It was Saturday afternoon and Sandra had been sprucing up her apartment all day. She was expecting a visitor for the evening. A man!

She knew him from forumZOOne, a forum for animal lovers. She had often chatted with him there. They shared common interests. Since they didn't live far apart, they met from time to time.

Around seven in the evening the doorbell rang and he was standing at the front door. She grinned. "The main thing is that he doesn't get his hopes up," she thought to herself. She had no interest whatsoever in a relationship. Yet he was actually quite a handsome man. Mid-forties, tall, athletic, and short hair. Andreas was his first name.

After the greeting, during which her Master jumped around like a young dog, they sat together in the living room. First they engaged in some small talk, which was trivial but relaxing. Master lay on his place on the sofa, Sandra and Andreas next to him. It was just right, because Master asserted his role as her owner. Master occupied more than half of the quite large sofa.

It did not take too long, however, as their conversation became more and more salacious. It soon crackled, because they talked about animal sex. Sandra told him about her experiences, how she kissed her master's butt and when the dog farted in her mouth. Andreas stumbled at first and was visibly surprised. But it fascinated him more than it deterred him.

"Show me how you smooch him on the ass," he finally said.

Sandra didn't take long to get down on her knees in front of the sofa until her face was level with her master's butt. She took his tail, held it up and brought her mouth to his asshole without hesitation.

With her tongue she licked over it, kissing the hole, she almost forgot her spectator. Andreas was fascinated. He couldn't wait any longer and took off his clothes. Then he pulled down Sandra's sweatpants and noticed that she had worn nothing underneath.

He smirked. "That horny bitch," he thought to himself.

He reached into her crack and fingered her while she continued to kiss and tongue her dog's ass.

"Fuck him," she said suddenly.

Andreas was surprised. "What...? Really?!" he replied.

"Yeah, sure! He'll like it, he likes my fingers too."

Andreas wasn't exactly short, and many a woman has complained that he was too long for her. But then again, it was a Great Dane and he was horny.

Sandra patted Hector on the flank and he stood up.

"Go ahead, take him," she urged Andreas and he got behind the dog.

Great Danes are big dogs, so the dog's butt was at almost ideal height for him. The rosette was nice and wet from Sandra's mouth and tongue and he put the head of his cock on it. Then he slowly squeezed into Hector's ass.

Inch after inch disappeared into the dog. Hector showed no discomfort, on the contrary, Sandra saw a thick knot forming in the sheath.

Soon the human cock was balls deep inside the dog and Andreas started to fuck Hector. First slowly, then he pushed faster and faster into the dog's ass. Hector grunted pleasantly and Andreas gasped. It didn't take long and his arousal overcame him so much that he came. He pushed himself deep into the dog, groaned loudly, and unloaded his seed deep into the dog's bowels.

"Yay," Sandra whooped excitedly as she watched Andreas ejaculate into the male dog. As he pulled out his flaccid penis, she took the man-cock into her mouth and sucked it clean. She licked off the deliciously tangy taste of her master. She didn't linger on it too long, however, but switched to Hector's butt and continued licking there. She sucked out the man's cum and thought to herself, "Yummy, chocolate with cream."

Soon Hector clearly showed that he was horny and now it was his turn. His knot was still thick in his sheath and the tip of his penis was not only peeking out a bit, but also dripping.

"Your master demands his due," Andreas said with a grin, "Chop chop! On all fours!"

Sandra obeyed, but not because he said so, but because he was right and Master wanted it. So she knelt on all fours. Master wasn't surprised when he saw his bitch ready to fuck with someone else present.

He licked through her slit a few times, then he climbed on top of her. He thrust forward again and again with his pelvis and Sandra noticed how his hard penis tip searched for her cunt.

"Just not in the butt!" she thought to herself.

Andreas cheered the male, "Fuck her, you horny mutt!!!"

Master quickly found what he was looking for. Sandra squealed as he drove his long and already quite thick penis deeper and deeper into her pussy with powerful thrusts. Master soon reached her cervix. But it was no obstacle for the powerful male and he rammed through. She whimpered while he pushed through again and again. But she liked it when he did that to her. She loved it when his prick pushed deep through her cervix and fucked her more deeply than any man could ever do.

After master had completely penetrated her, his powerful thrusts subsided and he finally tied her with his thick knot, Andreas stood behind the mated pair. The sight of her being rammed by this huge male dog made him so horny again that his cock was standing erect.

He pushed his penis into the Great Dane's ass again. As he did so, he pushed the dog forward a little.

"Oh God, what are you doing?" whimpered Sandra from under the dog.

"Well, I'm doing what the mutt is doing to you," he replied, chuckling.

When Andreas was completely inside the dog, he started thrusting hard. Sandra gasped in time to this under the dog. She felt the male dog go a few millimeters deeper with each thrust Andreas made. She whimpered, but it turned her on immensely. Again and again she orgasmed. "Yessss, fuck him, fuck him hard!" she cried. Andreas didn't have to be asked twice.

He kept thrusting into the dog as hard as he could. Hector grunted and he was almost worried that the male might not like it. But Hector pumped his sphincter on Andreas' cock and squirted his sperm deep inside Sandra.

Groaning loudly, Andreas came one more time.

"Typical man," Sandra thought to herself. Master lasts longer.

Andreas pulled out his penis, turned to her head and forced his half flaccid man cock into her mouth. While Master continued to unload his cum deep inside her. She sucked the man's penis clean and even managed to get it stiff again.

Master took what felt like an eternity before he finally finished. He gave her enough time to make Andreas cum a third time. Since she had no other choice with her mouth full of man-cock, she swallowed the man's sperm.

Sandra had cum about a dozen times by the time Master finally finished with her and pulled out. Unlike her master, she barely managed to get onto the sofa. As soon as his cock disappeared in his sheath again, he lay down on the sofa and quickly started snoring.

Andreas gave her a break and got a few appetizers and something to drink in Sandra's kitchen.

Andreas had only been there three hours. They had an even more exciting weekend to come...
