BEASTIALITY STORIES

When we first got our puppy we would play hide and seek by hiding under an old blanket. He would go crazy trying to get to us. It was a lot of fun so we did it a lot.

When he got older Sherry was under the blanket hiding again from him when he decided to jump onto her back and start humping her. This added more fun as she didn't know what he was doing. I could see he was sporting a hardon and was trying to fuck her as she wandered around hiding from him. I pulled him off of her before she found out.

Another day when I was alone at home with him and playing hide and seek with the blanket I could tell he was humping the blanket again. He was humping close to my head and there was a hole in the blanket that I could see through. I let him hump and watched his cock getting closer to the hole. I pushed the hole in the blanket towards his cock and sure enough his cock poked through a little. This seemed to work him up more as he humped harder.

I reached out and touched it and found it slimy and hot. I moved closer to smell it and it smelled like nothing much. He humped forwards and hit my lips. My instinct was to lick my lips before I could think about it and I found it didn't really have a taste. I thought it must taste like something so I licked it again and still no taste. I hesitated and thought about what I was about to do and then put my mouth on it. He liked that because he really started humping. I let him fuck my mouth while I thought about the taste. It really didn't taste like much at all, but I could taste something metallic a little. He was humping crazy so I thought I might as well give him something to remember. There isn't much I wouldn't try at least once.

I let him fuck my mouth and he humped for his life. He was whining and I could feel a lump hitting my mouth from the other side of the blanket. I figured this must be the so called lovers knot that ties dogs together. I felt it through the blanket and it felt pretty big. I held onto it and he stiffened and then I could taste something for sure. He was cumming in my mouth. I had not thought this through. Now my mouth was filling with cum. Should I swallow or what? I thought I could just wait for him to finish and spit it out later, but he kept cumming and my mouth was getting full. I ended up swallowing so I didn't make a mess on the carpet. I swallowed four or five times before he quit cumming.

After that time I tore the hole big enough for his knot to go through. I wanted to try this again but I wanted to see the knot better. This time I made sure I kept the hole where I needed it to be while playing hide and seek. When he started humping he was on my back so I had to get him off and turned around. When he was by my head I reached out and rubbed his sheath. He got the idea and started humping air. I moved the hole in the blanket so that his cock was poking through. I put my mouth right on his cock and he humped hard. He fucked my mouth as fast as I thought was possible. His cock grew in length and was tickling my tonsils. His knot was just starting to grow and was deep in my mouth. I sucked as much as I could and his cock was going deeper in my throat.

I was into it big time and really enjoying this until I realized his knot had grown too big to spit out. It was locked behind my teeth and I couldn't open my mouth wide enough to let it out. Worse, it felt like he was trying to push the knot down my throat. He was battering my mouth now and I was worried that this is how I would die. I was still able to breathe some but his knot was still growing and his cock seemed to be reaching even deeper in my throat. I started to make involuntary swallowing motions because of how deep his cock was.

That is all it took to take him over the edge and shove it even deeper. He let loose a torrent of cum. I was still swallowing and could feel it pouring into my throat. He came for what felt like 5 minutes but was probably much less. It took at least 5 minutes before I was able to get his knot out of my mouth. After it was over I had to admit it was kind of fun.

For the next few days our dog would bring the blanket to me. Sherry laughed and thought he really wanted to play. I had to be careful and shake him off before he ever got started.

One night we were lying on the floor under the blanket watching a romantic movie and drinking wine when I had an idea. We were already tipsy so I blame it on the alcohol. I started by rubbing Sherry and slowly stripping her under the blanket. I had her wet and ready and had the hole in the blanket strategically placed. I was going for more wine when I got out from under the blanket and pulled it over Sherry and told the dog to get her. He was in for the game and was trying to find her. I pulled him around to her rear and made sure the blanket was in position. He jumped on her back and started humping. Sherry was laughing and moving around. I was being quiet and just helping. When I could tell he was ready I let him go and got out of there.

Sherry was shouting at the dog and calling for my help but I was out of the room peeking around the corner. I could tell that he was in her and going at her hard. She was calling me louder but I couldn't hear her. I waited until she was moaning a little before I came back with the wine. When she heard me she started moving around some like they were still playing but it was obvious what was happening.

I asked her if she was alright but she couldn't answer. She was in the middle of an orgasm. I lifted the blanket and asked how this happened. She said she didn't know but couldn't stop him once she realized what he was doing. I asked if she wanted me to pull him off and she told me it was too late and to just let him finish. She didn't want to hurt him. Then she covered herself up and started cumming again. I let them finish and held his collar so he wouldn't try to turn around. She came more than I ever saw her cum that evening. When he finally pulled out and went to his corner to clean up I got under the blanket and went for sloppy seconds.

The next day she told me she loved me and it was the best fuck she ever had. I asked her if she wanted to do it again and she quickly said she would if I didn't think it was bad. I told her I thought it was the hottest thing I ever have seen. She said maybe next time we could try without the blanket. I asked her where the dog was. She said he was outside and told me to get him and bring him to the bedroom.

When we got to the bedroom she was naked on the bed rubbing her pussy. I pulled her by the legs to the edge of the bed and started licking her pussy. She told me to get undressed too. The dog took over licking her while I got undressed. I moved the dog out of the way and went back to licking her. The dog went from side to side trying to get some pussy. Sherry was getting close to cumming when she wrapped her legs around my head and stiffened up and moaned loud. When she did this the dog took this opportunity to jump on my back and start humping my ass. I didn't think much at first except he was quick to get his cock in my ass. I was frantically trying to get away but Sherry had a crushing hold on my head. My moving around kept her orgasm going longer and her head hold on me longer. This all gave the dog time to knot me but good.

When she let up her grip I kept sucking her pussy. My cock felt like it would explode by now. I looked up at her and told her that the dog was fucking me instead of her. She quickly got out from under me and asked how that happened. I told her that he got me while she clamped my head. She apologized over and over because it was her idea for me to get naked. I told her to forget it and get down and suck my cock because it felt hard like never before. My prostate was getting a workout while she sucked my cock. I was leaking a steady stream of cum while she sucked me but I never seemed to cum. I felt like it was a very long cum with the cum coming out steadily without the big spasms. The dog was fucking the hell out of my ass and I could barely stand it. It felt really good but hurt too. It felt like the life was being sucked out of me through my cock.

Sherry started playing with the dogs balls while she sucked me. It didn't take long for him to ram it hard up my ass and start cumming. I could feel the hot spurts of the cum filling me. That set me off and I about choked Sherry with my cum. She was struggling to take it all. Normally she runs to the bathroom to spit but this time she was swallowing it all.

The dog jumped off my back and turned around. This made me cum again like I just started. The pain was tremendous but it went to my cock as pleasure. I never went soft and Sherry never stopped sucking. When the dog finally pulled out of me I laid on the floor on my back. Sherry immediately mounted my still hard cock and went crazy fucking herself silly. She came over and over and eventually I came too. We both fell asleep right there on the floor.

We woke to the dog licking our naked bodies. We dragged ourselves into the shower for a much needed scalding shower. After that we ate a large lunch and just rested. We both felt like we had run a marathon. We were whipped. We took it easy the rest of the day. That evening we were watching tv when here comes the dog with the blanket. Sherry asked me which one of us were going to play. I told her that she could as I was still too tired and my ass hurt.

She got up and took the blanket. She looked at it and said it looks like someone tore a bigger hole in it on purpose. I just shrugged and acted innocent. She got under the blanket so the hole was by her head and the game was on. The dog went right for her head and fed his cock right to her. She rubbed him through the hole until he started getting bigger and then I saw her mouth and tongue coming through the hole and go to his cock. She licked his cock and teased it longer until he was humping as hard as he could into her mouth. I could see her mouth the whole time sucking all he had. She was sucking knot and all balls deep. She had never done that for me.

I could tell that the dog was cumming down her throat because she was making swallowing sounds. When he went to turn around I saw her reach through the hole and hold him behind the knot which was stuck in her mouth like it had been with me. she held it and I could tell that she was still sucking and swallowing. She stayed this way for at least 10 minutes before he pulled away at which point I could see that he was very small in size. She had kept sucking as long as possible. She didn't want to stop. I jumped up and fed my cock through the hole and almost right away came down her throat.

When she got up off of the floor she told me that she really enjoyed that. I told her that she had two willing males to take care of whenever she wanted it. She said that I could take care of the dog sometimes when she wasn't home.

I did take care of him when she wasn't home and she did when I wasn't home. Some times I sucked him an some times I let him fuck me. When we were both home we would take turns or sometimes Sherry would sit on my cock and bend over so he could fuck her ass. Sometimes I would fuck her and he would fuck my ass at the same time.

And we all lived happily ever after....
