Sandra is a very friendly and energetic 30 year old women, most men want her as she oozes sexuality. She is blond with green eyes and has a 34-C cup. She has a natural way of tuning on any man or lesbian. She is not really a lesbian herself but does participate sexually with other members of our ladies-only club when our meetings turn into a K9 & lesbian orgy. I have had her pussy twice and she tastes wonderful. She has a beautiful tattoo of a dragon stretching from her inner right thigh, up her right side and around to her left shoulder on her back. This is her story:

Two years ago I was given a holiday get away to the Portuguese Islands for two by a close friend of mine who works in holiday time-share. The company had to fill certain hotels and resort rooms to meet their quota and so I was one of the lucky ones who got it free (it pays to know someone on the inside). I did have to pay for a few things myself but it was less than I would have paid going on a local weekend holiday, well worth it I thought. I took my best friend Gillian with and we had a wonderful time from the moment we landed. The trip only included two nights and three days but we planned to make the most of it. Gillian met a guy on the second day that she fell for really quickly, he wined and dined her until romance was coming out of her ears. This left me alone the rest of that afternoon and I expected it would the following day as well. Gillian came to the room around 9pm and grabbed a few things to spend the night with this guy. I decided to go out and enjoy myself without her. I joined a party close by and found a hunk of my own to keep me company and buy me drinks. By 1am I decided to have a little fun with him so we went to the beach for a walk on the sand in the warm night's breeze. When we were completely alone, we sat down and made out like high school kids, I put my hand on his dick and felt he was ready for action. I unzipped his trousers and began to give him a blowjob to tease him for the main event but to my disappointment he came quite easily and then deserted me on the beach. He didn't leave because he was an asshole, he left because he was embarrassed. Now I felt quite depressed, I was alone again, I put in all my effort with this guy and wasn't going to go through that from scratch with another guy. So I began to walk alone on the moonlit beach. I had been walking for several minutes when I heard familiar sounds coming from behind some rocks up ahead. I could clearly hear a woman's moans of pleasure above the sound of the sea. So I went closer and peered over the rock. There was Gillian getting muffed by her new lover. They were both completely naked and were lost in the moment. They had sex in many positions while I watched and it took about 45 minute from when I started watching until they were done. Gillian had told me on many occasions that she would never try anal sex but this guy gave her an orgasm doing that to her. With her new lover still plugged into her as they lay there recovering from their heated session, I walked over to her and said

"Well that was entertaining"

Her lover looked at me and laughed. Gillian was embarrassed and I'm sure she was blushing even though I couldn't see it in the dim light. I love sex in every way, if I can't have it I'll masturbate, if I can't do that then I'll watch or do both. Needless to say I was totally turned on by what I had just seen. I turned and continued my stroll along the beach. As I walked I thought of the excitement I feel when I know I could get caught and started imagining it was me being watched the way I just watched Gillian. It got to a point where I was so horny that I decided I would get myself off and maybe someone would watch me. I leaned my back against a fallen tree between some rocks and slid my hand passed my waist band, into my panties and began to masturbate with passion. I thought that if anyone had to be spying on me they wouldn't be seeing much, so I got naked and resumed masturbating. Finally I heard someone walking on the sand close by and my heart started racing, I spread my legs open some more and watched closely to see whoever it was come around the rock that hid me and see how they would react to what I was doing. I imagined a big, strong man finding me and ravishing me in ways I had only dreamed. I held my breath at the last second before this person would appear and when I saw him I was already close to orgasm. But it wasn't a man, it was an enormous white Great Dane. I felt so silly as this big beast approached me that I stopped masturbating and gave him a pat on the head.

"You're not what I was expecting. I wanted a good hard fuck by a big strong man"

I picked up my clothes and started putting them on. As I raised my arms up and let my top slide over my head, I could just make out the outline of this dog through the partially see-through material. He came closer and started sniffing my pussy. I froze as I felt tingles of sexual anticipation burning in my pussy. For a moment I just stood there and hoped that something would happen. Nothing happened, so I let my top slide on the rest of the way and thought that I was crazy for those thoughts in that moment

"I must be horny, who thinks that way?"

As I bent down to put my panties on, the dog licked his chops and stared at me. I felt a twinge in my pussy again, so I left my panties off and leaned against the tree again. I spread my legs open and shoved four fingers inside my cunt and then stretched my dripping hand out to the beast. He sniffed it and then started licking my fingers clean. My pussy began to spasm at the thought of that rough, long and powerful tongue giving me pleasure. Slowly I pulled my hand closer to my crotch until the dog was licking my fingers while touching my pussy, I slowly moved my hand out of the way and felt his tongue make contact as it slid between my pussy lips. My pussy was aching for attention and I was now getting it from a dog. I like being naughty with sex so having a dog lick my pussy made me feel very naughty. The dog licked me to a satisfying orgasm and I had to stop him as he didn't stop on his own. I kneeled down facing him to let him lick my face so that I could taste myself on his tongue. As his tongue slid into my mouth I felt my pussy twitch again, I wanted more and more I would get. I have had sex on the beach before and it can be uncomfortable if the sand gets in between, so I slid the rest of my clothes on and called the dog to follow me to find a comfortable spot to fuck. We hurried up the beach a little further until I found a grassy picnic spot, covered by trees and surrounded by shrubs just next to the beach. I wasted no time taking my clothes off and letting this gigantic dog lick me some more. As he licked my pussy I looked around for the best spot to fuck. I decided to bend over the picnic table with my forearms on the table and let him have his way with me from behind. When I did the big dog continued to lick, I wanted to fuck so I decided to try getting him aroused. I turned round and kneeled next to him and looked for his cock. My mouth dropped open when I saw the size of his dick, it must have been 10 inches long and thicker than any man I have ever fucked. I had to taste it, so I moved my head under him and took his meat in my mouth as deep as I could. My body was reacting to this new level of naughtiness and I had to get that cock inside me. Sucking his dick made him start humping which knocked me over. As I got myself up off the floor, I found myself on my hands and knees which was what this big boy wanted. He was so big that he had to squat a bit to reach my pussy with his fabulous cock. When he did I had to help him into my burning cunt. First penetration is one of my favourite parts about sex, and this time it sent me into an immediate orgasm

"OH.... MY.... GAWD!"

This dog was a fucking machine, he hammered me so hard and fast I had trouble breathing. Eventually he came inside me which sent me into the greatest orgasm of my life. Right at that moment Gillian appeared out of nowhere with her lover in the shadows

"Now THAT was entertaining"

I love being watched while I fuck and that sent my orgasm to an even higher level. Gillian and her lover stayed while I was tied to the dog and they fucked in front of me while we waited for the dog cock to release me. The following day Gillian told me that her lover had paid for an extended stay for both of us

“I think he wants some more of what he had and saw last night” She said with a wicked smile on her face “Just remember, next time I get the beast and you get the human”

we giggled and made our way to his place.
