BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2012 by KittyKat

I'm just a regular 21 year old girl, I'm 5'6", slim and quite top heavy. But then that doesn't really matter as you are going to imagine your own fantasy girl as you are reading this. I would like to say now this story is based on truth. So allow me to begin to tell you all on how it came about me becoming Casper's little slut.

As I was growing up as a little girl I have always had an affinity towards dogs, they just seem to get me if you can understand that and as I was growing up I relied more and more heavily on my Alsatian Casper. I have been lucky enough to have Casper since I was 7 years old. Casper and I did everything together, he slept in my bed with me, ate dinner with me, he even led on the floor whilst I bathed. However growing up and reaching puberty the dynamic of our relationship slowly yet surely started to change for the better.

It was in 2005 when our love affair began. My parents had left me alone in the home for the night safe in the knowledge that Casper would look after me. Being a 16 year old girl being left at home I was pretty limited as to what I could really do to entertain myself. So I decided to take a bath and as always Casper followed me in and sat next to the bath whilst I bathed. As I was washing myself my whole body seemed to become all tingly and as I started working on the top of my legs I accidentally brushed my finger across my clit a gasp escaped my mouth.

Wow that felt incredible, I thought to myself so I tentatively started playing with myself soon my left hand was wandering up to my supple breasts as I got closer and closer to my first ever orgasm. I was gently moaning when all of a sudden I felt Casper lick my face. I instantly stopped what I was doing and sighed when I realised Casper thought I was hurt and was just comforting me. Realizing that today wasn't going to be the day I was going to orgasm I decided to get out of the bath and towelled myself dry.

Wrapping the towel around my damp body I bent over to pull the plug out of the bath when I felt Casper's tongue once again on me but instead he took a swipe of my pussy from just below my pubic mound to my ass, a jolt of instantaneous lust and disgust flared up. "Bad Casper" I scorned "You can't do that to me when I have just been playing with myself, it just isn't fai..."

Casper's tongue took another swipe at my pussy and I could feel him trying to push it in "mmm Casper stop that now" I sighed whilst spreading my legs a little ' Sarah you can't let your pet lick you out it's so disgusting no matter how lovely it feels' I thought to myself so I pushed Casper away and went into my bedroom to sit on my bed and dry my hair with Casper following closely behind.

As I sat down I noticed that there was a slight bit of pink poking out of Casper's sheath "Oh Casper seems like you are just as wound up as I am," I said gently as I gave him a hug. "There there boy we will get you a lovely girlfriend to play with soon I will ask Mum and Dad."

Not realising Casper's nose was close to my pussy from the angle I was hugging him at I was surprised to say the least when he started nipping gently on my clit. The sudden jolt of random intense pleasure made me moan out loud and lie back. There was no point in fighting it any longer, I leaned back on the bed and spread my legs letting Casper get full access to my pussy.

"MMMM Casper that's it boy keep eating mummy make me moan out for you Casper, mmm" Casper was licking my pussy with gusto and started snaking his long tongue into my cunny trying to get more of my juices, I couldn't hold back any longer "Ohh fuck yes Casper, unnn please deeper" I moaned as I started fucking his tongue.

Just before I peaked, Casper stopped and started whining at me whilst gently humping the air.

"Oh Casper, you're just like all the other boys always want something back" I sighed as I got down onto my knees, tentatively i started stroking him getting closer and closer to his sheath, as I brushed passed it Casper licked my face in encouragement. I couldn't even believe I was thinking of jacking off my beloved pet let alone lusting to do it. I gripped his sheath and gently began coaxing his doggy cock out.

It was so warm and quickly started dripping with doggy juice. Casper really started to move his hips in time with my hand and was licking my face so much it started getting gross. "Ohh you like that boy? You like it when I play with your doggy dick?" I said as i started jacking faster "Well boy if you won't finish me off it's only fair that I don't finish you off" I said as I stopped.

Casper whined and started pushing against me humping his doggy cock towards my body I couldn't help but laugh and started to get up. Casper must have saw this as an opportunity as all of the sudden I felt this weight land on my back and quick as lightening Casper was trying to find a hole to bury his doggy dick. I was scared, very, very scared "Casper DOWN" I said in my sternest voice as i tried moving away from him but his front legs were holding me in a death grip.

His dick was stabbing wildly at my pussy and ass hole and it really bloody hurt if I am honest then all of a sudden he managed to bury two inches into my pussy, I let out a gasp, and him sensing he finally had his bitch where he wanted her rammed himself fully inside "Ouch fuck" I cried as he started fucking me really hard, it was as if he was thinking that I shouldn't have messed about with him before and should've finished him off.

His strokes were hard and fast and I soon started moaning out loud "Oh that's it Casper, make me your whore make me crave your dog cock forever" his head was on my shoulder and hearing him pant in my ear made me go buck wild. I started meeting his thrusts trying to get more of his cock in me and very quickly I started to feel my pussy getting fuller.

"Yes, ohh god yes, god damn what is that it's making me feel so full" Caspers humping started to get harder but shorter in its strokes, I leant on one arm and used my spare hand to play with my clit. "Mmm that's it boy," I moaned. "Spunk in my cunt, give me your puppies."

Suddenly Casper's short erratic thrusts stopped and he just led there on my back but the big ball in my pussy was throbbing, soon i found myself having a huge orgasm. "MMMmmm, Casper. Oh yes, that's it, breed me, shoot your spunk in me, mmmmmmmmm..."

As my orgasm subsided I noticed that I couldn't move from Casper without him shifting with me, we were stuck together...
