BEASTIALITY STORIES

Ashley affectionally rubbed her young Boxer behind the ears and his hind leg started thumping against the floor.

"You like that?" she asked, scratching faster, encouraged by the pup's response. "Oh, oh, that feels so good, hun?"

She pulled back her hand and her face contorted to a grimace.

"Damn boy, what did you roll in?" she asked, smelling a foul odor wafting off her hand. "You stink. Come on, we need to take a bath."

He trotted behind her as she made her way up the stairs and into her bedroom. She grabbed a couple of towels and tossed them into the bathroom and grabbed the shampoo from under the sink.

"So what was it this time Jake? You didn't roll in cat shit did you? Your such a bad boy," she playfully scolded him and he just stared back, his nub twitching back and forth like a thumb.

Ashley couldn't get mad at him even if she tried. He was just a happy-go-lucky dog without a care in the world.

She had rescued him from the pound a few months ago, just a day before he was scheduled to be put down. She couldn't understand why someone would abandon him or not snatch this cutie up in a second. The pound had said he was just a year old and didn't like men which was ok because she didn't either. After four semi-long term boyfriends, ALL of which had cheated on her, she was done with the dating scene for now. She had even dabbled in hooking up with a couple of girls but that didn't lead anywhere either.

So for now it was her and her best friend against the world and making the best of each day together.

"Ok Jake, hop in," she commanded, slapping the edge of the garden tub. He was tall and muscular, coming up just above her waist. Thankfully, he was a good boy and picked up on her commands or else he could easily overpower her and do whatever the hell he wanted.

She pulled off her top and shoved her shorts down her lean legs, stepping out of them. Now dressed in a tiny bra and tight panties she sat on the edge of the oversized tub with her legs inside with Jake. She was glad she had picked the townhome with the garden tub, it made it so much easier doing things like bathing Jake.

She reached over and grabbed the shower nozzle that was hooked to the faucet and turned the water on, adjusting the temperature. Satisfied, she started to hose down her muscular boy, wetting his short coat and then shutting the water off and pumping shampoo into her hand. Ashley began to lather up her big stud, rubbing and massaging the soap into his coat. She ran her slick hands across his lean neck down his long legs and then back up across his barrel chest. She pumped more soap and ran her hands down his back and around his wagging nub.

Jake loved to take baths because he knew what would come next. She soaped up his rear, working the lather up and gently washing his hanging balls.

Jake felt her touch his special place and he looked at her with excitement. She looked up at him and smiled.

"Oh, you like that do you? You like it when I massage your big ol' beautiful nuts?" she whispered, a grin spread across her face, already knowing he did.

In response to her ball massage, his furry pouch bulged and his red, veiny cock began to emerge. Ashley let her hand drift around his nuts and felt his swollen sheath under his belly. She looked over and saw his red cock poking out a couple of inches.

"I guess you do like that hun?" she said, growing excited with him. "Well, how about this?" she asked, sliding her slick hand and gently gripping his hot, throbbing cock. It immediately grew in her hand, stretching past her grip until another four inches jutted outside her fingers.

"Oh my sweet baby, you like it when Mommy strokes your cock?" she asked, looking into his big, brown eyes. He started to pant as her slick hand slid up and down his veiny shaft. She could feel herself growing moist as she pumped her pup's cock.

"I have to confess baby, Mommy likes it too," she whispered, letting her other hand massage the knot still housed in its hairy sheath, while continuing to pump his burning cock. She could feel her wetness leaking and seeping slowly into the silky material of her panties.

"Oh Jakey, my big sexy stud, I love you so much. You're such a good boy, yes you are," she gasped, leaning in and kissing his squared muzzle. He responded by giving her wet slobbery kisses, shoving his tounge into her open mouth. She let her lips slid across his wet, probing tounge tasting and teasing him.

Her hand followed his fist sized knot out of its sheath, letting her hand drift behind it, gently gripping the throbbing stalk and putting pressure behind the bulb. Her other hand rapidly pumping his swollen cock, his precum dripping steadily onto the tub floor.

Ashley pulled back, releasing his probing tounge from her mouth and moving her lips next to his ear. "Oh baby, are you ready to cum for me? You ready to dump all that hot, pent up cum making your full balls ache? Oh honey, I want to see you cum so bad," she whispered in his twitching ear.

She heard the soft, little grunts that she found so cute and looked under his flat belly, smiling.

Jake's cum exited his cock in strong, long streams, shooting between his big front paws and hitting the wall of the tub, dripping down slowly into the drain. Ashley eyed it lustfully, licking her lips. Each stroke of his cock, rewarded her with a stream of watery cum.

"Oh yeah my sweet, sweet boy, you let me drain those big full nuts and make you feel better," she whispered as she milked his spurting cock. He stood motionless with a glazed look in his eyes as she pumped his cock. "Oh baby, that's soooo hot."

A few minutes of draining his balls, he came back to reality and started to fidget, showing he was empty. She released him and continued to finish soaping and washing him down as his equipment slowly receded back into its furry sheath.

"Ok, all finished. You got jerked off, soaped up and washed down. You should be nice and relaxed now," she chuckled. "Now Mommy needs to take care of her own business."

She stood up looking down between her legs at the wet spot showing on her pink panties.

"Yup, I need some release too," she muttered, stepping out of the tub, followed by Jake. He looked up at her expectingly. She locked eyes with him, frowning.

"Really? Mommy can't do her thing first?"

He stared up at her, his big brown eyes unblinking.

"Ok fine, I'll feed you first. You're just like a man, always has to be first," she laughed, walking downstairs. Jake followed happily looking forward to relaxing after a full belly, clean coat and drained nuts.

She grabbed his refrigerated food, heated it a few seconds in the microwave and then piled it into his dish. His little docked tail wagged furiously as he dove into his food, smacking and chomping.

"Ok baby. I'm going back upstairs to take care of me now," she stated, going back up to her bedroom. She grabbed a towel from the hall closet, carrying it with her into the bedroom and lying it out on the sheets. She pulled off her bra and pushed her panties down her long legs, tossing both garments on the floor. She climbed onto her fluffy bed and laid back on the towel. Sometimes she got a little messy when she climaxed and she really didn't want to strip and wash the covers.

Ashley leaned over and retrieved her vibrator from the nightstand and leaned back, pulling her knees back and spreading her legs. She flick the vibrator on and relaxed, closing her eyes as the pulsating head started her on the road to ecstasy.

She thought about some hot, young stud between her legs, slowing inching his cock deep inside her. Starting to pump his cock faster and faster inside her clenching pussy.

She pulled the vibrator off her clit and frowned. Hearing a smacking noise, she looked over the edge of the bed.

"Jake, get those out of your mouth!" she called and Jake looked up from his lying position. He had her tossed panties wrapped between his big paws, licking the wetness from her crotch.

Taking her voice as a sign for him to join her, he dropped them and jumped on the bed, shaking it.

"Dammit Jake, Mommy's trying to do something here!" she exclaimed, laughing.

He never failed to interrupt her at the most inappropriate times and before she could close her legs, he stepped in between them, looking down at her crotch. His nose twitched and his nub wagged, smelling the same sweetness that was on her panties.

"Jake, get down!" she giggled as she tried to close her legs, noticing he was sniffing her dampness. The big dog moved quickly and smoothly, dropping his squared head and letting his long, wet tounge slide across her the velvety folds of her pussy.

She squealed as the electrical charge raced from her cunt, shooting rapidly throughout her body. Before she could react, he did it again, this time his tounge slid in between the folds and teased her clit.

"Oh fuck," she gasped, arching her body as the wave of pleasure echoed throughout her body again. She let the vibrator drop from her hand and it rolled off the bed. She pulled her knees back, opening up her slit for him to taste again.

"Oh baby, please do it again. Please," she begged. He obliged and lay down in between her legs so he could work. He extended his arms, sliding his paws under her on either side of her ass and stretched his head forward. Her eyes locked on his muzzle and felt his hot breath blow across her wet cunt. Her body tensed, waiting for the pleasure to explode throughout her body again. He pushed his wet nose against her and started licking with earnest. She let her head fall back and her eyes rolled back into her head as he lapped her wetness. His long tongue probing deeper than any cock she had ever had, teasing and tasting every crack and crevice inside her.

She had to admit, she had thought about this for a long time, but it just didn't seem right. She would feel guilty taking the first move, almost like making him do it. But now that HE was the one starting it, she could care less. All she wanted, no, needed was to cum on his long, probing warm tongue.

Her body grew tight and her breathing became ragged as she felt her orgasm building between her legs, spreading throughout her whole being.

She arched her back, shoving her cunt into his muzzle and cried out.

"Oh fuck, Jake! Fuck, I'm almost there!"

He resumed his enthusiastic licking when she came, tasting a new round of the sweetness he so desired. Ashley jerked and shuddered as he cleaned her out, leaving nothing but his slick slobber inside her.

She fell back against the bed, drained and panting. She looked at her lover, staring into his big brown eyes. She reached down and pet his head lovingly, almost crying from the wave of ecstasy, love and emotions she was feeling.

"My sweet baby. Thank you so much. You are such a good boy," she said, softly stroking his head. He pulled his paws from under her ass and stood up, coming closer, stepping over her and straddling her chest. He started to lick her face and she giggled as his wet tongue slid across her cheeks.

"Jake, come on boy, stop it. You're such a goofy boy," she giggled, wrestling his big head and moving her hands down to his broad, muscular shoulder. She slowly stopped her giggles and returned his licking and kissed him back. Their tongue licked and tasted each other, his probing deep in her mouth and Ashley's shoved in his wet muzzle, feeling the sharpness of his canines with her tongue. He scooted farther up, tasting her deeply and she felt a hotness hitting her wet snatch.

She pulled back her head and looked around his broad chest, letting a smile cross her lips.

"Oh Jakey, you want to fuck Mommy now?" she asked, eyeing his throbbing eight inches of pure, hot pleasure, swinging underneath his belly. She felt his hot precum dripped steadily, falling and dripping down her swollen pussy.

She opened her legs farther, pulling her knees back and raising her waist so her willing cunt was lined up with his hot cock.

"Oh baby, I want you so bad. Come on Jakey, fuck me. Fuck me hard," she gasped, pulling him up farther on her chest, feeling his short hair brushing across her hard nipples. His cock hit her swollen cunt and inched inside, parting her velvet folds. She let out a deep moan and leaned up, kissing him again. He panted and drooled, ready to mount his bitch and fuck puppies into her.

She let out a muffled scream as he stuffed his tongue deep into her mouth and shoved his thick cock in her at the same time. His dick pushed past her clenched cunt and filled her full of throbbing dog cock.

Feeling her cunt close in around his throbbing cock, Jake started to rapidly thrust, ramming and pulling his cock out at lightning speed.

"Oh,oh,oh,oh," she grunted with each forceful and rapid thrust. "Oh Jake, give me your cock. Fuck me pregnant so I can give you puppies. Pleeeaaassssseeeee!" she desperately pleaded with her furry companion between gasps.

She pulled her head back from tasting his tounge and dropped her head back, feeling his drool drip down on her tits and neck. Her mind, body and soul were in erotic bliss as she mindlessly got rutted by this beast. This strong, muscular animal on top of her, fucking her like a worthless bitch, trying to finish his only task. To breed this cunt and pump his future bloodline in her.

Ashley felt his cock lengthen and started to feel his knot slam against her swollen cunt.

"Yes! Yes! Oh baby, fucking cum in me!" she screamed, pushing back against his strong thrust, trying to get his knot to slip inside her. "Come on baby, fuck me harder!"

He did as this bitch commanded and shoved hard and she let out a gasp through clenched teeth as his knot stretched her cunt and slipped inside. Her wet lips closed in around his knot and held him firm, making him slow his thrust.

She clenched her pussy down on his knot as she came, the orgasm ripping through her. Jake could feel this bitches cunt clench and pulse around his cock, trying to coax cum from his nuts.

He dropped his head and licked the side of her face, tasting her salty sweat and whined softly.

"Oh baby," she panted when she felt his cock pulse and released his flood of hot semen deep inside her womb, blasting it with hot, strong, rhythmic blasts.

He stood over her, looking down at his beautiful bitch. Yes, she would make a fine mother to his future litter.

She opened her eyes, looking up at Jake as he towered over her.

"Jake, my wonderfully handsome boy. I love you so much," she whispered and closed her eyes again, letting his spurting cock pump her full.

A few minutes later, Jake stepped back and her eyes snapped open as he pulled his knot from her battered pussy and his spent load drained onto the bed.

"Thank you baby. I hope you are relaxed now," she murmured. "I know I am."

As if to answer her, he lay down beside her, his warmth pressed against her flesh as they both relaxed and closed their eyes. She glanced over and smiled when he started to snore almost immediately. She rolled over and hugged him, spooning his back and resting her legs over his haunches. His fur rubbing against her swollen pussy and she enjoying his heat and the short soft hair against her bare body.

"Sleep tight my beautiful baby boy," she sighed "I love you," and followed him into sleep.

Ashley woke to Jake jerking, kicking his legs sporadically. She raise up and watched him. He was still snoring but his legs would twitch like he was trying to dream run. He twitched his back legs rhythmically and then rolled back, exposing his crotch. Her eyes got wide and a grin spread on her lips.

His hard cock was out in full view. His throbbing cock, bulbous knot and black, hanging balls filled her gaze and she licked her lips. She watched his legs twitch and his cock start to leak and then she knew he wasn't running but dream fucking.

She reached over him and touched the pointed, leaking tip of his cock and it spasmed, releasing a quick shot of precum. She took her precum slicked fingers and while watching his throbbing cock, shoved her fingers between her legs and rubbed his natural lube across her clit.

His legs twitched again and his cock leaked more precum. She removed her hand from her moist crotch and held it underneath his dripping cock. After a minute and gathering more precum, she returned to rubbing her cunt, letting out a deep sigh. She started to breath heavily as she rubbed his slick, warmth around her swollen lips.

Jake's eyes snapped open and he scrambled up. He stood looking around for the bitch he had been fucking in his dream, his cock burning and aching for release.

Ashley didn't think about it, she just flipped over on her hands and knees, shoving her ass in his face. She wanted to be the bitch he had been dream fucking and help him finish.

He didn't think this was the bitch he had been dream fucking, but she smelled like it and his balls were full, swollen and ached.

Jake mounted her quickly, wrapping his paws around her thin waist and started thrusting, sliding his cock around her round ass, trying to breed her. She wiggled enough that his cock popped just inside her soft, wet folds.

Jake knew a fuck hole when he felt it and rammed his cock deep inside her making her scream.

"Jake!" she exclaimed, her cunt burning from pain, pleasure and desire.

His dream carried over and he continued to jackhammer his bitch into submission. Slamming his cock in and out of her dripping pussy, hearing her whimper and yelp with each thrust. He was hers for the taking and he was eager to impregnate her.

"Oh fuck! Jake, fuck me, fuck me!" she cried out, pushing back against his cock with each strong thrust. His drool dripped on her bare back as he panted.

"Oh Jake, please make me your bitch. Fuck more puppies in me. Lot and lots of beautiful, little puppies!" she screamed as her orgasm ripped through her. Her pussy clenched and pulsed around his thrusting cock as she came again. She pushed back hard when she felt his knot hit her battered pussy.

"Oh yeah baby! Fucking knot me my beautiful stud. Fucking plug me up and dump those babies in me!" she whimpered.

Jake shoved his knot inside her cunt, letting her lips stretch out around it before closing back in and pulling him snug with his nuts resting against her wet lips.

"OH FUCK!" she shouted. She readied her cunt to receive his seed, feeling his cock shoved deep inside her.

"Come on baby, pump me full. I want your doggie seed so bad, baby," she moaned.

Jake slowed thrusting and panted, feeling his cock surge and his clenched asshole start to pulse as his sperm flowed out into his mounted bitch.

“Oh Jakey, my baby boy, my sweet baby boy,” she moaned as his cock jerked and spurted his spunk deep inside her womb. His heat spread throughout her body as her cunt filled with his hot, spurting seed.

Exhausted, she eased down flat on the bed and he followed her down, lying his heavy body on top of her, his cock still pumping her full of his sperm. She reached behind her and scratched his neck and he leaned over, licking the sweat from her cheek.

“Shit boy. I’m spoiled. From now on, I’m your bitch to do with whatever and whenever you want. Fuck me, lick me, make me suck your cock, whatever the fuck you want,” she panted. “Hell, fuck me in the ass if you want, I don’t fucking care.”

She lay there enjoying his hot, firm body, pressed against her back, feeling his hot panting against her neck. She smiled, happier than she had ever been. She was a little disappointed she couldn’t have his puppies. She would be so happy getting fucked by Daddy and having his puppies suckle her tits for nourishment.

Maybe one day, but for now, she was happily content and from the sounds of Jake’s heavy panting, so was he.
