell of an in heat dog is one of the most lovely smells I have ever allowed my nose to partake in. Like a male dog ready to mount she sent me intoxicated. Along with the scent was a warm feeling pouring out of her and I realized at that moment why it's called 'IN HEAT'. I remember reading somewhere (most likely on the BF site) that female dogs who are in heat taste rather good and that anyone who has the chance to at least taste one should do so. The thought of putting my mouth on that area didn't do much for me but I thought "ahhh what the heck, I may never get another chance." So I spread her open again and put my tongue out and moved toward her vulva. I soon found it very hard to take my mouth AWAY from that area of her and she was loving it just as much with her tail going a million wags a second. The taste was ten times better than the smell was. At this point I was VERY turned on and starting to feel some pre-cum drip in my pants. I decided we should take our little fun time into a more comfortable room rather than the hard floor of the living room.

I led her into my bedroom and got a sheet out of the closet so as to not get her hair all over my bed. (It would be hard to explain to my friend why there was dog hair all over my bed.) I didn't have to call her into my room, as she was right by my side tail still wagging and her eyes fixed on me as if to say "Why did you stop? Are we done? I was rather enjoying it out there." A dog's eyes can tell you a lot if you really look at them. I threw the sheet on my bed and closed my bedroom door while she sat next to the bed staring at me. I took off my pants and her gaze went from my face to my penis with a confused look. Almost as if she had never seen a penis of any kind before. Her nostrils started to twitch and soon she was sniffing my pants where a little pre-cum had dripped out. She started to lick the spot and then turned and looked at me again. I wondered if maybe she would lick the source of where the pre-cum came from. I grabbed my penis and called her name to get her attention. Sure enough after a few sniffs her tongue started to work its magic. I soon realized that she liked the taste of ME as much as I liked the taste of HER. At this point I was hard and ready so I patted on the bed and said her name. She jumped up so fast that I figured that was HER way of saying she's ready too. I decided I would let her lay on her back and I would stand as the bed was JUST high enough that her vulva was right at the height of my penis. She let me slide her into position the whole time just looking at me with a look that said "I don't know what we are doing but I trust you." I had to see her hole spread open again. I spread it open and saw that it was WAY wetter then it was before. I took my hard penis and put it up next to her vulva and just slide it up and down the opening. She just laid there on her back and stared at me and started to pant. My pre-cum started to leak out onto her vuvla and started to make the lips slip open alittle. I gently pushed my penis down and slowly pushed forward. Her lips being wet from my and her pre-cum slid open with great ease and ingulfed the head of my penis.

I slowly pulled it back out to see it glistening with her wetness. I slowly pushed it in again with great ease and her lips wrapped around my penis as if they were trying to resist letting it in but had no luck stopping it. Looking at her face she just laid there with a look of pure enjoyment. As if time and everything outside the room stopped. I could see she was in pure pleasure of every little thing. I don't have to tell you that I was enjoying it just as much. The house could be on fire for all I cared...nothing was going to ruin this night. And that was her thoughts as well. I slowly pushed my penis in again, this time it slide further in then before and this time I saw her legs slowly start to twitch. As if I was hitting a sweet spot that felt better then anything else. I looked at her face again and now her eyes were closed and her pants were getting faster. I slowly pulled my penis out alittle and slowly pushed it back in. It slid all the way in and for the first time I realized that it was very warm inside her. I pulled it out and pushed it back in alittle faster then before all the while her legs twitching and her pants rising. She made no attempts to move and made no sounds of discomfort so I decided to try going alittle faster.

I thrust it in and pulled it out then followed through again. As I pushed I noticed that she was getting all the more wetter. I started to think "Is she coming? CAN female dogs even come?" My mind quickly stopped wondering as my penis was wetter and wetter everytime I pulled it out. Only to thrust it back in. I started to hear slurping sloping sounds as it slid in and out. The warm liquid from within her was making my penis pulse with pleasure. I couldn't stop even if I wanted to. I had to keep pushing in and out. I could feel my seed getting ready to fill her. I looked down and watch my penis slide in and out and saw how her lips seem to wrap around every part of my penis as if now it didn't want to let me out. Finally I couldn't hold it any more and while still thrusting I released my seed inside her. Even after I released my seed I couldn't stop thrusting. I kept thrusting alittle longer then realized I was tired and done. I pulled it out and watched my seed spill out like a water balloon that's full before you tie it off. She laid there for a sec then rolled over and sat up spilling out even more of my seed on to my bed. I saw her bend over and start licking herself clean as if she didn't like the thought of letting the taste go to waste. She cleaned herself and the puddle of cum off my bed that had poured out of her. I sat down on the floor outta breath and tired. When she was done cleaning her self she saw it fit to then clean me. "You don't have to do that" I said to her. She ignored me though. My penis still being even MORE sensitive to touch now made the licking feel even MORE pleasing then before. I sat there petting her as she cleaned me better then I ever could in the shower, her tail wagging in pure delight.

Every night for the rest of that week me and her had LOTS of fun. I think she liked it the best when she was standing and I was sitting in a chair behind her pulling her backwards and pushing her forwards as my penis slid in and out with every pull and push. During that one all she could do was look over her shoulder and stare at me with those eyes that say SO much when you really look at them. This time her eyes said "Thank you SO much for moving into this house."

I lived with my friend for a couple of years and then found out that I had to move to a different city. It hurts when you have to say good by to someone you love. I saw their sadness in her eyes when she saw me leaving. I kissed her on the head and whispered into her ear "I love you". Her tail wasn't wagging that day. I wonder if dogs KNOW certain things. I mean I know there are smart animals but did she really KNOW I was leaving for good. I can't go see her anymore cause me and my friend got into a fight. And now he doesn't want to see me anymore, which also means I can't see the girl that took my virginty in such a magical week. I have had sex with female humans sinse then and love that JUST as much...in fact I would LOVE to find a girl who is ok with me loveing HER and the female Great Dane I will have one day. But not meany girls out there around the age of 25 that want a guy like me.

Oh well, I will be looking foward to the day I get that Great Dane of mine. And I hope REALLY REALLY hope she enjoys sex with me as much as my first did.

Well there it is. My first time EVER haveing sex and I wouldn't change it for a second.
