BEASTIALITY STORIES

"Shhhh! My mother may be asleep, wait out here while I check. "Whispered Shelly to her two male companions.

"Okay." Carl whispered. Carl Fields grinned knowingly at Greg Sullivan, as the two of them sat down in the darkened hallway outside the Burnside's front door.

They started talking about the exhibition she had just put on. What they had seen in the movie was nothing like what Shelly had just accomplished. They talked about getting a camcorder next time she was over "taking care of the dogs" and make a movie of there own.

'Man I wish I had a dick the size of one that that Great Dane's got. Then maybe Shelly would suck me off, just thinking about her sucking on that gigantic thing gives me a hard-on.' Said Carl.

'Me too, and man can Shelly ever suck a cock, it looked like she liked sucking that Great Danes cock better than her mother sucked my cock. Maybe she would take him on again. Agreed Greg. Maybe we should have brought him along too?'

'Yah! Do ya think Shelly's mother does the same thing?' Asked Carl.

'I don't know.' Said Greg. 'I sure hope so. All I know is I need to fuck something real soon this jacking off shit is for the birds. Watching Shelly suck on a big dog cock, while Candy sucks me off would be great.'

Shelly closed the door, but left it unlocked, so that the two college students could come inside, when she determined that the coast was clear. Kaiser should present no problem to the healthy young individuals in either case, since one was the dog's trainer and former master, and the other one was at least familiar to him. "All three young people had decided that it would be better if Shelly went in alone first, just to see what the situation was."

After all, it was about five thirty in the morning, it was the longest that Shelly had ever stayed out on a date in her life. Additionally, it was the first time she had ever done quite what she had done tonight. Although from now on she knew she was not going to be so prudish, as she licked her sex ravished lips tasting the residue of her exotic sexual entertainment. Her well used pussy vibrated with the thought of what she had done with high hopes of doing it again real soon.

It started right after the movie was over. Carl had driven them to a liquor store not far from the Triple X movie house and picked up some vodka and mixers as well as a couple six packs of beer. Then they had taken the still slightly hesitant buxom young redhead back to their house, just to meet young Klamath and King, Kaiser's two "little" brothers. Shelly felt a little more at ease with her mother's young friends, after a few drinks of her first alcohol since she sneaked some of her mother's wine a year ago. She freely discussed the things that went on in the movie.

King came in and sprawled out next to Shelly. Cautiously her slender young hand reached forward to touch behind his ears and he rolled over on to his back. As she spoke she gradually, almost imperceptibly she slid her hand down his chest and began rubbing his tummy, slowly moving her fingers towards furry sheath that housed his cock. She remembered what Kaiser's cock felt like and began to get physically stimulated by the thing she was doing and saying.

"Oh, yes," Shelly slurred drunkenly. "I know that dogs can sexually tempt women and women can have a forbidden love affair with dogs. Just like in that movie, I have felt that same sexual sensualness towards my own dog. You know; Kaiser, the dog you sold to my Mother," she added by way of explanation, just as her fingers closed around the furry casing that was concealing King's bestial cock. He spread his legs giving Shelly complete access to his swelling animal appendage.

King recalled that the little human female next door liked to play with his dick and was hoping that this human female liked doing the same.

Shelly's moved hand lightly about the dog's cock not knowing how the animal would react to her touch.

"Yeah?" Greg prompted lasciviously. "You mean you and Kaiser have had sex together?" Having six beers in the space of a half of an hour made the student quite blunt, and a lot less nervous than he had been at the theater. They could see the half of Kings crimson cock poking out as Shelly hand massaged the hairy holster.

"Oooh Yes." Shelly demurrer as she watched her hand caressing King's growing cock. "Well, last night we did. For the first time we fuck last night, before that he had only licked my cunt.

As Shelly licked her lips, her hand continuing stroking King's growing crank. Through an alcohol induced foggy haze she did not feel the secretive shame or embarrassment with the two young men that she felt last night. Perhaps alcohol and the presence of Kaisers two sibling subtlety put her at ease, they were both so much like her own pet.

Shelly continued to massage Kings swelling shaft. How much alike she was hoping to soon find out, as she continued to play with the dog's swelling cock. She didn't recall how long she talked to the two students whom her mother had befriended. What she does remember was the point at which they acted as if they did not believe what she was saying, with the idea of getting her to prove it.

"Oh, come on, Shelly," Carl said with a pretended sneer as he watched Shelly's hand tugging on King's now more than man size cock. "You expect us to believe you've done what Cecilia did in the film that you fucked a dog? I thought you were some kind of virgin."

"I was." Shelly insisted, "But not anymore, I didn't take in my ass like she did (not yet anyway). First he licked my cunt, and then I let him fuck me with his big hard cock! Oohhh! It was so heavenly too feeling his big powerful cock sliding in and out of my pussy. It makes my pussy ache for more dog cock just thinking about it." She said. As she started using both hands to stroke up and down Kings big stiffing, swelling shaft.

"Well, I don't believe it." Greg said winking knowingly at Carl as they watched Shelly continue to take pleasure from toying with King's growing javelin. One hand stayed pumping the lengthening member while the other fondled the sperm weighted balls.

"I don't think it's really possible for a woman to be fucked by a dog. The crank on that dog was immense; that movie was just trick photography." Carl said. As he watched Shelly's hand caressing King's enlarging member.

"I think Kaisers cock was almost as big if not bigger than that dog's cock in the movie. I bet I've gotten King's cock just as big. What too see?" Said Shelly. She held King's 8 inches of throbbing crimson cock up for them to see. The once sexual inhibited young girl then let go of King's swollen cock and eagerly stood up and began to strip off her skirt.

Shelly laughed nervously. As she realized that she must be more than a little bit drunk to do what she was planning do, but the realization did not stop her from continuing with her doggedly salacious scheme. She would show them what a dog's big bestial cock could do to a woman pussy.

Both Carl and Greg watched with bated breath as she boldly removed her halter-top, letting her melon size young breasts sway joyously in newfound freedom. The two roommates exchanged hopeful glances. As they licked their lips hoping too much on those fruitful tits.

Shelly applied herself to her thin passion soaked panties. She slid out of them with as little emotional effort as is required to brush her teeth.

"Holy it shit!" Greg sputtered uncontrollably, when Shelly stood proudly in the middle of the living room in all her naked glory. She began by finger her juicy cunt through light wisp of reddish pubic hair then kneaded her melonous young breasts. She pulled and twisted their strikingly bright pink nipples, till they were swollen to the size of silver dollars.

Shelly said with audacity. "Okay! I will show you, that I did too do it with a dog. I will show you that a dog can too fuck a girl, by doing it with one of your own dogs. That's if you really want to watch me being fucked by one of your dogs? Do you really want to see one your dog's huge ardent cock fill up my dripping pussy with hot delicious dog cum? While her thumb and forefinger abuse her wet pink clit. She was longing for them to say yes.

"Yes Shelly. Prove it. Show us how your dog fucked you. We want to see your pussy get fucked by a big dog cock! "That's if you really want too." Carl interrupted.

They both stood up and remove all their cloths as well. The two young men's cocks were just as hard as King's just not as big. They sat back down fisting their stiff meat as they watched the licentious show Shelly was putting on for them.

"Of course I do! I really do want it. I'd love to let your handsome dog ram his big cock between my cunt lips deep into my pussy! Just don't try and stop me!" The girl snapped back. Proving she was more than eager for more dog cock. Neither Carl nor Greg could have summon up the will power even if they wanted, to prevent her from giving them even more of a unbelievable show than the movie they had watched earlier. They sat there mesmerized, as the now naked young teenage girl knelt beside Kings eagerly upturned belly.

Shelly reached once more for his mouth-watering trumpet, becoming even more spellbound by his huge appetizing prick. She moistened her lips as she used both hands to pump vigorously on the hairy jacket encasing the red cock, causing it to extent out even more. She lowered her head to get a better view of King's tantalizing pole.

Shelly could see drops of pearly animal pre-semen slowly surging forth from its pointed tip. "Oooh goody doggie cum! I've never tasted any kind of cum before let alone doggie cum. I want to gobble up your cum! I want you to be the first cock I'll ever suck (but not the last).

Shelly would not be the first human female to suck his cock. The little female next door would suck his cock, and then she would let him mount her just like she was a female dog. Maybe this female would let him do the same. I first want to suck a load of luscious cum from you, then I'll let you fuck me." Shelly said to the dog's big cock as her hands whipped furiously up and down the swollen frothy dog cock making more mouth-watering pre- cum flow from the silted opening in its tip.

She moistens her lips again and moved them to the crown of the succulent slab of meat. Reaching out with her tongue Shelly scooped up a long drop of glistening pre- cum. Holding it there for the young men to see and then swallowing it.

Murmuring a little as it slid over her tongue and down her throat. She proceeded to slip the fiery red tubing between her eager lips, licking and sucking on nearly all of its magnificent length.

"Unum! "Your hot gooey doggie cum tastes so deliciously salty!" She cooed to the cock as she pulled it from her lips for minute to catch her breath. She then again slipped the twitching massive cock between her cherry red lips and swallowed it deep into her gullet, savoring the taste of its burning brackish juices.

She sucked the dog's big prick deeper and deeper down her previously virgin throat making his thick cock even thicker. King soon was trying to fuck her face, uncontrollably pistoning his cock in and out of her red voluptuous lips bumping the back of her throat. This caused her to gag a little at first, until she got use to a cock caressing her tonsils.

What Shelly could not fit in her mouth she enticed with the fingers of one hand, while the other hand rolled his cum filled balls like pair of dice? For someone who had not sucked a cock before she was doing a damn good job. Greg and Carl saw King's knot swell up even more and they knew he was about to cum.

Shelly continued siphoning on King's inhuman cock even as it shot one huge load of scalding briny dog cum after another down her gullet. His knot swelled up more as he shot load after load of hot pungent dog seed deep into her welcoming orifice.

She was having trouble swallowing all of his hot seed. He was shooting so much cum that it flowed from her edges of her lips (some even coming out her nose) onto her hands forming small milky streamlets.

The two young men could see Shelly's lips and tongue working expertly on the huge spurting cock. Her cheeks indented as she nursed doggedly on the hound's spewing prick. They could hear him whine as Shelly tried to relieve him of every last drop of bitter sizzling dog cum.

Carl and Greg were cumming too, shooting loads of creamy human cum all over their pumping fists, letting it run down over their balls. Their cocks stayed hard so they keep right on pumping their meat as Shelly continued on with her cuckoldry show.

Shelly pulled Kings succulent shaft from her lips with a popping sound. A drop of creamy canine semen dangled from her lower lip, she licked the tip of his succulent canine cock and his balls clean of yummy dog cum then licked the brackish canine cum from her hands.

Shelly licked her lips and swallowed the last of the brackish cream, savoring it pungency as she did so.

When Shelly finely let go of his cock, King got up and moved around behind her. He got up onto her back and wrapped his forelegs around her rib cage. Probing clumsily he tried to find her cunt hole with his thick cock. He knew she had one, it was just that she was a different size than some the other human females he had fucked. She finely had reached between her thighs and guides his hard dog cock into her dripping insatiable orifice.

Once the hound's cock felt the warmth of her sex hungry nookie, he speared it, sliding his big hot dong, marinated with dog semen and human spit deep into her human sex tunnel. Brutally his scorching cock stretched her cunt lips apart as it slid deeper and deeper into the young tight cock hungry pussy.

Shelly begged King to fuck her. "That it fuck me King, fuck me like your brother did last night, spear me with your huge hot shaft. Make me cum, OH! Please make cum again!" The dog started fucking her as if she was some lustful bitch in heat. Her youthful melon-shaped breasts swaying to and fro with the motion of Kings fucking.

The two young men could hear his hard cock plunging in and out of her grasping cunt. Their eyes bulged as they watched Shelly give herself over completely to the eager inhuman lust of the animal. She was crying for more as King worked all of his enormous cock deeply in and out of her greedy pussy.

"That's it! Fuck me King! Fuck my pussy! Give me your entire hot beastly dog prick! Fill my cunt up with your sizzling hot doggy seed! Ohhh! Please fuck me!" Shelly pleaded.

The two students watched King's cock slithered speedily in and out of Shelly's tight young cunt. They could hear her grunt every time King plugged her cunt with his big dog cock. The air around them was hot with the sweet smell of animal sex.

Klamath seeing, hearing and smelling all that sex going on, wanted some action too, and moved over to stand in front of Shelly his hard cock quivering. Shelly saw the dog's big crimson skin flute in front of her dog cum already dripping from its red shovel shaped tip. She gave a small cry "I want to eat the cum from your lovely dog cock too!"

Shelly dived headfirst (or lip's first) under the dog, capturing his fiery scarlet prick between her lips, sucking it deep into her throat. As soon as Klamath felt her lips around his cock, he started humping her face. He fucked her face as if her mouth was some kind of hot throbbing cunt. She had one hand over Klamath back, while the other one was on the floor. This helped the dog to slide his big cock between her hot fiery lips all the way to the knot. The dogs were acting as if they had done this kind of thing before.

That is because they have, Shelly was not the first human female that these two dogs had fuck at the same time.

The two young men could not believe that both Klamath and King had mounted Shelly at the same time. King was slamming his sinuous scarlet canine cock doggedly into her tight sex hungry cunt. Klamath was doing the same at the other end, fucking his hard crimson dog cock deep into her devouring mouth. She gurgled in immoral excitement as she took Klamath dog cock all the way.

Hot dog semen was soon running in torrents from both her cunt and mouth. It seemed that she could not get enough of the dogs steeping brackish broth. When the two dogs had stopped cumming they traded places. She sucked and fucks both dogs over and over again for more than two hours. The boys tried to take the place of the dogs but Shelly said "NO!" I only wanted big dog cocks.

"Maybe we should go out and get the other dogs as well." Said Carl. "There are two more male dogs for you out in the kennel if you want them. A Great Dane and a Doberman."

Ohh! Yes! Said Shelly. 'Just what I need more dog cock "King had grown tired and went to rest and Klamath looked as he was on his last legs as well." When Klamath was done she crawled over to the Great Dane.

The Great Dane was so tall Shelly could sit under him. She lifted his cock and closed her lips around the end. She had trouble at first with the Great Dane. His big cock made the other dog's cock seem small. It must have been over 10 inch long. She could only fit a little over half of it in her mouth. So she jacked on the other half with both hands.

Shelly used both hands to pump his heated cum deep into her mouth. They could see the dogs cum running out of her mouth down her chin onto her mammoth tits as she continued nursing on his huge cock. When the Dane had stopped cumming Shelly sat there rubbing the dog's cum all over her magnificent melons.

Shelly rolled over onto hands and knees and called the Dane over. 'Come here big boy and fuck my cunt with that heinousness dog cock of yours.' He moved around behind Shelly and mounted her. Shelly's head fit between the Dane's front legs, she could not move forward as she did with the other dogs. The Dane held her tightly around her head and fucked her with such wild abandon that she had to hold onto his front legs for support. The guy's could hear her moan as the Great Dane slid his huge cock deep into her creamy cunt. Even with all the fucking she just received it was still a tight fit.

"Ooh!" Whimpered Shelly. 'It feels as if I got a baseball bat up my cunt.' "If it gets any bigger he'll split me in two." It did get bigger, but it did not split her in two.

The dog stood over her sliding his sex-ravished cock in and out her steamy gash. Then he just stood there locked in Shelly's cunt, hot creamy dog cum pouring into, then out of her heated pussy. Hot dog cum was gurgling out of her cunt lips, literally streaming down her legs. After the his knot went down he able to pulled his cock free, he moved off and lay down in the corner to rest.

The Doberman came over to Shelly. Her ass was pretty close to the floor as she was resting for the first time in hours. He began to lick her clean of dog cum. First he licked the cum from her cunt down her legs even the floor. Shelly rolled over onto her back so he could lick her titties. She French kissed him and sucking his tongue into her mouth. Shelly reached for his moderately lesser, but still good size cock; pumping it she let go of his tongue and pulled his cock to her lips.

Shelly after sucking on the Great Danes she was able to suck the Doberman's cock deep into her throat with no problem. The Doberman whined as he shot his first load of dog cum down her throat straight into her belly. After he had unloaded his cock in her mouth he pulled his cock from her lips. She got on her hands and knees.

Shelly said to the Doberman. "Come on Dobie fuck me in my ass, I want your gorgeous cock buried deep in my ass hole." The dog got up on her back but not knowing ass hole from cunt hole. He slid his cock into her cunt.

"Not there you dumb dog in my ass." Said Shelly as she reached and back pulled the dogs cock from her cunt and moved it up to her shit hole. When Dobie felt the tight rosy rings of her ass hole grip the point of his dog cock he fucked forward sinking his cock all the way. "Aaarrrrghhh." Cried Shelly. As she felt a cock slid into her crap hole for the first time. "That's a good boy fuck me in my ass. Oh yes! Yes that's it give it to me! Fuck my ass hole! It feels so fucking good. Now I'm going have to let the other dogs fuck my ass hole to."

King having been resting while Shelly was fucking and sucked the other dogs. He came over and offered his cock to her. "Oh does King want me to suck his cock again? Then after you cum in my mouth you get to fuck my ass hole too?" Said Shelly. She pulled his hard cock to her lips and sucked him deep, just as the Doberman shot a load of hot frothy dog cum deep into her greedy ass hole for the first time.

The boys sat there jacking off as the young girl sucked and fucked each of the dog's cock many times.

All that was what seemed like hours ago. Shelly tiptoed into the living room of their small apartment, preparing to pull the day bed out from the wall and fold down the covers. When she quietly closed the front door behind herself, she felt that there was something strange.

Where was Kaiser? Why hasn't he come bounding to the door to meet her? The young redhead crept down the hall, listening for sounds in her mother's bedroom. Was Kaiser sleeping in there tonight?

Carefully she turned the doorknob, hearing the latch open so she could quietly push in the door.

"Mother!" She gasped. What she saw was a sixty-ninning couple in the center of her mother's huge seductive bed.

Candy did not even see or hear her daughter. Nor did Kaiser, the animal she had purchased as a guard dog. She did hear her lover whine and then yip excitedly into her flaming cunt, and she could hold out no more.

As the thunderous waves of her orgasm ripped through her loins, her human female juice surged uncontrollably all over the dog's passion-drenched mouth and nose. She slammed her mature, voluptuous body down against the puppy's eagerly licking tongue, nearly overwhelming him with unexpected power of her release.

Shelly could not believe her own mother was sucking the dog's large obscene organ. She decided to stuck a finger or two into her pussy, as she watched her mother suck on her lovers cock. She watched as Kaiser tried to lick her mother's cunt and fucks her mouth at the same time.

Kaiser's own loins instinctively lurched upwards, and Candy's hand gripped tightly on his quivering, churning balls. His flanks pumped his cock furiously up into her beautiful, ravenous sucking face, as he felt the load of heated cum in his balls boil. His whole crimson cock shaft jerked spasmodically in her mouth. Suddenly doggy stuff was spewing from the hole on the tip. Its scalding semen emptied like a geyser from deep in his sperm laden testicles.

Shelly knew all too well what dog semen tasted like and hoped her mother would save some for her. She saw Kaiser's balls tighten up and now he was shooting another load. She could even see some of it run out of her mother's mouth over her hands onto his knot at base of his cock.

The dog moaned into the still twitching walls of Candy's cunt. Stream after stream of his viscous seed erupted into her mouth, from the unceasing hose of a cock. Filling her oral cavern faster than she could swallow it. It came thick and fast, almost in one continuous jet, triggering the hot-blooded woman into another mind-blowing orgasm. Sexual bliss exploded heavily through out her burning loins over and over again, until finally she felt his panting tongue slide exhausted from her satiated pussy.

Finally, too, his dog cock was drained of all its hot canine seed. She raised her brunette head, her lips dribbling saliva and dog semen. For the first time in what seemed like hours to gasp and then smile when she saw her young daughter watching at the doorway, still fingering her own pussy. "Oh Shelly," she gasped through frothy sperm covered lips, her hand still pumping Kaiser's formidable spear.

"You're home I hoped you had as good a time as we have." She said as she licks the dog creamy semen from her lips. She saw her daughter hand still playing in her cunt.

Shelly's alcohol drugged mind spinning with feelings of jealousy and confusion, just as she had always imagined that her dates would have rather spent their time with the older woman. At the same time, now, the Shelly felt a stab of pure, burning lust shooting through her tingling young flesh, lusts that inspired by the rocking, exploding orgasm that she had just inadvertently witnessed. Instantly she forgot her two new friends, waiting patiently outside the door to the apartment. Her mother's hand left the now shrinking dog cock.

Kaiser rolled over on the bed so he was up right again, and he let out a little yelp when he recognized his lovely redhead mistress. "We've have been having quite a nice time, as you can see. I just had to try his dog cock after hearing you two going at it last night." "Would you care to join us?" Candy said as she licked the tart dog sperm from her fingers.

"Oh, yes," Shelly cooed immediately, in her heated arousal. "Let me play with Kaiser and you." She quickly undressed for the second time tonight and immediately she went to work on Kaiser's cock and testicles.

In virtually seconds Shelly was able to suck the dog's cock into excited rigidity again, much to their mother's approving amazement. My daughters certainly fast learner, she said to herself, (Not knowing that Shelly had been practicing on Kaisers two bothers and friends.)

In no time she will be ready to please anyone and anything, in anyway, just like her mother! She added, referring to herself, if there was anything she wanted for Shelly, it was the ability to make men and dog happy.

"Oooh my dear," Candy said aloud, "you sure gave him a fantastic hard on. What shall we do first?"

"I want you to let him fuck you in the your ass, Mother." Said Shelly. "I want too see you take his big prick in your ass. I want to watch his dog cock slid in and out of your asshole while I suck your cunt." Candy taken by surprise, but not so much so, that she did not agree to Shelly's idea.

"Well, of course honey. You will have to stick his gorgeous cock into my ass for me?" Internally, the older woman could not get over the miraculous change that seemed to have taken place in her daughter, and she could hardly wait to see the extent of the transformation. Dear me, it's going to be great to have a daughter as interested in sex as I am. She could already imagine some of the intensely exciting things that the two women, she and Shelly, might be able to do for some appreciative men or animals. The possibilities were positively staggering and they could start right away!

Sure, Mother," Shelly replied to Candy's request. She lovingly grasped Kaiser's hot thick cock sucking some more on its heated rigidity getting it ready. She then aimed it towards the waiting rosy ring of her mother's soft, hairless asshole. She cooed affectionately, slightly jealous still, but tenderly massaging his large animal cock.

Shelly held his cone shaped erection, glistening and wet. Kaiser began by mounting the older woman from behind, working around his slimly spaded tip of his organ trying too find her anxiously waiting rectal passage. "Oh, help him get it in, Shelly!" The mother begged feverishly, her up thrust buttocks squirming obscenely backwards in search of his cock that was struggling to find her sizzling anal passage.

Shelly rubbed the swollen mounds of her top heavy breasts into the dog's gleaming fur as she helped him position his haunches better in order fit his cock into the dark haired woman's tight asshole. Her slender hand guides the heavy rod of animal hardness toward the chocolate highway of her mother's love inflamed anal channel. Moistening it even more with his cream and then placing the tip of his cock right at the opening of her tightly clenched little asshole.

His strong young forelegs were gripping tightly around her naked waist and hips, the moist tip of his cock sliding powerfully forward into her hungrily absorbing rectal walls. "Oh, yes Shelly, this is just what they did in the movie!" The older woman croons, squirming back delightedly on Kaiser's eager cock as it immediately began to race in and out of her rectum.

The young canine overwhelmed by the presence of both his new mistresses in the room at once, both naked, and both lavishing him with attention. It was almost more than his recently aroused loins could bear, and he fucked forward with instinctive ferocity, slamming his powerful cock into the buxom dark haired female's whitely up thrust buttocks.

Shelly crawled between her mother and the bed, looking up she could see Kaiser's cock pump in and of her mother's asshole. Her mother's cunt was dripping juices. Shelly reached up with her tongue and started licking her mother's pussy lips, and for the first time tasting cunt. Hmmm thought Shelly. Mother did more than suck Kaiser's cock. Kaiser's ball sack was hitting her forehead, as he pumped cock in and out her mothers asshole she sucked then lick her mother's cunt. She took her mouth off Candy's cunt and sucked the dog balls into her mouth, playing with them with her tongue.

Outside the sagaciously occupied little apartment, Carl and Greg stood patiently, but they were beginning to wonder what was keeping their exciting new friend so long. All she was going to do. She had said, was check to see if her mother was asleep. If she was, Carl and Greg could come inside for a little continuation of what they had already seen at their own house.

Although it was only ten minutes since the Shelly had disappeared into the apartment, too the two aroused young men it seemed like eons, and they quickly agreed to go inside themselves to investigate.

"Ooooh Shelly suck mothers cunt!" Candy said. "I've got a big dog cock up my ass and my daughter sucking my cunt." Candy's unmistakable moans were coming from the bedroom, and both college students headed straight for the slightly open door.

The gasped in unison at what they saw. Candy Burnside, that amazingly gorgeous divorcee, was down on hands and knees in front of Kaiser, just the way the girl in the movie had been.

What was more amazing was that the pretty redheaded Shelly was under her mother either licking her cunt or hungrily slurping at the dog's balls as the dog's cock slid in and out of Candy's asshole!

"What the hell?" Greg said aloud, but his words did not even disturb the two lasciviously engaged women. "Fucking A!" Carl responded incredulously. "No wonder she was taking so long. For a moment, the two lustfully excited young men stood there in amazement, but it didn't take long for the curly hair dog breeder to recover his senses. He looked at his roommate, saying, 'Well, man, what are we waiting for. His dark eyes focused lewdly on Candy's enticingly up thrust buttocks as she knelt below the dog's thrusting haunches. "Then he let his gaze wander to the head of the bed, where Candy's mouth gaped openly as she moaned and gasped out her lustful arousal."

"Yeah, right on," Greg agreed belatedly, as the western style shirt and denim pant fairly flew off his rippling muscled body. He kicked off his shoes and socks.

Candy looked up at the sensation of Greg's added weight to the bed, and Shelly flinched slightly when she felt his warm hands working in the soft white flesh of her thighs. Lovingly, but urgently, he caressed her tender, untanned flesh, nudging his hardened cock into the glittering wet cuntal slit.

Shelly's first impulse was to cry out her objection. No! Please do not do that I only want dog cock!

Since her lips and tongue were deliciously occupied at her mother's pussy lips, she could only mewl out around them. Anyway, she thought in her sex intoxicated brain, maybe I ought to just see what sex with human males is like, it might be almost as good as dogs. Greg wasted no time in steering his lust-stiffened cock into the softly yielding channel of Shelly's consciously receptive cunt, feeling her enveloping warmth as it closed in on him.

Shit, it feels like a fucking oven in there. He thought to himself, No wonder the dogs loved it! He sighed aloud as he shoved forward into the almost virgin redhead, letting her feel the first human cock she had ever experienced.

Carl could see the moist pink edges of Candy's daughter's cunt nibbling eagerly on the hard rock like base of his roommate's cock, and he could hardly contain his own excitement. He was already stroking his own massive hard on, but no matter how much he wanted to stand back and watch the lewd human canine chain that was forming. The clamors in his balls demanded release. "Candy?" He whispered to the dark haired woman impaled on the dog's cock in her ass and her daughter's tongue in her cunt.

"Would you mind?" He did not finish the question; rather, he held up his burgeoning penile rod for her to see, and she nodded her affirmation instantly. Her belly was still full with warm salty animal sperm that Shelly's pet had squirted down her throat, but her appetite for semen had not been whetted. She wanted to taste Carl's seed again. She leaned over slightly, balancing her weight on one hand, as the dog breeder climbed up on to the gigantic sanguine bed.

Kaiser looked up fiercely when Candy moved, but he instantly recognized his former owner and trainer, and his instinctive growl stopped as quickly as it had started. Carl's heart was beating as horse hooves at the racetrack as he rammed his blood-laden rod of flesh between the older woman's parted lips. He forced it back immediately, all the way against her tonsils. She began at once to suck and pull on its fleshy length, running her tongue over it expertly, titillating the sensitive surface with her grazing teeth.

Carl could not help fucking more and more of it between her soft enthusiastic ruby red lips, until his balls bumped her chin. The semen in his balls had been boiling heatedly as he watched the dog cock slid in and out of Candy's asshole. He needed a preferred style of release other than his hand. This was much better.

Candy closed her eyes in uninhabited wantonness. Feeling intensely the slick, long hardness of Kaiser's cock as it plunged methodically in and out of her dilated anal passage. Lubricating it with his pre-semen and stretching it just like a little used cunt. Her hips rocked back to meet his savage thrusts. As her daughter licked her little clitoris bud, it began to tremble in harmony with the arousal of her rectum. The pungent, youthful odors of her young lover permeated her nostrils, as she gave herself over shamelessly to the pleasurable task of licking his cock again.

From the side of the bed, Greg screwed rhythmically into Shelly's tightly gripping young pussy, his cock almost ready to explode in her greedily suctioning cunt. He watched what she was doing to the young German Shepherd. Swirling her tongue around his golf ball sized testicles even as dog cock slid in and out of her own mother's asshole. He saw his roommate, too, pumping furiously into her mother's mouth, as he had done only hours ago in the darkened Movie Theater. Christ, he thought to himself Carl was sure right about this broad and her daughter! He could feel a spasm of orgasm jerks his pelvis, and his last coherent thought was. Shit! Two guys, two chicks, and a fucking dog!

The tumultuous rubble in the depths of his balls broke forth in hot spurts of trickling seminal fluid spurting into Shelly's undulating pussy. She thrust her flogging hips up and squeezed rhythmically on his ejaculating cock. Coaxing every last drop of his desire quenching liquid from his draining balls as she continued her frenzied licking of her dogs' testicles. In her imagination, Shelly was squeezing the semen from Kaiser's balls right into her own pussy. Almost as if in confirmation of her fantasy she felt the dog's sleek body stiffen as he prepared to shoot his load into her mother's garrote like anal passage.

"Aargh! Keep sucking! The dark hair student commanded roughly, as his human sperm flowed freely between Candy's lips and gushes unchecked down her hotly clutching throat. The arousing flavor was enough to trigger the older woman's orgasm, and she convulsed and rocked as she concentrated on taking every drop of his life giving fluid into her mouth and throat. Her pussy pulsed wildly. Cunt lips seize upon each other as her rectal walls clutched and dilated around Kaiser's spurting cock. The galvanize double orgasm of her ass and her cunt nearly knocked the erotically excited woman off balance, as the whole bed creaked and swayed with the massive weight it was holding.

Vibrations ricocheted through all five bodies, and Shelly could feel the magnificent contraction of her first human induced orgasm. She could feel her cuntal walls gripping tightly around Greg Sullivan's humanly pumping cock, and her silkily undulating inner flesh was acutely aware of every hot jet of semen that he shot into her. Uncontrollably, she let out a wail as her mouth left Kaiser's balls momentarily.

As Kaiser pulled his thick cock out of Candy's ass, letting dog semen pour out onto Shelly's face. Shelly reached out and pulled the still spurting dog cock to her lips and sucked the last dregs of semen from it. Then she clasped her mouth to her mother asshole and sucked the dog's semen from it as well. Then she turns her attention to her mothers dripping cunt sucking her mother to yet another orgasm.

Seconds later, the satiated German Shepherd bounded gleefully off the hotbed lustful sex, weakly he walked around the room. On the rumpled, semen stained velvet bedspread the four humans collapsed over each other in sheer exhaustion. Their perspiring, lust twitching flesh seeming to meld and blend as they gradually drift off to sleep in the cool early morning air.

The sun rose on that Saturday morning in September, and when it did, the four occupants of Candy Burnside's bedroom had been asleep scarcely an hour. Although the curtains stood open, and the east window was letting the sunburn across the bed to warm the nakedly sleeping bodies, not a single one of the peaceful love makers stirred.

The front door was still ajar; Carl and Greg had left it carelessly open on their little expedition into the apartment. Kaiser was faithfully guarding it, as he had been ever since the humans had fallen asleep. He loved them all dearly now, and he was not going to let anything happen to a single one of them!
