BEASTIALITY STORIES

Two weeks ago we got our newest member, her name is Rachael and she is 19 years old. Her discovery of the K9 sex world happened very recently. Whenever it is possible I compare the ladies in our club to famous people and Rachael has a striking resemblance to Hayden Panettiere (Google her). Rachael is 5'2, is slim, has green eyes, long blond hair and a 32B bust. I haven't seen her naked myself yet, but I think it'll happen sooner rather than later. I recorded her story and put it onto 'paper' at our last meeting. This story is short and sweet, enjoy!

My father bought me a male Cane Corso, who I named Cane, for one of my birthdays. He wanted a guardian with me when I was alone at home because it often happened that he would work very late and sometimes go on business trips for up to a week at a time. I was very happy with the puppy as I wanted a dog for as long as I could remember. When we moved to the city at the beginning of this year, my father enrolled Cane at Jen and Emma's K9 training school so that we could continue to make sure he knew his place and would protect me if necessary. I take Cane every Wednesday to the K9 School in the afternoon. Cane is almost 3 years old now and is a handsome, well-built and obedient dog. I take him wherever I can so we spend a lot of time together. When I heard and read about the other ladies in the K9 club first time stories, for most of them it was unplanned and unexpected. That is not the case for me, I had been thinking about it for a long time. When we first moved to the city, I felt very alone and had only Cane for companionship which led to me thinking about it a lot more. I never actually did anything about it, I only fantasised about it when I masturbated. About three months ago I decided it was time to take the step, I was going to go through with it and so I decided to not just look at the K9 sex pictures and videos online but to visit 'How to' sites and educate myself.

That Sunday my father said goodbye as he left early that day to catch a plane to do business elsewhere in the country, I knew that I would take the three days he would be away to explore my K9 desires. When I was sure he was gone, I went outside to the pool to find Cane. He was sleeping so I decided not to bother him but get myself horny thinking about fucking him and do it when he woke up. I got into a bikini and sat on a lawn chair to sunbathe as I fantasised with my eyes closed. The images in my mind gave me a rock hard nipple stand and made my pussy very wet and warm. I couldn't help but touch myself as I daydreamed. My legs were spread over the sides of the chair as I rubbed my pussy through the bikini material. Cane surprised me when I felt him lick my thigh, I sat up and felt very excited when I saw he was already showing interest. Cane sniffed my wet crotch for far too long, I was becoming desperate for contact with his tongue. With one finger I pulled the bikini material to one side exposing my pussy to Cane, he continued to sniff, so I lowered myself in the chair which pushed my pussy in his direction. Now my pussy was only millimetres away from his snout

"Come on Cane, just lick it already"

Finally the feeling I was so desperately craving and what I had fantasised about for such a long time happened. Cane licked my pussy with one long, powerful stroke. He only stopped because I couldn't control the reaction of my body. I arched my back and made a high-pitched sound that startled him

"It's ok, I like it my boy. Lick me again"

Cane started sniffing again as I prepared myself for the next lick, I was determined to be still and not make sounds that would startle him so that he wouldn't stop again. Cane's tongue came out and swiped through my pussy slit. I managed to contain myself and he kept on going. His tongue was all over the place, licking every part of my pussy and I loved it. My legs were spread as far as they would go and Cane was quickly picking up the pace. Cane stopped for a second so I took the opportunity to remove my bikini bottom and then tapped Cane on the head telling him what a good boy he was. I sat back again in the same position and tapped on my pussy

“Here boy, lick me. Come on boy, lick me”

Cane came forward again and started licking. I had the biggest smile on my face that I ever had, Cane was pleasing me better than I had fantasied. I could feel an orgasm approaching but it was far too soon so I stood up and told Cane what a good boy he was again and went into the pool house with him so we could have some more fun. I removed my bikini top as well and got on my knees, Cane loves it when I'm down on his level, he circles me pushing against me as he tries to get me to rub him. Cane's tale was wagging as he licked my face, I opened my mouth and let his tongue go inside and it made contact with my tongue and inner cheeks. This gave me goose bumps but also made me even hornier. Cane licked my face and mouth for a while and then started licking my neck as he made his way down to my breasts. I held my breast in my hand and moved it so that he would lick my nipple and it was wonderful. Cane then licked my stomach until he found my pussy again and focussed his efforts between my legs. I lay down on the rug with my knees bent and wide apart. Cane was doing such a wonderful job. I spread my pussy lips to give him access to inside my cunt and he went for it with enthusiasm. That's when I looked between his legs and noticed his dick sticking out. I began to shift my position and shifted myself till his hind legs were next to my head, then I grabbed him and pushed him to the side so he was standing over me in a 69 position. Cane didn't skip a beat as he continued to lick my pussy. In this position Cane's tongue was stimulating my clit all the time which sent shock waves of pleasure right through me, it also meant that his dick was directly above my face swaying from side to side as his tail wagged wildly. I grabbed his dick and started jerking him off. Cane stopped licking and turned to see what I was doing. I looked Cane in the eye as I slipped his growing cock into my mouth. Cane started humping which made it difficult to suck his gorgeous dick, so I stopped and got out from under him

“Lie down Cane, I wanna blow you. I promise you'll enjoy it, lie down”

Cane lay down on his side so I took his leg and lifted it to get to his penis. I took that cock back into my mouth and began to suck and bob my head, this act made me feel very dirty, the way that excites a girl not disgusts her. Cane was obviously enjoying it but I think I was enjoying the deviant act even more. I lifted my leg and positioned my pussy right in front of Canes snout and while I continued to suck his dick he gave me one more lick that sent my horniness to new heights. It was time to complete this act, I needed his cock inside me. I turned around and straddled his amazing body as I lowered my pussy to meet the K9 cock I was holding in my hand. I slid his very thick cock into my cunt as deep as it would go and it filled me up to my limits. Slowly I started riding his cock and gradually picked up speed. His cock was slipping in and out of me in a comfortable fucking rhythm when he suddenly yelped just a little. I stopped immediately and climbed off his throbbing cock. Cane stood up and I was concerned that I might have hurt him, but this was not the case. Cane wanted to mount and he pushed me with his chest as he tried to grip me with his front paws

“OK boy, I'll get into position for you”

I turned onto my hands and knees and Cane immediately climbed on. He had dead accurate aim as I didn't have to guide his cock into me he went in on the second thrust. It was so amazing to get fucked with that amount of energy and speed, he was unstoppable. In a few seconds I was coming and Cane was trying to get even deeper into my cunt. Then I felt his knot slide into me, oh what a feeling. Just when my earth shattering orgasm subsided Cane released a flood of molten fluids into the depths of my cunt and womb, it felt so good. His come started dripping out of me as he continued to fill me up. All I wanted now was a complete tie like I read about on those internet sites and I got my wish. When Cane was done pumping his semen into me he stopped humping and just rested on my back. I lowered my chest to the floor so he would stand above me and I didn't have to support his heavy weight. He tried a couple of times to dislodge himself but we were tied good and proper. We remained that way for over 15 minutes before I felt his cock slip out of my very sensitive cunt. I lay down and rolled onto my back while Cane licked himself. He came over to me and licked my pussy clean too and then licked my face as he wagged his tail. Those three days, home alone with Cane was something I'll never forget.

Two weeks ago Emma approached me and I got invited to the Ladies K9 sex club, I have been twice now and got to see other ladies fuck their dogs too. I asked Jade if I can fuck her Great Dane Giant and said I can but then she and Allison will join in and so this coming weekend I am going to have my first lesbian experiences while fucking their big boy, I can't wait.
