BEASTIALITY STORIES

I graduated with a very specific degree, limiting the opportunity for jobs available to me. That is why when a position came open in a third-world country, one that had a lot of superstitious stories to deal with, but it was a job, the pay was fantastic, so I readily agreed to join the company there.

Probably the first thing I initially thought was a hoax was a company called The Hybrid - run by a lady Madam JJ, who was said to be beautiful. The company specialized in trying to mix species, hopefully making the new species much more valuable. The practice was called hybridization.

Since I am a lesbian, a confirmed one, meeting a cute redhead coworker named Jenny, who also gave off vibes of being interested in me, we meant in a like-minded club, catering to or trying to limit attendance to females only.

I had dressed in a very revealing top, which gave a good look at my big Double D boobs, as well as a short dress, topping off the look by not wearing any panties or bra, thinking maybe this would excite her.

She surprised me by wearing a see-through top, and like me, a matching short skirt, also panty missing.

Hugging each other, enjoying how good we both felt, the greeting was prolonged longer than usual, finally breaking - taking a long time to look at one another, then grabbing a small table in the back, as soon as our drinks arrived, our hands were rubbing each other's legs.

"I'm so glad you have joined our company; I just know we'll become good friends."

While we were exploring each other's bodies, she told me about this strange company, located here in the area but out in the country someplace.

The more she told me about what was happening in that facility, the more curious I became. One of the most obvious questions I had, was how she got the two different species aroused sexually to get ready to mate?

While asking this question, I did not notice my companion dropping a small yellowish pill in my drink - it was dissolved immediately, entering my body. While I drank the refreshment, leaning in close to me, she said, "She uses a special drug, one that slowly enhances the female's sexual feelings, then by increasing the dosage. Eventually, they are open to any advances made by any species."

We talked, her hand was between my legs, pumping two fingers in and out of my pussy, bringing me closer and closer to the edge of the cliff, soon needing to topple over, something I usually would not be doing with someone I had just meant. Still, for some reason, I was feeling so turned on.

In a sexual haze, I followed her home, enjoying her particular toy room, being locked to a modified St. Andrews cross, when she inserted a modified Symbian type of tool, pumping a writing rubber cock in and out of me, causing me multiple climaxes, leaving me spent, totally exhausted, now at her mercy. Giving me another drug-enhanced energy drink, she attached vibrating nipple clamps, as well as a pussy vibrating small bullet.

While I enjoyed the sexual haze so much, I had no idea every drink I was given contained the drug she initially used on me.

I stayed with her through the weekend, driving to work in separate vehicles, but that evening both of us went to my place, picking up all of my belongings, canceling my lease, and moving in with my new lover.

Usually, this would have been the last thing I'd have considered, but she had drugged me so heavily, I was wide open for any suggestions.

She continued to administer the drugs to me, reducing any inhibitions I may have had to the point that only sex mattered. To test this out, one Friday evening, we both dressed in the most risqué outfits anyone could wear, heading to a bar known for the aggressive males who frequented the place.

As soon as we entered, two of the biggest, extremely good-looking black men started talking to us, having us join them around a secluded table in a few minutes. Terrell slid in next to me, wasting no time, sliding his hand up between my bare legs.

Before meeting Jenny, I would never have been in a place like this, never been in the company of any man, and never have been letting one slide his hand up between my bare legs. Still, now, I let out a small whimper, opened my legs wide, just as he kissed me, at the same time sliding his hand up, cupping my pussy, slipping one finger quickly inside me, pumping it hard.

I couldn't help myself, easily beginning to ride his hand, trying to get him to use me more. At some point, one finger changed to three, then four. Each time they pushed inside me, it hurt, but the pleasure I was feeling somehow overshadowed the pain, making me want more.

Not sure when it happened, but my top was removed. He and his friend were playing with my tits. I had no idea where Jenny was. All I could focus on were the two of them, making me feel better than I've ever felt before and wanting more.

When I was nude, deeper in the erotic sexual haze than I'd ever experienced, I was carried out to a limo, laid down on the seat, two hands between my legs, two on my boobs, all of them keeping me on edge but not allowing me to go over, needing some relief so badly.

Having lost track of time, It seems like Jenny was in the car with us, supplying me with drugged drinks and just watching what they were doing to me. When the vehicle stopped, a beautiful big breasted blonde opened the door, looking at me, kissing Jenny, "You have her just where I need her"

Then directing the guys to move me to the private room, ensuring they get me ready for the introduction.

Somewhere in the back of my mind, when Jenny greeted the blonde as Madam JJ, I knew this was not a place where I should be, but my two companions had me in such a highly aroused state, nothing seemed to matter, only reaching some relief.

Laying me on my back on a bed, both guys now nude also, their cocks were huge, one pulled me to the edge of the bed, rubbing his rigid shaft up and down between my lips, making me hum the air. In one stroke, he buried that monster all the way in; the pain was immediate, like someone had shoved a wooden handle up inside me. Screaming in pain, twisting from side to side, trying any way possible to get him out of me, while at the same time, a petite mini orgasm hit me, causing so much confusion.

He kept pounding in and out of me, the pain was still there, but the new minis were also raking my body, which is when the second guy jammed his huge cock in my mouth and someone, I think maybe Jenny, inserted a finger in my ass.

The erotic stimulations being done to me were far too much. Suddenly without any warning, my mind shut down, my pussy was still enjoying the new mini explosions, but the pain was still present.

My ass had discovered a new sensation, and my mouth was doing something I'd never even dreamed of, giving a blow job to a guy.

I wasn't trying to think about who I was or where I had come from, but if I had, most of it would have been erased.

The two guys took turns fucking me, over and over. At the same time, larger items were introduced into my ass, loosening it up, widening the hole.

New men came in to be with me, between showers, food breaks, more drinks that were now being drugged with chemicals designed to change my body internally while keeping me sexually awake and aroused.

Having no idea how long I had been here, eventually, one entered my anal area, introducing me to back door thrills, my own pussy exploding when the first load of cum filled me up in there.

For the next few days, I was fucked continually in both openings. More drug-filled drinks were given to me, when one morning, I had showered, just finished a nice breakfast, when one of the most beautiful women I have ever known came to join me, along with Jenny. Both were like me, nude, and I was immediately drawn to this new stunning creature. She hugged me, ran her hand down over my bottom, all the time complimenting me on how well I had done enjoying so much sex. She went on to tell me she had hypnotized Jenny, implanting some trigger words and commands, which is why she seduced me and brought me here. Then taking me by the hand led me to a new area, one that had a lot of animals inside large well-equipped cages. In each one, a different set of species were playing with one another.

Opening up one, stepping inside with me, "Nikki, this where we keep a couple of friendly dogs, if you don't mind, we'd like you to play with them until we can find someone to do this for them."

I had always loved dogs of all kinds, dropping down to my knees, rubbing the big white one head when he came running towards me, not stopping until his head was between my legs, his tongue licking my pussy, instantly throwing me into an erotic state, dropping my head to his back, my whole body shaking while his tongue kept dividing my lips, licking the moisture that seemed too always be there.

The other one, kissing me, licking my breasts, paying attention to my nipples, both of them slowly building up my arousal.

Madam JJ and Jenny were in the Madam's office, Jenny on her lap, playing and teasing her nipples, while her Mistress was pumping fingers in and out of her, causing her to hump the air, both of them watching me on a closed screen, whispering to Jenny, "She is a natural, no hesitation at all, I think we'll let her spend some time with a donkey then introduce her to the gorilla seeing if we can get her knocked up."

One dog jumped up on me, forcing me to move to the small bench mounted in the middle of the room. As soon as I was there, his cock slid deep inside me, causing me to moan, the feeling so wonderful, pushing back to him, dropping my head, taking a deep breath, "Ohh fuck"

The rapid pounding started as soon as his cock bottomed out in me. The previous time I'd spent with the guys had me so loose. His knot slipped in without any pain. But as soon as he stopped, filling me with warm cum, my body kept experiencing multiple explosions one after the other.

I continued to shake, my legs trembling and shaking, the opening of my pussy shaking, the lips clutching and sucking. This kept up long after he pulled out of me.

My body was still writhing when the second dog entered me, sending me over the edge into a permanent falling experience of erotic spasms.

We continued to hook up with each other the rest of that day, into the evening, when by mistake, one of them slipped his cock in my back door, triggering a sexual feeling I'd never enjoyed before. After that, I'd reach back, guiding the cock into that area, then by the time he was emptying his seed in me. I was enjoying a massive orgasm of my own.

This way of fucking went on into the early morning, finally being helped out to a long-awaited bath, where Jenny helped me wash all of my body, then helping me into a much-needed bed, leaning down, kissing my neck, "You can rest as long as needed, day after tomorrow you'll meet a new playmate." Then she left.

My body was so exhausted, I slept until early afternoon, woke, took a shower, some food, then relaxed with a drink, trying to think of all that had happened to me, remembering the warning about Madam Jessica, but then so grateful I had not had any hang-up about enjoying sex with dogs and who knows, maybe some other animals. Nothing seemed to be wrong with what had happened to me, eventually drifting off to sleep again, sensing something was different with my body but having no idea what it was.

The next morning was delightful. Nice long shower much needed food, more special drink then escorted to a new area, opening the large pen, a massive gorilla was setting in the corner, his cock already semi-hard, looking at me, while he stroked his shaft.

The door closed behind me, I wasn't sure what to do, but it was hard not to stare at that cock. Moving towards him, the moisture between my legs, now increasing, it was easy to see he could smell the arousal scent I was giving off. Standing, towering over me, his cock now sticking out from his body, moving around me, reaching between my legs, soaking his finger, bringing it back to taste it, a low sexual grunt told me he liked the fact I was ready for him.

Moving closer to me, running a hand between my legs, his rough hands making me whimper while I moved it back and forth, sliding one huge digit up inside me, "OMG" as I pressed down on his hand, wrapping my arms around his strong limb, pressing down on his hand and fingers, needing so much more from him.

He had moved to my side, making it easy to reach out, stroking that huge member. I heard him let out a low moan, then kissed me so deeply and passionately, his tongue entering my mouth, causing my eyes to roll in my head.

Picking me up easily, carrying me to the corner, where he sat back, holding me by the waist, lowering me and my pussy over his shaft, then slowly lowered me, so his cock went up inside me easily. As soon as he had bottomed out, both of his hands gripped my waist, lifting me up and down, much like he was using my body to masturbate.

My boobs were bouncing up and down, my pussy was exploding with the mini-climaxes raking all through my body.

I have no idea how long he used me like this, but eventually, pushing me down hard, holding me there, my eyes came wide open, just as I felt his warmth. Comforting seed filling me to the max. He kept me, so his cock kept buried up inside me, continuing to pump warm liquid up inside me.

Finally, after an unknown time, he lifted me off of him. I moved to my knees, licking his cock to clean off our combined juices.

A table with drink and food was to the side, I was famished, enjoying what was provided for me, but within a short time, his hand was once again between my legs, as earlier, being used up and down on that wonderful shaft - more cum, more cleaning, the seed dripping between my legs.

I have no idea how many times he used me like this, but it had to be more than three days, eventually bringing me out, helping me shower, then taken to a physician Madam JJ had on staff, checked over, the Madam was there, looking at the report, smiling, then hugging me, "Oh Nikki I couldn't be happier, but you're pregnant with a little gorilla baby."

Looking at her, a complete shock on my face, "Pregnant from the sex the two of us had? How is that possible?"

She told me my body had been changed to accommodate this pregnancy. Approximately nine months later, I gave birth to a handsome baby boy. I was told I couldn't get pregnant again for a few years, so in the meantime, I fucked dogs, small donkeys, smaller horses, a few pigs, then when I was ready, my longtime lover and I were again fucking to get me pregnant.

The End.
