BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2000 by Luke Ozvik

This story is a work of fiction. It is NOT true. This text is not meant to suggest that the featured celebrity is actually involved in, or has ever been involved in, sexual relations with animals. Sex acts like those described below are illegal in most countries around the world and should not be attempted unless you are very, very famous!!! For further stories of celebrity-animal sex please contact me via e-mail with suggestions or comments. Also - I'd love to read any stories you have found or written featuring famous women in similar action. Now, on with the story...

Britney knew that she was on her way to major fame and fortune, her debut single, "Oh Baby Baby" had shot to the top of music charts all round the world, she was already playing shows to large crowds and now she was about to make her biggest step yet toward being a top sex symbol.

She was nervous as hell about the surgery. Her press agent had put out the story that she had injured her knee and was going to hospital to have it repaired, but the truth, as everyone would soon be aware, was that she was having cosmetic surgery to increase her young 36B bust to a sexy 38C.

She'd showered but that hadn't relaxed her, and now as she packed her stuff for two days at the hospital she was more nervous than ever.

She moved around her room folding a few clothes, wearing just her towelling robe, her long hair tied back in a long wet pony-tail down her back. The stereo was on, she was listening to some old Janet Jackson tapes, singing along, trying to take her mind off the hospital... "Nasty... Nasty Girl... Dum-de-dum..." She whispered away to herself.

She moved over to her book shelf and crouched down to select a couple of novels to read in hospital... She selected her favourite first, "The Hobbit", she loved fantasy and still hadn't really grown out of it... She leaned forward to select another book and jumped with shock as she felt something cold and wet touch her butt... She spun round and was most relieved to see that it was her dog, Goofy.

Goofy was a playful Irish Setter, with floppy paws and shaggy hair. He always looked half-drunk and happy. Britney had had him for about five years and she loved him so much. She wrapped her arms around her doggy and hugged him close... "Hi Goof" and said, "Have you come to say goodbye to your Brit-Brit?"

She continued to hug him, sitting down on the floor - the only way she could keep him this close was to allow her legs to open, with him standing between them, but that was okay, after all - he was just a dog, it's not like anything could happen to her.

As she hugged Goofy she stroked his back and side, feeling the stress of her upcoming cosmetic work drain away, if only she could have her dog there to stroke in the operating room.

Goofy seemed a little more playful than usual, perhaps just frustrated at the long hug, wanting to run around and be a nuisance as usual. He kept pushing against Britney, struggling to get away - but she needed this warm contact. As he twisted he happened to step on the cord that held her robe closed - it unfastened and the robe gradually fell open revealing those youthful 36B's.

Before Britney could close the robe she was stunned into total stillness as Goofy licked her left nipple. It felt amazing, like nothing she'd ever felt before... So she remained motionless whilst he did it again, and again... She leant back a little and placed her hand on the floor behind her, supporting her weight... With her other hand she held Goofy's head close to her breasts - and he continued to lick her.

The robe was now fully open, slipping down her arms to the floor. Goofy moved his licks down her belly until he was licking at her pubic hair and thighs, and occasionally he hit the target and slurped his long wet tongue right over her pussy-lips. That sent a shudder right up her spine every time. She breathed deeply, whispering to Goofy... "Yes... Oh yes..." She didn't care that this was her dog, she just cared that this was great - she had totally forgotten her nerves...

Britney was not a virgin, she'd already had her cherry popped by a guy, and a couple more had fucked her since then, but she had never ever done anything like this... She'd never even heard of bestiality or dogsex, never suspected that it was a possibility. But as she allowed Goofy the dog to lick out her pussy she couldn't help but notice his cock - long and thin and shiny - sticking out between his hind-legs. God she needed that thing inside her!

She reached forward with one hand whilst Goofy stood over her and fondled the dog's cock gently, it felt great in her hand - all hot and wet, slick, ready.

Goofy certainly seemed to have a taste for her pussy juices, he didn't seem interested in fucking her at all as she fondled his cock, just happy to lick away at her cunt.

Britney lay back and grabbed at Goofy's side, pulling him around until he was standing over her in a 69 position. She raised her head and slowly took his dripping cock into her sexy teenage mouth. As she sucked on his cock she felt his tonguing of her pussy become even more deep and frenzied. She held him in her mouth, sliding his cock deeper and deeper into her throat, slowly savouring the taste of his pre-cum juices. With one hand she squeezed at her small breasts, with the other she reached up to massage the large ball at the base of his hard cock as they exchanged oral pleasures for what seemed like hours, but was more like five or six minutes. She swallowed so much of that wonderful pre-cum.

All this dog-cock sucking was getting her so fucking hot - and getting Goofy so fucking horny, that sex just had to follow... And sure enough it did...

Britney pulled herself out from under Goofy and staggered to the door, by now the robe was off and she was completely naked. Her firm young body still not dried from the shower was now covered in a thin film of sweat. Goofy followed her to the door, his tongue hanging from the side of his mouth, and watched as she carefully and quietly clicked it shut - she didn't want anyone to disturb her for the next few minutes and she knew no-one would come into her room if the door was shut, they'd all assume that their little princess was taking a nap.

She stood over Goofy, her fingers working between her thighs as she tried to decide the best way to do this... She had fucked doggy-style before and assumed that would be the best way to go with a dog, even she could figure out where that position name had come from... So she crouched down on her knees and bent forward, resting her weight on one elbow... "Come on Goof..." She encouraged, reaching behind her backside and pulling her pussy lips apart... "Come on, treat time..." She whispered... 'For Brit!' she thought to herself...

Goofy knew what to do, even though he'd never even fucked another dog before, let alone a beautiful teenage human. He mounted her back and started humping like crazy - his cock slapping off her back, butt, thighs and pussy lips... Quickly beating up against her with no idea where the pussy was until... "Oh yes..!" Moaned Britney as Goofy's cock suddenly hit the target, immediately digging five inches inside her wetness. She gasped at the speed and depth of his jerks as he pushed the next two inches into her over and over and over again, so fast and hard she found herself being knocked forward so that her face was pressed against the foot of her bed.

Goofy wrapped his paws tightly around her middle, her chest pressing hard against the small of her back and he drove his purple dog-cock deeper inside her, driven by instinct to 'tie' into her and shoot his load...

Britney gasped and moaned, biting down on the carpet to keep herself quiet, as the dog continued to fuck her starlet pussy. "Oh Goofy you're so good..." She moaned as she climaxed for the first time on a dog-cock - not the last she thought to herself...

The dog suddenly halted his thrusts as he managed to force that big knot of muscle into Britney's cunt - she squealed out loud, surprised by the sudden increase in her pussy stretching... Goofy howled his pleasure - alerting the whole house that something was going on upstairs...

Britney didn't hear anyone coming upstairs because of Goofy's howls... All she could notice was the pain of her vagina being stretched all the way out, and the pleasure of the pounding her clit had been taking... Then the cool wetness of Goofy's cum shooting into her pussy. Over and over again, squirt after squirt of doggy seamen splashed into her - Goofy continued to howl as he came in his mistress. And Britney came again, so hard that she didn't hear her mother outside the room asking if she was ok...

Britney's mom opened her daughter's bedroom door and looked in to see what was going on... She saw her teenage daughter on the floor, her ass in the air with her large dog Goofy mounted on her like a real dog-slut. She could see that Britney was coming like a fucking train, and that Goofy's member was clearly embedded all the way into the girl's vagina. She was shocked, but strangely turned on by the sight... "Oh baby, baby..." She smiled...

Britney looked up to see her mother coming into the room and closing the door behind her, already removing her blouse... Britney smiled - she'd always loved her mother...

The End
