BEASTIALITY STORIES

At the age of 16 I was as horny as the next. I had been into internet porn for years. Beside cum-shots, big tits, dp's the usual stuff; there were a couple of things that interested me. Here and there on websites I'd see a picture or a story relating to dog-sex. I don't know what it was but it turned me on. Nothing got me to cum faster than a big red dog cock violating someone.

I finally decided to try it. I had a large golden retriever that had a good sex drive, you know with constant leg humping and excited dog to say the least. I went out to the garage and began to jack off, to some porn I had. My dog, Fido was jumping around about with excitement due to the activity. He eventually sniffed in and licked a bit. I loved it. Being a virgin it was the most feeling I'd had. I let him do it, each rough lick driving me closer. I came as hard as I ever had and immediately felt guilty.

A week or so past and I didn't do it again until I was drunk, but it was as good as before. It began to become a thing for me to get him off the dog run after school, and jack off. I would have trouble containing my hard- on on the bus on the way home. Each bump down our dirt road making me harder and harder until it hurt. It didn't help that the same bumps had all the girls' firm tits bounce just a touch.

After a few months of regular masturbation I began to feel a new kind of guilt. I had noticed the dogs pink cock poke out several times. I couldn't help thinking about it during the times after I came along with other reasons it felt wrong.

But it being wrong was half the reason I came so hard. The feeling was almost more intense sneaking out to the garage, or going there after school before the jacking. It was like a sick not in my stomach. So horny it hurts, and so scared and ashamed to get caught that the nerves just wrecked your guts.

The whole bit was getting to me. The smell of the garage would send chills down the spine. I decided one day as he was licking that I would pay him back. So I reached down, no there was no petting or caressing, I just reached down and grabbed his cock. He starts humping furiously, and kinda mounts my arm. He came shortly after I started. I had a raging hard on from this and easily jacked off after he was done. He was mounting me after that and trying to get me to do it again but I got mine so I left.

The next day I thought all day in school about him trying to mount me. I had tried jacking off with anal stimulation before and it was pretty good. I was thinking about how that big hot dog cock would feel pounding my virgin asshole. But I'm straight save the dog jacking/licking. I couldn't believe it. That just added to the taboo and the knots in my stomach. That'd be a pun later...

I got off the bus, and ran up to the house. I checked for my sisters and no one was home. I waited for my mom to call and my parents wouldn't be home for 3 hours or so. It was early in the school year so fall was just starting, the smell of fall was thick and I quivered with anticipation walking to the dog run behind the house. I got him off his chain and lead him to the garage, he was jumping and his cock was exposed already. I closed the garage and began to jack. He starting licking. I then decided to turn around and let him eat my ass. I enjoyed a good eating as I was jacking off and I came very hard.

After a few electric licks from him I decided it was time to give him something back. After these weeks of good cumming for me I had given him little more than a hand job. So I decided to let him fuck me. I jerked him a little and he immediately mounted me. I guided his pink prick into my well licked asshole and he gave one sharp jab. With that jab I lost my anal virginity, and nearly squealed.

After the first jab inward he repositioned his feet and started to fuck me with hard rhythmic thrusts. He was fucking me so hard his feet were coming off the ground. It was only painful for the first jab and after that it was wonderful. His cock throbbed inside me and he made me his bitch. He fucked my hole wide open, harder and faster.

I didn't know what to do or think I had never experienced anything like it before, so I just shrank lower and gave him better access to my anus, because it felt good.

I felt pressure at the rim of my ass, and I didn't know what it was, until I remembered the lump in his cock I felt when jacking him. I figured it wouldn't be small enough to get into my tight virgin ass, but as he fucked me it slammed harder and harder into me. I saw stars as he fucked the knob deep inside of my anus. Pre-cum oozed out of my already drained cock and his thrusts continued only shorter and harder. After a few thrusts he stopped and I felt my anus fill with liquid heat.

His cock unloaded more and more into me, and after a bit of struggle it plopped out. He cleaned my well fucked slightly torn ex-virgin ass, and then fucked it again.
