BEASTIALITY STORIES

The man's point of view:

Rick had watched his neighbour's new pure black 2-year old Quarter horse stallion with a heart filled with lust, his name Paladin. He had never had a horse fuck him, but he had fantasies that his neighbour's stallion would do the deed. They had the stallion for about a month and he loved watching his muscles ripple beneath his glistening black body as he galloped in their field, but especially loved seeing his erection. He had no opportunity to sneak over and fulfil his fantasy, but he did feed Paladin carrots and sugar cubes through the neighbour's fence almost every day. Paladin had yet to experience a mating and Rick intended that he would soon give him and himself their first mating experience.

Hearing his neighbours were leaving for an overnight visit to relatives in another town, he planned to visit Paladin that night. As soon as they left in their car he snuck over as evening fell to visit the object of his desire. He felt his excitement mount as he walked up to the black horse, which was slightly spooked by his presence at an hour he had not been visited before. Calming Paladin with gentle words, he told him how handsome and strong he was and what a nice cock and set of balls he had. When the horse calmed down, he led the horse next to a stone wall.

He proceeded to remove his clothes, exposing a well-muscled young body sporting an extremely stiff, large penis, dripping precum and nice set of well-hung balls. He felt his breathing and heart rate increase even more as he stood next to the stallion and felt the warmth of the horse's large body. He began to pet the horse on the head, then moved to massaging his strong shoulder and then down to his side. When Paladin did not object, he moved underneath him feeling his underside and heading for the object of his desire. Rick felt his excitement mount as he touched and massaged the stallion's penis, which was already out of its sheath.

Seeing Paladin's large balls he could not resist the urge to massage them as well. After massaging the balls and penis he started to lick the head of the stallion's dripping and fully erect penis and lick his balls. He put the penis in his mouth and Paladin bucked a few times pushing it further into his mouth. He loved the taste of the horses' precum. Rick knew that the stallion was close to being ready. He got in front and presented himself to the horse by bending over and placing his hands on the stone wall. He felt his desire for the horse increase even more as he told Paladin he was a beautiful, handsome stallion and begged him to mount and fuck him.

Rick felt Paladin sniff his butt and then start to nuzzle, nudge, and nip him from buns to heel. Rick pushed back against the stallion and felt the horses' muscular body against him. He could tell, as the horse pushed back against him, that the stallion was becoming even more excited. Rick felt the stallion lift his front legs off the ground and proceeded to mount him. Because of Paladin's inexperience, he came crashing down on Rick's back. The weight of the horse almost knocked him down, but Rick managed to stay up with the support of the wall. Rick could feel the pressure and warmth of the stallion's body on top of his back as Paladin's precum covered penis poked at his ass until he found his anus. Upon discovering he had his warm hole, Rick felt Paladin penetrating deeply, with a mighty push of his penis, into his ass. Rick's mouth flew open and he yelled out as the stallion gave a whinny of pure pleasure and surprise.

The pain was intense, as the thick and long black stallion penis started to plough ever deeply into Rick's young tight ass. As the stallion's penis massaged his prostate, Rick began to experience a rapid and growing feelings of intense pleasure that replaced his pain. Rick would yell out in pleasure as he felt the stallion's penetrating penis slide by his prostate as the horse worked him over with each hard thrust, causing his penis to ooze copious amounts of precum. It was an experience beyond his wildest imaginings. Rick would thrust back toward Paladin's stallion cock at the same time he felt the horse thrust up his ass. This caused the horse's penis to go much deeper into him, resulting in very intense feelings of pleasure, which were growing to a rapid climax.

Rick face began to grimace and he gasped as he felt his balls tighten up as they released a titanic, long-lasting orgasm, resulting in his cock very forcible moving upwards with each ropey ejaculation that shot onto the stone wall in front of him and the stallion. As he ejaculated, his very stretched out anal ring rapidly and rhythmically tightened and released violently around the stallion's cock, which caused Paladin to go over the edge. Rick felt the stallion's balls slap his ass as the horse forced one last fully deep thrust of his penis a few seconds later.

He felt Paladin's cock head expand rapidly and a hot river of cum began spraying deep inside him as he heard the stallion whinny in pleasure. The stupendous amount of cum shooting into him forced cum to flow around the stallions cock and spill down out of his asshole onto his balls and legs and onto the ground. Breathing heavily the exhausted stallion lay on top of Rick's back with his head down next to Rick's face for a few minutes. He felt the Paladin's cock deflate inside him and the horse slowly dismount from him. Exhausted as well by the intense mating, Rick turned and gave the horse a hug and kiss on the muzzle. He knew he would be soon cumming to the black stallion again.

The stallion's point of view:

Paladin, a black 2-year old Quarter horse stallion, enjoyed his new living conditions. It was a large, lush, fenced field with excellent tasting grass. He loved galloping through the field and feeling his muscles ripple beneath his glistening black body. Every once in a while he would get aroused and get a funny feeling and felt a yearning he did not understand. This would cause his penis to get stiff. Paladin felt he was missing something, but did not know what it was. Almost every day a man would appear along the fence line and give him carrots and sugar. Then, one evening, he smelled and heard the man coming through the field. He was slightly spooked by the presence of the man so late at night. The man spoke to Paladin with gentle words he did not understand, but calmed him down. When Paladin felt calm the man led him near a stone wall.

Then the man proceeded to remove his clothes, exposing a well-muscled young body sporting an extremely stiff and large penis dripping precum. Paladin felt the man pet him on the head, massage his shoulder and then touch him along his side. This felt good to Paladin. The man moved underneath him feeling his underside and moving down toward his penis, which was already out of its sheath as he started to get excited. Paladin felt the man massage his penis and large balls, which the horse found very pleasurable, but especially after the man started to lick the head of his fully erect penis and lick his balls. When the man put his penis in his mouth, Paladin could not help but buck a few times pushing it further into the man's mouth as his excitement grew. Paladin felt he was close to being ready, but not sure for what.

The man got in front of him and presented himself to Paladin by bending over and placing his hands on the stone wall in front of him. Paladin heard him talk again and from his tone he could tell he wanted him to do something. Paladin sniffed the man's butt, which smelt good, and then started to nuzzle, nudge, and nip the teenager from buns to heel as his excitement mounted. The man pushed back against the Paladin and the horse felt the muscular body of the man against him. He pushed against the man and became even more excited. Lust overtaking him, he proceeded to mount the man and came crashing down on his back. Paladin felt that he almost knocked him down, but the man managed to stay up with the support of the wall.

Paladin could feel the warmth of the man's body against his chest as his precum covered penis poked at the man's ass. Paladin's felt the man grab his penis and press it into himself. Paladin, discovering he had a warm hole, penetrated deeply into the man's ass with a mighty thrust of his penis and he gave out a whinny of pleasure and surprise as the man yelled out below him. Paladin started to plough his thick and long black stallion penis ever deeply into the young man's ass below him. This felt intensely pleasurable to the stallion and was an experience beyond his wildest imaginings. Paladin felt the man thrust back toward him at the same time he would thrust his stallion cock up the man's ass. This caused his penis to go deeper into the man resulting in very intense feelings of pleasure, which was growing to a climax.

Paladin heard the man gasp and heard his ejaculate hit the wall in front of them. As the man ejaculated, his very stretched out anal ring rapidly and rhythmically tightened and released violently around the Paladin's cock, giving additional feelings of pleasure, pushing the stallion over the edge to his climax. He felt his balls slap the man below him in the ass as he forced one last fully deep thrust into him and felt the ultimate intensity of his climax as his large balls tighten against his body. He then felt his horse's cock head expand rapidly and begin spraying a river of cum deep inside his willing partner as he gave out a whinny of pleasure. It felt very good. His tail flagged each time his penis shot a huge wad of cum up the man's ass. Exhausted, Paladin lay on top of the man's back with his head down next to the man's face for a few minutes. He felt his cock deflate inside the man and then he slowly dismounted from him. Exhausted as well by the intense mating, the man turned and gave the Paladin a hug and kiss on the muzzle. The stallion now knew what he longed for.

The End.
