BEASTIALITY STORIES

Chapter One

I found Steave as my new boyfriend . he is so loving and careful about my life that I cant stop my self to invite him to stay with me in my house. He impressed me so much with his love . and one is the biggest thing is that he don't have any problem with my canine life . so we have decided to live together in my new house and soon we both and my Grate dane shifted to our new house and Harculus "the Rawtweiller was shifted to my friend Jeneffer's house".

I was trying to do was be a nice neighbor. My boyfriend Steave and I live on a normal street in a normal town. Our next door neighbors, Bill and Kethy , are so good and they loved very much their pets .Bill and Kethy had asked us to feed their dogs while they were on vacation. They also had a pair of Grate Dane, a male and a female. The female had just had a litter of puppies about 8 weeks ago. Kethy really didn't want to leave them but they had non refundable tickets. I had told Kethy not to worry, that I would look in on them frequently. The dogs knew me well and even though the male was really big I wasn't afraid of them.

My breasts had always been large and ever since I had a big litter of puppies before 50 day's. they felt swollen and hot and full of milk .one day started to leak milk because stimulation of my nipples a lot and jeneffer sent my puppies to kennel . I don't have any puppy to nurse him with my breast . doctor said to me that If I left alone they would dry up on their own but I actually could not leave them alone and because I wants them filled with lots of milk always that's why I played with them they had started to produce more and more.

We had a long day and it was bedtime. My Boyfriend was already in bed asleep and I was getting undressed. I was disappointed because I was feeling a little horny tonight. I get horny around the time of the month I ovulate .it was happening again. Suddenly I remembered I hadn't fed the dogs next door. I was tired but knew I had to do it. I was naked but put on my short cotton robe and tied it around me. It used to fit better but now barely closed. I was only going next door and it was dark outside.

I walked across the lawn to the neighbors. I unlocked their front door and went through the house to the backyard to were the dogs were. I opened the door to the yard and went out to check on their water. Male and female came up to greet me. They really were sweet dogs. The puppies were big enough to get around the yard on their own. There were eight of them and Kethy was going to advertise them for sale when she got back. The female went back to her bedding and I noticed her teats hanging down. They were very long and I could only imagine all those puppies nursing.

I went over to where their water bowls were and bent over to check them. Suddenly I felt a wet nose touch my backside and go in between my legs. My robe had ridden up exposing my nakedness. It was the male Doberman and he sniffed and then licked me there. It pleased me, but I didn't straighten up right away. He was lapping at my pussy now and I closed my eyes and thought how this felt so good. I came to my senses after a moment and thought that I am not in my own house and this not my Dane Jacky. I stood up and pushed his head away from me. I must have been giving off some scent he liked because he continued to try to get back to my naked pussy.

I was trying to get back to the door of the house when one of the puppies tripped me and I fell down. I rolled to my hands and knees and started to get up. My robe had ridden up over my hips leaving my ass exposed. I was catching my breath to get back up when I felt the big males tongue on my hairy pussy lips (my Boyfriend loved pussy with hairs that's why I stopped the waxing and shaving my pussy and grown up my pussy hairs). He was spreading them open trying to get deeper. His tongue would rub across my clit which was swelling up. I knew I should get up and away but I hesitated because I was in lust. That was a big mistake.

I was lost in the feeling when he stopped. I thought he was done so I started to get up. Suddenly I felt this huge weight land on my back knocking me back down. He was on top of me with his front legs wrapped around my waist. I could barely support his 100lb plus weight with both my arms so I couldn't reach to push him off. It didn't register to me right away when he was doing until I felt it. His hot dripping dog cock was poking me between my legs. He was trying to mount me.

I panicked but this was so embarrassing. I was hoping he would give up and get off me. My pussy was wet from his licking and maybe a little from me enjoying it. He was very determined and finally got the tip of his cock into the entrance of my pussy. Once he felt my heat he quickly shoved most of his cock inside me. Wow how big he was and he wasn't even all the way in. He grabbed my waist tighter and shoved more in. He was much thicker and a lot longer than my Boyfriend. The feeling of his naked cock inside me was incredible. He was so much hotter.

He started fucking me faster than any man. I felt the tip of his cock deep inside me touching my cervix. I felt an orgasm building and tried to hold it back. A dog was fucking me, I shouldn't be enjoying this should I? I decided to just let go and let things happen. Just as I started to cum I felt something hard and big banging into my pussy lips. My orgasm washed over me and I actually started pushing back on. My hips were grinding my clit on it when I opened up more and it went inside me. This caused another orgasm deep inside my pussy and I clamped down on him.

The spasms inside my cunt slowed down and I felt it now. His knot was swelling up bigger inside me. He was getting bigger and bigger and I was getting a little scared. I knew what it was now. He had shoved his knot in me and it was swelling up to lock us together. It was of such a size now that I knew it wasn't coming out. Male dogs were equipped like this so their seed had a better chance of staying inside the female. That's what I felt next, his seed shooting deep inside me. It was so hot and there was a lot of it. He was so deep inside me I thought he might actually have gotten his pointy tip past the entrance of my uterus.

He was in my womb, my fertile womb because I was ovulating. Surely I couldn't get pregnant, because I am not in heat that time. I knew he was potent because his mate had just had puppies. The risk and thrill of all this made me even more excited. We were locked up tight and he threw his leg over me positioning us buttock to buttock. He pulled slightly and he couldn't come out. His magnificent cock was still spurting deep inside me. My robe had come open and my big tits were hanging down. With his weight off of me I reached up with one hand and pulled on my nipple. They were very sensitive and with his knot pressing on my G-spot I closed my eyes.

I felt a warmth deep inside my breasts as I pulled on my long nipples. Milk started to flow from them squirting onto the grass below me. I let go of them and rocked back and forth on his cock. I felt something touch my nipple. I looked down and saw one of the puppies first lick it then take my nipple into its mouth.. I guess they were drawn to the scent of my milk. The puppy was getting some from me because it didn't let go. Soon another puppy waddled over and took my other nipple into its mouth to suck. There I was, breast feeding two Doberman puppies with their dad's huge cock stuck in my pussy.

Their little puppy teeth would nip me now and then sending a shock through my breast. Their dad was still inside me and I could feel his load cause my lower belly to swell. He pulled again on where we were joined but it wasn't ready. I had no idea how long we had been locked together. Surely he would shrink back down so he could get out. He tried again and slowly I started to stretch. Just as the pair of puppies had their fill of my milk his huge knot popped out of my stretched out pussy.

followed by what felt like a foot of thick cock.

I flopped to the ground on my side worn out from the fucking. I could feel his seed leaking from my well used pussy. I smiled to myself he sure had tried to knock up his new bitch. As I lay on my side the rest of the puppies came to me to nurse. I let them take turns drinking from my milky breasts. I wasn't sure if I had enough for them. I felt very motherly as I stroked them while their little bellies filled up. Soon everyone was done and I was able to stand up on shaky legs I filled their water and food bowls and started back into the house. I turned around and looked back almost not wanting to leave. I saw the big male sitting there looking at me. It was almost like he had a smile on his doggy face. I smiled too and closed the door and headed back home.

As I walked home I could feel some globs escape my pussy and run down my leg. When I got back into the house everyone was still asleep. I quietly went to the bathroom and took a shower. My nipples were sore from having all those puppies nursing on them. My pussy still dripping dog cum so I got out and towed dry. I got into bed with my sleeping Boyfriend. I finally drifted off to sleep and had strange dreams. I was outside naked. I was in a strange backyard. I was laying down on a blanket and there were lots of puppies competing over my breasts. They were hungry and I was needing to feed them. I was their mother. These were puppies I had given birth to. I saw their father standing guard in the yard. It was the big DANE . He had really got me pregnant.

Chapter Two

It had been 2 days since my encounter next door. I had asked my Boyfriend to feed the neighbors dogs yesterday since I wasn't sure what would happen if I went back. It was early afternoon and he was at work today. I had a job where I could work from home and I made excuses that I needed some time alone today.

I was in our bedroom standing in front of the full length mirror. I was naked and was looking at myself. I was in my late teens I thought I looked pretty good. I'm about 5'7" with shoulder length dark hair. I had put some highlights in it but I needed to get those redone. My waist is slim and my stomach still pretty flat. My hips have still in good shape . My ass hasn't fallen and looks good in jeans. My legs are tone in them from my sports days. I look between my legs. My bush is darker then my hair. It's full and thick and very curly. I had trimmed it before but had since let it grow back to where my boyfriend likes it. I have full outer lips and they are hairy too. The only thing out of place are my boobs.

I still think they look way too big for my body. They are teardrop shape and look heavy because they are. I could swear my areola are twice as big as before since I had puppies . My nipples stay erect all the time which can be embarrassing. I picked them up feeling their weight. I rubbed my thumbs across my nipples watching them spring back and get even harder. They are still a little sore from the workout the puppies gave them.

As I stand there breathing in I smell something. I sniff again and I realize it's me. I haven't taken a shower since the evening with the dogs and that's been 2 days. I smell like sweat and something else. I spread my legs a little wider and I know where the source is. I reach down between my legs and run my hand across my pussy. It feels damp and a little sticky. I bring my hand back up to my nose and inhale. It's a different smell then I normally have. It's powerful and I suspect it's heavy with pheromones. It's the smell of a female in heat, namely one that's ovulating and fertile.

Why was I wet? Why hadn't I taken a shower in two days? I knew why. I still couldn't get the thought of the big male Dane's cock deep inside me out of my head. My scent had turned him on. As I stood there looking at my naked body my breathing increased and my chest flushed pink. I was falling into a sexual fog.

I shook my head and told myself to snap out of it. Bill and Kathy were our neighbors and I couldn't get all worked up every time I was around their dogs. I decided to just get dressed and go over there and feed them like I promised I would. I would just ignore any feelings that started. I slipped on some cotton shorts and an old t-shirt. I didn't put any underwear on because when I got back I was going to shower.

I walked across the lawn to their house in the warm sunshine. The t-shirt I was wearing used to fit fine, but now it was stretched tight across my boobs and my nipples were poking out. I was ready to put my arms across my chest if I ran into anyone. I didn't and soon I was inside and headed to the backdoor. The puppies saw me first and all eight of them ran and tripped over themselves to get to the door. I decided I would let them all inside for a moment to play with them. I opened the door and the mass of puppy bodies rolled in.

They were all jumping on me so I bent down and picked one up. It was the runt of the litter, a little female. I held her in the crook of my arm and looked down at the others. I felt and noticed something odd. Where my t-shirt was stretched across my nipples were two wet spots. They were spreading a little and I knew what it was. I was leaking milk. The sounds that the puppies were making had caused my breasts to spontaneously leak. I was looking down at them not believing what I was seeing when the puppy I was holding sniffed the air and turned its head so it could lick one of the wet spots. Its little tongue was raking across my nipple and it was nuzzling into my soft breast trying to get to the source of the milk. I sighed to myself and I gave in.

I set the puppy down and reached to pull my t-shirt off. When it was off I could plainly see the droplets of milk forming at the tips of my nipples. I moved toward the backdoor where there was a rug and laid down on my side. I positioned my breasts so both of my nipples could be accessed by the puppies. There were eight of them so they would have to take turns. Two of the larger males wormed their way in first. They latched on to my nipples and went to town. I could feel a warmth inside my breasts spread through them traveling down to my nipples. My milk flowed like nature intended. It didn't matter that this was canines nursing from human. This a Mother giving her nourishing milk to her babies.

When each one would get full they would let go of my nipple with a pop and another would take its place. I guess their Mother had fed them earlier because they were not taking as much as the other night. Soon they were finished. I was a little sad that they were already done because I knew that this might be the last time I got to do this. I stood up to let them back out. They all went out and found various places for a nap.

As I held the door open I saw him. The big male Dane was in the middle of the yard looking at me. I was so pleased to see him. I could see him sniff the air and then cock his head to the side which meant he was interested in something. I saw him sniff again and his ears picked up and he shuddered a little. Was he still interested in this human female as my own Dane? I had to know so I took off my shorts and tossed them over to where my shirt was. I stood there with my legs slightly apart. I was breathing hard and my breasts were heaving a little. The ceiling fan in the room was on and I could feel a little breeze blow past me to the outside.

The big Dane must have got a good whiff of me because he stood up and I could see the bright red tip of his cock start to poke out of his hairy sheath. He slowly started to trot to the house, to me. I could see his powerful muscles ripple beneath his short fur. He reached the door and I stood aside to let him pass to inside the house. What ever I was planning on doing with him it wasn't going to happen in the yard in broad daylight.

He was in the house now and he sat in the room panting. His red cock was more visible. He was waiting for me to make the first move. On shaky legs I went over to a big chair they had and sat down. I sat there for a moment looking at him wondering if I really wanted to do this again. I saw his wet tongue hanging out and remembered how good it felt on my pussy. That would be harmless enough, just to let him do that. I leaned back in the big chair and spread my legs, scooting my butt to the edge. Kathy had a big mirror in this room, to give it more space she said. I could see myself plainly in it. My legs were apart and my inner pussy lips were very red and swollen. They were sticking out well past my outer ones. I could see they were wet and the hair around them was wet too. I had never seen myself like this. Totally aroused and ready for sex.

I guess he got the message because he walked over to me sniffing the air as he approached. He stuck his nose right between my legs and took quick sniffs at the source. His long tongue snaked out and he licked me from asshole to clit. I leaned back and groaned. He loved my smell, but he loved my taste even better. He couldn't get enough of it. His tongue was finding every inch of my pussy as he searched for more. He actually got a few inches up inside me. Of course the more he licked the more juice flowed out of me. Since I was ovulating I was producing a lot of the sticky slippery stuff. I was lost in this feeling and when my orgasm hit it was a surprise to me. My pussy clenched and my hips came up off the chair. I could feel a gush of fluid come out of me which he lapped up. I leaned back breathing hard as the spasms in my gut subsided. I noticed he had stopped licking.

Just as I looked up, he put his front paws on the chair. They were on either side of my waist and he was moving up closer. I was so much in heat that all I wanted was his big cock inside me. I really hadn't planned to do it let alone in this position but we were going to give it a try. It was basically the missionary position. He scooted forward more and I could feel the tip of his cock touch my inner thigh. I spread my legs some more hoping things would line up. I felt his cock touch my hairy outer lips and I knew he was getting close. I thought how primal this was. He smelled like a dog and I smelled, well I smelled. One thing about dogs, when they find the right spot there is no fooling around, it's all business. I didn't have to guide him in since my swollen lips were flowered open. As soon as his hard fat cock found my wet hot opening he shoved half of it in. I arched my back as I was stretched to the max. Biting my lower lip I knew what was coming he would continue shoving more thick cock in me until he was all the way inside me.

Luckily I was well lubed between his slobber and my juice. Even so, his thick cock was only slowly going in as he tried to pick up the pace. This position gave sex with him a whole new feeling. He seemed thicker and longer. I grabbed my legs behind my knees and spread them even more to make myself more open for him. I knew what was coming and I was a little nervous. His powerful butt muscles were stroking his swelling cock farther into me. We were belly to belly. He was very deep and I could feel him bottom out a few times. I was so full of dog cock I wasn't sure I could take more, but I knew there was no stopping him. I was his hot bitch and he was going to breed me. He knew from my smell that there was an egg waiting for his seed. He did everything to make sure he pumped me full and that his seed would reach that egg and stay there.

I was moving my hips with him trying to open up more. I felt it touch my hairy outer lips. His hard knot was approaching. It was banging into my opening now trying to get it. I gritted my teeth and prepared myself. I was sweating with effort as I bore down on it. I looked up into the mirror and I could plainly see his knot trying to go in. I gasped thinking there is no way that huge thing is going in me. I wrapped my legs around his butt and helped him push. I stretched and about half of it went in then back out. We both pushed hard at the same time and bang it was in. I stared in disbelief at the image in the mirror and he stopped stroking.

Every bit of his cock was inside me, knot and all. And speaking of the knot I could feel it swelling even bigger. He was sealing us tight. It kept getting bigger. In this position it felt so much bigger than before. His thick cock was very deep in me. How deep I had no idea. It felt like it was up in my gut, way past where any human cock can go. How could I ever be satisfied with my boyfriend's cock? We were both panting when I felt him start to shoot deep inside me. He was filling his bitch up with his potent seed. It was hot and there was a lot. My pussy was vacuum sealed around his cock so nothing was escaping.

After a few minutes he acted like he wanted to get off me. He started to back up and it felt like my insides were going to be pulled out. He couldn't really turn around like he did before. I told him no and to be a good boy and relax. We were locked tight and were not going to separate for awhile. I was thinking of ways to distract him. His head was right over my big breasts. He was drooling on them and I thought why not try it. I was able to pick up one of my breasts and raise the nipple up close to his mouth. My breasts were slippery because of his drool but I managed to squeeze my nipple and let a stream of milk come out. He sniffed the air and looked down. His tongue came out and he licked the stream of milk off of the end of my breast. I guess he liked the taste because when I squeezed it again he greedily lapped that up too. I had not been drained by the puppies so I had plenty to give him. I let go of my breast to see if he would take the bait. He looked down at my long swollen nipple and licked it once, then he sucked the whole thing into his mouth.

I guess once a puppy always a puppy. This powerful fully grown male dog, the one with the huge cock that was buried inside me, was nursing from my breast. I couldn't believe it. His suckling was much more powerful than the puppies. His teeth were longer, but not as sharp. He was getting all of my nipple and areola in his mouth. His long tongue was moving back and forth causing great fountains of milk to shoot from my breast into his mouth. It was almost painful, but felt so good at the same time. I was keeping him busy and hoped my milk would hold out until he shrunk back down. He stayed latched to my right breast, finally draining it. Thankfully he let go of my stretched, worn out nipple instead of chewing on it. I quickly moved to the left one and showed him that one had milk in it too. He sucked that one in and I could feel my milk shooting out into his mouth.

This was getting to me and I felt my stomach flutter. I was going to have a serious orgasm soon, I could feel it. This whole experience, with his huge cock still shooting his sperm deep into me, his knot swollen up so nothing could come out of our joined bodies, his sucking on my nipples and tasting my milk, was sending me over the edge. I could feel my breast start to empty. He had sucked me dry. Just as he finished and let go of my nipple and started to back off me. His huge knot pressed into my G-spot. I was close already but that did it. I shuddered as a whole body orgasm swept over me. My pussy clamped down like a vise on his cock. I could feel every ridge and vein on it. I bucked like a maniac and fluid shot out of me all around where we were joined. I had never cum like this before. When I had an orgasm with my Boyfriend, which was rare, it was all about me. This time it was about our mating. Everything I was feeling was based on the fact we locked together truly as one. He had claimed me as his breeding bitch and that is what I wanted to be. My pussy was his whenever he wanted it.

I whimpered and cried as I came down from my orgasm. When it was done I collapsed on the chair totally spent. As my muscles all relaxed I guess I was loose enough and he had shrunk enough for him to try to pull out. I could feel him stretching me but I didn't have the energy to slow him down. I watched in the mirror as his huge sized knot slowly appeared from my pussy finally coming out. He continued to pull his long thick cock out of me and when I thought it was all out more was still being withdrawn. It was still surprisingly thick and I had no idea where it all went up inside me. It had to be a foot long.

We had made a pretty big mess in the chair. I would have to come over and clean it with a steam cleaner. Stuff was oozing out of me but I knew there was and could feel a lot more way up inside me. My lower belly was bloated from his hot seed. Somehow I was able to get out of the chair and stand up. I looked at the mess and just shook my head. He was over in the corner cleaning himself up. I found a dish towel and wiped myself as best I could. The room smelled like animal sex. I would clean it tomorrow. Bill and Kathy would be back in two days. I called to the dog and opened the back door. I could tell he was tired as he slowly went back outside. I put my shorts and top back on and somehow found the energy to give them some food and water.

As I walked home I could feel some of our combined fluids leak out of my sore pussy. I could also feel his seed deep inside me Moving around in my uterus searching out my egg.

Chapter Three - The bitch in heat

The day after my last encounter I was sore all day. My tits were sore, my pussy was sore, I was sore all over. My Boyfriend asked me why I was walking funny. He knows very well that I am k9 active girl and if I told him truth he don't got angry on me but I made some lame excuse not telling him the truth, that the neighbors dog had pounded my pussy with his huge cock. That had happened so many times in this week with neighbors DANE and my own loving DANE Jacky and I was having trouble remembering what my life was like before being breed by that dog. I had been in heat all week and fucking the dog just made me hornier. Sore as I was I still wanted his cock.

The next day I felt better. It was going to be the last day of out neighbor's, Bill and Kathy's vacation. They would be home tomorrow and I would have to deal with that. Maybe next week after I stopped ovulating I would calm down and forget about fucking their male DANE. I had let his puppies and him nurse from my milk filled breasts. Thinking back on it now it seemed so natural.

It was late in the evening now. My Boyfriend had gone next door to feed the dogs and I stayed home feeling a little frustrated. I had a lightweight cotton nightie on that came to my knees. My Boyfriend climbed in bed with me and I rolled turning my back to him. After a few minutes I felt him scoot over towards me and spoon against my backside. His arm reached around my waist and he gave one of my big boobs a gentle squeeze. I knew what this meant. He wanted sex.

I was about to tell him not tonight when I realized that might raise suspicion. I could feel his erection rubbing between my ass cheeks. I rolled on my back and told him if he was going to be that persistent to put a condom on and just do it. He whined a little about having to do that but I insisted. For some reason I didn't want to get pregnant by him this month. He reached over to the drawer of his nightstand and took one out and put it on. I pulled up my nightie but didn't take it off. I wasn't wearing panties and he reached over to rub my hairy pussy. I wasn't sure if he was trying to work me up or himself. I guess I felt wet enough for him because he rolled on top of me. I spread my legs for him and he guide his latex covered cock into me.

He started to pump me and I guess he had gotten all his cock in. It was hard to tell. After being recently fuck by a huge dog cock the feeling now was very different. It seemed like he was barely in me and there was no feeling of fullness. After about a dozen strokes he made a comment on how loose I felt tonight, but that I was still hot down there. I made some moans and groans, but I really wasn't good at faking it. All I wanted him to do was finish, which he did soon after . His strokes sped up and I felt him shudder. I guess he had cum in me as he immediately pulled his average cock out and went to the bathroom to throw the condom away. I pulled my nightie down and stared at the ceiling. He climbed back into bed and gave me a kiss on the cheek and rolled over and was soon snoring.

I thought to myself, wow some hot sex that was. I hadn't helped much because frankly I wasn't interested in sex with him anymore. How could I ever be satisfied if that's what I could expect for the rest of my life? I was at late teen's and what would happens when I will 25 or 30 that's when a human female reached her sexual peak. I guess I was peaking early because all I wanted right now was a huge cock in my pussy. One that knew how to fuck me and would last a long time and then shoot his seed deep inside me. The room was quiet except for his snoring. I looked at the clock and it was 11:00pm. I knew what I had to do.

My boyfriend was a sound sleeper and since he had gotten some sex he was out like a light. I went to the front door and quietly opened it and closed it behind me. The street was dark and quiet. I stayed in the shadows and walked across the lawn to Bill and Kathy's. I used my spare key and let myself in the front door. There were a couple of lights on in the kitchen and den for security. They were just enough to light up the backyard a little.

I walked to the backdoor with purpose. I pulled my nightie off over my head and threw it on the couch. I had to have him, but I hoped he would make it quick so I could get back. If he knotted me it could take awhile. I stepped out onto the back patio closing the door behind me. I walked out onto the grass and got down on all fours. I was naked and exposed. I could feel the cool breeze on my wet hairy pussy lips and on my erect nipples. My big boobs were hanging down almost touching the blades of grass. I suddenly realized I had to pee. I had been in such a hurry to get over here that it just now hit me. I was feeling wild, like an animal so I didn't even consider going back inside. I let the piss flow out of me onto the grass. I forced it out, shooting a long stream behind me. I could hear it hitting the ground and I could smell it.

I sensed movement near me and I guess he could smell it too. I looked back and saw him standing there smelling the spot where I just relieved myself. He raised his leg and covered that spot with his own piss, claiming the area as his. He moved up behind me and started licking the few drops falling from my bush. It felt so good to have him clean me and stick his tongue inside my pussy. He stopped because he tasted something different. A new smell, another male. He must have smelled a trace of my boyfriend on my pussy. I heard him growl a little. He was jealous. Another male had been with his bitch. There was only one thing to do. Claim her back as his own.

He licked me a few more times making my clit hard and climbed up on my back. We were getting pretty good at this so he found his mark quickly. His cock was dripping as he shoved it into me. God, this felt so much better then what I had earlier tonight. This dog was reminding me I was his, and that's what I wanted to be. I was going to have to find a way to keep doing this with him. His cock was swelling and he was trying to get more in my pussy. My boyfriend said I felt loose. Well this is why. My dog lover was stretching me to be able to accept his cock. If he got his knot in me that would stretch my opening even more.

I was panting and I shuddered with a couple of orgasms as he filled me. I felt his cock bottom out in my pussy and I knew the knot was close. He was banging into me hard. He had a purpose about him. He was making sure I was his. I felt the knot hit my outer lips. It was already pretty big. I closed my eyes as he pushed it hard into my opening. I was stretching to take it. It popped in and out a couple of times and I knew it was going to stay in and swell and we would be stuck. Suddenly from behind my closed eyes I saw a light. I opened them and looked toward the source. There were more lights on in the house. I saw movement and then recognized Bill and Kathy walking around in their house. Oh no, they were home. They had come back early from their trip.

I was frozen out in their yard naked, fucking their dog. Any second now his knot would be stuck in me and we would be caught. I panicked and tried to pull away from him. It seemed like it took forever for his long thick cock to come out of me. Once out I scrambled to the side of the yard that had the most shadows. Just as I reached them, Kathy turned on the lights in the backyard. I crouched down in a small patch of shadow hoping she couldn't see me. She called to the dogs and the female and all the pups woke up and came to her with their tails wagging. Distracted from me now the male approached her too as she greeted all her dogs. She gave them treats and told them she missed them. She told them she was tired and going to bed and she would see them in the morning. She turned off the yard lights and closed the door.

I breathed a sigh of relief. She hadn't seen me. I waited until all the lights were out in the house and then waited some more to make sure they were asleep. I approached the back door. I could see my nightie on the couch. I tried the door and it wouldn't open. It was locked. As I stood there at the door trying to figure out what to do the male dog came up to me and started sniffing my crotch. I knew what he wanted but it was way too risky to stay in their yard. Quietly I walked to their back gate and tried it. It wouldn't open either. I panicked thinking I was trapped naked in their back yard, then I remembered. The gate only looked locked. I removed the pin and it opened. I breathed a sigh of relief as I stepped through the gate and quietly closed it behind me. I saw the male Doberman sitting in the yard watching me. He almost looked disappointed we hadn't finished our love making. I would find a way to make it up to him soon.

All of the houses on our street shared common fence lines. This meant there was no way to get to the front yards from the alley which is where I found myself. I would have to walk to the end of the alley and then back up the street to my house. That was about 12 houses down the alley and then the same 12 back up the street. I was naked and smelled like sex, but that was the only way to get back home. I started to walk down the alley. I paused at each driveway to make sure nobody was standing in their garage. I was barefoot and my feet hurt on the rough concrete. I involuntarily placed one arm across my breasts to keep them from bouncing too much and to try to cover them. Like that would make a difference if I was caught. I was about halfway down the alley when I saw a shape in front of me. It was sitting in the middle of the alley blocking my path.

As I cautiously moved closer I figured out what it was. It was a large dog. A very large dog, in fact I recognized it to be another neighbor's Rottweiler. It was a male. How the hell did it get out? I had met him a few times and petted him. He had seemed to be a nice dog. He was sitting there with his head cocked and was sniffing the air. Oh no, was he smelling my scent? Was I still sending out the female in heat scent? I tried to move to the right around him, but he moved to block me. I tried the left and the same result. I looked at him and I could tell. He wanted me. He had smelled a female in heat in the neighborhood and had gotten out in search of her. He growled a low growl. Very deep and insistent.

I thought to myself how to get out of this. I figured if maybe I acted submissive to him he would feel superior and leave. To my right I noticed a patch of grass off of one of my neighbor's driveways. I slowly moved to that area and he followed me. I laid down on my back like I had seen some smaller dogs do when a big dog was around. I exposed my breasts and belly in a submissive posture. He came over to me and sniffed my underarms and my breasts. His large head bent down and he licked my large nipples. They stiffened more and he showed interest. He licked every inch of my big boobs before moving down to my belly. He could have ripped me open if he wanted too and I was showing him I trusted him. I was showing him he was the boss and I was his minion. I had goosebumps on my naked flesh and I was shaking a little. He got down to my lower belly and found a scent he liked best. My legs were closed hiding my pussy from his exploration. He moved around below me and used his big head to pry apart my legs. I gave in, knowing there was no resisting this huge dog.

My legs were now splayed open and I was totally exposed to him. He started to sniff around my curly haired pussy. He started to lick it with a purpose. I involuntarily raised my hips up to give him easier access. I heard that deep low growl again as he licked me. He must have tasted and smelled the other dog. I knew now he wasn't just going to stop and leave. He was going to make sure he was the king dog of this neighborhood. He wasn't going to let some other dog claim this bitch that was in heat. He was going to make sure she was his. He was going to breed her. To make sure she had his offspring.

He stopped licking me and used his great head to push against my outer thigh. He was wanting me to turn over. To get up on all fours. He wanted to fuck me. I knew if I tried to get away he would probably attack me or at least knock me down and rape me. I gave in and rolled over on my belly and got up on my knees and elbows. I was totally exposed to him, He sniffed and licked my rear for a little while longer. I prepared myself for what was to happen next. I had been with a dog, obviously, just not this dog. almost 150 lbs. He climbed up on my ass and back and I strained from the weight. I was hoping he wasn't good at this and would give up and leave. I guess my red swollen lips that were sticking out from my hairy pussy gave him a good target. I felt the end of his cock touch my entrance. Tonight I had been fucked by my Boyfriend and the Dane. Now I was about to be fucked by this huge dog. I was such a slut.

The tip of his cock was much more blunt, and bigger too, a lot bigger. Once he found my entrance he started to push in. Nothing could have prepared me for this experience. His cock was huge, much bigger then the other dog and much bigger then any other cock that has been in me.. It was so thick that he was having real difficulty getting inside me. I was beside myself. I didn't expect this. I was truly scared he might do damage to me, but I knew there was no stopping him. With each shove more of his huge cock went into me. I don't know how, but my pussy was stretching enough to let him in. His powerful muscles flexed to drive more cock into me. I hadn't seen it erect so I wasn't sure how much of it there was.

It felt really different then the Neighbors dog. It was fatter but not as long. Before he hit bottom I felt his knot touch my inner lips. How big was that thing? If his cock was this big his knot had to be huge. Maybe he wouldn't be able to get that in me and he would finish. I think he sensed that there was a chance he was going to be able to seal to this hot bitch. He was pushing hard now and he was determined to get it in me. My pussy would never be the same. The huge swollen piece of flesh at the base of his cock was trying to get into me. Suddenly, there was what I swear was an audible popping sound. He was in. I couldn't believe it. I was catching my breath, getting used to the mass just inside my entrance, when I felt it swell even bigger.

How was that possible? His thick cock was pressed against the bottom of my pussy but luckily didn't go beyond that like my other canine lover. His knot however was swelling to a size that I wondered how it would ever come out. Would daylight come and they would find us here still locked together? I felt his cock swell and start to spurt. He was ejaculating inside me. Unprotected now his seed was filling me up. I kept my husband from doing this but I had no problem letting a dog shoot his seed deep inside me. I could feel each spurt from the end of his cock. The pressure was building in the cramped space at the end of my vagina. I knew his seed was getting into my womb, I could feel it. I wondered whose seed would be dominant? The Rottweiler or the Dane? I imagined their sperm competing for my egg.

The big dog decided to turn around on me. We were such a tight fit he had trouble doing it. Finally we were buttock to buttock in the grass next to a driveway of one of my neighbors. I knew it had to be well past midnight. I hoped no cars would come down the alley. He was filling me up with his seed. There was so much of it. He was still spurting deep inside me when he started to walk toward the alley. We were sealed so tight all I could do was follow or be dragged behind him. I didn't want him to reach the concrete alley or I would be scraped and hurt. I turned around and talked to him trying to distract him. As I was doing this I saw the lights of a vehicle coming down the alley. I prayed it would turn in before it got to us. What if it was the owner of the house we were next to? I just closed my eyes and waited. The vehicle passed us and I guess we were back in the shadows enough not to get noticed.

His spurting was starting to slow. My belly was so full of him that I had a visible bulge. I tried to pull off of him but we were still stuck. I was thinking of what I would do if he couldn't get out of me. How would I explain this? Was it going to be a trip to the emergency room? Had they ever dealt with this? He would pull and I would pull, but it didn't seem like we were making any progress. He had claimed me and I had submitted to his will. Now it was time to separate. I had to get back home. I was thinking of what to try next. I thought that maybe if I had an orgasm I would tighten up at first but then maybe I would relax enough for him to pull out. His big knot was pressing hard against my G-spot. I reached down and found my clit near where we were joined. It was swollen and sensitive and I started to stroke it with my fingers .

Whether it was going to work or not I was enjoying it. I was breathing hard and sweating as I drummed on my clit. I could feel it building. I thought about this huge dog cock that was inside me. I thought about how all he wanted to do was make babies with me. He had filled me up with his puppy making juice. He had claimed me as his and I had given in. I started pulling on my nipples with the other hand. My puppy feeding milk started shooting out. I knew what I was and I was OK with it. I knew I had purpose. I was naked, outside in nature. I could feel the cool breeze on my skin and his fur touching my legs. I shuddered as my orgasm washed over me. My pussy somehow got tighter on his cock. I jerked about with the spasms. I felt like I was floating, just hanging from his cock. As I came down every muscle in my body relaxed. I was literally hanging from his cock because my knees weren't supporting me anymore. When the last spasm ended I felt like I was giving birth. Somehow my pussy opened up and his knot slowly started to appear. He pulled again and somehow I didn't tear and he was finally free. His thick cock hesitated then slowly came out too.

I lay flat on the ground on my stomach. I lost control of my body some and pissed myself. Sensing this he turned around and sniffed my ass. Even though he was still semi hard he lifted his leg and pissed all over my ass and pussy. I guess that was his final act in claiming me. He trotted off to go find his home and I was left alone. I lay there for awhile not wanting to get up. I just wanted to go to sleep but I knew I couldn't. Slowly I picked myself up. Once on my feet I slowly moved down the alley . As I walked I could feel his sperm leak out of me. It was nowhere near the amount he had shot deep inside me. His piss was drying on my ass and I knew I smelled.

I turned the corner and made my way up the street. I was staying close to the houses where the shadows were. I stopped behind some trees now and then to listen. I wondered what all my neighbors would think if they knew a nude woman was walking down the street. Especially one that was full of dog cum. As I made my way passed Bill and Kathy's I remembered that my nightie was still on their couch. If Kathy asked me about that I would have to come up with a story. I was almost to my door when I heard a sound. I turned around and notice two strange dogs sitting in my front yard. They were both males and from their posture I knew what they wanted. That would be me. I shook my head and said no way to myself. Luckily I had left the front door open and I quickly went inside.

Chapter Four - Help Herself

The next day my mind and body were in a fog. I had let three different cocks fuck me last night. I hadn't got much sleep and I was sore all over especially the entrance to my pussy. The Rottweiler's knot had been huge and it would be awhile before I could let something that big try to get inside me again. I was about to lay down for a mid morning nap when the doorbell rang.

It was Kathy from next door. She wanted to thank me for taking care of her dogs while they were away on vacation. I told her that it was no trouble and that I would be happy to do it anytime she needed me to. She said she appreciated that and we made some small talk. She had something in her hand and during a pause she showed it to me. It was my cotton nightie I had left on her couch last night. I could have denied it when she asked me if it was mine, but I didn't. I said it looked like one of mine and asked her where she found it. She said one of the dogs had found it, the big male, on her couch. He had sniffed it out and was carrying it around in his mouth. I thought to myself, was he doing that because my scent was on it.

I thought for a moment then said that I had done a load of laundry over there one day when my washer was acting up. I had dumped the clean clothes on her couch to fold and must have missed that one. She handed it to me and I could see a little doubt on her face. I tried to change the subject by asking her how the dogs were and if they missed her. She said they were glad to see her especially the male. Since last night if he was around her he was sniffing her to get reacquainted, or so she thought. She said he was pretty persistent even sticking his nose in her crotch which could be embarrassing. I said that yes I hated when male dogs did that, but I was thinking that I hoped I hadn't corrupted her dog. She said she had some unpacking to do and thanked me again then left.

I closed the door and breathed a sigh of relief then went to lay down. I could tell I had stopped ovulating and knew my period would start in about a week. I was like clockwork when it came to that. Maybe things would calm down and get back to normal. As I drifted off I wondered if that was what I really wanted.

Over the next week I recovered and felt good. I was feeling a little bloated in my lower belly, but I figure that was because my period would start any day now. I had circled Friday on the calendar as the day it should. I made a commitment to start getting in better shape. I was going to start walking and doing some weights. Workouts like I had recently took it out of me and maybe if I was fitter if it ever happened again I would be less sore.

Friday came and went then the weekend and then Monday. I looked at the calendar and saw the circled day. It was 3 days past it and I hadn't started. I thought well maybe a couple of more days, it's no big deal. I was busy for the rest of the week and suddenly it was Friday again. I still hadn't started my period, I was a full week late. No need to panic yet.

Surely I could be pregnant. I knew the exact days I had been fertile. There were three possibilities. One, somehow the one time my boyfriend had cum inside me during that time the condom leaked. Though they were not 100% foolproof, this was a slim chance. Second, all the sex I had during that time messed up my monthly clock and which caused a delay. I shook my head and said to myself that I am never late. I always know the day I am supposed to start and I always do. The third possibility, I had a huge amount of potent dog sperm deposited deep inside me by two very virile dogs multiple times during my most fertile time of the month or say my heat time. Millions of their little swimming puppy makers had attacked my egg or canine eggs produced by my ovaries for a whole week.

Just a few more days I said to myself, just to make sure. I was a nervous wreck around the house. My boyfriend asked me if I was alright and I told him yes that it was just PMS. He left me alone. It got to Thursday of the next week and still nothing had happened. I was almost two full weeks late. I woke up that morning and felt my belly. A sinking feeling came over me. I knew, I could tell. I felt queasy and rushed into the bathroom and threw up. OMG that was the nerves and my morning sickness.

That afternoon I went to the pharmacy and bought some pregnancy tests. I went home and into my bathroom. Opening one up I sat on the toilet and peed on the strip. I set it on the counter. It said to wait ten minutes. I paced around my bedroom and watched the clock slowly count down. This test was supposed to be accurate and readable. There was no + or - sign. It would say PREGNANT or NOT PREGNANT. Ten minutes was up. I slowly approached the counter. I picked the test device up and looked at it. There was no mistake what it said, PREGNANT.

I looked around for the bag and found another brand of test. I opened that one and went through the instructions and then used it. I waited and then looked at it. Same result, there was no doubt. I sat on the bed in silence, then started thinking that I don't want be pregnant now becoz I just deliver a litter before two months. My emotions got the best of me and I becomes motionless for 30 minutes.

I got a hold of myself and sat up. I couldn't be pregnant. I was pregnant, but who was the father. I figured a sonogram would be necessary. I would lose everything. I would go to doctor Jennifer's clinic to check-up , but first I had to tell my Boyfriend. I had to tell him the truth. I know he would stand behind me and help me through this. Next day I meets my friend Jennifer at her clinic and told her every thing about the pregnancy. She checked me , measure my body temperature . when she look thermometer, she comes to know about real pregnancy . my temperature is going to high as a canine have. she did sonogram and after that she cleared that I was pregnant with canine sperm. She asked me whether my boyfriend Steave know about it or not. I replied No but I said to her that I know steave would stands with me when comes to know but I don't want this pregnancy and asked about the medicine to abort the litter of pups. She gave me some medicines and then I return to home and made my mind for abortion and took the tablets she gave me. I have to tell Steave for about all deeds .

When he came home from work that night I was very nervous. We sat around the kitchen table after dinner and my hands were sweaty and shaky. He asked me what was wrong. I opened my mouth to speak, but was having difficulty forming the words. Right when I was about to say that I was pregnant I felt something. There was a small one then a bigger one. They were cramps deep in my gut. They felt like menstrual cramps only bigger. I felt a dampness between my legs and I got up from the table. I told him I would be right back and I hurried to the bathroom. I pulled my shorts and panties off and saw the telltale signs of a period starting. I sat down on the toilet and some thick discharge fell out of me. A few more cramps hit and there was more discharge. inside me was now gone. I didn't look, I just flushed. I put on some fresh panties and a pad and went to bed.

I had the normal flow of my period for a couple of days and then that stopped and things were normal. I felt fine but was a little moody. There was relief, but also a slight emptiness and I was little disappointed. A week or so went by and I looked at the calendar to make sure. I could feel it. I was ovulating again. I was going into heat. I felt that itch down below. A telltale feeling of emptiness, I needed to be filled up. I check myself in the bathroom. The lips of my pussy were swollen and red. I was producing that sticky slick fluid again. I could smell myself.

I took my nightly walk in the neighborhood that evening. I must say that the exercise was doing wonders for my ass and legs. They were tightening up and I was showing them off in a pair of tight cotton workout shorts. If someone looked at my crotch they could plainly see the outline of my swollen lips. A very nice camel toe. I wore a sports bra top which was really about two sizes too small. It did a barely adequate job of containing the bounce of my big boobs. My perpetually erect nipples were poking through the fabric.

As I walked down the street there were a few people out in their yards. I waved at everyone. Most of the men would stop what yard work or chore they were doing when I walked past. It was very obvious as I saw their eyes follow me as I went past. First the boobs then the ass. I smiled at their reactions. They were distracted so they didn't notice something else that was happening. There were dogs barking. When I walked by certain houses you could hear the dog in the back yard bang against the fence or the gate trying to get out. I knew what they wanted. They wanted me. I was giving off a scent that drove them crazy with lust As a bitch in heat give to attracts the male dogs . I wondered to myself what would happen if I walked down the alley at night. Would some be resourceful enough to get out of their confinement and find the bitch in heat. I could feel a wet spot between my legs as I continued my walk to the sound of barking dogs.

Later that night when my boyfriend had gone to bed I stood in my backyard in the dark and knew what I was going to do. From the reaction of the neighborhood dogs earlier I knew I could easily find a canine lover tonight. I was in heat and I needed a big cock inside me. I wasn't on birth control and my lover wouldn't be using a condom. Any sperm deposited inside me would surely mix with my egg. The fertile seed would try to penetrate my eggs. At that moment I didn't care I just needed a big cock.

I stripped down and went out my back gate into the alley completely naked. Walking down the neighborhood like this was a big thrill. I got back to my house and then went past it to Bill and Kathy. The male Dane was in the backyard. If I couldn't find anything of interest farther down I would come back and let him fuck me again. I made it down a few houses and then I heard something behind me. I turned around and there in the middle of the alley was a dog I didn't recognize. He looked like a stray, kind of mangy and skinny. He had his head down and he was growling a little. I suddenly felt very naked and very exposed. This dog had been stalking me. He had been attracted to this neighborhood because there was a bitch in heat. That was me. All the effort I put into making sure the male dogs could smell had gotten me in this mess.

I started to back away from him and he came forward following me. I panicked and did something really stupid, I turned and ran. He chased me of course. I got past a couple of driveways and just as I turned up on to find a place to hide he caught me. Luckily I was on a patch of grass when he nipped my ankle causing me to trip and fall. I landed on my stomach squashing my boobs beneath me. He was quickly on top of me nipping at the back of my neck telling me to stay still. He was either going to bite me or rape me. I was really scared now and blamed myself for letting this happen. I felt his dripping cock near my ass. He was biting my neck harder telling me I better cooperate. Reluctantly I raised my ass to allow him to penetrate me.

All of a sudden the stray dog was knocked off of me. I rolled over and saw a huge bulk knock the stray to the ground and hold it there. It was the Rottweiler I had mated with a couple of months ago. He held the stray in his jaws by the throat and growled deep. He was telling it that he was the king dick around here and nobody else was going to have his bitch. He let go of it and the stray whimpered and slowly moved away. The big dog barked once and made an aggressive move and the stray ran off down the alley with it's tail tucked under.

The Rotty came back over to me as I was sitting there in the grass and stood by me. He had saved me. He was my great protector. I put my arms around his big neck and hugged him close to my bare breasts. His rough fur felt good against my erect nipples. That was an exciting episode and I think we both felt a little adrenaline rush. As I hugged him I started running my hand down his back feeling his powerful muscles. I stroked his back and sides eventually making my way underneath to his belly. I found his sheath and I squeezed it feeling his tool start to get hard within. Reaching back I gently cupped his huge ball sack. They were like a couple of big oranges beneath his smooth skin. Moving back up to his sheath I found his huge cock starting to emerge. I stroked it as it grew. It felt so strange so different from a humans. It was powerful and earthy. It was hot and throbbed.

I let go of his neck and moved down low to get a better look at it. It had been in my pussy once, but I had never really seen it. I was in awe of it's size and couldn't believe it had fit. I move closer and it was a few inches from my face. In the moon light I could just make out the hole in the middle of the super fat head. I was such a dog slut. I knew what I was doing was natural. I knew that I was going to keep doing this and had no issues with the morality issues of society. Holding on to his huge penis with one hand I brought my face closer to it and reached out my tongue to taste him.

It was warm and a little salty. He smelled like an animal and I loved it. I brought my lips to the end of his cock and gave it a kiss. When I pulled away a string of his precum hung there between us. I leaned forward again and opened my mouth as wide as it would go and inserted his cock into it. It was so fat that I didn't get much in, maybe a couple of inches. I stroked what I could in and out a few times and then made my way down his shaft licking as I went. The beginnings of his knot had just come out of his sheath and I kissed that too. He was standing very still and I am sure he was enjoying my worshiping of his cock.

I continued to stoke and lick it, also trying to get more in my mouth. His precum was flowing freely now. I drank some down but a lot ran down my chin onto my breasts. I was using both hands now to stroke his cock and that barely fit around it. His knot was large and hard and when I felt it I knew why I had been sore for a week. He was getting a little figity, but I kept stroking and sucking. I had a pretty good amount of his head in my mouth when I felt it. It started at the base of his cock and rolled like a wave up to the end. The end that was presently in my mouth suddenly exploded with his load. I choked and swallowed but he kept filling my mouth up with the stuff. I swallowed a few more times but it was too much. As I pulled it out he shot me in the face once then I directed it towards my tits.

His spurting slowed down and I let go of his cock as it shrunk some. I used the back of my hand to wipe his load from my face and I laid down in the grass. He laid his big bulk next to me and we cuddled. His fur felt great against my naked body and I felt safe. I must have dozed off for a moment because I awoke to him standing near me with his head between my legs. He was sniffing and licking me there and from what I could tell he was ready for round two. I opened my legs to him exposing my sex. He had claimed me, he could do whatever he wanted to me. He licked my pussy tasting me.

I was ready for him. I rolled over on my knees and elbows. His cock was huge and it was going to hurt but I didn't care. My pussy flowered open to him. He licked it a few more times and then mounted me. He found his mark quickly and pushed into me. I had been stretched over the last few weeks, but he was so big. It hurt and I bit my lip. He was stroking slow and steady trying to get in the horny bitch. The friction and tightness of my cunt was keeping him from pounding me. I tried to spread more for him but I couldn't. Slowly I started to loosen some for him and he sped up. I could hear the squishy sucking sounds we were making. I got up on my hands to give my elbows a rest. My big boobs were swaying back and forth below me. They were very full and very heavy.

I could feel the end of his cock bang against the bottom of my vagina. He was stretching me to form to his penis and nobody else's. I was having little orgasms as I felt every inch of his throbbing cock go in and out of me. I wanted his seed. I wanted to feel it shoot deep inside me. He wanted to get his knot in me. I didn't know if I could take it. I was going to get it in or pass out. It was the only way for me to know for sure that his seed was going where it was supposed to. I tried to relax my opening. I imagined it was a flower opening up. He was banging his knot into it now with a purpose. I could feel his strong forepaws tighten around my waist. His strong ass muscles were driving him forward. With each push he got a little more in. I was gritting my teeth and a few tears came to my eyes.

I think if we both had not been so determined to mate it would not have worked. One big push and my pussy opened up for him as if it had a mind of its own. His huge knot slipped inside me. Just as quickly as it had opened up my pussy clamped down hard on it and we were stuck. Impossibly he started to swell even bigger. Once again I felt his cock start to spurt great globs of sperm inside of me. I was light headed from the strain of getting it in and I just hung there from him shaking as I absorbed his seed into my reproductive system. He was my protector and my lover.

He could have turned around on me like before but he didn't. Instead he laid down on his side taking me with him. We lay in the grass spooning together with his huge cock and knot still firmly implanted in me. I was so tired that I was drifting off as I still felt his cock twitch deep inside me shooting just a little bit more. We were laying in the grass behind someones house joined together. Nothing ever felt so right to me.

I blinked my eyes and felt a little disorientated. I opened them and immediately notice it was getting lighter outside. It was near dawn and I was still outside. I felt something behind me and I turned my head. The dog was still there right up against me. His cock and his knot were still very much up inside me. I don't know how long we had laid there, but I knew I had to get home, quick. I wasn't sure if he had tried to pull out of me and couldn't or if he just liked being inside my tight pussy. I tried to get up and it was awkward still being tied together. Somehow we managed and found ourselves butt to butt. This position was actually the best to try to separate. I guess he had shrunk some after being inside me for who know how long. He started to come out of my, but it was like my pussy had formed around his cock and the suction was holding him in. For a moment it felt like I was going to be turned inside out. Slowly he withdrew his knot from the confines of my hot hole. It was like peeling the skin of a juice grape. Once that was out his his huge semi hard tool flowed out of me too. I stood up and noticed there was very little leakage.

I told him to go home as I ran down the alley back to my house. Instead he followed me I guess to make sure I got home unharmed. When I reached my gate I turned to him and smiled and said to go home that I would see him soon. I opened the gate and went in the yard. It was getting lighten and I could see lights on in the house. Looking in the kitchen I could see my boyfriend making coffee. I knew he wondered where I was. I had prepared for this. Hidden behind the bushes I had a sack with some workout clothes and my walking shoes. I hid in what was left of the shadow and got dressed in them. I slipped my shoes on and started walking toward the backdoor. I opened it and walked in greeting my boyfriend.

He asked me where I had been. I told him I decided to get up early and go for a power walk. He nodded his head like that was a logical excuse. I told him I was all sweaty and smelly, which I was, and I told him I was going to take a shower. I smiled and waved to him and went directly back to the bathroom and jumped in the shower. I let the hot water run over my body and I soaped away all the signs of what had taken place last night. I had a few scratches on me that I would have to hide, but overall I had come out in pretty good shape. As I soaped across my lower belly I wondered what was going on in there right now. I had been with my canine lover tonight and I was very fertile. In about ten days I would know if he had knocked me up.

Chapter Five - I Caught The Neighbors

I was walking down a driveway back to the alley. It was after midnight and I had just fucked one of my neighbor's dogs. It was the big chocolate Lab. His owner usually kept his gate locked, but for me that was no problem. I just hopped over the fence. I was in great shape. It had been about a year since I started taking these nighttime soirees into my neighborhood in search of a canine lover. In that year I had started working out with a vengeance. I had joined a gym to keep my body fit and good shape.

I was very now. I guess the only thing out of place was my boobs. They were still huge, especially since I was still lactating. They didn't sag as much since I worked on my chest. When I went to the gym in my little workout shorts and a sports bra I got constant looks from the guys. I caused quite a few bulges to form and could have had my pick. I liked to tease them knowing none of there cocks could compare to what I could get.

I was in heat this week. Over the last year I had been pregnant four more times. Two of them complete pregnancies before I come in relation with steave , one is very short and the other lasted almost two months. I actually went to get a sonogram on that one. I went to an another clinic in place of jeniffer's clinic and used another name. The inexperienced nurse said it looked like I was going to have triplets, but that they were very small and she wasn't sure they would make it. They didn't, but I figured out it was the Rottweiler who was able to get me pregnant. There must be something about his seed and my eggs that was a close enough match to cause conception.

I walked down the alley toward my house. I was naked of course and I felt great. The Lab had knotted me and pumped me full of his cum. I could feel some leak out as I strutted my stuff down the alley. I was still in heat and still horny. Maybe I could find another suitor tonight. I had to walk past my next door neighbors Bill and Kathys house. Their male Doberman had been my dog lover. I still loved to fuck him on occasion. I thought maybe if he was in the backyard I would make him a lucky dog tonight. They still had the female back there too but she very sweet and left us alone.

I walked up their driveway hoping to find the gate to their backyard open. I tried it and it was. Very quietly I opened it and slipped in the yard. It took me a minute to take in the scene before me. It was a shock and I thought about turning around and quietly leaving. In the middle of the yard was the male Doberman. He was fucking a female. The female was my neighbor Kathy. She was naked on her hands and knees and her big male dog was humping her like crazy. I knew how thick and long his cock was and he was giving it all to her. It was amazing to see him fuck another human female.

What was even more amazing, not ten feet from that pair was kathy's husband Bill. He was naked on his knees and he had the female Doberman backed up to him and he was fucking her. I couldn't believe it. He was stoking what looked like a good size cock in and out of the females pussy. She seemed to be enjoying it because she wasn't trying to get away. Here before me was this amazing scene. What was I going to do? I could leave, but now I had found some people that like to do the same thing I did.

I decided to risk it. I slowly walked out of the shadows toward Kathy. Bill saw me first and looked my toned naked body up and down and smiled, but didn't say anything. He continued to fuck the female dog. I walked around and stood in front of Kathy. She had her head down, but picked it up when she saw my feet in front of her. She had a look of pain and pleasure on her face as she saw who it was. Our eyes met and I smiled and nodded my head. She knew then I understood. Suddenly her eyes opened wide and her mouth formed an O. The male dog stopped humping her and I knew he had knotted her. The scene before me was pure sex. It was making me very excited. I wanted to join in but I didn't know how just yet.

The Dobermans knot was fully seated in kathy's pussy. He had turned around on her and I knew they would be hooked up for awhile. I decided to take advantage of her position. I walked closer to her. Her face was now only a couple of inches from my pussy. I knew she could smell me, smell the Lab on me. I looked down at her. She wasn't shying away from me. She moved her face closer to me. She stuck her nose into my bush. She pulled back and looked up at me. I could see the look of lust in her eyes. She was in the same sexual fog I get into. I turned around and spread my legs. I pressed my firm tight ass back into her. I felt her hot wet tongue lick my pussy once, then twice. I wasn't sure she had ever done this to a woman before and I knew me too. Seeing the fact that we both enjoyed fucking dogs I guess this was no big deal.

She really started to lap at my pussy. It felt so good. I could feel the Labs semen leaking from me and Kathy was drinking it down. She didn't leave my clit alone either. She would suck it and nibble on it sending me shock waves of pleasure. Kathy and I were so into this while the big dog was knotted in her I forgot about Bill. I guess he had been watching us because he pulled out of the female dog and walked over to Kathy and me. I was bent over with my hands on my knees and Kathy was eating me out. Bill walked in front of me and stopped. I looked at his cock. It was quite large and rock hard. It was also dripping from the juices of the female dog. I looked Bill in the eyes and smiled because I knew what he wanted me to do.

I reached out with one hand and grabbed his cock at the base. I pulled him closer to me and placed the big head to my lips. It tasted and smelled different. It smelled more like a dog's cock than a man's. I sucked the big spongy head into my mouth. I could hear Bill groan as I took more of him in. I felt Kathy shudder with an orgasm as the Doberman tried to pull out but was still stuck in her. She went back to licking me as I sucked her husband's cock. I had my own orgasm as muffled moans came from me. I was able to get about half of Bill's cock in my mouth, but no more because of its size. I was using my hand to help stroke it in and out. He had great stamina, so unlike my Boyfriend.

I felt his cock start to swell a little bit bigger and his balls drew up some. I knew he was getting close. It had been a long time since I had let some man other than my Boyfriend Dogs come in my mouth. It was rare for me to give my Boyfriend a blow job, but I really wanted Bill's load down my throat. I started sucking harder and faster. Kathy cried out as the dog pulled his knot free of her and collapsed on the ground. At the same moment Bill unloaded into my waiting mouth. It was very powerful and there was a lot of it. I tried to keep up and did pretty well. I swallowed most of it the rest dribbled down my chin on to my breasts. I let go of his softening cock and stood up. I smiled at him as I wiped my mouth with the back of my hand. We both helped Kathy up and walked over to their patio and sat down on some lounge chairs.

After we all caught our breath we looked at each other and started giggling then laughing out loud. Though a little awkward at first we started talking about what just happened and what we obviously shared in common. I explained what I had been doing for the past year. I admitted to Kathy that when they had gone on vacation that one time and I watched their dogs I had sex with the male. I said it had started as an accident but I liked it so much I could not stop. I admitted to them that my desire for canine sex had progressed to other dogs in the neighborhood. I left out the part of getting knocked up. My boyfriend knew that I am doing sex with my Dane but he did not know that I am so canine that I am doing sex in streets as a stray bitch but I did tell them my Boyfriend and didn't know about any of this and asked them to please not tell him.

They promised me and said now that this had happened they would like to be included on some of my adventures. Kathy said that soon after they got back from that vacation the male Doberman kept trying to sniff her crotch. When she had started ovulating he tried to hump her. By accident she found herself in a position to let him penetrate her. She let him and they had been fucking ever since. Bill had caught them once and was so turned on by it he encouraged it. He had fucked the female dog a few times while watching them.

While we were all sitting there relaxing after the sex the male dog came over to me and sniffed around me and tried to lick my pussy. We all looked at him then each other and started laughing again. I knew it was late and I thanked them for a great time. I stood up and walked to their gate and waved. I walked next door to my house. Going inside the house was quiet. I quickly showered in the spare bathroom. I slipped into bed with my Boyfriend who was sound asleep.

It was a couple of days since my encounter with my neighbors, Bill and Kathy. I decided I needed to go talk with them to make sure things were going to be OK between us. It was mid afternoon and I knew kathy was home because her car was there. I walked across the lawn up to her front door. I was dressed to go work out in a sports bra and tight cotton shorts. The bra was stretched tight across my chest and was really too small. I liked it this way and so did the guys at the gym.

I rang the doorbell and kathy opened it. She smiled at me and invited me in, but I could tell she was a little embarrassed. We went into her kitchen and sat down. She offered me some iced tea and we sat there a little nervous and not knowing where to start the conversation. I reassured her that anything we talked about would be kept in confidence. I told her how much I enjoyed watching her mate with her dog. Even though I had done it many times with lots of dogs I hadn't seen another woman do it before that night. She started to feel more comfortable and she asked me about my experiences. She wanted to know what other dogs felt like.

I told her it was like any cock, they are all the same but different. We laughed at that. I told her how some were very long and would push very deep inside me. Some were so thick that I didn't know if they would fit. Some of the knots were so big that I wasn't sure if they would come out. I told her that every month when I would ovulate I would now basically go in heat and I had to have a dog cock in me. I said how much I loved the feeling of that big hot cock shooting it's seed deep inside me knowing there was eggs waiting for it.

She paused for a moment thinking about that. She asked me if I thought it was possible to get pregnant from a dog. I could tell she was serious so I went ahead and told her. When I finished telling her how I had been impregnated by a male dog multiple times and delivered two big litter of pups confidentially and that unfortunately they didn't last she took my hand and said that was amazing. I told her it didn't happen every time and that I was pretty sure it was my Dane impregnates me and delivered a litter of 8 pups first , then my friend Jennifer's Rawttweiler impregnates me again and I delivered a litter 12 Rowttweilers and at last the Rowttweiler in our neighborhood that did it. I told her that I am still lactate and I feed the pups in her house so many times with my breast milk when they are on vacation. I told her about the Rotty in neighborhood and his amazing cock and about the time he had saved me from being raped by that stray dog.

She was fascinated by my experiences of walking around the neighborhood naked looking for canine lovers. She said that really excited her but she didn't know if she could ever be that bold. I told her she was very lucky to have a great dog like her male Doberman. He was a great lover and I had enjoyed the times I had been with him. I said however that there was something about the experience of walking around totally free and naked, giving off a scent that was driving every male dog in the area crazy with lust for you. Knowing that they would fight each other just for the chance to be near you.

She asked me if I would help her with a different male dog. She wanted to try one and since I had been intimate with most of them in the neighborhood she trusted me choosing one. She said she would have to talk to Bill her husband to make sure he was cool with it. Since she brought him up I asked her if she was OK with me having sucked his cock the other night. She smiled and said that yes it was fine. She had a big dog cock up inside her and knew that Bill needed some attention as well. She told me they had actually been to a couple of swinger parties, but nothing serious. After all it was just sex. She loved Bill and she knew he loved her.

I said how I worried that my Boyfriend would have penis envy towards the dogs because his cock was just average, so unlike her husbands cock which was huge. We both laughed at my remark but we had knowing smiles each of us thinking about Bill's tool. I told her I needed to get to the gym. She complimented me on my body and how great I looked. She said Bill had noticed too and said I was smoking hot. I smiled and thanked her for the compliments. As I left we hugged each other. As I pulled away Kathy gave me a little kiss on the lips. As I walked back to my house I thought to myself heck what's a little kiss, she has eaten my pussy before.

That evening I called kathy and asked her when she might be ready to try a new dog. She said she was a little sore from the sex that other night with her Doberman, but that after our conversation all she could think about was sex with a strange dog. She had already talked with her husband Bill and he was all for it. I knew kathy was on the pill so she wasn't ovulating. I however was and I would have to use my scent as the bait. I told her the best night would be tonight if she was up for it. Her voice was a little shaky, but she said OK what time? I said it would have to be at midnight. She needed to be naked in her backyard waiting for me. She agreed.

Midnight came and I made sure everyone was asleep in my house. I went out my backdoor and into the alley. I was completely nude of course and I didn't shower after my workout at the gym. My pussy was already wet in anticipation of attracting male dogs. I would use it to find a proper lover for Kathy tonight. My nipples were rock hard in the cool night air as my big breasts swayed back and forth as I walked. I went up kathy's driveway and opened the gate to the backyard. Kathy and Bill were sitting in patio chairs waiting for me. They were both as naked as me. I smiled at them noticing Bills big cock hanging down between his legs. I asked Kathy if she was ready. She looked at Bill and then back at me and said yes. As she stood up Bill said he wanted me to bring back any dog we found to this yard. If Kathy was going to have sex with another dog he wanted it to be here so he could make sure she was safe. I said that might limit our choices, but that we would honor his wish.

As kathy and I went out into the dark alley I wondered if Bill really wanted to make sure she was safe or did he want to watch. I doubted I could get the Lab out of his yard, but I knew there was one dog I could coax back to Kathy's, the Rottweiler. His house was down toward the end of the alley. He had dug a hole under the fence in order to get to me. His owner didn't know the hole was there so he should be able to get out again. I took Kathy's hand in mine as we walked down the alley. She asked me if I was ever afraid of being caught doing this. I said that was half the thrill. I said the desire far out weighed the fear of being caught.

As we got close to the Rottys house I thought about how Kathy would deal with his huge cock and knot. I thought he was going to rip me apart the first time he knotted me. She had been with her Doberman and after all her husbands cock was huge so she might be able to take it. If she got scared I would let him fuck me once again. We got to his yard and I told her to just be still and watch. We could hear movement on the other side of his fence. He was back there and he could smell me. His big bulk was moving back and forth along the fence. I looked at kathy and her eyes were wide and she was breathing fast. Her nipples were hard atop her perky breasts. The big dog moved down to the corner of the fence. We could hear sounds of digging and soon his bulk squeezed under the fence and he stood in the alley. kathy was shaking as she looked at him. I smiled to myself as he slowly walked over to me and stuck his big head into my crotch. He sniffed and then licked my pussy a few times. I rubbed his head and told him what a good boy he was.

I told kathy we better get headed back to her yard before he got too worked up. We started to walk quickly back and he followed right behind us. I could feel his cold nose on my ass a couple of times as we walked. Kathy laughed at the sight of this big dog following me because of my scent. We made it to her gate and as Kathy and the dog walked in I closed it behind us. Bill stood up when he saw how big the dog was. He asked Kathy if she was sure about trying this. She was pretty worked up so she said she was. The dog sniffed around the yard. The Dobermans were put up in the house so no conflicts would happen. He sprayed a few spots then came back over to me. The Rotty continued to sniff and lick my pussy. I knew this was going to be a problem getting him interested in kathy's pussy.

I decided to try something. I told kathy to lay down on the grass and spread her legs. I pushed the dogs big head away and I went over to Kathy and got down on the grass myself. I positioned myself so Kathy and I were crotch to crotch. I scooted forward and our pussy lips touched. I told her to hold onto my leg and I held onto hers. I ground my wet pussy against hers hoping some of my scent would transfer. As we were grinding against each other both of the males present watched us intently. I could see both of their cocks growing. Bill's was almost at full attention and the dogs big cock was emerging from it's sheath. This actually felt really good and I heard Kathy's moan a couple of times. My clit was really hard and sensitive. I shuddered as I orgasmed soaking Kathy's pussy with more of my juice.

I separated us and told Kathy to get up on all fours. I stood up and walked around behind Bill. Kathy stayed still with her ass in the air and her soaking wet pussy fully exposed. The big dog followed my scent right to Kathy. He gave her wet pussy a few licks as she moaned. I could see his big red cock hanging down and I knew he was ready. Thinking it was me there before him he mounted up on Kathy. She could barely hold his weight as he poked his hard cock searching for the entrance. I decided to lend a hand and I knelt down to guide him inside. I told Kathy to get ready as I placed his fat cock head to her entrance. As soon as he touched her he pushed forward. Her pussy opened up as half his cock went in her. She cried out and said he was so big. I told her to just relax he hadn't even got to the knot yet.

The big dog continued to thrust into Kathy. More and more of his cock was going up inside her. The dog was panting and so was Kathy. Soon he was deep inside her and his knot touched her outer lips. It was big but not as big as it was going to get. She asked me to help her get it in. I was on all fours trying to help her spread her pussy more and pushing on the dogs ass urging him forward. It looked impossible and I wondered if I looked like that when he mounted me. I rubbed her clit as he pushed again. All of a sudden he popped his knot past her entrance and they were locked up. He quit pumping and stood still. Kathy was breathing hard but said she could feel him swelling inside her and that she didn't know if she could take it. I told her his knot was the size of a softball and getting bigger. It wasn't going to come out anytime soon so she should relax and enjoy it. She said she could feel him coming deep inside her.

I was still on all fours fascinated by seeing the dogs cock buried deep in my friends pussy. I had forgotten about Kathy's husband Bill, that is right up to when I felt his hands on my ass. He had moved up behind me as I tended to his wife. I was very exposed in this position and he was going to take advantage of it. I felt one of his hands begin to stroke my pussy. I was so horny that I didn't stop him. I was wet and getting wetter when I felt him place his fat glans against my entrance. He pushed in and his big cock slowly went into me. I didn't care if this was my neighbor's husband, I just wanted to get fucked. His thick cock stretched me and soon he was all the way inside. It was the biggest human cock I had ever had. As he started to stroke in and out of my hot pussy the big dog turned around on his wife still firmly locked to her.

Everyone was sweating and moaning from the pleasure. Bills's big cock felt really good and I knew Kathy was very lucky to have it. The dog pulled a couple of times but his knot was too big to come out of Kathy yet. Bill was stroking with a purpose now. He reached around and down to grab one of my big tits. I was a lot bigger then Kathy so I guess he wanted a chance to play with them. He squeezed them and pinched my nipples. My breasts were full so a stream of milk shot out onto the grass. He continued to pump me and knead my boobs. His big fat cock was long enough to hit bottom in me as he stroked. He was lasting a lot longer then my Boyfriend ever did. He grabbed my ass with both hands and groaned as he fucked me. I couldn't help myself and I came from being fucked by someone else's husband. My pussy clamped down on his cock and that set it off. I felt him shudder and then he unloaded into me. He pumped his cock, shooting with each stroke. I came again as he slowed down finally. He left his big cock in me for a moment, not wanting to take it out. Finally, just as he pulled free of me, so did the dog from his wife. The big knot slowly came free and a huge load of dog cum poured out of her.

We all collapsed on the grass. The dog took turns cleaning himself and all of us. As I caught my breath I asked Kathy if she had enjoyed that. She smiled weakly and said yes. I turned to ask Bill if he had enjoyed me when I suddenly realized something. I had just fucked a man other than my Boyfriend and I had let him come inside me without protection. I was in heat and ovulating. This was not like letting a dog do that to me. I could very easily get pregnant by Bill. I sat up and told them what I had just realized. We looked at each other wondering what to do next. I told them I had an idea but I would need their help.

I got up off the grass and took Kathy's hand. I led her over to one of the patio chairs. I sat down in it and spread my legs. I ask Kathy to suck my pussy just like she did the last time. I needed her to suck as much of her husbands load out of my pussy as possible. She hesitated just for a moment looking down at my dripping snatch. bill had put a big load of his sperm inside me. She got down on her knees in front of me and placed her hands on my inner thighs. Leaning forward she took my swollen lips in her mouth and sucked on them.

She would lap up what was leaking from me and suck at my opening to draw more out. Even though I was nervous about Bill having cum in my unprotected pussy, this felt really good. I leaned my head back and closed my eyes. Kathy was really getting into sucking her husbands sperm from deep inside me. She was swallowing it all, not letting any go to waste. Involuntarily I reached for my big tits and squeezed them and groaned. My hands made their way to my nipples and when I pinched them I felt a stream run down the sides of my breasts. I did this a couple of more times when I felt someone else's hands on my breasts. I opened my eyes and saw Bill leaning over me kneading one of my big tits with both his hands.

I let go of my nipple and arched my back to thrust them forward. Bill got down on one knee and leaned his face down. As his wife was sucking his load from me he sucked one of my nipples into his mouth. It took him a couple of tries, but soon he was latched on and streams of my milk were shooting into his hungry mouth. It felt so strange to have a man drink from my full tits. This was a man, and not any man, it was my neighbors husband. I stroked the back of his head as he drank from me. His wife was making good progress. I felt her tongue explore up inside me. It was surprisingly long and swirled around searching for globs of her husbands deposit.

Mike switched to my other breast suckling it too. My milk flowed and I sighed. Kathy was working on my clit now with her tongue. It was still very sensitive from the fucking I had earlier and I almost couldn't stand it. She sucked it into her mouth and flicked her tongue quickly back and forth across it. My reaction was immediate. I shuddered and came violently. Sue quickly let go of my clit and placed her open mouth back over my pussy opening. My vagina spasmed uncontrollably what ever was left from Bills load oozed out. Kathy sucked that up and drank down any other juice that shot out of me.

As I came down off my orgasm, Kathy slowed down and finally gave my pussy a kiss and stood up. Bill let go of my breast and stood up as well. He had a big mouthful of my breast milk in his mouth and pulled Kathy close and kissed her. They swirled it back and forth mixing it with what Kathy had in her mouth. It was something to see and oh so sexy. As I watched them I thought to myself that even though Kathy had done a great job cleaning me out, some of Bills's sperm could have gotten past my cervix and was now headed to my fertile egg. My plan was to give his swimmers some competition.

I looked out into the backyard and saw the Rotty sitting there watching us. He looked fully recovered from his go with Kathy. I guess the smell of sex in the air had him excited because I could see his red cock poking out of his sheath. As Bill and Kathy continued kissing and fondling each other I got up and walked over to the dog. I rubbed his head and thrust my hairy snatch into his face. He and licked me and I heard a low growl from him. I guess he sensed another male's presence on me. This was a good thing because I wanted him to claim me as his.

I got down on all fours and though I was a little sore from all the sex tonight I prepared myself to take his huge cock inside me. I raised my ass showing him I was ready for him. He sniffed me and licked my wet pussy. I must have still been giving off a scent that said I was in heat because he hopped up on my back thrusting and searching out my entrance. We knew each other very well and it didn't take long for him to hit the mark. He felt my heat and pushed forward impaling me on his entire length. I heard Kathy gasp and figured they were now watching me. My pussy had been given a good workout tonight and was able to take him, all though it was still a really tight fit. His cock was the same length as Bill's but hotter and thicker. He didn't waste time claiming me as his. He began rapid long strokes in and out of my depths.

I was whimpering a little, enjoying being taken by this powerful animal. There was a little pain, but so much more pleasure. I was trying to catch my breath from the fucking I was getting when I opened my eyes. I saw Kathy down on all fours with Bill behind her fucking her with his big cock. Her pussy was still full of the dog's load and they were making squishing sounds as Bill pounded her. I thought how lucky they were to be a couple and be so open about sex. The dog fucking me got my attention when I felt his big knot pressing against my opening. I knew it was going to hurt going in, but I wanted it so bad. He kept banging it into me as I slowly stretched to allow its passage. It wasn't as big as it was going to get and I knew how to concentrate and relax the opening to my canal.

I held my breath and bore down and it popped in. The dog and I were still, waiting for the seal to be complete. I could feel him getting bigger. The end of his cock was pressed up tightly against my cervix and maybe even passed it somewhat. I could feel his thick cock throbbing as I knew he was dumping his load deep inside me. I hoped he had enough seed left for my eggs after fucking Kathy. He wanted to claim me back as his and impregnate me so I was hoping he would find enough to do that. His knot was at its maximum size. He turned on me swinging his leg over. We were ass to ass and he was not coming out of me anytime soon.

As the dog pumped me full I could hear Bill and Kathy still going at it. Bill was really pumping her and Kathy was asking for more. I thought I heard her say something but I couldn't quite make it out. Bill pulled his huge cock out of his wife. It was glistening with her juice and the dog's cum. Bill placed the head of his cock against Kathy's asshole. She was talking dirty now and urging him on. He pressed it in and somehow her ass opened up and the head disappeared. Kathy was barely able to contain herself as Bill forced more of his cock in her. His thick wet shaft was making progress. The widest part of it slowly went in followed by the rest of it. His huge cock was all the way in her ass.

Bill was telling her how hot and tight she was and Kathy was telling him to fuck her hard. He started making small strokes gradually lengthening them as she opened up more. He was stroking fast now pulling almost all the way out then slamming back in. Even with this huge dog cock wedged deep inside me I was wondering what it would feel like to have Bill's cock in my ass. I could see Bill's big balls slapping against Kathy's clit. She cried out she was cumming. I could tell Bill was getting close because his balls were drawing up. He had lasted a long time after fucking me first. Just as he started cumming in his wife's bowels the dog started to try to pull out of me. My belly felt so very full of his seed. He was starting to shrink some, but the seal was still pretty tight. His knot was pressing on my G-spot and I could not help giving up to an orgasm myself. My pussy started to powerfully contract and actually began to push him out of me. His knot suddenly popped out followed by his well used cock. I fell forward on to the grass exhausted.

I saw Bill pull his flaccid though still thick cock out of Kathy's ass. As he moved to a chair to sit down she squatted and squeezed out the load he had shot up into her ass. It was a huge amount and oozed onto the grass. As the last globs came out the dog made his way over to her. He sniffed the sticky load that was on the grass below Kathy and lifted his leg and peed on it. We all watched this act dumbfounded and then broke out laughing. Always the dominant dog he was making sure we all knew it. We all relaxed in the chairs and had something to drink. It was very late and I needed to get the dog back to his house. I stood up and gave both Bill and Kathy a kiss and walked out into the alley with the dog and took him back home. Getting back to my own house I took a shower and put a nightie on. I crawled into bed with my sleeping Boyfriend. Even though I was worried about what might have happened tonight I was so tired I went right to sleep.

Chapter Six - Another Brake-up

About a month had passed since that night at Bill and Kathy's. I had gone to another clinic and had a sonogram which confirmed my pregnancy. It was a very young and inexperienced technician. I was told there was one embryo implanted with a strong heartbeat. I asked to please be sure there was only one and I was told they were pretty sure only one was in there. In a couple of months I should come back and they would be able to tell more. I didn't ask anymore questions not wanting to raise suspicions. I still didn't know if it was a baby or a puppy. Of course if I stayed pregnant for a couple of more months then I would be sure I was carrying Bill's child. Should I be honest with my Boyfriend? How would Kathy deal with it?

It was a Saturday afternoon when I saw Kathy's car leave her house. My Boyfriend was playing golf and wouldn't be home all afternoon. I decided to go see if Bill was home. I wanted to reassure him that if I was pregnant with his baby I wouldn't hold him responsible. I had on a ribbed tank top and some running shorts. I had just gotten out of the shower and my hair was still damp. I had looked in the mirror and of course with my tight abs there was no bump or sign of anything different. I doubted I would show anything until the last couple of months. I knocked on the door to their house.

The front door opened and there was Bill. When he saw it was me he smiled and invited me in. I entered and asked where Kathy had gone. He said she had gone to pick up her Mother and they were going to some antique place to shop. He wasn't sure when they would be back but more then likely a few hours. I nodded and then asked him if we could sit down and talk. He smiled and said of course and offered us to sit on the couch in the den. As we sat down I kicked off my sandals and put my feet under me and turned toward him. He was wearing a t-shirt and shorts and looked like he was about to do yard work. He turned toward me and asked me what was on my mind.

I didn't know quite where to start and looking at him made my heart start beating fast. I think he saw that I was a little nervous and he reached out and took my hand. When he did that I felt a warmth spread from my tits to my pussy. I told him I had been to the doctor and the pregnancy was confirmed. I told him I was pretty sure he was the father even though I wasn't completely convinced yet. I wanted him to know that he shouldn't worry. I didn't hold him responsible and I would decide soon what to tell my Boyfriend. I admitted to him that I was worried about Kathy and how she would deal with her neighbor giving birth to her husband's child. He said they had not discussed it, that the one time he brought it up she said she didn't want to talk about it.

I sighed and looked down. He told me not to worry about it. He laughed a little and asked how I was, had I been out on any nighttime adventures? I smiled and said no, that since I didn't ovulate this month I didn't have the need for that. Besides, I said, it wouldn't be as much fun without him and Kathy. He told me Kathy had mated with their male Doberman a few times since our night. He let her do it alone and didn't participate. He asked me if I was feeling alright. I said yes, then said I did have one problem. I was still producing milk and my breasts ached really bad sometimes. I said I could use my breast pump, but that was so cold and mechanical. I missed the warmth and contact of a living thing.

He looked at me and asked me if they were full right now. I said yes and that they were so swollen I couldn't even wear a bra today. I saw him look down at my chest. I knew my big nipples were hard beneath the ribbed fabric of the tight tank. He swallowed hard and looked back up at me and asked if he could help me with my problem. I kept a straight face and looked at him and asked how? He said that night we were together and he had sucked on my breasts and drank my milk was one of the sexiest things he had ever done. He had been dreaming about the possibility of doing it again and now if it would benefit my condition he would offer his services. I smiled and said are you asking me if you can nurse on my milk again? He could barely get the word out, but managed to say yes.

I said, OK, where? He looked around and said how about right here on the couch? I smiled then reached for the bottom of my tank top and peeled it off. My big breasts came free and stood out proud from my chest. My nipples were very hard and my areolas were swollen. I leaned back on the couch and told him to have his way with me. He leaned forward and hefted on of my big boobs in his hand. He smiled and said that yes he felt very full. He leaned down and gently took my nipple into his mouth. His tongue swirled around it and I bit my lower lip. He adjusted his position on the couch to where he could lay down with his head facing me. Getting comfortable he began to suck more of me into his mouth. My milk started to flow and I held his head against my breast.

He was actually very good at this. It was a nice rhythm he was keeping and I could feel the pressure start to ease in the breast he was working on. The pressure in my crotch was not easing however and I could tell I was getting wet there. He would switch back and forth between breasts making sure they got equal attention. I didn't expect him to drain them because that was a lot of milk to drink. I just wanted them to be less full and to have a warm mouth do it. I had my head back with my eyes closed stroking his head. This felt wonderful and the excitement of knowing he was my friend's husband and I was letting him do this was making me wetter. This was such an intimate act, but we had been very intimate before. My mind drifted back to that night and I pictured his big cock entering my pussy. It felt so good I forgot to tell him to pull out. I was unprotected and he was very potent. Had I really forgotten or was my desire to have him fill me up too great?

He let go of my nipple and rolled off the couch. I guess he had his fill of my milk. I still had my head back and my eyes closed. I felt his hands on the waistband of my shorts. He slowly pulled them down and off. I wasn't wearing any panties so I was now completely naked on Bill and Kathy's couch. I opened my eyes and looked at him. I could see the desire in them and I could also see the desire in his cock which was hard in his shorts. I asked him what he was doing. He said earlier I had told him he could have his way with me. I smiled and asked him if that was what he really wanted? He just nodded. I asked him what about Kathy his wife? He said not to worry about her and after all he and I were going to have a baby. We wouldn't have to worry about protection.

I opened my arms and legs to him. He quickly took off his shirt and shorts. His big cock was very hard and pointed straight out. The huge head was swollen and wet. He leaned forward and kissed me. Our tongues swirled and I could taste my sweet milk. Breaking the passionate kiss he made his way down between my breasts to my belly. He lingered there kissing it and tracing the outlines of my muscles. He finally got to my lower belly. Normally when I was in heat and after male dogs I left things natural down there, but since I had go to the doctor I had trimmed things back. There was a strip down to where my lips started and they were bare. He followed that path and soon I felt his warm breath on my swollen lips.

He kissed them and ran his tongue between them. I whimpered as he did this. I was breathing hard and my stomach was clenching. He used his fingers to spread me open and he licked all around my soaking wet entrance. Having a dog lick me there felt great, but this was heaven. He knew exactly what he was doing. Finally his mouth found my clit and sucked it in. I hadn't had sex in almost six weeks and I shuddered with my first orgasm. I bucked off the couch some and he held on to my hips. He knew not to linger too long there because my big clit was hyper sensitive. As I was catching my breath he stood up and flipped me over the couch. My ass and wet pussy was now presented to him and I knew what he was going to do.

He moved in close behind me and rubbed his swollen head across my pussy lips wetting it. I had opened up like a flower and he pressed his cock into my core. Slowly he went in taking his time. He didn't want to hurt me by thrusting too fast. I would let him know if I wanted that. His fat cock was stretching me and it felt so good. He started a slow in and out motion getting gradually deeper. When he hit bottom he asked me if I was OK. I told him yes and how good his big cock felt inside me. Guys like to hear that stuff and I swear I felt his cock get even bigger. He was using longer strokes now and I was pushing back into him. I could feel his balls slapping against my clit. Those same balls had produced the seed that was now part of the baby inside of me.

He was an accomplished lover. Even though his big cock was inside a hot tight pussy he was lasting a long time. I felt him grab my legs and turn me over. I was now on my back on his couch and he did this without pulling out. I wrapped my legs around him and watched his muscular chest above me. I could tell he was concentrating wanting to please me. Neither of us wanted this to end, but we knew it would soon. I reached up with my hands and pulled him down to me. His chest smashed my big breasts between us. I pulled his mouth to mine and when he kissed me I moved my hands down his back to his ass urging him on.

It felt so different in this position. This was much more personal the doggie style. Our bodies were as one. We were as close as two people could get. He was now making love to me and I was to him. This had gone way beyond just casual sex, I could tell. I broke our kiss and I told him I didn't know how I would be able to stop doing this with him. He looked me in the eye and told me he never wanted to stop doing this with me. I pulled him down to kiss me again. My nipples were rubbing across his hairy chest. His huge fat cock was plowing my hot pussy. He broke our kiss and raised up over me. From the look on his face I could tell he was close and so was I. He looked to be almost in pain as he stroked faster. He grabbing my hips he pulled himself deep within me and I felt it. His huge cock was spasming inside me. I felt his hot cum shoot out of it in a huge eruption. I quickly was overtaken by my own eruption. My vagina fluttered and squeezed him. As I gave into it my whole body thrashed about. I couldn't help it. He hung onto me and finished draining himself into my pussy.

We both finally slowed down and he collapsed forward onto my chest. He held me and I held on to him as his cock stayed inside me, not wanting to leave. My cunt muscles gripped and squeezed him, milking every drop out of him. Finally I tapped his shoulder and told him he was heavy. He raised up and smiled, slowly pulling his magnificent cock out of me. When the big head popped out I actually felt empty. He helped me stand up and naked we held each other again. He asked me if I wanted to take a shower and I told him no that this had been risky enough. He laughed and said it wasn't risky, that I couldn't get pregnant. I told him that's not what I meant, I meant that we could get caught. Just as I said that we both heard a noise in the kitchen. We both looked and there in the kitchen stood Kathy. She was looking at us standing there naked in each others arms. She had a questioning look on her face of disbelief.

I tried to say it wasn't what she thought. She said it was exactly what she thought, her husband and next door neighbor had just had sex in her den.. Kathy and I both tried to find the words to explain but couldn't. Kathy continued and said that this looked like it had gone way beyond some swinging casual sex. It looked like we were doing this behind her back. I tried to say something, but she just walked past us and went in her bedroom, closing the door. I sighed and picked up my clothes and got dressed. I walked to the front door and turned back to Bill and whispered that I was sorry. He looked at me and smiled and said he wasn't. I walked out and went back home.

Another month went by and I was still pregnant. I wasn't showing at all though I knew I had gained a couple of pounds. I hadn't talked to Bill or Kathy since she caught us. Bill had called the house a couple of times but I didn't answer. I was 2 ½ months pregnant and I had decided to tell my Boyfriend the truth. If he loved me he would stand by me. If he didn't then I would be on my own. I was going to tell him everything. All about the dogs, Bill, everything. He would be home later this evening from a business trip and that's when I would tell him. Knowing I had made this decision made me feel better. I was smiling to myself and I place my hand on my stomach . I felt something move in there. It moved again and I felt a cramp. Another one hit and I felt a wetness between my legs. I went to the bathroom and removed my shorts. This wasn't like the other times. My water had broken and I was in labor.

My labor pains were getting stronger and closer together. I got into the bathtub naked. I decided not to call for help and do this myself. What ever was going to happen I couldn't stop it. My cervix had quickly dilated and something large was dropping down. It was really stretching me passing through my canal. I had to bear down and push when the cramps hit. When it reached the exit it got stuck. I was sweating and breathing hard. Another big cramp hit and I pushed with all my might. The opening to my pussy stretched some more and slowly I gave birth. I looked down between my legs It was a puppy. A very large Rottweiler puppy.

I was in shock and hesitated doing anything. I came to my senses and grabbed a towel to clean him off. Yes it was a him. I used the towel and some warm water and cleaned all the goo from him. Luckily I was in the tub to contain the mess. I dried him off and he was squirming in my arms. He seemed to be physically normal and breathing on his own. I set him down in a warm towel on the floor and finished cleaning myself up. The cramps had stopped and I guess there were no more puppies inside me. I am shocked and surprised too much that I had only one puppy in womb instead an average litter of 7 or 8 pups.

I put some clean clothes on and cleaned up the bathroom. I picked up my newborn puppy and sat down in a rocking chair and held him close. This was the biggest newborn puppy I had ever seen. Rotty's were a big breed and his daddy was big. He was going to be huge. I was in awe watching him whimper and squirm in my arms when I realized what he wanted. I lifted my shirt up exposing my large breasts. My nipples were already hard and drops were forming at the tips. I brought him close to nuzzle against them and get a scent of me. He opened his mouth and licked once then latched on to me. My milk flowed and he drank.

Yes I was his Mother. The Rotty's sperm had fertilized my egg. It had been in competition with Bill's to reach it first. Maybe that's why I was able to take this puppy to term. The Rotty's gene's were very dominant and made sure I had his puppy. I smiled as I stroked his head. My son was nursing from me and nobody was ever going to take him away from me. I had my head back and my eyes closed enjoying the moment when I heard a noise. I looked up and saw my Boyfriend standing in the doorway. He looked down and saw the puppy nursing from my breast. He said that wow that is a big one and asked when I got him. I Told him the truth that the rowtti is my own son . I delivered the puppy just before few hour's. he asked me that Your Dane and Rowtti both are in your friend jennifer's house then how it is possible. I told him all about my night adventures and the sex encounters with the dogs in our neighborhood and told him about the big Rotti(the father of my newborn) nearby in our home. How he claimed me as his breeding bitch and how he save and protect me from other street dogs. My Boyfriend didn't question me again and seeing me nurse the puppy didn't phase him. When the puppy had his fill I got some pillows and I laid down on the floor with him snuggled up against the warmth of my naked breasts. We both drifted off to sleep there, Mother and Son.

Over the next few weeks I did little else then spend time with my puppy. He was always hungry and growing fast. I let him nurse whenever he wanted and even slept with him. One afternoon I was out in the front yard letting him play in the grass. His eyes were open and he was just being a puppy. I looked up and saw Bill walking toward me. Bill stopped and asked how I was. I stood up and smiled at him and said he didn't have anything to worry about anymore that I wasn't pregnant. I saw a look come over his face. It was almost sadness, but then he smiled and said well he thought that might be for the best. I walked over to him and stood close laying my hand on his chest. I told him to not be too disappointed. I told him I would have loved to have his baby, but it would have complicated his and Kathy's life. He said that was already complicated enough. All Kathy wanted to do was fuck the male Doberman. She was doing it once or twice a day, every day. He suggested some counseling, but she wasn't interested.

We both felt the puppy sniffing and rolling around at or feet. He looked down and made a comment on how big he was and asked when I got him. I almost told him the truth with little hesitation . Bill said he had to go and he was glad I was feeling well and that I looked great. He put his arm around my waist and pulled me close for a hug. He held me tightly for a moment and whispered in my ear that he loved me. I took his face in my hands and looked him in the eye and told him that I loved him to. I then told him to go back home and work on it with Kathy. He reluctantly let go of me and nodded then turned and walked back home. I picked my big boy up and went inside my house. He was hungry again of course.

About 8 months had gone by since that day. My Boyfriend was traveling a lot so he told me that I was keeping the dog for protection so I must bring the big Dane I also agreed with him. I had weaned him off my milk at about 3 months. It was tough and I made the decision to let my breasts dry up. I had been lactating for years and felt it was time to stop. My big boy was almost 180 lbs. The vet couldn't believe he was that big for his age, but said it was all muscle and he was in perfect health. He asked me if I was going to get him fixed or was I going to breed him? That got me tongue tied for a moment and I said I would make that decision soon. On the drive back home from the vets I wondered what I should do. I hadn't been with a dog in almost a year. His father was the last one.

Thinking about sex with his father made me very wet. When we got home I was still daydreaming about that as we went inside. We were alone in the house when I bent over to pick something up and he stuck his big head in my ass and sniffed. I stood up quickly and turned to look at him. He was sitting there with a curious look on his face. He came back over to me and sniffed my crotch from the front. I tried to walk away from him but he followed me. Finally I gave up and decided to just let him satisfy his curiosity. I sat on the couch and opened my legs to let him smell me. He came over and stuck his large head there and took deep breaths while nuzzling into my pussy. I couldn't help myself and just got wetter.

After a few minutes of this I guess he wanted more because he grabbed the material of my shorts in his teeth and pulled. He was pulling harder now obviously wanting to take my shorts off. He was smart enough to know the shorts were in the way of the source of my scent. I could have stopped him there, or at least I think I could have, but I didn't. I helped him peel my shorts and panties off over my hips and then off completely. I spread my legs again totally exposed and hope that would be enough. He gave his Mother a couple of sniffs to confirm he was at the source and then proceeded to lick me.

It felt so good and since I hadn't had sex in awhile I was getting into it. He kept trying to shove his hot tongue up inside me and was taking little nips of my clit too. The lust inside me had risen up to the point where I didn't care if this was my Son doing this to me. If I had been a female dog this would have been perfectly normal. Mothers are bred to their Son's all the time. I pulled my shirt off and rubbed my tits as he continued to lick me. My breasts had dried up but the nipples had stayed long and sensitive. They also had not gotten any smaller. I wore a 34DD to a 34E depending on the bra.

I was having little mini orgasms as he licked me. I wondered if he would stop or go farther. Did I want him to go farther? I soon found out as he jumped up on the couch with his forepaws. I looked between my legs and saw it. He wanted to fuck me. His huge cock was poised there dripping with precum. I couldn't believe the size of it. Not thinking twice about it I let go of my breasts and reached down to help guide him into me. The tip touched my wet, hot opening and he started to hunch his hips. The head of his cock was very large and I was having trouble getting it in my tight pussy. I was sure it was bigger than his fathers. I angled my hips a little different and slowly I stretched enough for him to enter. He was huge and it hurt some. I had to hold on to his cock with my hands because my Son was impatient and wanted to shove his entire cock in his Mother. I was able to get the widest part in and then let go to let him plow me.

He was a virgin and I was glad I was his first. Soon he had forced his fat cock all the way in me and I knew for sure he was bigger than his father. My pussy was stretching and molding itself to be able to take him. He was rapidly thrusting with abandon. Like all young guys he couldn't control himself when he was in a tight hot pussy. I wasn't sure if he was going to be able to complete the task when I felt his hard knot bang into my lips. Was my boy going to be able to tie with me? From the size I knew his cock was I had to guess his knot was huge. We were fucking belly to belly on the couch and he was trying to push it into me. Sex with a dog can be risky, but my lust took over and I wanted him all the way in me.

I wrapped my legs around his ass and pushed him forward. He seemed to get the message and he pressed his knot into my entrance stretching me more. I bore down and pushed him forward more. My pussy opened up and like a big vacuum sucked his knot inside. OMG it was so big and it hadn't even swelled to maximum size. Would I be able to get it back out? Right now I didn't care. I just loved the feeling of having my Son's big cock deep inside me. I felt something. He was cumming. My Son was cumming inside me. I was so much in love with him. I stroked his fur and told him that. Then I realized something. I still wasn't on the pill and he was mature enough to be very virile. My Son could get me pregnant like his father did. Did I want that to happen now that I knew it was possible? I counted the days since my last period and knew I probably wasn't ovulating yet, but there still was a chance. I hugged him close and enjoyed the warmth spread in my pussy as he filled me up with his seed.

We had been locked up together for about ten minutes when he decided he wanted to turn around on me. I helped him slide off me to one side and flip his leg over. His huge knot was still very much lodged in my pussy. I felt very full of his cock and his load. He tried to pull out a little but it wasn't happening. I was trying to hold him still until he went down some more when I heard it. The door to the garage opened and in walked my Boyfriend. He was home from his business trip early. He walked into the den and took in the scene before him. There I was on my back on the couch naked with my legs spread wide. My dog was standing there with his ass backed up to my pussy because his huge cock was still locked up inside my pussy. There really wasn't much for me to say so I just waited for my Boyfriend's reaction. My dog had a reaction though. He looked at my Boyfriend and growled really deep and menacing. He wanted to make sure my Boyfriend knew I was his since he had just claimed me.

My Boyfriend stood there for a moment longer. He told me that one of the reasons he had been traveling so much lately was it gave him a chance to spend more time with one of his co-workers. It was a woman in his dept who he was having an affair with. He had gotten tired of me not wanting sex and making him wear a condom so one night at a work party he had hooked up with her and they had been fucking ever since. He was going to tell me this weekend that he wanted a Break-up from me , but now since he knew about this he was sure I would grant him one. He would let me keep the house and the mortgage but as of tonight he was moving out.

He did have one question for me. He asked me why on earth I was fucking a dog? I got shocked very much that I had told all the truth about me when we comes in relation and now he was talking me such a way. His talking brings tears in my eyes. I replied that he was not able to satisfied me sexually even he can't any girl. At this he got angry on me and starts abusing. Just at that moment my Son pulled hard and his huge knot emerged from my pussy followed by a foot of fat dog cock. It was truly a magnificent sight. His huge load poured out of me. I looked back at my Boyfriend with a knowing look. The dogs cock was four times the size of his cock. I just smiled and said, that's why. I told him to hurry up and get out.

My Break-up was final. I had to go back to work to be able to pay the mortgage, but was still struggling. I figured I would have to sell the house soon. One evening there was a knock at my door. I went to open it and there stood Bill. I smiled at him and invited him in. My heartbeat sped up and I felt warm. I hadn't seen much of him and wondered if he and Kathy had worked things out. We sat down and he asked me where my Boyfriend was. I told him the story of my break-up. When I said our Break-up was recently final Bill's eyes lit up. I asked him how Kathy was and he said that her obsession with fucking the dog had not eased up. One day when he came home Kathy, her things and the two dogs were gone. She left him a note explaining that she didn't love him anymore and only wanted to be with the dog from now on. She left him some divorce papers to sign as well.

So here we sat, two newly single adults. I think the reality of the situation was setting in with both of us. We looked into each others eyes and smiled. I looked deeply into his eyes and I knew he loved me and I loved him too. He reached for me, pulling me close and I didn't resist. He kissed me long and deep. I took him by the hand and led him into my bedroom. Undressing each other we climbed up on the bed. I could feel his hard cock between us pressing in my belly. I rolled him on his back and climbed up on top. I raised up and guided his swollen tool to my entrance. Slowly I lowered myself as he squeezed into me. I had to back off and stop then continue to get him in. I was fully impaled on him and I knew that I wanted to do this forever. I started to ride his cock and he reached up to play with my tits.

He rolled me over on my back and made love to me. He told me I was the one for him. He loved me and wanted to marry me. I smiled and told him I loved him too. But I know that what I am exactly so I clear him that I am for my dogs sexually as his ex-wife Kathy messaged him. So I can't marry you. I never see strong man till now who can satisfied me sexually except my dogs so we can live in a relation because I like his manhood very much. He starts fucking me so fast . I closed my eyes when I felt him cumming inside me. I held him close and we drifted off to sleep. When we woke in the morning we made love again. It was slow and caring. He wanted to make sure he please me and he sure did. After our shower I told him how I was going to have to sell my house. I wasn't sure where I was going to live yet. He took my hand and said I could move in with him so we could be together. We could stay in his house or sell it too and buy a place of our own, maybe even in the country.

That's just what we did. We sold both homes and bought a small farm with a big old house just right. We took my dog too and we all live the country life now.
