BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2022 by IncognitusSolum

Until I was 20, I lived with my mom, but she was always at Granny's since she was sick and needed someone to take care of her. Granny lived nearby, and we often went to her house for dinner. Sometimes I would go home alone as my mom would have to stay over.

We have a dog named Zeus large-sized dog, very well behaved most of the time. Sometimes he would hump my leg, which I thought was funny but would make him stop since he is heavy and I'm a skinny person.

One day, as usual, my mom texted me that she would be staying over at my granny's house, and it was summer and was a sweltering day. I got hungry. I got some snacks from the kitchen, and since I was alone, I didn't mind walking naked in the house. Still, my dog was the king of dogs that, like most, would watch you eat, hoping you give some to him. Still, I didn't mind him, so I stayed in bed after finishing my snacks. I don't usually sleep naked, but I do when it's too hot. I am used to watching something on my phone while in bed, and when my arm is tired, I just put my phone on the bed lying on the wall. It fell through between the bed and the wall, and as I tried to get it, I ended up making it fall under the bed.

I have queen size bed, so I had to crawl under it to get it. I suddenly felt my dog's wet and icy nose smelling my ass when I reached it, which scared me. So I hit my back and head on the bed, which hurt me for a brief second. After that, I noticed him licking my ass, so I tried pushing him with my legs but laying down had no effect since he would jump over it. I quickly threw my phone, slid on the ground, and started crawling out. In contrast, my dog licked away, not leaving me alone.

When I could get my legs out under the bed, I tried to push him away for good, but before I could, he jumped over me and started humping me fast. He was very heavy and trying to stop him had no effect. All I could feel was his very, very hot dick poking and sliding all over my ass, which was wet from his licking. I decided there was no point in pushing him away. I would have to crawl out of bed and start doing so, and at the same time I did, I felt dick sliding in my ass which scared me. So I froze didn't want to crawl backward more since it would push me against him and leave me more open.

But lucky for me with his humping, he took it out accidentally. So I went back to crawling out, and as I was almost out, I felt his dick poking my ass again and forcing itself inside. But I was almost out, one last big crawl, I would be out, so I decided to do so. At the same time, I crawled out backward, which without me realizing it, made me get into a doggy-style position. He took advantage of my backward motion, thrust himself hard inside me, and started fucking me without hesitation.

At that moment, I froze again, I couldn't do anything besides trying to tolerate and endure the pain of getting stretched out as I cried, and I could believe what was happening. After a while, I was getting used to the pain. Then all I could focus on was feeling his burning hot dick thrusting and pulsating inside me, getting bigger and bigger. My ass was getting wetter, making it easier for him to fuck me, and all I did was moan. In contrast, I felt his dick filling more and more, which made it feel like it was filling me to my stomach since my whole insides felt warm, all my body was tense, but suddenly I started feeling relaxed. My entire body was so comfortable that I began to tremble, and I couldn't move. It started feeling so good, and I soon noticed that I was dick was hard, and that feeling kept repeatedly happening, each time stronger than the one before.

When I thought he could stretch me more, I felt his dick deep inside me suddenly stretching my ass open even more and after a while he stopped humping and kept his dick deep inside me, twitching and pulsating a lot, and at this moment I thought he was starting to ejaculate inside me but I didn't feel anything different I already felt like my insides was filled entirely, and he stayed that way for several minutes until he tried to get out which hurt a lot so I ended up holding him against me while I could still feel him twitching and pulsating, and after few minutes he finally managed to get out, while he pulled out I felt like his dick was coming out through all my insides all the way from the stomach, and was getting so relieved, and I felt and saw his dick pop out which I was amazed how big it was, it seemed a bit thinner than most peoples dicks but it was the long, much bigger than most, but I could still feel my insides getting emptied out and I saw a insanely massive amount of liquid come out sliding out of me, and finally realizing it was that the warm feeling that I was feeling all over my insides.

I dropped down on the floor. I felt like my ass was a hole wide open, but it felt like it was slowly closing, and I could feel liquid dripping from my ass. After a while, my ass felt more normal, and while I laid down on my bed, I felt sore and could still feel liquid inside me as I fell asleep.

I stayed sore for days, but I got worried about what happened, so I started looking it up and read about it and learned a lot. I learned about dog knots and that dogs ejaculate since the beginning, not only when they knot. It keeps ejaculating until it's over, I Even found websites of videos of people getting fucked by dogs, and I ended up jerking off to them and remembering what happened with me. It came hard, but then I felt bad about getting off to it and what happened, but the more I read and saw about it, the less bad I felt.

While I was reading about it alone at home, I got turned on, and my dog came inside my room, so I was so curious that I kept massaging him and soon noticed him getting hard and getting up. I wanted to see him getting hard, so I laid on the floor. With my hands, I held his dick, and he soon started humping my hands, and his dick was so hot warm. Way hotter than a person, and I can quickly see him dripping, but then he jumped over me. So I got up, and since I was looking at his dick, he started humping my face, and I felt dick poking my face, so I held his dick with my hands which made him go faster and more robust. With his cum dripping all over my face, I got so curious about the taste that I put in my mouth, and he started to fuck my mouth. I had to use my mouth and hands since he was too big to fit in my mouth, and I soon felt his cum starting to fill my mouth, which tasted like salty iron but wasn't bad.

So I let him do it and felt his knot growing in my hands as he relaxed and kept pulsating cum in my mouth. After he was done, he left my mouth filled with his cum, which is ten times more than a person's and more transparent. After that, I jerked off while playing with his cum in my mouth with my tongue, and I swallowed it as I came, which as soon I was done, I felt disgusting. But I couldn't take my mind off it when I was alone at home. Soon I moved him to my room, which my mom liked since he made a mess in the living room. I started sleeping naked always, and I am used to sleeping with a pillow under my leg, and whenever I feel him licking me, I pull that pillow under me, leaving my ass exposed. When that happened, he started humping me, and he did take as long to poke my ass and thrust it deep, which was still the first thrusts for a while but not nearly as much as the first time.

After he got used to fucking me, he got horny very quickly around me when I was naked. I could not resist it anymore. Whenever I felt him licking me or saw that massive hard dick, I let him do whatever he wanted, which always ended with me moaning. He filled my insides with an enormous amount of warm cum, which would always give me multiple anal orgasms and make me cum without touching my dick.

The End.
