BEASTIALITY STORIES

When we left the ranch life, we moved to a major metro area, where my recently widowed mother-in-law lived. We stayed with her temporarily til we got back on our feet. She ran a boarding house, and ran a dog grooming business. She was retiring from grooming, so my wife took that over until she found a better job. I had already lined up work before we arrived. We rented the lower level of her house which had been set up as a small apartment.

One day I came home from work, and my wife and m.inlaw were in the wash room grooming a huge dog. He was some kind of wolf hound or something, a beautiful animal, but as huge as a pony. My wife said she had a night job that started that night, so I would have to buy supper at a fast food joint somewhere, and would I finish grooming the dog? I asked what's left? She said wash & dry him, feed him & put him in a kennel. Oh and would I mind shaving his balls? Goodbye. Then she was gone.

I mumbled that I didn't know the 1st thing about that, and wasn't about to learn. Besides, I was going to eat before I touch a dog that needed a bath. My m. inlaw was standing nearby petting the dog during all this, and she stated that she wouldn't mind finishing the dog while I went and ate. I said fine, thinking this was all her idea anyway. Don't get me wrong, I loved her dearly. She was a very attractive blonde tanned lady a little over 60 yrs. old, who had huge tits, (about double G's) & a nice round ass to go along with a little extra tummy. She'd been widowed a little over 2 yrs. from my wife's stepdad, and hadn't had any problems getting dates. She even dated an ex NFL player who shall remain nameless, but is quite well known.

I went to the local burger joint, & when I got back it was night and the house was dark. I assumed she was asleep so I quietly walked through the house in the dark.

I was just about to turn the TV on when I heard a moan coming from the dog washing room. I recognised her voice and thought she had hurt herself, so I raced into the room and turned on the light. What I saw at first took me a couple minutes to figure out. Like daughter like mother I guess...

There was that lovely older lady laying on her side with her bathrobe up around her shoulders, butt to butt with the wolfhound. He was laying on his side also, panting away.

After assessing that she was not hurt, I chuckled softly, and squatted down at the juncture of the 2 of them and said, I see you got his nuts shaved. She said yes, then I gave him his bath, and he must have got stimulated, because he jumped out of the tub and raped me. I said how did you manage to change into a housecoat, when you were dressed when I left? She had a guilty look on her face, so I decide to have some fun.

I didn't tell her about me spying on her daughter in a similar situtation several yrs. earlier, but I stood at her head and unbuckled my jeans. I dropped my pants and laid down in a 69 position. I didn't have to say a word, she just gobbled my cock down, and milked my balls for all they were worth. I couldn't help it, I shot my load so fast.

As we rested, I asked what happened. She said she groomed and bathed him & noticed his huge red cock sticking out. And since it had been so long since she'd been with a man, she decided to give it a try. He knotted with her, but her pussy had clenched down so hard that he had yet to subside enough to withdraw. Then it got dark and she couldn't reach the light switch. Finally she coaxed him into laying down, and shortly after, I came home.

I still didn't know much about dog breeding, but had seen them locked together several times and it looked uncomfortable. So I got closer to see if I could help.

The dog stood up, but looked comfortably relaxed. I felt behind her large ass cheeks, and could feel her pussy bulged out around his knob. It felt really wet and slippery. I poked my head inbetween them for a better look. I couldn't believe my eyes.

Flaring out from her neatly trimmed blonde pussy curls, were the biggest, longest, fat pink pussy lips I had ever seen. It almost looked twice the length of the slit on a mare. And they dangled there, all bloated and dripping a thin milky fluid.

I said you must have had one hell of an orgasm. She said no, just a couple small ones, then being scared when I came home kind of shut her down. I said what about all this juice? She said all of that is his. He must have cum 5 times, but most of it was still trapped in her pussy. I saw on the floor, a fairly large puddle of drippings. I couldn't resist, and scooped some up and reached for one of her massive swinging jugs. I swear they reached all the way to the floor on her hands and knees. I rubbed some on the giant pink areola of her left breast.

She asked what I was doing? I said trying to help you out. Maybe if I heat things up again, you can cum and loosen up enough for him to pull out. She said if I get any more heated up, I probly won't want him to pull out. I gently kneaded her heavy tit. It weighed close to ten lbs. After a few minutes, I worked back to her big ass again, and massaged those big round white cheeks.

I spread her butt cheeks as wide as I could, and thought about plugging her ass with my cock, which was getting hard again. But I was never into anal sex, so I looked to see if that had opened her big pussy up at all. I could see the lips spread somewhat, but the inside was still contracted pretty tight.

I started petting the soft wet pelt of her big blonde pussy mound, and she started moaning and sighing. I grabbed her big meaty lips with both hands and gently squeezed. She let out a throaty moan, and I felt my hands getting drenched in jiz.

I started tugging and milking them like a cow, and sort of wringing them like a wash cloth. She told me she loved it when her husband used to play rough with her twat, and often he would fistfuck her.

Believe it or not, I was kind of shocked to hear this beautiful reserved, classy lady talk like this, even after catching her screw in the pooch. I looked underneath her to see how long I was stretching her twat lips, and got another surprise.

There staring me in the face, was the biggest fattest clit I had ever seen. My wife's was big at 1 1/2 inches, but this was at least 3 inches long and about 3 inches around. It curved outwards, and even had a flared head just like a small cock, only without the hole in the end. I said oh my god, what is this?!?! She said Oh please grab it, and squeeze it too, only not to hard, just firmly. I gently grabbed the shaft and jacked down on it twisting slightly, & rotating it. I was careful not to touch the head. She started moaning, and her hole body shuddered.

I looked down at her pussy just in time to see it balloon outwards a lot, then with a pop and loud splash the knob appeared. The wolfhound's freshly shaved balls were drenched in juices. Then the biggest dog cock I've ever seen, slowly slid out of her cavernous cunt.

It hung down bloated between his legs and almost reached the floor. It was covered in foamy sperm, and dripped all over the floor tiles. He went to a corner and cleaned it with his tongue.

I turned back to her ass and spread her ass cheeks as wide as they'd go. There in front of me was her purple, stretched out gaping pussy hole. It was pulsing open and close. It was so packed full of sperm, that it looked like an opened mayonaise jar. I couldn't resist, and plugged my rock hard cock in. I buried it to the balls in one stroke, and just savored the hot, wet, smooth sensations.

I reached down with both hands and scooped 2 handfuls of cream, then brought them under her heavy swinging udders. I grabbed a nipple in each fist, and covered them each in a mixture of dog and well seasoned woman jiz.

She groaned a little, and I started fucking my ass off. I could feel her big hard clit hitting my balls with each down stroke. Being my second cum for the night, I was able to hold off long enough for her to shoot the goo all over my crotch. Then I gave that old lady both barrels. I blasted so hard that the excess juices shot up her ass crack hitting me in the face. LOL!

I reached for her tits again, and found that she had gathered them under her face and arms like pillows. She had both big hard pink nipples starting her in the face and was alternately sucking and licking the dog sperm from her stiffened spikes.

She greedily ate every last drop.

This gave me an idea. I pulled out and sat in a chair facing her and said why don't you come over and clean me off. She wasted no time in crawling over and sucking every drop of sperm, hers, mine, and the dogs, off my cock and balls.

I started getting hard again, and she pulled off and stood up. She said her knees were getting sore from being on the hard floor so long, and would I be a gentleman and give an old lady my chair.

I stood up with my dick sticking out, not knowing what to do next. But she had an idea of her own. She spread her legs wide and pulled her big pussy lips open and there it was again. Her fat clit, like a redtube of lip-stick, sticking out like a cock. She said be a good boy and give momma a blow job just like she gave you.

I couldn't resist, and knelt between her wide open thighs, and started licking that fat blonde mound. It smelled very strong of woman and animal. I gave the head of her big fat clit a tentative lick, and she said you can do better than that! She grabbed my head and pushed it far into her catchers mit of a pussy. In order to breath I had to lick and fight my way up for air. I was so covered in juice that at that point I didn't care anymore. I pressed forward and wrapped my lips around that fat springy woman dick. I sucked gently while swirling my tongue around the thick shaft. Whenever I would get down to the base, just above her hole, she would buck her hips up. Presenting me with her milky hole. I started licking the outer and inner edges, up and down. She moaned loudly and the hole opened up and blew an enormous load of the thick cream all over my face, hair, and ears.

I looked up to laugh and saw that the dog had moved alongside her chair, and he was so tall, his cock was right at her head level. She was expertly giving him the best blowjob I had ever witnessed. You could tell she loved licking and sucking that giant dong. She lovingly swirled her tongue around the huge knot that she had exposed by now. Then as she squeezed it a watery stream sprayed out into her face and blonde curls. She quickly caught the spraying cock in her hungry mouth and started sucking in earnest. Then she looked down at me and winked and smiled with her dog cock stuffed mouth.

I went back for another helping of Mom's homemade pie.
