BEASTIALITY STORIES

Finally, working my way up the ladder to a finance office manager, it was time to purchase a single-family home for myself. Since I am not married but have a girlfriend, who actually works for me, a small cottage type home located on the edge of some undeveloped land, bordering a national forest seemed perfect. The real estate lady who found it for me said the few lots between my home and the forest were owned privately by a corporation as a tax write-off item, so more than likely. The land would never be developed.

The house was perfect. When I asked about the previous owner, it had been a newly married couple. The husband said something about an evil pond that had ruined their lives. She had no idea what they were talking about since there wasn't a pond anywhere around, as far as she knew.

The only downside she could see were the three large white dogs that stayed just out of reach and never wanted to come closer, but she told me when she walked to them, they barked, jumping around, playful like, and it seemed they wanted me to follow them.

After I had moved in, sipping a cup of coffee, they were all there, just watching the house. Picking up some treats, I tried to get them to come to me. Just like she said, they jumped and barked, seeming to want me to follow them. That day I did for a short distance but then realized if I were to go any further, I'd need to plan for it, packing, and so on.

That was a Thursday. I had taken the day and Friday off as vacation time. Ericka came out to see the new home on Friday after work. She had packed a 'Welcome basket' filled with erotic lotions and play toys, including a Feeldoe toy for us to play with.

When she arrived, I had on a man's type of dress shirt, not buttoned, so my double D tits were showing easily and nothing else on. Standing in the door of my new home, I said, "Looks like to me you're a little bit overdressed lady, maybe you should come in and see if you can catch up."

She stripped out of her clothes in record time, standing in front of me, totally nude. She had smaller breasts than I have, a nice set of C cups, but nice big and long nipples, who also like mine, are super sensitive.

My shirt dropped to the floor, we hugged, sharing a deep passionate kiss, our nipples rubbing back and forth against each other, finally knowing we were heading for the bedroom, taking her hand, I gave her a tour of the house, the back yard on the patio, then last the bedroom, where we fell on the mattress, our bodies coming together, one of my legs moving between hers, moving so I could rub her pussy with it. She began to move her pussy up and down on my bare leg, causing me to move down, kissing and sucking on those perfect nipples, then moving down her body, small kisses between her breasts, along her flat tummy, then moving further down, kissing her clit, rubbing it with a single finger, moving further down, planting small kisses on each side of her thighs, looking up at my lover, satisfied that her eyes had already hazed over. Her hands were cupping her own breasts, squeezing her nipples,

Pushing one finger inside her opening, leaning in and sucking on her clit, while pumping the finger in and out of her, it only takes a few minutes for her to explore the most wonderful liquid all over my face. Moving back up her body, sharing how good she tastes with her, kissing and sharing what she had given me, then she returned the favor, causing me to enjoy a powerful orgasm wash over me.

Since I really don't have any close neighbors, we stayed nude, moving to the front porch, enjoying the afterglow of a loving sexual encounter we shared. Having her laying between my legs, leaning back on me, wrapped in a lightweight blanket, I was playing with her nipples when she noticed the three dogs.

I told her what I knew, and my experience, also that I planned on seeing where they wanted me to go, maybe next weekend, since she was going to be busy. We also talked about making our love more permanent, moving in with me, since I had plenty of space. We loved each other but agreed we'd see what the future brought to us.

We made love multiple times. Then both headed back to work on Monday. Friday, I had made up my mind to see where the dogs were taking me. Waking early, packing a backpack with a lunch and drinks, slipping on a summer dress, no bra, and no panties, figuring maybe some fun would present itself along the way, Ericka and I were in love but not exclusive, so if a sexual adventure presented itself, we'd go for it.

The dogs were ready as usual, jumping, barking, staying just in front of me, obviously leading me to someplace. We walked all the way through the undeveloped area and quite away inside the forest, no real path, just following them on some trail, suddenly coming upon a beautiful small lake in the mountains. Surrounding the small pond, a thick moss covering, instantly feeling how soft it was as I stepped closer to the water.

That is when I stopped dead in my tracks, swearing under my breath, "Son of a bitch, I'll be damned."

There were signs all along the edge of the water, saying women are not allowed to swim. They were everywhere, and the more I looked at them, the madder I was becoming. I had fought the glass ceiling of the 'good old boy's club' all my life, finally becoming a large company manager, and now I can't swim in some pond in the mountains.

The dogs had set down on the opposite side of the water, a memory flash of the previous owners of my home, this has to be the pond, but I still had no idea why this beautiful quiet pond could hurt anyone.

It was hot. The water was clear and not too deep, more than inviting, and besides what would they do to me if I jumped in, ban me from the forest, pulling my sundress over my head, stepping out of my sandals, I dove in headfirst, going underwater, eyes open, looking at the beautiful bottom of the small area.

I would say I may have been maybe 20% aroused when I hit the water. As soon as my body went under, two small snakes attached their mouths to my nipples, biting on them, causing some pain, sucking on them, causing me to moan. Still, at the same time, multiple snakes began to kiss my neck, my ears, down my back, all over my breasts, down my tummy - one had attached its mouth to my clit, sucking and stroking it with some tongue. My legs were covered with many more, all kissing, while one on each toe was also sucking them like they were small little cocks.

Between my legs, several had gained access to the inside of me while at least one had entered my anal area, all adding to my arousal.

When I surfaced, I had gone from what I was at on the edge to possibly 400% arousal. I was deep enough that I had to tread water, but a massive orgasm hit me just as I surfaced.

I needed to stay alive, but to have all of my possible erogenous zones on my body, being stimulated, was having a sexual haze washing over me, making it difficult to even stay on the surface. Finally moving close enough to the shore, my feet touched the bottom, giving me some relief, but what they were doing to me triggered a second climax, causing my knees to give out, forcing me to move underwater to a more shallow area.

Now on my knees, my pussy was open wider, so more snakes entered me, causing me to moan and writhe under their assault.

Breathing heavy, not able to move, mini orgasms were crashing over me, making me realize if I didn't get out of the water before another one hit me, I might pass out, ending up drowning. Lowering my head in the water, two snakes swam in, feeling like they were kissing me, now every conceivable way a person can be aroused was happening to me, at the same time, just as I got to the edge of the pond, the three dogs were there to help me out.

They helped me to a large log, all like everything else, was covered in the soft moss. The snakes had all stayed in the water, but the effects were still taking place, my body completely exhausted, causing me to collapse on the log.

I had only been there for a few seconds when one of the dogs was behind me, licking my swollen pussy.

I knew what was about to happen, knew why the dogs brought me here, but I didn't have the strength to stop any advancement they had in mind for me.

Dropping my head as soon as his cock rubbed along my pussy lips. One small jump, his cock slipped inside me, making me moan, but so aroused, I pushed back to him. Like all dogs, he began to pump that large cock in and out of me so fast, all I could do was enjoy what was happening, even though I had never thought I'd be fucked by a dog, but I never thought a swarm of snakes would sexually assault me to experience multiple orgasms.

Because of what the snakes had done to me, he was only pumping in and out of me for a few minutes, before once again, the largest explosion I had experienced so far began to build up inside me. I could feel what was happening to me and afraid this one I couldn't handle. I had very little energy, but I tried to push him out of me, wiggling my bottom, twisting, but it was all in vain. He was just too large, his body weighing mine down, so all I could do was let it wash over me. It came on at the same time. I felt his knot move against my opening.

The explosion hit so fast and with so much power, I didn't notice the pain of his bulb slipping inside me, but what I was not expecting was how relaxing it was when his warm cum started to flood my pussy. Dropping my head, my eyes slowly rolling up in my head, trying to open my legs wider for him, load after load spread all inside me, calming down the fear that I had felt when he first entered me.

I was still floating when the first one pulled out of me, only to be replaced by the second one, pumping and filling me like the first one, then the third one finalized the breeding by finally pulling out of me, leaving me laying on that soft log more spent then I ever thought possible.

I have no idea how long I lay there, but I could set up at some time. The dogs had brought my dress, sandals, and backpack to me. I got the dress back on and ate some of the snacks I had packed, but I also knew there was no way to walk back to my house.

That was when, once again, the dogs helped me. By pushing and helping me, I got up on one of their backs. Then they carried me back home.

I took a long shower, then crawled in bed, dropping asleep almost immediately. Waking late in the morning on Sunday, fixing a cup of coffee, the three lovers were on the front porch, waiting for me to come out. Scratching the space between one of their ears, I sat down by them instead of the lounge.

"So you guys all fucked me, I can feel the changes in my body. I know you now own me as a true bitch."

I finished my coffee, leaning over, kissing one of them on the nose. Standing, I asked, "You guys coming in?"

Opening the door, I watched all three of them file in.

I slipped off the small gown I had on, thinking I knew what they wanted, knowing for sure what I not only wanted but needed. My pussy was beginning to tingle, dropping down on all fours against an overstuffed ottoman I have in the room, legs spread wide apart. One of them moved in behind me, running his rough tongue between my legs. The feeling of his rough member licking me had me give out a small whimper, looking so forward to what he was going to do to me. What surprised me was the other two dogs did not sit and wait for their turn, instead moved up by my side, licking my breasts and nipples.

Looking down, that is when I noticed the snakes had bit me, leaving multiple bite marks all around the nipple area, they seemed harder and maybe even larger. Still, they were so sensitive that the licking was having as much of an erotic effect on me that the cock was as it pumped in and out of me.

With the combination of what was happening to me, it did not take long for the first orgasm to come upon me, causing me to moan, press down on his cock. My nipples were experiencing something new to me. They seemed to be getting heavier the more the dogs were licking them.

A short time later, his knot slipped inside me, causing me to moan as soon as the warm cum filled me, bringing on the second climax.

This one pushed me into an erotic haze, losing all ability to link thoughts together or focus on anything specific.

His knot shrunk down, pulling out of me, the next one pushing his cock deep in me, but I was so far gone, I stayed in the sexual haze.

I vaguely remember the second one in me, knotting with me, then the third one, but I couldn't know where I was or what was happening to me.

They left, I slumped down on the floor, some cum running out of me. My tits felt like they were filling up with some liquid.

Monday, I was up early enough to shower, then head to work. Driving in, I wasn't sure I wanted to tell my love what had happened to me, so she commented that I really looked different when she came in. She also said I had a sexual scent about me. I let it go that I'd fill her in sometime later.

I needed some time to think, also needed to pick up a side by side. I had in a mechanic shop working on it. Taking rideshare to the repair shop, a cute redhead greeted me, taking my payment. Then while I waited for the machine to come out, she sat by my side. "I hope I'm not offending you, but your smell, your whole persona, is the sexiest thing I have ever met. Are you spoken for by anyone?" she asks.

Reaching out, touching her arm, I said, "I have a girlfriend, but we also see other women. Thank you for telling me that, though."

We continued to talk, touching each other, my vehicle was brought out, but we kept talking. Finally, I asked her if she'd like to go someplace so we could get to know each other. She jumped at the chance. Taking time off, we headed for a small park that had very few people visit it.

Parking by a nice bench, it did not take long before we were kissing each other. The kissing led to playing between our legs, I was somewhat afraid she'd pick up a strange smell since my dogs' encounters, but she didn't seem to mind my juices. She unbuttoned my blouse, exposing my boobs, they were defiantly larger, and I was somewhat embarrassed by the fact, as soon as she began to play and kiss the nipples, they started to leak a milky type of liquid. This had her pull back.

"Are you lactating?" she asks.

Shaking my head, I said, "No. I have no idea why I have the liquid. It just showed up a couple of days ago. I'm not sure what made the liquid come into me."

Looking at her close, the smell of the droplets had her eyes hazed lightly. I don't think she had heard anything I said. She leaned in, sucking the one nipple into her mouth, immediately sucking the liquid out of me. I've never had anyone nurse on my breasts. It was so erotic. All I could do was lay back, legs spreading wide apart, and low moans and whimpers escaping me. It did not take long to empty the one boob, then she automatically switched to the full one, emptying that one in a few minutes.

She sat back. Her eyes told me she was in some hypnotic state, just staring ahead. I had no idea what to do. She was in a zombie-like state when a large lab came running by, not far from us. He was very good looking when he suddenly stopped, looking directly at us. I was afraid of a large amount of cum the dogs had pumped into me. He picked up the scent.

To my surprise, instead of me, he went under the small skirt of my companion. As soon as his head touched her pussy, she moaned, opening her legs wide. He licked her pussy several times, then she voluntarily got on her knees, leaning on the bench, while he mounted her, fucking her, while I was by her side.

Something had happened to her and the dog. Nothing was normal, thinking it must have been the milk she drank from my tits.

They continued to fuck, he locked with her, then emptied all he had inside her, finally the knot shrunk down, he pulled out leaving. I got down by her side. "You Ok? That caught me by surprise."

She had a satisfied look on her face but no regrets. "I had no idea fucking a dog would be like that, but now I'll fuck as many dogs as I possibly can," she said.

The next day, as soon as work had finished, I stopped by another park, taking off my top, sitting on a bench, in a secluded area. It wasn't long before a cute girl came jogging by. I must be giving off some scent, normally a woman sitting on a park bench, topless. This young lady would have just gone on by, but this one stopped, looked at me, and smiled.

"I've never seen anyone sitting here topless. Your breasts are beautiful. Are you trying to get a tan on them?"

Telling her some times I feel like letting them breathe. Inwardly I smiled when she took a seat by my side. We talked a few minutes, it was funny, but until she was sat down, my tits had been fine, but now a small drop of the milky liquid showed on each nipple. Her eyes seemed to be glued to the drops.

“Are you lactating?”

Shaking my head, I said, “No. I’m not sure where the milk-like substance is coming from, but they are becoming full.”

She volunteered to help me out, leaning forward, licking a drop off of the closest nipple. I watched her eyes slowly roll up in her head. Sucking the entire nipple in her mouth once again was driving my horniness to a new level. She emptied one breast, then moved to the next one. She sat back when they were both empty, just looking out into the park but not focusing on anything in particular. We sat there talking, she seemed so relaxed, it was not long before a mutt type of dog came jogging by, suddenly he stopped, it was obvious he was sniffing the air, then looking directly at us, jogging over, no hesitation came up pushing his nose between her legs, licking the shorts.

Again, like before, she pulled off her shorts, got down on all fours, leaning against the bench, legs spread wide. He licked her again, then jumped up on her, his cock poking here and there, until she reached back, guiding him inside her. This time I watched her accept what was happening to her and how much pleasure she was experiencing – he knotted with her. It didn’t seem she felt any pain. It was also easy to see each time she felt an orgasm come over her. Finally, he had emptied all of his seed inside her, then pulling free. He was gone.

Joining her on the ground, running my hand through her hair, I asked, “You feeling OK?”

Looking at me, she said, “That was the most erotic thing I have ever had. It won’t be the last.”

She stood, pulling back on her shorts, heading along the path again.

I figured the white dogs fucking me were giving me the milk that I was providing to strangers, making them susceptible to dogs fucking them. Now I was sure Erica had to be taken to the pond to be the dog’s newest bitch.

Heading back to my car, I was surprised to see the young lady on her knees again, being fucked by a different dog. People were watching, but she did not seem to be embarrassed. Smiling when it hit me, the white dogs had set in motion what might be every lady enjoying what only a dog can give to you.

The next morning I was in Erica’s office, I said, “I found a perfect pond in the mountains. I enjoyed a good swim in the nude there. I’ve got to show you what I found, plan on coming over Friday night, and we can plan a picnic plus a perfect swim.”

On Friday, she agreed she joined me. Each evening before Friday, I shared my milk with a few more women. When I got home each evening, my new masters enjoyed fucking me sometimes just one or two of them, sometimes all three used me, and a couple of times I was on all fours early in the morning, before work, heading into work, my pussy tingling from the multiple orgasms I had enjoyed. Also, I could feel the warm seed he had left inside me, keeping me aroused all day.

I was surprised when Erica sucked on my nipples. She did not have any idea I had liquid inside them. The next morning we were up early, food and drink packed in side by side, and we were off, both only wearing the minimum, so we could enjoy a nude swim in the pond I had discovered. As expected, my companions were running along, barking and jumping. Erica watched them.

“What’s with the three dogs?” she asked.

She knew they were the ones that showed me the pond, so I lied a little. “They showed me the pond then was with me all the way back home. They are beautiful, but not really sure what they are doing.”

Driving, it did not take long to arrive at the pond, stripping down nude, she thought it was as beautiful as I had when I first saw it. I showed her where to jump in at, standing behind her, I walked in, just as she surfaced, her eyes were like I remember mine had been, she was in a sexually erotic haze, her eyes had already rolled up in her head, I remember so well what I had been feeling. Walking down into the pond, finding a rock to set down on, so the water was just up to my neck, my eyes drifted away, when the snakes, as expected, began to stimulate every zone in my body. They entered my pussy, attached on my nipples, like before, and as I suspected they bit down on the breast, I was sure they were injecting something into that area.

I had been so lost in the stimulation the small snakes were doing to me that I hadn’t noticed she was deeper in the water than I had been. Like me, she was trying to get to the edge, but it was obvious she had already enjoyed two, maybe three climaxes, leaving her totally exhausted.

I wanted to help her, but what they were doing to me had me one step away from a total sexual shutdown, trying so much to move to her. Still, the stimulation I had going on was not letting me link even one thought to another one ... I was so surprised when she began to sink under the water. Apparently, the snakes picked her up, moving her by me to a shallow part of the area. Once she had her legs under her again, the dogs were there, pulling her out.

Watching through hazed eyes, they took her to the same log I had been on, then one of them licked her, then jumped up, entering her. I could hear her moan, I wanted to be by her side, but a huge orgasm washed over me, leaving me panting. Every fiber in my body was enjoying what was happening.

Finally, the snakes quit biting down on my nipples. This enabled me to crawl out, joining her, just as the last dog pulled out of her.

The two of us, laying back on the log, running my hand over her bare legs. “Sorry, I couldn’t tell you everything that was going to happen and that I wasn’t here to help you. But the snakes had me to their pleasure. How are you feeling?”

Squeezing my hand, she said, “Not a problem, I loved every minute of it since I hit the water. What’s next?”

I told her about what I had discovered with my tits, and now the dogs take me anytime they want to. Also, the fact the decision of her moving in was no longer a consideration. She was my new roommate.

Kissing each other, we enjoyed the warm sun, then got in the small vehicle, returning home. As with me, the following morning, all three of the dogs enjoyed her delights, just as they had me, including the assault on her breasts. When we examined her breasts, they had the same bite marks. We assumed the same liquid was being produced inside her. We also noticed, like me, not much cum leaked out of us. When one of our new lovers emptied their seed inside us, we assumed it was converted to the liquid in our breasts.

We both knew a third girl was needed to be complete, but no one was readily available to us, so we continued to work, both of us being used when any of them wanted us. We also made our milk available to any female that got close to us. Between the two of us, we had converted over 50 ladies to enjoying doggy sex.

The End
