BEASTIALITY STORIES

Ever since I was a small girl, one of my favorite places was the zoo. It seems I was asking to be taken there weekly. Finally, my parents, tired of hearing me beg, took advantage of a seasonal pass, allowing my dad to drop me off on his way to work, then he'd pick me up on his way home. The staff soon had me helping them, even though I was not officially a zoo employee.

As soon as I was old enough to be hired, I applied for a position at the zoo, which was an easy application. When assigned to the primate department, the great apes became my favorites. The only drawback to loving this part of the zoo fully was an overweight, obnoxious maintenance guy, who thought he was a gift to any female he came in contact with.

I was lucky to have my body develop early, giving me firm double D size tits. Eddie continually tried to get my attention when I started working, hinting he'd gladly cheat on his wife if I'd spend some time with him. Of course, I shrugged his advances off, but that didn't stop him. He kept hitting on me. This went on for over a year.

The day they took the cameras out of our preparation area, Eddie had taken the day off due to sickness. The following day, he looked good, had a haircut, it looked like he'd lost weight, the new uniforms fit him better, so I wasn't as disgusted, besides he had a nice tent in the front of his pants, while I was explaining the new surveillance system.

Listening, he came up behind, pressing his body to mine, pushing me against the table, his rigid cock pressing between my bottom, his hands slipping under my blouse, cupping both of my tits.

Leaning in, kissing my neck, I was trying everything I could to stop this. The problem was my body was betraying me, quickly becoming aroused. Sadly, I began to press back against him, which encouraged him more.

His cock was much bigger than I had expected, so when I could feel just how big he was, one of his hands slipped quickly down the front of my shorts, moving between my legs, rubbing the outer folds, then a single finger separating them, sliding up rapidly inside, my only response, pressing down on his hand.

"Oh fuck Eddie, this can't be happening, ohhh fuck. Please make this stop before it goes too far."

That did not stop the advances. It was easy to see. What was being done had me moving to the edge, so he kept playing, teasing, and stimulating me. He had me so excited. It didn't register when my shorts slipped down to my ankles or when my panties joined them. It felt beyond good, better than anything I had ever experienced, when his hard cock, slid between my legs, rubbing back and forth, exciting me even more.

Slowly bending me over the table I was working on, with one hand holding me down, the other one stroking the massive head between my lips, then slowly pushing it deep inside me, this was the first time I'd ever had a real cock inside me, but it felt so good, I knew this was not going to be the last.

He started pumping, slowing in and out of me, my head dropping down, gripping the table, small moans and whimpers escaping me. His hands were on my hips. He had dreamed of this happening for such a long time. It only took a short time before he exploded a lot of stored cum deep inside me. The warmth, as well as the swelling of his cockhead, triggered my climax, causing me to scream in ecstasy, matching him. My own body enjoyed the explosion, shaking my whole body.

Finally pulling out of me, the combined amount of his cum and mine, dripping down my legs, he was pulling back on his pants, handing me my shorts, not saying a thing. I could tell the look on his face told me how worried he was.

Pulling back on my shorts, my body still tingling from what he had done to me, looking at him, "I said no, several times told you no, but it was my first, and I can't lie, I did enjoy it, but if it happens again, it will be when I say yes. Do you understand?"

Eddie shook his head, avoided making eye contact with me. What I didn't know was the big Alpha male ape was close to the entrance to his area, leaning his ear on the door, all the time stroking his cock.

Wiping the cum off of my legs but not washing it off, I finished preparing the food, then slipping each area food.

When I slid the food in Max's area, he was there, his nose sniffing the air. That is when I noticed he had a very nice cock, one so big, so long that just looking at it, had my already excited juices flowing freely.

By midday, a new itch started between my legs. Eddie and I ended up in the same room in the afternoon. He was embarrassed when I stepped close to him, forgetting the fact I had unlocked the Alpha's door but not given him the food that I'd prepared—rubbing my hand over the front of Eddie's crotch.

"I'm getting a new itch again. Do you still think you can get it up one more time to take care of that itch?"

It only took a moment. His pants were down. I had already had mine off, assuming the same position we had enjoyed previously. When he pushed inside me, it was so exciting and something I had looked forward to all day, ever since he left. This time, we weren't hurried. He was pumping slowly in and out of me. I was matching, pushing back on him, realizing this was what I would always need. Even if this man was the one I had chosen, the cock was the most important.

He pounded me for the longest time, eventually emptying the familiar warmth of his seed deep inside me, as before it triggered my orgasm, allowing me to close my eyes, the feeling making everything perfect.

He pulled out of me, pulled back up his pants, told me he had to go, but he'd be here early in the morning, then he was gone.

Everything was so perfect, and my body felt so wonderful. I remained on the table, eyes partially closed, when I heard the door open again, staying where I was, cum dripping out of my pussy, legs wide apart, a rough finger brushed between my legs. Eyes remaining closed, I let out a small giggle.

"Eddie, if we're going to continue to have you fuck me, we need to do something."

That was all I got out when suddenly I was picked up by a huge gorilla hand, opening my eyes, the huge Alpha was holding me, his huge cock sticking straight out in front of him, I figured he must have heard us fucking reaching through the door I forgot to lock. Opening my mouth to scream, he slapped me across my face, nearly knocking me unconscious, then pulled my small body back into his cage. Stripping me of the clothes I had on, dropping them on the floor, he banged on the door, making it lock.

He had a small separate room where he could be private, the opening so small, when he sat in front of it, no one ever challenged him to see what was in there. Laying nude in that room, he stroked my hard erect nipples when I came too. Seeing I was awake, he picked me up easily, slipping me over his hard cock, pushing me down, then slowly pulling me back up, down and up and down and up, the size of him, the way he stretched and filled me, sent me immediately over the edge, screaming as I came.

That was when I realized he was not finished with me. With my cum running down his shaft, he kept pumping my body without slowing down. His steady and slow rhythm triggered two more climaxes, even though I had enjoyed three previous ones that day, then he went over the edge.

Slumping lifeless in his arms, my body wasted, his warm seed making me never feel any better than I had at this moment, but the body was completely exhausted. I slipped into a deep, much-needed sleep.

Waking the next day, I could hear the security patrol trying to find me. The huge ape was sitting in front of the opening, looking at me when he saw I was awake. Reaching out, stroking his cock, while I watched it grow hard and long, he twisted on his side. I backed up against him, raising my leg. He quickly slipped inside me, slowly fucking me, giving me the pleasure I had now become accustomed to and loved every moment of it.

There were a total of three great male apes, each one next to the cage I now lived in. Knowing how much enjoyment I was giving to my Max, approximately once a month, at night, he'd toss me over the fence to the younger one next to us. He'd hurry me in the similar enclosure, then place me on all fours, while he entered me in one motion, grabbing my hips, fucking me as hard as I had ever thought was possible.

While I was with him, it seemed he never tired of fucking then emptying a large amount of seed deep inside me. At some point, he'd toss me over the fence to the youngest ape. This one had been added about the same time I was kidnapped.

I had more fun with him than any of my three lovers. He'd play with my tits. I'd give him blowjobs enjoying swallowing the huge amount of warm cum he'd discharge.

Occasionally my Alpha Max would let me give him a blowjob. Still, almost always, he'd take me anally afterward, which was painful, but having him continually fucking me, was a minimal price to pay for him and his brothers to keep using me.

My lover shares his food with me. He turns when we sleep, so his back is to the opening. I snuggle up to his body with my back, his dreamy cock, sliding up inside me, which is how we fall asleep.

The End.
