BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2012 by pumplover

I've written one true story here about rascal, and how I lost my ass cherry to a black lab, somewhat by accident, but with also a willingness to be fucked by canine cock.

This is one of my other true follow up stories about "Mike", a large dog with a massive cock that I fucked multiple times by no accident. With Mike it went from being rushed, and confused about having a dog cock inside me, to being a deliberate experience with time and privacy to have a complete experience multiple times. Hope you enjoy this story about one of my true encounters, never before told until now, so I can share with like minded people.....

I'd lost my virginity via a black lab cock fucking my ass. An accident turned into pleasure, I'd been hooked and fucked several times and was a virgin no more, and a fan of dog cock....

Some years passed with little activity....a dog cock here and there that I jerked, or that ended up in my mouth for a nice suck and cum, but my ass needed to be penetrated and fucked by a nice dog cock again. I thought about it often, and that chance was about to present itself again, and I would not let it pass me by.

I was in college, and a group of us guys would often "go to the country" to a friends house and hang out on his land, which consisted of hundreds of acres of fields and some ponds. It was just a nice get away to relax, and chill. I was out quite regularly, with or with the group to walk and explore.....this is where I met Mike.

Mike was a large mixed breed dog, maybe great dane or mastiff, very large with a very large cock that I instantly noticed....a cock that would glide out and glisten red as he sat mesmerizing me. Mike and his other dog friend would visit me every time I was on the land..... I assumed they belonged to some distant neighbors and enjoyed the company..... Mike got his name because a buddy commented he reminded him of mike Tyson, as he was always trying to mount and fuck the other dog.....Something I noticed too, and it made my cock hard and my hole throb to be mounted and fucked.

On one of the days of my lone visits, mike came running as he heard my car, and was happy to see me. I wasted no time, as I petted mike and worked my hand down his belly and began to stroke his big, hanging cock in it's sheath.....He responded by pumping my hand, and I was shocked to see his cock grow to a massive size I'd never seen before, about 10 inches in length and big and thick. Entranced by the glistening, blunt dog cock head staring me in the face, I guided it toward my mouth as my lips opened to stretch around his massive member. His hot cock felt amazing as I sucked, and swirled my tongue around while I jacked him. He pumped against my hand and lips and his cock continued to swell and grow more massive to my amazement.

I wondered how this cock was going to fit inside my ass, but I knew I had to have it inside me all the way....With good rhythm controlled by my hand, mike continued to fuck my mouth until his massive cock slowed pumping, and I began to taste his cum spasm in shots in my mouth....I took it out to marvel at the cum pumping out the tip and hitting my face, only to lay it back on my tongue.....I felt his massive knot that was so big it didn't fit in my hand, and thought "god this will never fit inside me!"...it was bigger than a large orange. The thought of that cock and knot inside me made me weak from desire..... A desire to feel a dog cock inside me again, a massive cock. I knew I had to make it happen.

Taking that massive dog cock up my ass and getting fucked by mike was all I thought about that night and the next day in class, so when the school day ended I grabbed a bottle of wine to lessen my resistance and take my mind off the pain I was going to feel from mating with mike and taking the knot....The pleasure would be worth it.

Mike came running at the sound of my car as usual, and was excited to see me. I'd just sucked him the day before and he must have known he may get more...jumping and humping, with me grasping his large cock to turn him on. He jumped on me and pointed his cock toward my face, which I tasted for him, but pushed him away and told him I had "something more fun in mind today"....I drank down the wine as evening came on, and without a soul around to interrupt us, I began to shake in anticipation as I stripped out of all of my clothes in the secluded field Mike and I were sitting in. He began to dance and his cock was hanging out in anticipation. No shoes, no socks, no nothing.....I wanted to be mounted and fucked like an animal.

Mike knew what was happening and began to dance and jump on me trying to feed me his dick. I had to wonder if he'd fucked other people or was just that horny, since he seemed so experienced at this. Since he was such a big dog, he jumped up on my back, grabbed around my waist while I was still standing, and began pulling me down trying to fuck me. Giving in to his demand I bent down slightly and in a matter of seconds I could feel his molten hot cock stabbing at my throbbing hole as my knees trembled...A few quick penetrations put me down on all fours like the bitch he wanted and with a few more strokes his cock found my ready hole. The few quick stabs were amazing, and then as I had remembered and wanted, his massive cock found its way all the way deep inside me, and with a massive filling, pain/pleasure and shaking he was deep inside me and pumping feverishly. This large dog had his paws clamped around my waist, breathing in my ear and he was fucking me like a jack hammer with the juicy sounds of his cock pumping my ass sending me further into a trance. There was no pulling out, no stopping....this dog was a pro and fucking my ass deep and as hard as he could with his massive cock that filled me up. I couldn't believe that big cock was all the way inside me, but the desire and pleasure took away any pain....After what seemed like an eternity in the now moonlit field, the sloppy, juicy sounds of Mike fucking my ass grew louder as I felt hot liquid running out of my now thoroughly stretched hole and down my legs.....Mike began to slow rhythm and I could feel his massive cock knot growing, moving in and out of me.....A combination of the wine and desire washed away fears of the damage his knot may do, and I felt ready, so I pushed back a little to make sure Mike stayed inside me, the knot, now massive, as if someone had just rammed their fist deep inside me...

I collapsed forward as Mike's knot pulled back to just inside my hole and was firmly inside me, filling, stretching, and sealing the cum he was now filling me with, with his gentle pumps, as I could feel the hot cum swelling in a massive pool inside me. I was fucked and bred by a massive dog with a massive cock, in a field stripped of all clothes and knotted....My years of waiting for this had been fulfilled.

After what seemed like an hour, Mike popped out of me with a sensual wet "pop" as juices flowed down my legs and I felt thoroughly mated and satisfied. I sucked on Mike's dripping cock to taste his juices and he began pumping again. I'd never seen a dog with the sexual drive he had! I didn't dress, as I gathered Mike would want to mount and fuck again, and a few hours later Mike was jumping, and mounting, his cock finding a familiar ready, wet hole made so by his own cum to fuck again....This time my stretched hole allowed his knot to pop in and out of me as it grew sending me over the edge.....I came as he popped inside of me again, filling me with hot cum for the second time in a span of hours.

The next morning, my sore hole reminded me of how pleasurable the evening and night before was. I went back to fuck Mike many times, in the fields, in the woods etc....and the sensation of a dog cock fucking me has never been matched and still burns with my desire. I haven't had such an opportunity since, and that massive cock opened me up to exploring horses and pony's in my quest to be filled and bred by massive animal cocks. There was nothing quite like having that massive dog cock deep inside me for the first time though.
