BEASTIALITY STORIES

My name is Pip I am a seven year old Alsatian/Collie dog. My owner is a 30 year old girl called Trish. She has beautiful long blonde hair and long shapely legs and a figure that by the way men look at her must be great as well, I have been with her since I was three months old, I love her very much and would never hurt her. We live in a rough neighbourhood and on a couple of occasions I have to get nasty with a couple of men to stop Trish getting hurt.

Most people treat dogs as dumb animals, but we understand everything you say, we are also very good at understanding peoples moods, and I can tell when Trish is feeling sick, upset or when she is happy.

My favourite time is when Trish gets my lead out and takes me for a walk. Trish takes me in the local park where she lets me off the lead to have a run. Tonight when this happened I smelt in the air that lovely smell of a bitch in heat. I followed my nose and sure enough there was a beautiful collie, I ran up to greet her, we met and I gave her a lick on the nose, she was responsive to this and licked me back.

I ran round her sniffing as I went, when I got near her tail that lovely smell was at its strongest, putting my nose to her pussy I smelt her arousal, it was a gorgeous aroma, and my cock twitched with desire. I reached out with my tongue and licked the collie's cunt. She didn't move so I carried on licking, pushing my long tongue all the way in so I could taste this lovely juice that was coming out of her hole. My cock had come out of my sheath about three inches due to my arousal.

Trish then appeared with another girl, Trish put me back on my lead and pulled me away, the other girl did the same with the collie.

When we got home Trish fed me, and after a drink I laid down and went to sleep.

I was awakened by noises coming out of the lounge, getting up I put my head round the corner of the door. Trish was laid on the sofa in just a small pair of lace knickers and a matching bra.

She had her hand down her knickers and was playing with her cunt, and I could see by the movements that she was fingering herself.

Trish undid her bra and pulled off her knickers lifting up her arse and sliding them down her lovely legs and onto the floor.

The smell that I caught, was like the lovely smell that the collie in the park was giving off, and my cock started getting hard.

Trish had her legs open, and one of her hands was on her pussy. Her finger was sliding up and down her slit, as she moaned sexily to herself. She pushed a finger into her wet cunt and slid it in up to the knuckle, her groans of pleasure got louder and her hips rose up as she thrust her fanny onto her finger. The other hand was on her tit kneading it, pulling and tweaking her nipple.

I had to get nearer, the smell was driving me crazy with lust. I put my head back and licked my cock tasting my arousal in the pre cum that was leaking out of the end. I went towards Trish, watching her as she pushed two fingers deep into herself, her eyes where closed as she writhed and bucked her hips in pleasure.

When I got nearer the smell of sex was stronger, making my mouth water, putting my nose nearer to her cunt, I put out my tongue and licked Trish's fingers which where covered in her love juice. She opened her eyes and seeing me let out a yell shouting NAUGHTY BOY PIP and pushed me away, telling me to get in my bed.

I went to my bed, not understanding what I had done wrong, I was only doing what nature told me to do, when a bitch is on heat.

Laying down in my bed I started to lick my cock which was half way out of its sheath, due to the smell of my mistress in heat.

Trish was playing with her cunt again fingering herself, and putting her fingers in her mouth and sucking and licking them clean.

Trish kept looking in my direction as I was licking my cock, she then asked, did I get you horny Pip? Did you want to lick my pussy? Of course I did I thought, you smelt and tasted so nice.

Come here Pip she said. Getting up I went to her, as I got nearer the smell of her aroused pussy made my cock twitch, she pulled her fingers out of her cunt, and offered them to me, the taste of her love juice as my tongue licked her fingers was lovely, the best I have ever tasted.

Trish then moved her hand back up to her cunt, I followed it with my nose, and when she started to finger herself again, I licked her hand. The taste was a lot stronger here and I licked all the lovely tasting juice that I could find, licking her hand and the insides of her thighs. As this happened she let out a moan of pleasure and her body shuddered.

Moving her hand she pulled my head into her cunt, my tongue soon found its way to the source, her pussy was shaved completely so she felt every touch of my tongue on her soft skin. My tongue entered her cunt trying to get all the love juice I could. Trish gasped and groaned as I was doing this, oh Pip that's so good don't stop, lick my cunt Pip.

The more I licked her and the deeper into her cunt my tongue went, the more Trish thrashed about and moaned, she had her hands on her tits and was pinching and pulling her nipples. She then grabbed hold of my head and pulled it even tighter to her wet cunt. She started to scream and shout, "OH FUCK PIP! I'M CUMMING! GOOD DOG! GOOD DOG!!" her whole body shook and convulsed as she came and my nose and tongue were covered in her juice as it ran out of her cunt.

I continued to lick, but Trish pushed me away saying that she would have to get her breath back. I moved away but she called me back, and getting down on her knees next to me, did something she had never done before. She reached underneath me and grabbed hold of my cock. I jumped as her hand circled my cock, this was a new experience, and it felt strange, as she kept doing it the feeling changed to one of pleasure.

She gently moved her hand up and down my cock pulling my sheath back as she did, it wasn't long before all of my cock was out, even the knot.

Trish groaned with pleasure at the sight of my cock saying how big it was. She then made me lay down on my side, and bending down licked the end of my cock, "Mmmmmmmm," she said. "That tastes nice," and opening her mouth slid it down my cock. I wanted to hump her mouth because it felt just like a hot cunt wrapped round my cock.

It had been a long while since I had fucked a bitch, and I could feel myself getting ready to cum, letting out a loud yelp of pleasure I filled Trish's mouth with my cum, she gagged at first but swallowed all she could but there was still some that ran out of her mouth and down her chin.

Oh god she said that was so nasty and so nice, she took her mouth of my cock, and I leant back and licked my cock clean, finishing off by licking my cum off Trish's face.

Standing up I went behind Trish who was still on her knees, and gave her pussy a lick. Oh Pip do you want more she asked? My cock was still hard so I jumped up and tried to mount her like I would a bitch. The trouble was my cock couldn't find her cunt and I kept missing, stabbing the back of her leg.

She lowered her arse a bit and reaching back with her hand guided my cock to her sopping wet cunt, as soon as I felt the tip enter I pushed, and sank half my cock straight into her fanny. Trish squealed as my cock went in shouting, "FUCK ME PIP! FUCK ME WITH THAT BIG DOG COCK!"

I pushed all of my cock in with the next thrust feeling my knot hit the mouth of her cunt, as my cock went in and out of Trish's beautiful wet cunt I could hear the squelching sound of our combined juices squirting out of her fanny.

Trish was pushing back onto my cock every time that I pushed in, and she was constantly moaning and groaning with pleasure, mumbling words that didn't make any sense. Her legs where trembling and she had lowered her head to the floor.

My knot was now opening her cunt at every thrust, and with one final push back from Trish it sank in, when this happened it meant that I couldn't get a full stroke so I had to be content with short jabs.

Trish was screaming, "I'M CUMMING! I'M CUMMING!"

Finally, I felt her body relax and go limp on my cock. My cock gave a twitch and I filled up Trish cunt with my cum she moaned and her body convulsed again as she felt my hot cum in her fanny, filling her womb.

We stayed like this until my cock shrunk and with a loud plop fell out. I cleaned my cock with my tongue and then licked Trish's dripping cunt clean. Trish stayed like this for a while, laid out on the floor, until she got up, put on a robe, came across to me and hugging me tight said that was a good fuck Pip, and it won't be the last, and it wasn't.

The End
