BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2011 by Jane the bitch Adams

I meet my husband Tony a little over four years ago at our local dogging spot in the west of England, he had been dogging for a few years. A friend had talked me into coming along and have a look at what goes on and I have always been sex mad. The people were friendly in the most part and I had a good time watching people have sex in their cars and bushes in a car park off the m4.

I had got talking to Tony and we laughed and joked about sex and hit it off that first night, he did asked me for sex that night but I was nervous and said no. We arranged to meet next week weather permitting and we did meet and have sex on a picnic table. It was great fun and we continued to do this over the summer and in doing so became great friends and fell in love.

We keep going back and fucking on the picnic table and stayed in contact with our friends. Tony and I would put a show on for the single guys and I acted as slutty as possible and fuck tony until he cum inside my pussy. After I would sit on the end of the table and play with the cum running out of my cunt.

People watching had to ask Tony if they wanted to fuck me because we had decided to ask each other to have intercourse with other people. Tony doesn't let many guys fuck me we had to like them and they had to were a rubber. But I could suck as much cock as I wanted when I wanted and did every weekend for the last four years.

This brings me to the point for me writing this letter, one mid week dogging session me and tony had fucked I was messing around on the table wearing thigh high boots mini skirt and a boob tube. Tony was off talking to a friend David about his new car. There were a few people about but someone was putting a show on in their car and I was left with two young lads that were a bit shy and a bloke with a large dog I don't know what type of dog it was.

It was black with a whit spot on it neck and just sat next to the man who was wanking slowly looking at me. I asked if he wanted a hand with that and he came over and I sat on the bench and started to suck on his average size cock. After a few minutes the dog pushed his nose into my pussy and licked up a little sperm, I stopped sucking the man's cock and pushed the dog away and the man told the dog to sit and so I carried on enjoying his stiff pick.

Then the dog tried to lick me again and the bloke says, "I think he likes you love."

I replied, "I think your right," and pushed him away again.

Well after that the dog would not leave me alone and the man says to me why not let him lick you; you never know you might like it. So I did and carried on again sucking his juicy knob. Well I have to say I loved it and so did the dog because he kept licking me hard and when the man shot his load in my mouth a few moments later I came so hard on the dogs tongue.

After that I just sat on the bench being licked by the dog and being watched be the two young lads and then more people came over to see what I was doing. Tony came back after chatting and saw what I was doing and was a little freaked out, told me that we were going home and we rowed all the way home.

I replied that it was doing no harm and that it felt good but Tony was not happy about it and we stopped talking for a few days. But in the end he admitted the thought had turned him on and that he had felt shocked at first. I asked my husband if I could do it again and he said it would be okay, but that he must be present.

So the next week we went back to our picnic table and fucked again and the dog man was there again. I gave him a blow job and the dog licked me out to a lovely orgasm and again after sat on the bench loving the dog licking me. There were about ten or fifteen watching me with their camera phones out I put my sunglasses on and carried on enjoying dog lick love.

The dog kept jumping up on me and finally I asked, "What's wrong with him?"

Gary, the dog man said, "He wants to fuck you."

His big and I mean very big dog cock was out and at that point got scared and asked him to take the dog away. Tony said on the way home, "Did you not think that the dog would want to fuck you?"

It had not even crossed my mind until that moment.

I could not think of anything else over that week and by Friday just wanted to fuck a dog. And again I asked Tony if I could do it and his answer was, "I was hoping you would ask because I really want to see you fuck that dog."

Friday night again being licked and sucking the man's cock and then the dog starts jumping up and Tony says right get on all fours you little bitch and fuck that beast. So on all fours in my thigh high boots mini skirt boob tube and up jumps the dog his dick jabbing around my pussy and arse.

I think people had talked about me and there must have been thirty or forty people there watching me get mounted by this huge dog, I was a little worried but just so turned on. Then all of a sudden his prick found my cunt and rammed it home with the most force and I was pushed face first in the grass and got muddy. I screamed hard as it fuck me so fast and his cock was getting bigger and bigger and filling up and up and my screams turned to lots of small grunts.

Just when I thought I was full of cock I let out a massive scream as a huge lump entered me. "Oh Tony! He's SO BIG! And he just got even bigger than when his knot entered me! Oh, what fucking knot!" I didn't even know dogs had a knot. "Oh my god! I'm cumming!"

The thrusts got a little slower but the cock was still growing inside me I felt faint after Cumming so hard. I managed to look up to faces around me and they looked as shocked as me, and looking up a guy came over a came all over my face. The dog stopped moving and started to cum and throb and twitch inside hitting my G spot and from this point a cum continually.

The dog was locked and a few minutes later turned from being on my back to facing away from me, still pumping me full of dog cum. This went on for about half an hour and slowly his cock softened and I was free of him, and my god I was full of cum and covered in stranger's jizz from head to toe.

Feeling his hot cock twitch inside me for so long left me so tired and faint but felt totally satisfied. At least half the men that watched me came over me calling a dirty bitch and I loved it.

Now people bring their dogs to me on a Friday night to fuck me and I have tried all kinds and you can see me on the internet if you look in the right places.
