BEASTIALITY STORIES

As a single parent with an adorable, but handful 7-year old, I find myself worrying less about my own personal life and just want to raise him into the man I hope he becomes. I try to be a big part of his life to ensure he never feels alone, a complete 180 from his father, who decided that raising a child was a bit much for him and his own personal needs.

I received an email from his 2nd grade teacher, praising my son for his behavior in class and his most recent math test, A+! I was proud of my boy and decided that he should be rewarded for this achievement. I decided to bring him home a candy bar, this may not sound like much, but after his most recent dentist appointment revealed 2 cavities, I had to cut him off of the sweets until his teeth cleaning got better.

We have a 9-week old male lab puppy and, as I am sure many of you can attest to, a ball of energy. I got him for my son on his 7th birthday to match his own energy. I figured the puppy would give me some much needed relaxation, from time to time.

I made it home around 5:30 and paid the neighbor teenager her $20 for being there the couple of hours while my son was home from school. I hugged and kissed my son and handed him his reward, a regular size Snicker bar. I told him that I had spoke with his teacher and how proud I was of him on his most recent test. I told him he could eat his candy bar after dinner and off to make that dinner I went.

I came out of the kitchen after 20 minutes or so and nearly had a heart attack, as I found our puppy devouring the snickers bar. I grabbed it from him, but he had already eaten half of it. I was in a full on panic mode and immediately called the only vet in town. Since it is a small town, we all have her cell phone number in case of emergencies. I called her and told her what happened and how much of it he had gotten down. She told me to bring him to the office, right away. I called the neighbor and asked her if she could come back over and what had happened. She ran over to stay with my son and out the door I went to the vet's office.

It was about a 20-minute drive to the vet's office while keeping an eye on the puppy to tell her of any symptoms he may show on the ride. I pulled up and ran inside, but could not immediately see Janice, the vet. I called out for her and she yelled to bring him back into her office. Her residence acted as her office, as being in a small town, there is not a lot of demand for vets. I made my way back to her office and walked in.

She was dressed very casual in a tank and sweats, as I am sure she was looking forward to a relaxing evening. She held her arms out to signal bring him to me and she started her examination. She asked if he displayed any unusual behaviors and I told her that he clearly is not as energized, as he normally is. She explained that is usual in these situations, as he probably has an upset tummy. She was pressing on his stomach to I guess see if she could get a reaction from him, but he did nothing. She made the comment that he was going to grow into a healthy dog. I made no mind of it and just figured it was small talk. She finished up her examination and said that most likely he is going to be fine, but I want to try to get him to throw it up. She induced him to vomit and some of the chocolate came out, but not near what he had eaten. She tried again, but only got stomach fluids. She gave him some activated charcoal and told me to just watch him. She warned me that he could begin to vomit, which was good unless they were violent and non-stop and that his stool would probably be loose. She felt good that he would be fine, but told me to bring him back if his condition worsens.

I asked her if I could come back tomorrow and pay her, as I ran out of the house without my purse in a panic. She smiled and said that it was no problem. I told her that it would probably be around 6pm or so.

I made it back the next day around 6:15pm and knocked on her door. There was no answer, so I walked in, figuring she was probably in the back of the home and didn't hear me. I called out her name at least twice, but got no response. I went back towards her office and the door was partially open, so I pushed it all the way open and walked in.

I nearly ran out screaming, as she was on her couch with her legs spread and her own lab, licking away at her pussy. She didn't hear me because she had earbuds in listening to whatever she was listening to. For some reason I just stared at her for a couple of minutes, until she saw me out of her peripheral vision and threw her earbuds down and immediately started apologizing. I apologized myself for not calling and told her that I only came by to pay her and to tell her that the puppy was doing much better. She quickly stood up and pulled down her long shirt to cover herself, barely. Her panties were still on the floor but she did not bother putting them on, as she walked over to her desk.

I walked the few feet and gave her the money for her services, when her own lab made his way over to me and stuck his nose between my legs. I let out a gasp and she looked at him and just shook her head and giggled. She never told him to go away or anything, just the giggle.

She walked around her desk to hand me my receipt and again apologized for my discovery. I told her it was fine that I was not the one to judge others. She smiled at me and asked how long I was standing there. I told her for only a couple of minutes. She pondered my answer and very boldly asked if I was looking out of being curious or shock? I thought about it and said, maybe a little of both. She smiled and took my hand and asked me to join her on the couch. I sat next to her and she asked me if I would like to try it. I didn't know what to say for a solid minute when her lab made his move again, this time on her. She lifted her shirt and the dog resumed where he left off when I walked in. I sat there and just stared, as it was clear she was really enjoying this.

I realized that I was getting wet myself from this show and tried to fight the urges to pleasure myself, but that eventually proved pointless. I started rubbing myself through my shorts when she reached over and said, it works better if you unbutton them and then she did just that. I looked at her quickly, as she went back to playing with her tits under her shirt and down my shorts my hand went. The shorts were not skin tight but were causing a problem. I took a deep breath and pushed them down to my ankles and back my hand went inside my panties. I was leaning back on the couch rubbing my pussy with my eyes closed, when I felt her lab breath on me. I quickly opened my eyes to find him no more than 6" from my pussy and sniffing. I hesitated when Janice said, just try it. I smiled and slid forward on the couch to make it easier for him. He sniffed and then licked my panties and I let out a gasp. I was somewhere between shock and pleasure, when Janice reached down and pulled my panties to the side, giving him access to my full pussy. He licked me for a few minutes, when I had my orgasm that I had been working on for a good 20-minutes. I collapsed on the the back of the couch and just laid there for about 5 minutes.

I got up and put my shorts on and Janice stood up with me and kissed my cheek and said, you're welcome anytime. I asked her if I should make an appointment and we both laughed.

As I drove home from Janice's, I had a mixed bag of emotions going on. I questioned my own moral compass in what I just allowed to happen. Isn't engaging in sexual acts with animals illegal let alone just wrong? Does that say something about who I am? For the first time in my life, I questioned if I was the person I was raised to be.

I arrived home and again paid the neighbor girl for being there for my son. I gave my son a big hug with a kiss and asked him about his day at school. We talked for about 30 minutes and I asked him what he would like for dinner, he responded with pizza. I gave it some thought and decided that it would be fine to go out for pizza. We jumped in the car and off we went. The pizza was great and allowed me some fun time with my son to get my mind off of my dilemma.

After we got home and I put my son to bed after his bath, I decided to take myself a long hot bubble bath. I closed my eyes and my mind filled up with the images from earlier tonight, specifically the dog licking my pussy. I caught myself breathing hard and then realized I had been rubbing my clit under the water. I bent my knees up and began to rub my clit and pussy, then I buried a finger in my pussy to the very satisfying moan of an orgasm. This was not uncommon for me, raising a young child on my own did not leave a lot of free time for pleasures of another. I finished my bath and off to bed I went.

I woke up still feeling confused on my thoughts and actions from less than 24-Hours ago. The performance in the tub last night, did not do anything to ease those confusions. I got myself dressed and kissed my son bye and off to work I went. I knew my busy day as a secretary would get rid of those thoughts for the time being. I got a bit of comfort from that realization, but knew it was only short term. I would eventually have to come to terms with this, just did not know how.

The morning hours flew by at work, I had a lot to get done and I really appreciated that today. It was close to lunch time when my phone rang, it was Janice. My heart rate picked up and I could tell I was beyond nervous.

ME: Hello, Janice. How are you?

Janice: I'm great. How are you doing, sweetheart?

ME: I'm good, just getting ready to grab some lunch.

Janice: So am I. Just finished up with a cat and I only have 1 appointment left today.

ME: Wow. That must be nice.

Janice: At times it is, other times, not so much. How is our boy doing?

ME: long pause as my mind was not on my puppy Oh, he is doing fine

Janice: Is his energy returning? Has he thrown up?

ME: Yes, his energy had come back and he did throw up once, but it was nothing violent.

Janice: Good. I'm glad to hear he got out of the woods. How are you doing, sweetheart?

ME: Yes, so am I. Thank you for helping me out with that. I am doing great.

Janice: You're welcome. No, honey. How are you with what happened?

ME: Oh. To be honest I have been conflicted in my mind.

Janice: I understand that, I was the same way. Would you like to talk about it?

ME: You were? How did you get over it?

Janice: How about you come by today when you get off, and we can talk. It would probably be safer.

ME: Oh, You are right. I am sorry. I'll see if I can take off an hour earlier. How does around 3 or so sound?

Janice: That's fine, sweetheart.

I felt a bit of relief with Janice telling me that she fought the same battle. I ate my lunch and returned to my desk and asked my boss if I could leave at 3. He never hesitated and said, Do you what you need to do. I finished up as much work as I could in the last couple of hours and told my boss I was headed out and that I would see him tomorrow.

Being a secretary I am required to look the part. This means my business dress is almost always, short dressed or long skirts. I was in a business button up, knee length skirt and heels with stockings. I thought about going home real quick and change into something more comfortable, but that was a good 30 minutes out of my way.

I arrived at Janice's and knocked on her door. This time she answered the door wearing her lab coat and scrub bottoms. She smiled and said, I feel a bit underdressed as she laughed. I apologized and told her that I didn't want drive the 20-minutes to my house and then back. She told me it was no big thing and that I looked really nice. I thanked her as we walked in and back to her office.

We walked in and she told me to have a seat on the couch, I did not see her dog and was a bit relieved by that. She sat next to me and just told me to relax and say whatever was on my mind. I took a deep breath and told her how I was confused with my emotions. I was raised by a very religious family and we were drilled hard on right and wrong. I just felt dirty by allowing that to take place. However, I would be lying to myself if I said I didn't enjoy it. I just don't know how to make head or tails of it.

She held my hands and said, I was the same way, sweetheart. I too, was raised in a very religious family, this would kill them if they knew. I have been a vet for over 25 years, I have never thought about animals in a sexual way, until a year ago. I was sleeping and was woken up by my dog, licking my thigh. I don't know why he was doing it and my immediate thought was to scold him. However, just as I was about to yell at him, he licked me, down there. I gasped and for whatever reason, I spread my legs for him and let him continue. I am a vet, not a psychologist, but in my mind I know I am not abusing him, as I love him very much. He gets the best treatment and the best of dog foods. In my mind, as long as you don't abuse that relationship, it seemed ok.

I pondered that and asked her if she ever felt guilty about doing this. She assured me at first, she did. In fact at one point she said she broke down and cried. She went onto tell me that it took some time to get comfortable with the notion, of allowing your dog to perform sexual with you. I asked her how she made that transition, in her mind. She told me that she made sure to give her dog a lot of love. She would hold him and kiss him, to let him know that she was fine with this new relationship. It eventually became easier and to this point, where I no longer question it.

I thanked her for helping me see it in a different light and asked her if I could make a confession. She just looked at me and said, of course. I took a deep breath and paused, as she put one hand on my knee and said, just say it. I told her about masturbating in the tub last night, with the thought of her dog licking me. She rubbed my my leg from about mid thigh to my knee and said, There is nothing to be ashamed about, as she does it often. I looked at her and said, Often? She said, yes I do. We don't do our thing nightly, it may be only 3-4 times per week. I let out a deep sigh of relief and told her that I was even more confused by that action. She looked at me and said, these thoughts will go on for some time with you. You have to be honest with yourself, however, if you can come to terms with the idea, then you will learn to accept it. If your convictions are so strong to not allow it, then you just won't do it anymore. I nodded and realized that her hand was further of my thigh and moving from the top of my thigh to the inside of my thigh. I closed my eyes , as she slid her hand all the way up my thigh, within a few inches of my panties. I opened my eyes to find her looking at me and she said Shall I bring him in, as she hooked my panties with one of her fingers. My breathing was picking up in pace and reached it's climax when I felt her rub her middle finger down my slit. I spread my legs and just said, yes. She moved closer to me and asked, he is in the bedroom, would you care to join me? I just nodded as she removed her hand and helped me up.

She led me into the bedroom and we stopped at the foot of the bed, while she unzipped my skirt and let it fall. She leaned in close from behind and asked me again, if I was sure. I said, I was as she slid her hand in my panties and pushed them down. I stood there as she whispered to me, You're a beautiful woman. She called over her dog and asked me to spread my legs. As the dog was walking over towards me, she ran her hand over my pussy and briefly rubbed my clit. I let out a moan of approval and she prompted her to ask me if I have ever been with a woman. I couldn't speak to legibly so I just shook my head. She leaned and kissed me on the neck and said, that's good. The dog made it over to me and sniffed a few times and he was all up in it. I was moaning like crazy as this dog was licking my pussy at a feverish pace. In the meantime, Janice was kissing and sucking on my neck and then proceeded to reach around and unbutton my shirt. She took it off of me and threw it on the floor and then unhooked my bra and slid it off my shoulders. There I stood naked with a dog licking my pussy and my vet sucking and kissing my neck, while fondling my tits.

She stopped the dog for a minute to lay me on the bed and undress herself. She is an older woman, probably in her late 40s, but has taken really good care of herself. She joined me on the bed, now naked herself and called her dog up to the bed with us. He jumped up and she told me to bend my knees to make it easier for him and just relax and let happen what's going to happen. I lifted my knees and then closed my eyes, as he began licking me again. Janice leaned in and kissed my cheek while grabbing my tits and then she took my nipple in her mouth. I spread my arms across the bed and just let it happen.

For the next 30-minutes I just lie there, as the dog licked me to 2 orgasms with the help of Janice, who had sucked my tits and even found the time to slide her tongue in my mouth. The dog finally got tired or bored, not sure which and jumped off the bed. Janice took a few minutes to rub my pussy and finally finger me to a body jerking orgasm. After a few minutes, we both stood up and she pulled me in to hug me and asked if I enjoyed it. I told her that it was an amazing time and thanked her for talking with me. She kissed me on the lips and asked if we could see each other again. I told her I would like that very much. I told her I was off tomorrow if that would work for her. She smiled and said that would be great, she had an appointment in the morning but would be free after that. I nodded and told her I would be here around 10:30. We kissed and said our goodbyes, for now.

I will admit, I felt a little better about this very tough moral dilemma. There was no question that I enjoyed the affection of her dog. I needed to get this clear in my mind and either learn to accept it or leave it alone. I had no idea the steps that I needed to take to clear this up, but I figured that a long hard think session could not hurt.

I arrived home and decided I wanted to spend some quality time with my son, as this would clear my mind and get me ready for later tonight when I needed a good clear mind. I helped him with his homework for about 30 minutes before starting dinner. I made it a point to get him engaged in a meaningful conversation about his school work and just him in general. I got him to laugh a bit when he told me that he thought a classmate was cute. I told him he should tell her that and I got the classic response, Mommy that is gross. I just kissed his forehead and so wanted to tell him that it would change in a few years. We finished our dinner and I quickly washed the dishes and put them away. I shared a bowl of ice cream with him and it was back on the homework. It was getting late so I told him it was bedtime and I tucked him in and of course, read him a story. He fell asleep about half way through the story so I gave him his goodnight kiss and out the door I went.

It was now my time to get my thoughts together over this decision. I poured a glass of wine, as this always relaxes me and into the bedroom to draw a hot bath, the perfect combination to really relax me. I undressed and had a flashback of Janice rubbing my body and especially my tits, I felt the moistness coming, as I lowered myself in the tub. I sipped my wine and just let my mind replay the events of earlier that day. I not only had the task of separating the two very different experiences, but I had to make sure those emotions were kept in their rightful place. There was no question that I was attracted to Janice and though I have never been sexual with a woman, it's not something that bothered me. I was excited to see how far that part of the equation would go and I figured I would find out sooner than later.

The 2nd part of the equation was where I needed to spend the time on. I took another sip or three and closed my eyes and just pictured her beautiful dog, licking my pussy. I tried hard to concentrate on the moral dilemma and not the physical enjoyment that I got each time. I thought long and hard about what this would mean to me on a personal level. I ran the scenarios and tried to account for all the consequences, both good and bad. The most obvious negative consequence would be if my family found out, that would crush them. I bounced these thoughts back and forth for a good hour or so and decided it was time for bed, my mind was made up. I crawled into bed feeling really good with my decision and off to sleep I went.

I woke up to a blaring alarm at 6:30am. I climbed out of bed and woke my sun up to get him ready for school, while I made him a quick breakfast. We ate a quick breakfast and I made sure he had all of his school supplies ready and waited for the bus to arrive to pick him up. I kissed him goodbye and told him that I would be here when he came home.

I went back inside and did some chores around the house, trying to kill some time. I was excited to see Janice today and was trying to keep myself busy so I wouldn't watch the clock. I paid some bills and made a grocery list and spent some time online dreaming of stuff I couldn't afford. I noticed it was 9:30 so I jumped in the shower and threw on some cutoff sweat pants and a tight tank top. I was sure that today was going to find me out of these clothes, but I figured why not throw in some insurance. It was about 10:00 when I decided to get on the road and head to Janice's.

I arrived around 10:20 or so and knocked on the door. There was no answer so I let myself in and called her name a few times, when she finally responded, in the office. I walked back and into her office, to find her at her desk doing some paperwork. She asked if I would like some coffee and I told her that it sounded good. I went over and poured myself a cup and went and sat on the couch. She asked if I slept good and I told her that I had a great nights sleep and that I really needed it. She gave me a smile and told me that she hoped it helped me with the confusion. I told her that it really did, as I have come to terms with my decision and was happy with that decision. We made some small talk about just general stuff for about 20 minutes, when she finally said, I'm done with paperwork.

She stood up from the desk and I realized that she was only in her lab-coat it did not appear that she had anything on underneath of it, at least that I could see. She joined me on the couch and asked me how I was doing. I told her that I was doing much better than I was yesterday and that I had taken some time to think about things last night. She looked at me and smiled and said, May I ask what your decisions were? I told her that in regards to the dogs, I definitely wanted to explore it more. I was not all the way there with the decision, but I couldn't deny my curiosity and excitement. She smiled wide and said, I'm glad to hear that you are wanting to continue exploring, I know my boy will like that and when your puppy gets older, he will love it as well. I had never given one thought about my puppy up until she said that, but of course I would want to love my puppy in that regard. I told her that I wouldn't even know where to start with him. She took my hand and said when he gets old enough, you bring him over and we will both work with him. In the meantime just show him a lot of love by giving him kisses and hugs. I nodded and told her that I would appreciate any help in that area.

She moved to sit on the edge of the couch and turned to face me, as she took both my hands. She smiled at me and said, How about the other decision, as she used her thumb to stroke the top of my hand? I smiled feeling a bit embarrassed and stood up while pulling on her hands to join me. We stood face to face, as I let go of her hands and reached for the buttons on her lab coat, undoing the first three. I looked at her and she smiled at me, as I continued to unbutton the remaining six buttons. I looked at her and told her that I am perfectly fine with my decision, but that I have never been with a woman, so besides being nervous, I had no experience. She smiled at me and took my right hand and placed it on her left breast and said, it's okay honey, it will come naturally too you. She slid her lab coat off and stood there in her panties and bra, while I massaged her breast. She lowered my hand and took one step towards me, and then we kissed. She lowered her hands to the bottom of my tank and lifted off over my head. For the next few minutes we just kissed and played with each other's breasts. She dropped her hand and untied my shorts and slid them down, while I shifted my legs back and forth to kick them off of me. She took me by the hand and led me to the bedroom, where we undressed each other and the both of us, fell on the bed.

She took control of the situation as I just lie on my back and let it happen. She was kissing my lips, neck and my breasts and would occasionally rub my clit. I was letting out the occasional moans and I was beyond wet. In the past, this would have been the time I would be screaming for a dick, but she had other plans. She moved to my breasts and began to suck my nipples and tits, with the occasional nibble. I have always liked my nipples being lightly bitten, so I let her know that by giving her a strong moan each time she did that. She was getting more aggressive with my pussy when she finally slid two fingers in and began to finger me, which led to my first orgasm, but not my last. This action continued for about 15-minutes, when she looked at me and moved in for a kiss. She then began to kiss my neck, tits and stomach, I opened my legs for her and she gave me my first pussy lick, from a woman. I let out a deep moan, as she found my clit and licked and sucked on it and did not stop for at least 30 minutes and 3 really strong orgasms.

She finally stopped eating my pussy and slid up the bed to face me. We looked at each other for a few seconds, when she started moving her face closer to me. I paused for a moment, but gave in and kissed her, tasting my pussy for the first time off the lips of a woman. She rolled over on her back and pulled me to the side of her. I knew what she was wanting and decided to just go for it, despite my inexperience, I just did what I enjoyed being done too me. I kissed her neck and moved down to her breasts, where I licked and sucked on them and even nibbled. I took some time to build up my nerve, but eventually I slid my hand down to find her clit and began to rub it as well. She would moan every now and then to give me some confidence, as I slid my finger down and inserted it. She spread her legs and lifted her knees to give me all the room I could ever need, so I slipped in a 2nd finger and she let me know she approved by saying, Oh yes, baby. I stayed like this for a good 10-minutes when I made my move, downward. I bought some time for my nerve by stopping at her belly and just kissing it. She realized that I was nervous, so she lifted her hips and gently pushed on my head, directing me towards her pussy. I just decided to go for it and flicked my tongue over her clit to the sound of a deep moan. This encouraged me to continue on, so I just went for it. I felt good about my first experience in eating a woman and I was really enjoying it. My only concern was answered, when she told me she was having an orgasm, this encouraged me to lick harder and faster, which apparently she enjoyed. I continued to eat her for another 15 minutes or so, when my jaw told me it was time for a break. I crawled up next to her and returned the kiss she so graciously shared with me. We lie next to each other for several minutes when she asked if it was time to bring her dog in. I smiled and said, Oh Yes!

She returned with her dog and I spread my legs wide open for him. He jumped on the bed and licked my thigh a few times and then he was home, licking my pussy like crazy. I immediately started moaning and lifted my hips so he could get it all. She started kissing me and then moved to my breasts to suck and lick on them, as well as the occasional bite. I was losing my mind between the dog and her biting my nipples that I got a bit carried away and told her to don't stop biting, please. She did not disappoint and bit me often, to which I came and came hard. I just laid back and let her and her dog continue on, while I enjoyed many orgasms. She adjusted her hips and turned them towards her dog and in no time was licking her. I did not miss my chance to return the favor for her, by kissing and licking on her tits. I bit her nipples a few times and got very much the same response, so I continued to bite both her nipples and breasts. This continued on for another 20-minutes or so, when the dog was beyond tired and just left the room. We lie there holding each other for several minutes when I realized it was time to head home, as my son was going to be home in about an hour.

We both got up and she helped me get dressed and asked when she could see me again. I told her that I would work hard to find the time, but with my raising my son, my schedule was pretty hectic. She said she completely understood and anytime she could get with me, she would welcome it and she was sure her dog would, as well. We kissed very passionately, as we both played with each other tits for about 5-minutes and I told her that I needed to go, or I was going to want to get undressed again.

Over the following few weeks, the time we spent together was very limited do to my crazy schedule. We did manage to see each other 3 or 4 times, but not enough for my desires for sure. When we were able to see each other, we definitely took advantage of it and always made sure the dog was involved.

It was Tuesday and I found that I would have a few hours free this evening, as my son was having dinner with a schoolmate and his parents would bring him home after dinner. I got off work and headed straight to her office/home. At this point in our relationship, I was no longer knocking on the door and just walked in. I looked into her office and she was not there, so I headed to the bedroom to find her sleeping on her back. I smiled and quietly took my shirt and bra off and slid my skirt off, as well. I bent over and stuck her nipple in my mouth, while sliding my hand down her panties to rub her clit. It was only a few moments when she opened her eyes while moaning at the same time. As soon as she realized it was me, I slid a finger in her pussy and stuck my tongue in her mouth, to officially wake her up. She slowly spread her legs giving me my clue that one was not enough, so I gave her a 2nd finger and told her that if she would sleep naked, I could wake her up in a different fashion. She smiled and said, I will have to remember that. How much time do we have, she asked? I told her that I had a few hours and that we shouldn't waste time, as I missed them both. I slid her panties off and then took mine off and the floor they did find. I crawled into bed beside her and we locked into a deep kiss for several minutes, while letting our hands roam free on each other. She rolled on her side and buried 2 fingers in my pussy and started to finger me fast and hard. I lifted my legs and spread them as wide as I could, so she could push her fingers in as far as she wanted. She rolled onto her side and kissed my neck and said I want to fuck you. I just gave her a moan as my answer and she told me she would be back in a few minutes.

She returned to the bedroom with a very impressive strap-on, attached to her hip and just looked at me. I stared at would easily be the largest cock, albeit a silicone one, that would have ever been inside of me. I licked my lips at the thought of feeling that and spread my legs, inviting her in. She climbed on top of me and slowly slid it in to a deep moan from me, as I felt my pussy being stretched further than ever before. She built a steady slow rhythm with me and I closed my eyes, as she kissed me and sucked on my tits, making love to me. It was only a few minutes in, when I felt a strong orgasm building and reached down to grab her ass and push, sliding her in deeper. She picked up on this and began to give me all of it, with each thrust. I let out an Oh Yes, as my orgasm arrived in fine fashion. She fucked me all the way through that orgasm and then asked me to lift my legs onto her shoulder, which I immediately complied with her request. I knew what she wanted and I wanted that as well. For the next 15-minutes or so, she fucked me hard and deep, while my hands never moved from her ass, pushing it in even farther. My 2nd and 3rd orgasms shook my body, but she never stopped fucking me. Our kisses were very passionate and her tit sucking was just as aggressive, as she gave me more than one hickey.

When she finally stopped, my pussy was soaked as well as her sheets. She rolled off and began to eat my pussy, licking up all my juices. I was breathing very hard, as my 4th orgasm hit me, causing a Oh Fuck, to come out of my mouth. She slid up the bed and kissed me to give me a taste of my own juices, which I have grown to love. I slowly opened my mouth for her to let her slide her tongue in, so I could get all I could of my own juices. As she pulled her mouth off of me, she said Let's bring our boy in. I nodded and replied, Oh god yes! She called for him and in no time he was in the room and on the bed with us. I was eagerly waiting for him to start licking, when she asked me to turn around and get into a 69 with her. I smiled at her and quickly turned around, with me on the bottom.

I started eagerly licking her pussy as she did the same with me. It was not long before the dog picked up her scent and moved in right above my head, to start licking her as well. Our tongues touched, so I slid my head further under her to give him more room, and just turned my attention to her clit. It was only a few seconds later, when I saw her dog lick her ass and keep doing it. I paused for several seconds, as I wasn't sure how I felt about that, but it didn't seem to bother her that was for sure. I was staring but didn't know if it was out of disgust or pleasure, when she opened her legs a bit wider to give him more room to work. This led to her having a nice orgasm and that snapped my out of my stare, as she ground her pussy in my face. I decided to not think about it and just attack her clit with my tongue. This caused a Oh yes, baby from her and I was rewarded with a orgasm of my own.

She called the dog over to her and picked up the pace of licking my pussy, as the dog moved into position and began his own licking. I was in a totally other place in my mind, as this was the first time we have done this with the dog included. My orgasm was building really fast, as a result of this and then I felt his tongue hit my asshole. I immediately clinched and froze. She gave me a pat on the ass and said just relax, sweetheart, as she pulled my cheeks apart and he continued. I was in shock for just a moment, but quickly realized that it felt pretty good. My ex has done that in the past, but it never felt this good, I told myself. It did not take long for me to get into the idea and I resumed my eating of her pussy. I could feel my orgasm building again and it was not long before my body shook and I let out a long deep moan. I was so lost in my own orgasm that I had not realized that I had been licking her ass, for a few seconds. When I realized it, I pulled away to a soft groan from her and thought the hell with it, and I returned. The dog was apparently done with us and jumped off the bed. This resulted in my own ass getting attention from her, and for the next several minutes, we licked each other's assholes. We each had one more orgasm and just rolled over onto our backs, trying to catch our breath.

She swung her body around to face me and just looked into my eyes, I got the sense I knew what she wanted but was not sure if I would go through with it. I smiled and lifted my head in her direction to let her know, I was fine with it. We met half way and kissed each other very passionately, as our hands found each other's breasts. We made out for a good 10-minutes, when I realized I needed to get going, unfortunately. I told her this and she just moaned, but knew it was getting late. We helped each other off of the bed and she dressed me, but not before sticking a finger in my pussy one more time. She asked when I thought we could see each other again. I smiled and leaned in to whisper, I'm off Friday. She smiled big and kissed me and said, spend the whole day with me, please? I told her I was hoping that myself and hoped that it would be fine. She said, I have a couple of clients, but you can just stay in the bed while I attend to them. I laughed and said that could be interesting.

Over the next few days I took the time to recollect all that has transpired over the last month or so. I would from time to time question my own morals in this new life I was experiencing. A part of me was scared of the person that I became, but worse the person I could become. Was this the person I was and just never had or took the opportunity to discover, or was it something more. I still looked differently at my own puppy and if I am being honest, I have had visions of him licking my pussy. I of course never acted on those visions, but I cannot deny that they are there.

It was Friday morning and I took my son to school, anxious to see Janice and if I was honest, looking forward to her fucking me again. I arrived just after 7:30am and walked in expecting her to still be asleep but she was already up and making coffee. She asked me to join her, but not before we shared a passionate kiss and a tit grab. She told me that she had her first client at 9am and was already dressed in her scrubs and doctors coat. I playfully unbuttoned 3 of her buttons on the lab coat and she said, I take it you like it that way. I laughed and said, I prefer you just take it off, but I'll take what I can get. We sat down and enjoyed a light breakfast and a cup of coffee or two and engaged in small talk. It was about 8:30 and she said she needed to get ready for the client. We stood up and she walked over and untied my shorts and pushed them down and then took my shirt off. She asked me to wait in the bedroom for her and get as comfortable as I wanted. I laughed and said, is this my hint? She looked at me and slid her hands in my panties and pushed them down and said, that's your hint.

I walked into the bedroom and shed my bra and just lie on the bed, watching TV. It was at least an hour and a half or so when Janice finally walked into the bedroom, where she just stood at the door looking at me. I had put the covers over me, as it was a bit cool in the house. I threw the covers off of me and spread my legs for her and said, is that what you prefer? She smiled and began to unbutton her coat to reveal no bra and no panties under her scrubs, as she kicked them off. I smiled and said, that's a great look on you, if only I would have known. She joined me on the bed and said well you did mention something about if I had been dressed differently. I laughed as she lowered her head and took my tit in her mouth. Over the next 30-minutes we were all over each other, including some quality pussy eating from the both of us. I told her I was hoping to get a good fucking from her again. She smiled and said, Oh, I plan that, several times. I also hope you will consider returning the favor at some point today.

We got up from the bed and she handed me a robe to put on and went and enjoyed some more coffee. I asked her what time her next appointment was and she told me it was not until 3pm. I smiled and said, so we have a lot of free time, whatever will we do to fill that. She laughed and said, I'm sure we will figure something out. We made small talk and I learned a lot about her and she me. The talks were mostly things along those lines for a good hour or so when she took my hand and said, I would like to talk serious for a bit, if you don't mind. I nodded and told her that I was fine with that. She stood up and took my hand and led me into the bedroom and we shed our clothes and lie in the bed. I was on my back and she was on her side next to me, tracing my boobs with her finger.

Janice: I would like to know what you're thinking about all of this.

ME: Which part?

Janice: All of it.

ME: I'm clearly attracted to you that is a no doubter in my mind. The dog, I will be honest I am still conflicted, but not as much as I was. I find myself questioning my morals and what this means for me going forward, if I choose to continue this path.

Janice: I get that completely. Trust me when I tell you, I fought the same thing when I ventured down this road. I am at piece with myself and I hope you can trust me when I tell you, that you will get there. I am glad to hear that you feel good about you and I, because I'm clearly attracted to you as well. Do you have any expectations about us in general?

ME: Expectations? I don't have any at all I see this as two women having fun. Do you?

Janice: Not at all, I agree we are two women enjoying each other's company.

ME: Are you worried about anything?

Janice: Not worried at all, just wanted to have this talk and make sure we were on the same page.

ME: Don't worry on my end, I am comfortable with what we have going on here.

We kissed and she looked at me and said, Let's get my boy in here. I gave her a smile and said, sounds good to me. She called for her dog and he came charging in the bedroom and up on the bed. He was more in the playful mood at first, as he rolled on the bed wanting us to play with him. We started to rub his back and kissed him on the top of his head but other than the occasional lick to a tit, we saw no action. He eventually rolled over onto his back, so we started to rub and scratch his chest. We were both laughing at how playful he was being and Janice leaned in and we kissed. We locked lips for a few moments when she took my hand and slowly started to slide it down his chest. She held my hand as we both scratched his belly, when she moved it a bit more and put my hand on his cock. I started to pull back but she squeezed my hand and told me to relax, there was nothing to be scared of. I looked at her and just left my hand there with hers. She leaned in and said, give it a squeeze. I once again froze, but with the help of her hand, I squeezed his cock. She kissed my on the neck and said, how does that feel? I was breathing heavy and I was sure it was because she was whispering in my ear. I told her that I was not sure to be honest. She pulled her head back and buried her tongue in my mouth while using her free hand to squeeze my tits. I was breathing hard and was not even aware, that I was jacking off her dog, with the help of her. It was a couple of minutes when she broke the kiss and said, look at what you did. I looked down and saw his cock, at full attention. I let out a gasp and started to pull my hand away but I didn't and with no help from her. I just looked at it for several moments when Janice leaned in and said, touch if you want, just be gentle. I hesitated and never moved and Janice must have realized I was confused, so she grabbed it and began to stroke it. This went on for a few minutes, as I just stared at her stroking her dog. She took her hand off and opened her palm and without thinking I placed my hand in hers and she slowly lowered my hand, onto his cock. It was slimy and warm to the touch but I slowly gave in and started to stroke him as well. Janice let go of my hand and let me have his cock all to myself and watched as I started to get into more and more. She used her hands to keep my motivated by playing with my tits and pussy, until he released his cum and I froze. I wasn't sure what to do and Janice said, great job. He is a happy boy now.

We lie next to each other and she made sure I was doing okay with what just happened and I told her that surprisingly I was. She kissed me and said, I'm glad, I don't want you to do anything you don't want to. I thanked her for that and told her that I was truly fine and if I was honest, a bit turned on by it. She kissed me and said that she had to get ready for her appointment, but I should just lie here and make myself comfortable. She got herself dressed and out the bedroom she went. I turned on the TV and made myself comfortable. I noticed that she left the bedroom door open about 6", but paid it no attention. It was about an hour or so when she returned and joined me naked, in the bed. She asked what time I had to leave to get my son, I smiled and said, I don't. He is staying with a friend of his from school overnight. She smiled wide, as she leaned into kiss me and said, spend the night. I played coy with her and said, well I don't know, whatever will we do with all that time. She leaned over my shoulder and got real close to my ear and said, I'm not sure, but this may have something to do with it, as she shoved her finger in my pussy. I moaned and said, is that all? She shoved her finger in farther and asked, what else do you want? I spread my legs wide and told her, I want you to fuck me, several times. She shoved a 2nd finger in and licked my ear and said, oh that's a given. I also want you to fuck me, as well. I told her that I would love that.

She fingered me to a mini orgasm and then lay next to me on her back, with her arm around me. I rolled over and kissed her while squeezing her tits and eventually sliding my hand to her pussy. She opened her legs for me and I gave her what she wanted, 2 fingers. I moved down to suck her tits and nipples while I fingered her hard. She lifted her legs and I wasted no time in moving down there to eat her pussy, while fingered her. She had her orgasm really quickly and I licked her juices up and shared them with her. She told me to reach inside the nightstand and grab her strap-on and put it on. She helped me get it on securely and spread her legs wide for me. I positioned myself and pushed it in to a nice deep moan from her. I copied the same thing she did to me by taking a good 30-minutes to a slow steady pace, while sucking her tits. She began to move her legs around and then lifted them straight up in the air and I knew what she wanted. I lifted up and placed them on my shoulder and drove it into her deep, as she moaned and her body shook from a major orgasm. I again repeated what she had done to me and started fucking her hard and fast and getting more aggressive on her tits, which she clearly appreciated. This lasted another 20-minutes and I collapsed onto her chest, totally exhausted.

We decided we needed to eat some dinner, but first we took a shower and got cleaned up and decided that we would stay in to eat. We dried off and just dressed in robes and headed off to the kitchen to make some dinner. We cooked our meals and had a glass of wine and sat down to enjoy. We made small talk over dinner about anything and everything, as we enjoyed our dinner. I helped her cleanup the dishes and we poured another glass of wine and decided to go set on the deck in the backyard. She lit a fire in her pit and it was the perfect solution to a chili night, in just robes. We sat side by side on a bench style swing and just enjoyed the night air and each other's company. I told her how comfortable I was here and how much I have enjoyed myself. She returned the statement and told me that she was glad to have met me. She told me that she had a confession to make. I looked at her and said, ok. She told me that when she left to get ready for her client this afternoon, that she intentionally left the door open, because she wanted her client to see me. She went on to explain that she has suspected for some time that this client was flirting with her, as she would make appointments for her cat that really had nothing wrong with it. I wanted to tell her that I was interested, but figured that if she saw you she would see that I was interested in women at least. She looked over at me and said that her client did see me in there naked on the bed and she stopped to look, while I was coming out of the restroom. She said, I walked up behind her and asked her if she was ok and I must have startled her, as she stumbled on her words for a second or two. I put my hand on her shoulder and we both watched you for a few minutes, as I slid my hand down her shirt and inside her bra. I asked her if she would like to be introduced to you, but she declined. She started to turn around so I pulled my hand out of her bra. She faced me and unbuttoned my jacket and returned the favor for a few seconds. I told her that she was welcome to stay, but she declined. I had long ago finished my wine and didn't want to say, but I was wet. I asked her how and the hell did I not see you both and she told me that I had actually dozed off for a bit. I nodded and told her that made sense. She asked if I was upset and I told her not at all, it's kind of flattering if I am honest. I don't know how I would have reacted if she came into the room that could have been a different result. We laughed and continued to enjoy the weather, fire and our wine of course.

We had polished off a bottle of wine between us and we both were feeling really good and she suggested that we play truth or dare. I laughed and told her that I have not played that in years, since I was a teenager. She said that's all the more reason to do it now, relive those memories. I said, why the hell not. We decided that the punishment for refusing a dare would be to do what the other person wanted, for 10-minutes. We flipped to see who went first and she won the toss.

Janice: Truth or Dare

Me: Truth

Janice: You are getting into playing with the dog

Me: Yes! Truth or Dare

Janice: Dare

Me: Take your robe off and set out her naked

She did not hesitate one second and through her robe on the deck. We went back and forth for a good 15-minutes when the dares became more daring. By this time we were both naked and not really caring one bit.

Janice: Truth or Dare

Me: Dare

Janice: I dare you to lick my ass for 30s

Me: Turnover

She turned over and I licked as I was dared to, but it ended up closer to a minute, as she conveniently forgot the time. She apologized while laughing of course.

ME: Truth or Dare

Janice: Truth

ME: Do you have sex with your dog?

Janice: yes

This did not surprise me, as I suspected it, but it did take me off guard. She asked what I thought of that. I really didn't have an answer and just said, I'm not sure. She said are you disgusted? I shook my head and said no that was no it, just caught me off guard. I thought you might have, but I guess I wasn't ready to hear the truth. I assured her I was fine and let's continue, as this was pretty fun.

Janice: Truth or Dare

Me: Truth

Janice: Have you looked at your dog differently, since this started?

Me: Yes

Me: Truth or Dare

Janice: Dare

Me: I want you to lick my ass, for 3 minutes.

I lied down and she got to work licking my ass and doing it quite well. I was moaning for a solid minute or so, when I felt her rub her finger over my ass. I stopped moaning and was taking in what she was doing and realized it felt really, really good. She continued the combination of licking and rubbing for her 3-minutes and helped me up.

Janice: Truth or Dare

Me: Dare

Janice: I want you to let my dog eat your pussy, here on the porch.

Me: DEAL!

She called him out and rubbed my pussy so he would pick up my scent and for 15-minutes, I enjoyed a good tonguing from him.

ME: Truth or Dare

Janice: Truth

ME: Do you sleep with any other customers?

Janice: yes

Janice: Truth or Dare

Me: Dare

Janice: she stuck a finger in my pussy before she asked, Let me call him over and let him fuck us both.

I just looked at her while she picked up the pace of fingering me and I said, Do it. She gave me a quick smile and got her cell phone. She got off the phone and said, He's on his way over. She told me what she could about him in the very short 15-minutes and we went inside to wait for him, just in our robes. I was not at all nervous for whatever reason I actually was a bit excited about the idea. The time flew by when there was a knock on the door and then it opened. I immediately dropped my head, as I recognized him as my banker and turned about 50 shades of red. He came in and was just about to introduce himself to me then realized he already knew me. Janice laughed and that started all of us to laughing about it. I made the comment, small town huh.

We all drank a glass or two of wine, while I joked that I would never go in the bank the same way. He reached down and untied my robe while saying, I won't say anything if you won't. I smiled and said, that won't be a problem with me. He slid the robe off of one shoulder to expose my tit as Janice pulled his shirt over his head. He turned to Janice and untied her robe and took it completely off and started to rub her tits and then suck on them. He stood up and we both undid his belt and then his pants, while he finished taking my robe off of me. We walked into the bedroom and Janice turned my back towards her and pulled me close and started to kiss my neck, while he played with my tits and started to suck them. She held my hands to my side while he rubbed my clit and finally stuck a finger in. She let my hands go and pointed them at his boxers to pull them down. I pulled them down to expose a very nice cock and I did what I have so missed doing, dropping to my knees and start to suck on it. Over the next couple of hours we had all kinds of fun in the bed with each other and it was definitely worth the dare. Before he left he put his arms around me and said, you know this could be our secret, if you wouldn't object. I smiled at him and looked at Janice and told him let's see what happens. We walked him to the door and said our goodbyes with a kiss.

I turned to Janice and said, that was a lot of fun, but I hope the night is not done. She smiled and said, not even close, dear. I said Good, Truth or dare? She looked at me and said, dare. I walked up to her and said, I want you to fuck your dog, while I watch. She smiled and leaned over and whispered, you sure you just want to watch, as her hand was rubbing my tit? I let out a soft moan and said, for now. She took my hand and led me to the bedroom and called her dog in to join us. He jumped on the bed and began to lick her pussy to a chorus of her moans, as my wetness was becoming pretty obvious. This continued for several minutes, when Janice flipped over and up on her knees she went. I watched with my eyes wide open, as her dog mounted her and despite a couple misses, found his spot. I'm not sure I blinked while I watched her dog pound her pussy, as she was moaning and praise him for his performance. He continued on for about 15-minutes, when he stopped and began to push hard against her. I have read about this and knew he was trying to tie her up and he was successful, as she declared her orgasm. He began to hump again, but only for a few seconds and I figured he was dumping his seed in her.

For the next 15-minutes, they were locked together, as he spun around and they were ass to ass. I would be lying if I said that I was not turned on by this, my pussy showed all of the evidence. He eventually freed himself and out of the bedroom he wondered. Janice turned onto her back and smiled, as I lie next to her. She asked me what I thought and I jokingly said, It was all right. She put her hand between my legs and said, seems to me it was a bit more than all right. We laughed and I told her that it was definitely educational. She looked back and said, Truth or dare? I smiled and said, Dare. She looked at me dead serious like and said, Eat my pussy. I looked at her and then her pussy and noticed that his cum was still leaking out. I moved very slowly into position, knowing that I really didn't have a choice, as the punishment would mean I would most likely have to do it anyway. I licked a little of his cum and gave it a taste, it was definitely different than I have tasted from men, but was not that bad. She told me to swing my legs around and get on top of her, so she could eat as well. We both started eating pussy and I was licking up her dog's seed, while she shoved a finger in my pussy, causing me to let out a deep moan. It was not long after than when she put her hands on my ass and pulled it apart, slightly. I let out a soft moan, as I felt her tongue flick my asshole and she responded with a hard lick across it. She lifted her legs for me, as if to give me a hint and I took it. We both were licking each other's ass, when she put her finger up there again and started to rub. I have never had anyone do that with a finger and I realized, that I really liked it. I returned the favor for her and she thanked me with a mild orgasm. It was then that she started to press her finger into my asshole and I immediately clinched. She told me to relax and that I would really enjoy this. I relaxed after a minute or so and she slowly pushed her index finger into my ass, while sticking her thumb in my pussy. I immediately started rocking my hips and moaning, as she had both fingers working in concert and I had a body shaking orgasm, as a result. We finished up a few minutes later and just collapsed onto the bed.

We got ourselves composed and I turned to her and said you are turning me into a dirty girl. She leaned in and whispered, if you will let me. We kissed and held each other for about 10-minutes and she said, it's time for more wine. We jumped up and put our robes on and back outside we went. She lit the fire again and we sat there, enjoying our wine by the fire. She asked me what time I had to be home tomorrow and I told her probably no later than 4. She smiled and said that's good, because we may not get to sleep until 10am. I laughed and asked her jokingly, what do you want to do to me? She just said, whatever you will let me do. I just looked at her and raised my eyebrows and drank the last bit of wine in my glass. We topped each other's glasses off and it was not more than 5-minutes when I had finished my 2nd glass and was feeling pretty good. She laughed at me, as my English was getting a bit sloppy and she took advantage of the opening, by asking me Truth or dare? I laughed out loud and said fuck it, dare! She slid next to me, put her hand inside my robe and squeezed my tit and said, Suck and swallow my dog. I looked at her and said, bring him out here and I'll suck him right here. She went back into the house and returned with him in no time and helped me roll him over. I started to stroke his cock through his sheath and after 3-4 minutes, he came to life. I gave it a lick and wasted no time, in my mouth it went. I was sucking his cock and taking as much of him, as I could. I had not realized that Janice had gone inside, but heard her return and then felt my robe being pulled apart. She threw the bottom of my robe onto my back and I felt that dildo pressing against my pussy and in it went. We established a rhythm of me sucking while she fucked me and it was no more than 10-minutes when he shot his load in my mouth. I swallowed him and only lost a drop or two, as he worked his way up and back inside he went. I collapsed on the deck and she followed me down, pinning me under her own weight. She was slamming that cock into me as hard as she could and I let out a scream that probably woke the neighborhood, as I had a massive orgasm.

We sat on the bench and she asked, how was it? I just looked at her and told her that it wasn't as bad as I thought it would be. She asked if I was feeling any better about my choice to engage the dog. I paused and said I think I am. I'm sure I will know more when this alcohol wears off, but I'm not having the same thoughts as I was. She held my hand and said good, I honestly think you will learn to accept it, because you see the difference between abusing them and loving them. She continued by saying, you know there is still one more thing to do. I looked at her confusingly and then nodded my head she wanted me to let him fuck me. I told her that I'm sure I would get there, as I enjoyed watching him with you. She smiled and said, I'm glad to hear that. I smiled at her and said, you really do want to turn me into a dirty girl. She just looked at me and asked would that be such a horrible thing? I shook my head and told her that I didn't think it would be.

We both were feeling the effects of the wine and all the energy we have expended to this point. I asked her when she discovered her attraction to dogs. She told me that it was about 10 years ago when she first did anything with a dog. She had a client bring in a dog that was vomiting and not wanting to eat as a result of that. She said that she diagnosed him with a parasite and put him on antibiotics and told the owner to bring him back in a few days for a follow up. When he returned he was in much better spirits and his appetite had returned, she said. She gave him a checkup and that it required her to press on his stomach, to see if he had any discomfort. She noticed that his cock had come out of its sheath about 2-3" and I just stared at it. She explained that she did not know why she did it, but she touched it. She was somewhere between terrified and curious and curiosity won out, eventually. We talked for another hour or so about anything and everything and we finally decided to take a shower.

We took notice of the clock on the way to the shower and laughed at the fact it was almost 3:30am. We had been going pretty much non-stop for almost 24 hours, and we still wanted more. I was somewhere between tipsy and hammered and more than once she had to hold me up in the shower. She washed the front of me making sure to tease me at every opportunity. I was really enjoying her hands all over my body, so I just closed my eyes and let her rub me all over. She turned me around to wash my back and when she got to my butt, she dropped the washrag and used her hand. She rubbed my cheeks and then slowly slid her hand in between, as I let out a moan while 2 of her fingers rubbed my asshole. She reached around with her left hand and started to rub and squeeze my tit, while her fingers were massaging my asshole. She leaned in and kissed the back of my neck, as I felt her middle finger begin to apply pressure. I instinctively spread my legs and as I felt the finger enter my ass, I let out a deep moan of approval. She whispered, I think it's sexy, as hell you like that. Maybe sometime we can try something else, in there. I just nodded not really paying attention to what she said I was feeling to good to care. She worked my ass over for several minutes until I got my reward, a nice soothing orgasm. She whispered again to me, So what do you say? I turned and said, about what? She said, How about we take you in the bedroom and get you up on all fours.? She was still rubbing my asshole, as I answered that depends. She said, on what? I spun around and said, you going to eat my pussy when he is done? She smiled and said, I'm going to eat more than your pussy, dear.

She led me to the bed and told me to lie on my stomach and began to rub my back, while calling her dog in. She spread my legs and began to rub my pussy, so that he would pick up my scent and start the licking process. It was only a few minutes later, and he did just that. I lifted my hips just slightly so that he could get easier access, as Janice pulled my cheeks apart for him. I was in heaven at this point, the combination of him licking my pussy and ass was just too much and I had my first orgasm. The licking continued for several minutes more when she told me to get up to my knees, as he was ready. She asked me if I wanted her to put socks on his paws, so I wouldn't get scratched. I just shook my head no and told her I would be fine. She slapped my ass a couple of times and up he went, I immediately realized that the socks may have been the play here, as he slid down my back until he found my hips. He pumped the air a few times and then it happened, in one continuous push, he was buried in my pussy, as I let out a moan. I was motionless for 15-minutes while he humped me and at one point the reality kicked in, I was being fucked by a dog. It was after that 15-minutes that he all but stopped and began to push hard against me, I recognized what he wanted and remembered Janice telling me about this. I took a deep breath and slowly pushed back against him, until his knot was in. I let out a soft scream, as it hurt initially, but I got used to it. He started his pumping and again and I felt him release inside of me and I voiced my own pleasure, as I came with him. When he finally pulled out of me, I felt him leak out of me and Janice wasted no time, she dove in and started licking my pussy getting as much of his cum as she could. I felt her push her tongue in my pussy to make sure she got as much as she could.

She finished up with me for the moment, as she crawled up and lay next to me. She asked how I felt and I just said, It felt really good, if I am being honest. I guess you have succeeded in making me a dirty girl, I said, jokingly. She brushed my hair back, kissed me and said, you are getting there. I looked at her and said, what else is there? She laughed and said, there is as much as you want to experiment with. I thought for a moment and said, well, I guess I won't know until I do experiment. She smiled and told me to lie there and enjoy, as she crawled back down towards my pussy. I anticipated this and had my legs spread open, as wide as I could. She placed a pillow under me to lift my ass in the air and I knew what was happening, and I couldn't wait. She spread my cheeks and started licking my ass and rubbing her fingers at the same time. It was no time at all that my moaning started and not long after that until I had a minor orgasm. I remembered thinking I could let her do this all day if she wanted to and I had a feeling that she would. It was not long after that orgasm that she began to apply pressure with her index finger, I let a moan out again and in it went. She developed a good rhythm with her finger and lowered her head to start eating me again. I was beside myself again with all that was going on, that I didn't realize until a few moments later that she had worked a 2nd finger in my ass. I was calling out her name over and over and actually rocking my hips back and forth onto her fingers, when I had my 2nd orgasm. She let me enjoy this orgasm for a few moments and then pulled her fingers out. I was a bit disappointed at first, then felt something hard pushing against my ass, I clinched only to have Janice tell me to relax. I looked over my shoulder to see that she was holding a dildo and was applying more lube to it. I turned my head and just rested it on the bed, as she finally worked that dildo into my ass. For the next 20-minutes or so, she fucked me with this dildo, while fingering my pussy, causing me to have my 3rd and 4th orgasm, each more powerful than the last. She pulled the dildo out, licked my pussy of all the excess juices, as she said I think that is enough for now. I had to agree at this point, I was beyond exhausted at this point and really for the first time, wanted to sleep.

I don't know what time it was when we fell asleep, but it was 2pm when I was woken up by moaning. I rolled over to find that Janice was getting her pussy licked by the dog and rubbing her clit while he was doing it. I gave her a quick kiss and told her that I had to watch this. She smiled at me and told me to enjoy myself, which I did as I started rubbing my pussy. I saw an opportunity arise and I took full advantage of it by scooting down towards the dog and I started to jack him off. I was only content with this for a few minutes and decided I wanted to taste him again, so I flopped on my back and slid under him. I took his cock in my mouth and began to suck him hard and fast, I wanted his load again. Janice was very close to an orgasm, as she made that fact very clear, by screaming that she was about to cum. I picked up the pace of sucking and it was not long until he gave me what I was wanting, a mouth full of his seed. I crawled out from under him and he was out the door of the bedroom and off to wherever it is he goes.

It was getting late in the day and I knew that I had to get home in time for my son to come home. We both got up and had some late lunch and talked about all that took place the night before. She asked me where I was with all of this emotionally, given what has transpired over the last 24+ hours. I gave it some thought and told her that I am at peace with it. I see that this is something that I enjoy and I definitely want it to continue. She smiled at me and said, you are welcome anytime to come over and play with my dog, until your dog gets older. I told her that hopefully it wouldn't be just the dog that I would be playing with. She laughed and said, oh no dear, I have just started with you, I have many more ideas. I lifted an eyebrow at her and said, for some odd reason, I can't wait.

Over the next several weeks, I made more of an effort to stop by on my way home, usually 2-3x per week. I have completely accepted my reality that I enjoyed sex with dogs. I have not done anything substantial with my puppy other than on one occasion when I had just gotten out of the shower and I pulled my robe open on the couch and he licked my breast. Janice and I have had sex with other of her clients and a few of them, their dogs. I see the banker from time to time and it's strictly a sexual arrangement, including from time to time with his Rottweiler. I look back over these few short months and see who I have become, and I love it. I no longer seek constant attention that is found in traditional relationships, as I don't have the patience for that. I love being able to show up to Janice's and get what I want, either from her or her dog. I love walking into the bank, but not before removing my bra and teasing the banker. I love when he says, I am going to sick Rudy (Rottweiler) on you, being as quiet as he can, and I simply respond, whenever he wants it.

It was on a Tuesday evening that I stopped by to see Janice. I had some great news and couldn't wait to share it with her. I walked in and headed back to her office to see that she was talking with a client. I apologized and walked out to the living room to wait for her. It was maybe 15-minutes when she walked out and found me in the living room, sitting on the couch. She came over to me and gave me a kiss and said, it's good to see you tonight. I noticed she had 3 buttons of her jacket undone and I could tell she was not wearing a bra. I pulled her jacket open while saying, was I interrupting anything. She smiled and whispered, I am trying to close the deal with her, want to help? I smiled and said, what do you need me to do? She said, play along as I am going to introduce you as my secretary and you stopped by to tell me that an important appointment cancelled. I nodded and we kissed and she took the time to shove her hand under my skirt and give my pussy a nice rub. I let out a soft moan and reached up to unbutton 1 more button on her top, exposing the top of her tit when she bent over. I quickly called my sitter and told her I would be held up at work, for longer than I thought.

We walked into her office and I recognized the client, as I am sure she has seen me naked on the bed, as we continue to play that game as well. I extended my hand to her, as Janice introduced me as her secretary, I told her it was nice to see her again. She blushed just a little bit, and I knew at that point she saw me naked on the bed. I apologized for interrupting them and assured her it wouldn't take long. She smiled and said, it's okay take all the time you need. I turned and smiled towards Janice, who was standing behind her desk. I walked over and intentionally stood off to the side, as I pretended to point to something in her appointment book, as Janice bent over to pretend to look. I could clearly see her tits, but wasn't sure about the client. I peaked over my shoulder and got my answer, she was staring hard and had crossed her legs, a clear sign to me. I looked back at Janice and pretended to point something out and I decided to just go for it and unbuttoned 2 more buttons on her jacket. She stood up and her jacket opened to expose her completely, as I watched the client just stare at them.

Janice walked slowly to the couch, towards the client who still did not take her eyes off of her tits. She stood in front of her for a few seconds and then reached for her hands, and stood her up. She brought her hands to her tits and then let them go. The client hesitated for a few seconds and Janice said, t's okay. The client slowly started to squeeze, rub and play with her nipples. I removed my top and bra and decided to sit on the couch, just in my skirt. The client noticed me, but turned her attention to Janice quickly, when she realized that Janice had unbutton her shirt just enough to slide her hand in and play with her tit, as well. This continued for several minutes and Janice had managed to unbutton her shirt all the way, and had both of her tits exposed. Janice gave me a look and I slid over on the couch, almost directly behind the client. I started to rub her back for a couple of minutes and then stood up to stand behind her. I rubbed her shoulders and started to pull her shirt off of her, as she dropped her hands to make that possible. Janice seized the opportunity by bending down and licked her tit and then sucking it. At this point the client was breathing hard and just kept her hands to her side, as I was kissing her neck and playing with her other tit. It was not long after that when Janice went for her shorts and got no objection, as she pushed them down to the floor. I kissed her on the cheek and said, let's go to the bedroom so we can take care of you. Janice took her hands, as I pushed her panties off to the floor.

We got in the bedroom and I quickly undressed Janice and she me, and we joined her on the bed. For the next hour, Janice and I took turns eating her pussy, playing with her tits and of course fingering her. We both found out that she was a squirter, as she got me in the face and Janice was quick to lick it off of me. Janice took over the pussy eating, as I got up to put on the strap-on, we both were going to fuck this woman into space. I climbed back onto bed and lifted her legs and rested them on my shoulders and slid that cock into her, deep. I was sitting and fucking her, as Janice was going from licking her clit to sucking her nipples. This woman was a vocal lover, as she was moaning, screaming encouraging words at me and I took the hint. I grabbed the top of her thighs for leverage and began slamming that cock into her with all my force. She screamed really loud, as she shot another stream on me and Janice was quickly on it to lick it up. I asked Janice if she was ready and she said, Oh fuck yea. We switched positions and she quickly put on the strap on and picked up where I left off. I was sucking her tits and rubbing her clit, keeping her in the loud zone. I loved just how vocal she was and I am sure that Janice was, as well. Janice fucked her for a good 30-minutes to one more squirt and I don't know how many orgasms, but this woman was spent. We helped her up after lying with her for a few minutes and telling her that this can't be the only time this happens. She assured us it would not be, as she really enjoyed us both. We three kissed and out the door she went.

I jumped on the bed face down and spread my legs, I had no time for talk, I needed dick, even if it was a silicone one. Janice climbed on my back and did not waste any time, as she started fucking me hard. It was no time at all that I was having my first orgasm of four. She pounded my pussy for a good 20-minutes and then pulled it out, only long enough to slide it into my ass, that's right I am an anal sex slut. She fucked me to 2 more orgasms and I was spent and so was she. We caught our breaths and decided it was time for some water. We walked into the kitchen and sat at the table, getting rehydrated. She thanked me for the help and I just laughed and told her I was glad I was here for that. She reminded me that I had news for her, as I almost forgot about it. I smiled and said, yes, great news! She said, lay it on me. I grabbed her hand and said, I'm yours, all weekend if you want me. She lit up like a runway and said How is that possible? I said, my son is going away on a boy scout camping adventure, won't be back until Sunday night. She smiled wide and said, I would love to spend all weekend with you, in fact truth or dare? I laughed at her and said, dare! She grabbed my hands and asked, Let's go to my farm this weekend and invite some really good friends. I was not prepared for this, as I had no idea she had a farm. I looked at her and said, What friends? She smiled and said, some you know, some you don't, but I can promise you they are "good" friends. I smiled and said, Done!

I was excited to go away for the weekend and could hardly stand the three-day wait until that happened. I knew Janice was busy with her clients trying to get all of the appointments in before then, so I contacted the banker and told him quite bluntly, I need some dick. He laughed and said, my dick or my dogs? I told him, both. I told him to come over at 9:30pm as my son would be asleep and we could go outside. He said that's fine, I will be there, but I want something from you. I said, ok, what's on your mind. He said, I want to show up at 9:30 with you fully nude and on all fours. I said, fine, but I want you to fuck me and fuck me good. He assured me that would not be a problem.

It was 9:30 and I stripped and went out on my deck, on all fours, as requested. I had to wait about 2 minutes until I heard him and his dog come around the corner of the house. They walked up on the deck and the dog immediately smelled me and was hard at work, licking my pussy and ass. The banker stood over me, dropped his pants and fed me his cock. It was not more than 5-minutes when the dog mounted me and found my pussy, humping away. I buried his cock in my throat with each thrust, matching the rhythm of this gorgeous dog. It was no more than 10-minutes later when I felt the dog begin to tie me up, as I pushed back eagerly, wanting that huge knot of his buried in my pussy. The banker pulled his cock out of my mouth, afraid that he would shoot and wanted to save that for my pussy as well. The dog finally freed himself and it was time for some real cock.

He walked behind me and told me to lay flat on my stomach, which I did with no hesitation. I love getting fucked like this. He climbed on top of me and slammed his cock in me, to the hilt. I let out a muffled scream, as I had a very nice orgasm. He continued his hard fucking of me for several minutes, when he suddenly pulled out and I felt him press against my ass. I let out a moan and lifted my hips for him and he pushed in to my ass with one thrust to a deep moan out of my mouth. I spread my arms and just relaxed, as he pounded my ass for a good 15-minutes or so. He finally gave me his seed, as I was in a puddle of my own, after 3 orgasms and a very powerful squirt to boot. I lie there for several minutes, when I felt a cold nose on my ass cheeks. I knew it was his dog, so I reached back and spread my cheeks wide for him to lick up the mess. The banker mentioned that his boy was hard again, and I quickly spun around and buried his cock in my mouth, sucking him with all I had. It was not long until my effort paid off, as I felt his load slide down my throat. I kissed the banker and his amazing dog and thanked them for helping me out.

It was finally Thursday and I wanted to stop by Janice's to see what I needed to bring for the weekend. I arrived at her place and just walked in and found her in her office. We kissed and of course, felt each other up. I asked her what I needed to bring with me, she smiled and said, very little. She said she had more than enough food, essentials and that we wouldn't need much in clothes. I smiled and said oh we are going to be naked a lot. I like it. She laughed and said, we are going to be naked a majority of the time, if you are okay with that. I just smiled and said, I would expect nothing less. I told her that I had taken the day off and arranged for my son to stay at with a friend, so what would be a good time to come over tomorrow? She said, whenever you would like, I have a one more client in the morning and that is it. We kissed and played just a few minutes and home I went.

I got there at 8am, with hot coffee and some donuts. I walked in and found her in the bathroom getting ready for a 9am appointment. She was still in her bra and panties, so I walked up behind her and put my hand down the front of her panties and rubbed her clit for a few seconds. She said, your going to make my panties soaked for this client you know that, right. I laughed and said, would that be a bad thing?

She thought for a moment and said, probably with this client. I groaned and pulled my hand out and told her that coffee and donuts were in the kitchen. She joined me and enjoyed a donut or two and a cup of coffee. She said that we could leave anytime we wanted, since I was off today. I said, hell yea. I've been excited since you asked me. She asked what I packed and I said, nothing. She smiled and said, same here. We made small talk until her client walked in and I just sat on the couch and watched some TV. The appointment lasted about 45-minutes and within 15-minutes after that, we were on the road.

The drive was to be about 2 hours, she said. We passed the time by singing and just overall being silly girls. We of course played a bit, as I fingered her and played with her tits and she fingered me, as I sat up against the door. We finally arrived at her farm and it was quite impressive. It was tucked at the base of the hills and had zero visibility from the road. I noticed a horse stable and a few cattle roaming the grounds, as well as some chickens making all kinds of racket. I thought to myself, I could so live here year around. We walked in and put away some groceries that we picked up and immediately stripped.

We embraced in a passionate kiss, as her hands were on my ass, squeezing them nice and hard. She leaned in and whispered, I seem to recall you doing something at the office, I think we should finish that. She took my by the hand and led me down the hall into the bedroom, and threw herself onto her back and opened her legs wide. I dove right in eating and licking her pussy into a very nice orgasm and then quickly joined her on my stomach and wiggled my ass at her, I wanted some dick. She giggled as she put on the strap-on and climbed onto my back and gave me what I wanted. She was giving it too me the way I love it, fast and hard for a good 15-minutes, when she whispered, after this weekend, you will officially be a dirty girl. I moaned, but I don't think it was because of what she said necessarily, I was in the middle of a very deep orgasm at the time. She eventually climbed off of me and we headed off to the kitchen to get something to eat and relax with a bottle of wine.

We sat and talked about what was in store for the weekend and it was clear that it was primarily, sex. I noticed that she kept smiling at me and occasionally would giggle. I asked her what was so funny and she just smiled and said, oh nothing. Just looking forward to your reactions, as they show themselves. I gave her that quizzical look and asked her what she had in mind for the weekend. She only told me about the friends that would be visiting, 4 guys and their 4 dogs. She said that we were going to be the entertainment for the weekend. I smiled and said, oh my, I guess we are, as I felt my pussy get wet. She asked if I was ready for that and I just told her, whatever works, I am game. She leaned in and kissed me as she squeezed my tit and said, I'll remember that. I asked her when they would be here and she told me that they would not be here until tomorrow afternoon most likely. I nodded my head and continued to sip on my wine.

We nearly polished off that bottle of wine and the both of us were feeling no pain. We were giggling at random stupid stuff and fantasizing about the weekend and getting fucked by 4 men and 4 dogs. We both were pretty wet and I was ready for another round, but she abruptly stopped my hands from roaming and said, come with me. We went into the bedroom and she handed me a tank and some shorts and said, let's go for a horseback ride before it gets dark. We headed out to the stable and she told me to wait at the entrance, as she led two beautiful horses out. I thought it odd at first, as I would have helped her, but never thought any more about it. She did ask if I was comfortable riding a horse and I told her that I was, as my grandparents had a farm and I would ride as a kid. She assured me they were great riders and shouldn't cause any problems. She grabbed a couple of wool blankets and off we went.

She led us down a trail through the woods and I just took it all in and other than the occasional low hanging branch, it was a beautiful ride. We rode for a good 20-minutes, when the woods opened up to a small pasture, the view was breathtaking as we had the hills in the background and the weather could not have been better. We tied the horses off, laid the blankets down and popped the cork on another bottle of wine. We both were lying on our backs and staring at the amazing landscape and I told her that I was insanely jealous of this place, and her. She kissed my cheek and said, years of hard work, dear. I have always wanted a farm to run away from it all, when I found this place I had to have it. I told her that I could understand that, as I wish I could afford an escape like this. She held my hand and kissed my cheek and said, well hon. You are welcome to come out here anytime you want, in fact bring your son and make it a weekend for the both of you. I asked her if she was serious and she just said, of course. I don't get out here as much as I would like to, so there is no point in just letting it set here. I asked her who takes care of the animals when she is not here and she explained that a neighbor, about 5 miles up the road checks on them daily and makes sure they are fed. I thanked her and told her that I would definitely take her up on that.

We nearly polished off the 2nd bottle of wine, while we stared at the sky and continued to take it all in. She rolled up to her side and used her elbow for support and looked at me with a serious look and asked if I was ready and ok for this weekend. I didn't answer with words initially, instead I sat up and took my shirt off and said, as long as it means I don't have to wear clothes. She sat up and I removed her shirt as well and then our shorts. I dropped back down, as she began to kiss me and play with my tits. It was not long before she had 2 fingers in my pussy and was leading me to a very nice orgasm, and finally a nice powerful squirt. I was ready to return the favor for her, when she said, not now there is something I want to show you. She helped me up and we walked the short distance to the horses, and leaned up against one of them, as she buried her tongue in my mouth. I was moaning through her kiss, as this was an especially passionate kiss. She broke the kiss and said, aren't these beautiful animals, as she ran her hand down their back. I turned around and told her that they were very beautiful and joined her on the rubbing.

She kissed me one more time and I suddenly realized what she was getting at, she was looking for my reaction. I turned to her and kissed her and then whispered, I need to see this. She took me by the hand and we dropped to our knees and began rubbing his rib cage and then his belly. It was not long when she made the move to his massive cock and began to stroke it. I watched with much curiosity, as my pussy was very wet. She took my hand and told me join her, as we both crawled under the horse. She continued to stroke his cock, as I was now less than a foot from it myself. She took my hand and guided to his cock and for the first time, I felt a horse's cock. As we stroked this massive tool together, she looked at me and said, why don't you kiss it? I pondered this for maybe 2 seconds, and I just bent over and kissed the head of his cock. I was taken back by the taste just for a moment, but I couldn't help myself, as I stuck my tongue out and began to lick his head and then up the shaft. Janice had shifted behind me and to encourage my progress, she stuck a finger in my ass, she spoke up to say, try and suck it. I didn't hesitate as I found my way back to his head and just opened as wide as I could. I pushed my head down and felt his massive cock stretch my jaw to the point I thought it was going to break. I adjusted the depth to the point it was comfortable and began what I love to do, give head. I was sucking for a good 10-minutes when she told me that I better pull out, as he would drown me if I tried to swallow and wasn't ready for it. I pulled out and we both jacked him off to ejaculation and I was stunned by how much he shot. I thanked her for the heads up, as I would have drowned. I did take the time to taste it and it was not that bad, so Janice and I licked some of it up and swallowed it down.

We began our journey back, as the sun was starting to set. She jokingly said, you may and have already become a dirty girl. I smiled and said, well I do owe all of that too you, if that is true. She just laughed and told me that I was welcome. We put the horses away in the stable and off to the house we went to make some dinner. We talked about the "friends" that were joining us tomorrow and she explained she knew them well and that there was one that was very well endowed, and had stamina for hours. I smiled and said I can't wait! We finished up dinner and enjoyed it on the front porch, as the sun made its official exit. I commented on just how peaceful it was out here and the view was unbelievable. She just smiled and said I know it is truly a slice of heaven out here. I asked her if she has had sex with the horse yet and she said, I have dear. I asked her if it hurt and she explained at first it did, but once you learn to relax it feels amazing and leads to earth shattering orgasms. I smiled but was clearly nervous and she assured me that I didn't have to if I wasn't comfortable. I asked her if she had planned on that this weekend, she kissed me and said I hoped you would. We washed up and she said that we had better get some sleep tonight, as it was not likely we would get much through Sunday, once the guys got here. I did take the time to fuck her and she returned the favor by giving me a good ass fucking.

It was around 7:30 when we woke up, put some coffee and jumped in the shower. We sat on the porch and enjoyed the nice cool weather and our coffee. I told her that although I was nervous, I wanted to try and fuck the horse. She gave a smile and told me that she would be there with me and only go through with it, if I felt up to it. I asked her if this is what she had planned for the weekend, among other things? She smirked and said, I hoped. I asked her if she was going to fuck the horse and got a very resounding, Oh Fuck Yes! I told her that I definitely wanted to see that for sure. She looked at me and then gave me a quick kiss and said, come on.

We slipped on some shoes and made our way to the stables and led the beautiful, lucky boy to a bench that was setup in the middle of the stable. She positioned him and on the bench she went. She asked me to help get him excited and I couldn't move fast enough, as I started rubbing him. It was not long until that did the trick and his elephant trunk showed its impressiveness. She took control and rubbed her pussy to get her own juices flowing, as I sat and felt my own wetness start. It could not have been more than 10-minutes until she was announcing her orgasm and told me that she would need my help with him. She lifted her knees and shifted herself closer to him and asked me to hold onto his cock and gently slide it in, but not very far as she could only take a few inches of him. I rubbed her pussy with his cock to get her juices on him and slowly pushed it into her throbbing pussy. I watched her face to tell me when it was enough and was told to hold him there, as she began to ride his cock. It was not long until she started to shake from another powerful orgasm, as I was sure he was rubbing her g-spot with a lot of force. For a solid 20-minutes she rode this massive cock and I estimated at least four orgasms. It was not long when she screamed very loud and said, He's filling me up, and sure enough, his seed came flying out of her pussy and soaked the bench she was lying on. I had been busy rubbing my own pussy and had my own orgasm while watching this.

She slid up on the bench and took several deep breaths, as I licked the horse's cock clean and tasted his tasty seed mixed with her sweet tasting pussy. I stood up and moved the horse away, so I could get at her pussy and enjoy more of that mixture. I attacked her pussy with my tongue, while burying 2 fingers in her pussy to scoop up what I could of his seed and into my mouth it went. I ate her to another orgasm and then gave her a very deep kiss, letting her taste the nice mixture. I told her that I was extremely turned on by that little performance, when she took my hand and said, lay down. She helped me on the bench and walked over and led the horse back over to the bench. I took a big deep breath, as she started rubbing my pussy with his cock and this went along way in helping me to relax. She asked me if I was ready and I just nodded, as I lifted my legs and spread them wide open. She rubbed the opening of my pussy for a second and then began to push his head into me. I squinted my eyes, as it was pretty uncomfortable but as the head pushed in, it got a bit more comfortable, especially when I had a quick short orgasm. I began to slide up and down and for the next 25-minutes, I was getting the fucking of my life. My eyes were in the back of my head, as one orgasm after another shot through me. When I felt his stream of cum hit me, I slid further down on his cock, to a mixture of pain and pleasure, but definitely mostly pleasure. As I did for Janice, she moved the horse back and licked me clean, pussy and ass.

We slowly walked back to the house, a bit sore from getting fucked by a tree trunk, but made it to the shower to get cleaned up for our friends. We put on panties and a tank only and sat on the couch waiting for their arrival. We didn't talk much about the horse encounter, she knew I enjoyed it and knew I would want it again. It was about 2 hours of waiting, when we heard a truck pull into the drive and we knew our guests have arrived. They did not bother to knock on the door and I watched as four very handsome men walked in the front door and greeted us, still on the couch. My eyes widened when I saw 4 dogs enter, 2 Great Dane's, a pit mix and a pure black lab. Janice was the first to stand up and greet them all with hugs and kisses. She introduced me and I returned the sentiment, as well. We each were joined on 2 separate couches, with 2 guys on each side. We spent a good 30-minutes just getting acquainted, when the talks became more focused on Janice and I, from our men. It was then that the action began, when one of my guys whispered, Is the tank top necessary? I smiled and said, not if it's in your way. I lifted my arms, as both guys lifted my tank off and began to grab and suck on my tits. I rested my arms on the couch behind them, and slid down in the couch and propped my legs up on the ottoman, with my legs open. I closed my eyes and just let the men do what they wanted. It was not long when my panties were removed and I had fingers in my pussy and even a test finger in my ass, to gauge my reaction. The man that tested my asshole, looked at me while he did and asked if that bothered me. I just looked at him and said only if that's all you plan on using. He kissed me and said, not at all. For the next 30-minutes I was in a very good place, as I had 4 hands and 2 mouths all over my body. I took a quick look over to Janice and she had a cock in her mouth, and several fingers in her pussy.

Over the next 14 hours, I would say we were fucked no less than 25 times each, not including the dogs. We fucked the dogs at least twice each, including one of the Great Danes, getting my ass, as I ate Janice's cum filled pussy of men and dog, as she sucked one of the men's cock. We both were being treated as sluts and we loved it. It was one particular occasion when one of the men had me pinned on my stomach, fucking my ass and asked me if I would take 3 cocks, at the same time. I just moaned and responded, do what you want. They got me into position and in no time, I had a dick in my pussy and ass, while I first sucked off the lab and then one of the other men. There was one event that has always stayed with me, despite the endless hours of fucking. I was not aware but one of the dogs was in fact a female. One of the guys started playing with her pussy and I nearly came on myself, as I watched him slide his cock in. For 10-minutes he fucked this dog, as he would fuck Janice or I and delivered his load in her. It became even more intense, as I watched Janice move over to her and begin to lick her pussy and clean his cum off of her. I was so turned on by this, that I reached for the first cock that I could find and stuck it in my mouth and began to aggressively suck it. The lucky man whose dick was in my throat, made a statement along the lines of, if you like seeing that, won't you join her. I thought about it and decided, fuck it. I leaned over, as Janice spread her lips and I licked my first dog pussy, and loved it. I stayed on her pussy long enough to get another dick in my pussy and filled with some hot seed. It was finally 6am when we fell asleep, covered in cum.

We woke up at noon on Sunday and made lunch, as the guys said they needed to leave in a few hours. We ate and headed back to the bedroom, to get another round from them and the dogs and by 4pm, they were gone. Janice and I showered up and decided we needed some food and a bit of rest. We enjoyed our dinner with wine of course and relived an amazing 18-hours of fucking. I jokingly said, I think I am an official dirty girl. She laughed and said, Yea, I think you made it. We began to make out and she said, I don't know about you, but I could use a horse cock. I did not need to be told twice. We did not bother with clothes and just slipped some shoes on for the walk. We both fucked the horse one more time each and of course swallowed as much of his seed, as we could get. I told her that one time I wanted to try and swallow him. She smiled and said, I have tried and I couldn't do it. I nodded and doubted that I could do it either, but I wanted to try anyway. We wrapped up the weekend with one more round of fucking each other and unfortunately, had to head home.

As I sit writing this story, almost a year and half later, I can't help but reflect on what I have become. I am a proud slut, both to men, women and all animals. My puppy is no longer such and he fucks Janice and I regularly. Janice and I are essentially in a relationship, but will never make it official, as we just don't see the point. We have seduced a few more of her clients and even spent time on the farm, with only women. I have on one occasion stayed at the farm all weekend, with the 4 men, by myself. I still see the banker whenever he wants some pussy, ass or watch me fuck my dog, his dog or both. To put it simply, I will fuck whoever or whatever, just ask!

The End
