BEASTIALITY STORIES

"You guys know something? I could really use a dip in the pool. What do you say we get the boys and take a swim?" I think it was Deidre this time.

"Sounds good to me," Debra agreed. I was ready as well. We put on white, terry cloth robes and nothing else and headed outside. The boys were very excited to see us and fell in behind as we walked down the hill to the pool. Just the underwater pool lights were on and they gave a glow to the pool and the area around it. It was quite romantic. We slipped into the pool after having removed our robes and held each other in the warm water. We kissed each other sharing the intimacy and felt our bodies against each other as we embraced. I was getting very horny.

Hands explored bodies beginning with breasts with Debra being the most active. She began to suck my nipples as she used her hands Deidre's. All three of us were exploring, caressing each other getting us all very hot.

I moved one hand between Debra's legs and the other between Deidre's causing them both to moan deeply. I found each of their clits and began tracing little circles around them. They spread their legs even farther apart and I felt one of them return the favor as the other begin to rub the cheeks of my ass. At almost the same time, each of them penetrated my with a finger causing me to moan much as they had and press back against their pressure. They pushed their fingers deeper and deeper until their fingers were totally inserted in me. What a wonderful feeling! I knew I couldn't last much longer before I came.

They brought me to my climax with their expert manipulations of my private parts and I came hard. My juices flowed into the water as they kept fucking me with their fingers. Finally, I collapsed into their arms and let them hold me up and keep me above water.

During all this, we hadn't paid any attention to the big dogs we had with us. When we took a look, all three of them were lying side-by-side on the edge of the pool watching us closely. We chuckled at them and praised them for being such good boys.

"That was fantastic, you two," I wanted to thank them for the climax they had just given me. "I want to return the favor. Why don't both of you climb up on the side of the pool and let me work my magic on your gorgeous pussies?"

The twins looked at each other and grinned. Deidre lifted her eyebrows just so asking her sister an unspoken question. Debra nodded back to show her approval. They must have seen the quizzical look on my face wondering what they were thinking. It was Debra who spoke first.

"I have a better idea since there are two of us and only one of you and you can't do both of us at the same time," she said. We three are going to get off together this time. Sounded good to me. I kissed them both.

"Ok. So what do we do?" I asked.

"We are going to get out of the pool, but we are going to do something slightly different. Ok, very different," she laughed. The three of us got out. The twins spread three big towels out so that they overlapped. Then they lay down on the towels, leaving room for me in the middle.

"Come on down here you delightful piece of ass. You are going to love this," Deidre promised.

Seeing them lying there naked made me want to get my head between their legs even more.

"Whatever you have in mind, will just have to wait. I have been wanting to get between your legs ever since we all got naked. Just give me a minute to explore both of you."

So I got down on my knees and lowered my mouth between Deidre's legs. Her pussy was beautiful and tasted so sweet. I licked and sucked her until she was crazy wet and the juices were streaming from her pussy. Then I did the same for Debra. She was not quite as sweet as her sister but tasted great none the same. I loved doing these girls.

"Ok," I pulled away. "I am done for now but it is certain that I want some more of both of you later. Now what did you have in mind?" My curiosity was starting to get the better of me.

Out of her sex-clouded haze, Debra looked up at me and thanked me for the attention I had given her with my tongue and mouth. She sat up and helped me lie down in the middle of the towels. Deidre turned toward me and kissed me in gratitude for what I had done for her. While we were kissing, I heard Debra call, "Zack. Come boy." He came over excitedly and Debra guided him to Deidre. She spread her legs in front of him and rolled her hips back exposing herself to him from ass to pussy. On command, Zack sniffed her several times and then swiped his tongue from top to bottom of her slit, beginning with her ass and ending with her clit. He then licked her harder and inserted his tongue in her pussy and started moving it in and out.

When Debra was satisfied that Deidre and Zack were engrossed in each other and Deidre started her low moaning, she then called Jack over. She assumed the same position as Deidre and Jack began to do his thing to her. Rather than moaning, Debra began breathing heavily. I could tell she was really into the big dog's tongue and what he was doing to her. Before she succumbed totally to his licking, she told me to call Caesar over and do the same things they had done. I was totally horny by this time and did just exactly what she said.

"Caesar," I called. "Come." He didn't hesitate. Although the twins didn't yet know about our afternoon encounter, Caesar remembered. He knew just what to do. I rolled my hips back and raised my legs to give him access to all my goodies. Soon, I was in the same corner of sexual heaven as Deidre and Debra. The dogs were doing a wonderful job on all three of us. I was sure there would be three orgasms in a very short time.

Combine the mojitos, the sex we three had shared, and now this and powerful climaxes were a natural and normal thing. Not to mention inevitable. The girls looked at Caesar and me and just smiled then went back to their own pleasure. I realized that I could never equal the job the dogs were doing to us and I realized why the twins wanted those big, long tongues licking them. I know I had never had a woman or a man who was as talented as Caesar and I suspected Deidre and Debra felt the same way. Just think, before this afternoon I had never been licked by a dog and now I was hooked after just two times with Caesar. It made me wonder what it was that Mrs. Brown found so appealing about actually having that huge cock fucking her for real.

Just then I heard Deidre's moans change. They became more intense and more frequent. Since I was not very far from my orgasm, I knew she was about to come. Debra was also close based on the sounds she was making. I felt the warmth rising in my own loins and forgot all about them. I concentrated on what Caesar was doing to me and moved with him, getting the best fucking I could get from him. When Deidre and Debra let out their cries of passion they pushed me over the edge.

I flooded his tongue with my juices and he lapped them all up. My pussy lips were on fire and at the end, just as if I had told him to do, he buried his tongue in me and started twirling it around. My hips raised off the towel and my whole body clinched in ecstasy. I did that several times as my climax racked my body. Finally, I collapsed on the towel breathing hard and trying to keep the feeling going. When it was over, I opened my eyes to see the girls looking at me with big smiles on their faces.

"Bravo," they said together as they gave me a big round of applause. I was a little embarrassed at the attention and coyly ducked my head with a huge grin on my face.

"You two were right," I told them. "There is no way that can compare with what I might have been able to do to you. It was amazing." The dogs had curled up at our feet and were lying there very peacefully considering what they had just done. Good dogs!

Good girls! The bond between us was strengthening the more we were together.

"That was so good!" Deidre exclaimed as we all made our return to reality.

"Yes, it was," offered Debra.

"Same here," I chimed in.

"You really took to that like you had done it before, Alicia," Deidre observed. "Have you been holding our on us?" She was halfway joking.

"Well, to tell you the truth..."

"I knew it," Debra cut in. "Tell us about it, please."

I paused for a moment considering what I would say. "Believe it or not, it was this afternoon before you two showed up. After you mom left, Caesar and I were playing and I took off my bathing suit and was pleasuring myself when he decided I might need some help. Well, one thing lead to another and before I knew it, he was licking me and brought me to a wonderful orgasm, my first K9 experience. So now you know."

"Awesome," the twins replied together.

"There is something better, you know." Deidre had a certain mischievous grin on her face.

"Are you talking about?" I asked knowing that she understood.

"Yes. I mean actual sex with one of those big cocks and all their energy," she confirmed. "Let me show you."

She grabbed Zack by his pointy ears and pulled him closer. Then she gave him a big hug and put her fingers around his sheath. As she moved up and down on it, his cock quickly appeared and got bigger and bigger. Soon it was at what I thought was full length and girth. I could see her juices flowing from her vagina already. She then turned over onto all fours and put her head down and her ass in the air. At the command, "Zack, mount," he did just that and lay on top of her with his front legs wrapped around her body.

It didn't take but one thrust for him to find her pussy and he sank about six inches of his dick into her. She gave out a little cry and began to clutch the towel with her hands. On his second thrust, he was all the way into her. She uttered another little grunt and began to move with him, fucking him back while he drove deep inside her over and over.

The up-close view I was getting was far more exciting than the long-range shots I had taken of her mother. In and out he pistoned as he lightly bit her ear and took total control of her. She was truly his bitch now and his one goal in life was to breed her and put puppies in her belly.

The big dog was giving her a fuck the likes of which I could not have thought possible. I could see his cock pushing inside her with every thrust. His pre-cum began flowing around his dick and dripping down her legs. His thrusting became more rapid and even more energetic if that was possible and I could see a huge bulge forming at the base of his cock. With one huge forward movement of his hips, he pushed the whole thing into her making it disappear. When he did that, Deidre gave out a huge "Ahhhhhh" and collapsed beneath him. He didn't even slow down.

All of a sudden, he stopped thrusting and began pumping his seed into her. She was in another world as she felt his cum flowing into her with every clinching of his muscles. Over and over he shot his load into her, filling her to overflowing. Even with the knot inside her acting like a plug, the cum squirted out of her in great globs. Then he was done but it wasn't over yet. His know stayed inside her and he just lay down still joined to her and rested after his massive climax.

Deidre moved her head and I could see her grinning from ear to ear. When his bulge subsided, he pulled out of her and went over by the hedge to curl up and recover. I was absolutely dumbfounded. Debra saw the look of incredulity on my face and gave me a hug. I didn't know what to say or do so I did and said nothing. What Deidre and Zach had just done was the most amazing thing I had ever witnessed.

At last I was able to speak again. "So now I see why you both have your own dog.

They erupted in laughter. "Yes, now you know."

"And your mom has Caesar."

"Yep. She turned us on to it when we were much younger," Deidre related. "For us, it has always been girls and dogs. Men just can't measure up to that."

"I can see that I have a lot to learn about all this. Thanks for showing me what it is all about," in my most sincere tone.

They chuckled together. "We haven't shown it all to you yet, my dear." I could see the delight in their eyes.

"What do you mean?" I asked.

"Tomorrow, lover, tomorrow. It is getting late tonight and we all could use some sleep," Debra explained. "Now let's go up and go to bed. Together, of course."

"Of course," I replied although how she thought any of us were going to get any sleep sleeping together I couldn't fathom.

The next morning, I was awakened by the rumble of thunder and rain beating down on the roof. My first thought was, since I had gone to sleep between the twins, why was I now on the edge of the bed? They were still asleep wrapped in each other's arms. I could just imagine what had happened.

I felt a strong urge so I got up being careful not to disturb them and went into the bathroom to relieve myself. I also brushed my teeth and realized that I was very hungry. Next stop, the kitchen. I slipped on my robe and took a look in the fridge. There was some cantaloupe, yogurt, and some granola to put on the yogurt on top of the fridge. Not a bad breakfast at all. Next, I put some Earl Grey in the Keurig and drank some OJ while it brewed. It all tasted so good! Excellent way to start the day.

I took a seat at the breakfast table and as I ate, Caesar came in the room with a sleep look on his face. He sniffed the various smells and decided on having a bite to eat from his bowl along with a drink of water. He was too tall to get under the table so he just sat down beside me and plopped his head in my lap. I gave him several, "Good Boys" and patted him on the head. He whimpered at my touch. What a big baby!

I finished my breakfast and noticed that it was still raining. "Well, boy, looks as if we are staying in today. What do you think about that?" He seemed to understand and was OK with it. I cleaned up the dishes and moved over to the sectional. He was in my lap almost before I sat down. I lay back letting my robe open and reached down to rub his head. He moved up between my legs and I could tell what was on his mind.

All night long, I had had horny dreams and having him there with me brought those feelings back. I parted my legs to give him access to what he wanted and just closed my eyes. He gave me a thrill when he put his cold nose on my pussy lips, but then he began to lick me as he had done last night. I just went with the feelings I was having. This time I was much more relaxed and knew what was happening. He did a great job and soon I was soaking wet and the pussy cream was flowing. I was loving it!

After he had worked on me for a while, he moved his head away from between my legs and climbed on top of me to lick my face. This was something I didn't really understand until I saw his engorged penis rubbing against my stomach. It was huge. He had been giving me all of this attention and hadn't even cum once himself. He was one horny dog and I immediately realized what he wanted and needed. I was not quite sure I wanted to let him fuck me since I had never done that before. I thought I knew what to do having watched Deidre down by the pool last night. He kept licking my face and rubbing his cock against me. His dominance was coming through in spades. I was not sure he would let me go even if I wanted to. I made my decision.

I grabbed his head and kissed him, tweaking his ears. He kept pinning me down. He let me turn over and I assumed the position, head down and ass up. He didn't need any further encouragement or direction.

I felt his cock poking me as he tried to find my pussy and then it happened. He sank that wonderful cock about six inches deep in me. I felt some pain since he was so big and I had never had a cock that big before. Although I cried out, he didn't care. He captured me with his forelegs around my upper body holding my arms and all in his powerful grasp. Then he plunged again. I swear I could feel him all the way up to my throat. My pussy was stretching to accommodate his girth but not fast enough. He took care of that too. He just kept ramming his huge member deeper and deeper in me. I felt him pushing up against my cervix and swore he was going to rip it apart.

I could feel the pain lessening and a pleasurable glow began to take its place. As he pounded my pussy, I began to move with him. I began to feel the wonderful feelings he was causing me to have. He was just fucking his bitch and doing a wonderful job of it. I could feel his wad building up inside his loins and he got deeper in me. Where else could he go with that thing? I was soon to find out.

I knew he was close and so was I. With one massive thrust, he penetrated my cervix with the pointed end of his dick. Then he exploded in my womb, past the last barrier and filled me with his cum. When he got in there, I also exploded into orgasmic bliss and began humping him back. When he passed my cervix, he had enough room inside me to ram his knot in me, sealing up anything that would let his sperm escape. He kept fucking me with that knot inside me and I kept fucking him back. I felt like my abdomen was going to pop like a balloon. It just added intensity to my orgasm.

It took him a long time to get it all out and into me. He shot wad after wad into me until there was no more left. We both collapsed still joined together. Every now and then, he would twitch his cock inside me causing new ripples of pleasure through me. I couldn't move. At long last, he turned until we were ass to ass and we lowered ourselves together to reclining positions on the sofa. I thought he was going to sleep. He had surely worn me out.

I was brought back to life by clapping and whistling coming from across the room. It was the twins. They had been watching us and had really enjoyed the show. They both came over to us and gave us hugs. Caesar was about ready to get up and his knot had receded enough for him to withdraw. Debra grabbed a towel to as not to leave too big of a mess on the sectional and helped Caesar detach from me. He left the sofa and curled up on the floor. I sat up and took hugs and kisses from Debra and Deidre.

"How long have you two been watching?" I asked.

"Ever since we heard you scream," said Debra. "We knew something must be going on so we came in here to take a look, being careful not to interrupt anything. It was quite amazing to see you lose your K9 virginity in such a manner. How was it?"

"It was the greatest sex I have ever had," I told them. "It was so raw, so savage, unlike anything I have ever experienced before. When Caesar recovers, I am going to do it again. In fact, I might just stay inside and fuck all day long."

"Sounds like a plan to me," Debra agreed. "In fact, I am the only one now who hasn't gotten laid this weekend. That is about to change."

She called Jack and he came eagerly. He knew what was about to happen. Her chosen place was the plush carpet that covered the floors of the living room. She was already sopping wet between her thighs having watched Caesar and me going at it on the sectional sofa. All she had to do was reach under Jack and slide her hand up and down the shaft. His erection occurred immediately. He hadn't gotten any either. When he was ready and she couldn't wait any longer, she got down on all fours and he came over to her sniffing her dripping cunt. He licked her a few times and at her command, "Jack, mount," he did just that.

He went crazy as he jumped up on her back and rammed his bulging rod inside her on the first thrust. She let out a loud squeal and just let him do his thing. Her vagina had been stretched out from numerous encounters with the big dogs and he was able to get balls deep at once. His fucking was almost violent as he rendered her helpless underneath his massive body. It was a wonderful sight.

I was amazed at the differences between the dogs and the way they fucked. From Zack who acted like a lover to Caesar who was only concerned with his own pleasure to Jack who truly was ravaging Debra as Deidre and I watched. I could tell that being on the floor enabled him to get a lot of leverage against her and his strength was evidenced by his moving her a little bit forward with every stroke into her. He was going crazy.

Debra was in her own little world with that big cock inside her. He must have been getting past her cervix and into her uterus with his massive member. This was animal mating at its finest. To him, she was just a dog for him to have his way with. She came hard. He knotted her and began to shoot his load in her. His was the biggest knot of all three of them. She took it all and clinched her muscles around it to keep it in. It was obvious that the two of them knew each other well.

When it was over, Jack went back to licking her so that he could get every drop of her juices and his cum as they mixed together. Deidra and I cleaned the carpet where Debra had leaked her juices and Jack eventually was able to withdraw. He did the same thing most males do after sex. He curled up and went to sleep.

We ministered to Debra and gave her kisses and touches in our aftercare. She had such a look of contentment on her face. Now we had all seen each other getting laid by our K9 friends as well as having enjoyed each other's sex together. The only question was what we were going to do for the rest of the day and night. I was sure we would think of something.
