BEASTIALITY STORIES

After a hard day at the office, Cherane wasn't in the mood for her usual "gentlemen callers" tonight. She hoped that she could simply go home, take a nice hot bubble bath, and wane her vice-presidential tensions at a gourmet home-delivered meal.

But tonight there was a slight detour from the normal state of affairs. Her friend had called late in the day, pleading with Cherane to take her beloved "puppy" in for the night, because she had an out-of town emergency, and was worried about her "Cappie" being all alone.

"Oh well", Cherane mused. "What trouble could a small puppy cause?"

Cherane arrived at her house with some expectation of what was inside waiting to greet her - probably a perky little dachshund or terrier of some sort. Upon opening the door, she was met with a bit of shocking evidence that "Cappie" wasn't all that little nor even close to a "puppy." Quietly lying on the floor of her living room rug was a basic, full-grown Great Dane of about seventy- or-so pounds. She closed the door and went over to make friends with the new roommate for the evening. The big canine just rolled over and allowed Cherane to pat his tummy.

Obviously, though of great size, this beast was going to be pretty easy to charm. She noticed a tag on his collar that was stamped "El Kapitan." Hmmp! "Cappie indeed, Cherane thought. Nonetheless, this night would be no problem. At least that's what she thought.

Remembering her relaxing plans, she phoned an order into the local Japanese restaurant for a light supper for delivery and went through her mail while waiting for the meal to arrive. When the food arrived she carefully arranged the entrees on serving dishes and sat down to feast.

Then she noticed that Captain was looking rather hungrily at her and recalled her friend's suggestion about feeding him "'cause he gets awfully aggressive when he's left hungry." Cherane spied a bag of dog food next to the door and fed Captain about 1/3 of it. She finished her meal just as Captain plopped his huge frame back down on the rug and fell asleep.

"On to the next planned event - a hot bath!" she reminded herself as she left the sleeping hulk for the welcoming rush of foamy hot water.

Sinking into the huge whirlpool tub full of bubbles, Cherane completely relaxed into the warm massaging water, letting her long brunette hair flow over the side of the tub. In her state of utter contentment, she admired her curvaceous torso and well-rounded, firm breasts floating in the bubbles. She ran her long fingers down the soft skin of her belly, through her wiry pubes, and along the inner surfaces of her shapely thighs.

A rush of sexual tension flowed from her head to her toes as she returned her fingers to the most-sensitive area between her legs. Her hips moved to the side a bit to allow one of the water jets to surge directly towards her awakening labial surfaces. The forceful flow stimulated her now erect clitoris causing electric reactions within her vaginal cavity.

"Mmmmm," she moaned, as she inserted a searching finger into her cunt. She felt the walls of her vagina becoming engorged and swollen and she pressed deeper and deeper into the steamy cavern. Reaching for her breasts, she directed her pussy directly into the oncoming water jet, bringing her ever closer to a climax.

Cherane massaged her round and perfect globes, caressing the soft flesh yielding to her firm grasp. Her erect nipples were beginning to ache from the stimulation of the bubbly water. Her ass began to grind towards the water jet as her orgasm grew in intensity.

“AAAGGGHHHH!” she cried as the first wave of climactic passion shook her entire body. As her orgasm slowly faded, she felt even more excited than before about reaching another one very soon. Cherane stepped from the draining tub and patted herself dry.

Then she noticed that Captain seemed to be watching her carefully from outside the door, but she shrugged it off and left towards the sanctity of her bedroom.

Her body still tingled from her climax and enticed her to want more. She virtually leapt onto the bed belly first, spreading her legs apart and eagerly returning her fingers to her still damp cunt. She ground her torso into the mattress as she fingered and probed her wanton hole. Suddenly she felt the heart-stopping sensation of something licking at her thigh.

Cherane spun around to find Captain right at her side, with that same hungry look in his eyes. She became fascinated with his uninvited presence and even more so with his almost sensuous gaze. She leaned back and again spread her legs in an obvious display of sexual invitation.

Captain immediately took the suggestion and began licking her ever-moistening cunt with fervor. His rough tongue sent chills of pleasure up Cherane’s body. Her ass began to grind up towards Captain’s eagerly lapping muzzle. The huge dog began to groan in increasing tension as his spittle lubricated her pink and juicy pussy; his extra-long tongue excited the woman’s body into contorted lust.

Cherane stared at her canine lover and became entranced in his extended stimulation of her extremely sensitive clit. Then her eyes widened as she saw his huge cock beginning to slip from its heavy protective sheath. It was huge even now as it lengthened and thickened in unbridled animal lust.

Seven inches of it protruded from Captain’s massive loins as it still grew and stiffened in powerful throbs of power. Drips of dog cum fell from its red, pointed tip as it almost touched her slender calves, even while he was standing before her. Cherane’s emotions became volcanic as she gazed at the enormous dimensions of the dog’s throbbing prick.

Suddenly he stopped his animal cunt-licking to survey his intended bitch. Cherane felt inside almost the same animal lust that Captain was feeling. She slowly turned over onto her knees to await the canine coupling she was about to experience. Her asscheeks were directly in front of his huge head, and Cherane could feel his hot moist panting on her soft inner thighs.

Captain’s tongue went to work once again on her dripping snatch.

“OOOooohhh!” she moaned as the rough tongue bathed her pulsating pussy and licked at her profuse sexual fluids that now were seeping down her thighs into the satin sheets. Then Captain came up onto the bed directly behind Cherane’s waiting ass. She closed her eyes to shut out the bestial action about to take place.

Captain’s huge paws began to wrap around her upper torso, when he stiffened for a moment and paused. He let out a whimper and then rammed his huge bulging cock into her wet cunt, burying it up to the hilt.

Cherane hung onto the mattress for dear life.

His massive prick again slammed home into her throbbing hole sending more of her sex juice down her thighs. Cherane felt then what she thought was impossible – his cock was getting even bigger! Captain's thrusts became faster and faster; the dog's enormous shaft expanding thicker and thicker at the base to seemingly join his prick with this bitch's cunt forever.

Cherane's orgasm was becoming unbearable. Her cunt was spasming rapidly around the dog's invading cock. Captain's saliva began dripping down her back and down her arms as he panted faster and faster with his oncoming climax. His paws were almost hugging the breath from her lungs, while her pendulous breasts swung back and forth in concert with Captain's impassioned thrusts.

Cherane then reached back between her legs to feel the dog's thrusting prick. She felt the huge veins and thick shaft divide her sticky fingers with each fucking motion of the massive dog.

Faster and faster the dog drove his mighty throbbing cock into the spasming-wet hole of the wanton bitch. Her ass rippled with his powerful thrusts; her belly stretched with each inward push of Captain's enormous mastiff. Then Captain began to snort heavily as his orgasm became eminent. His cock expanded even bigger to seal in the liquefied fuck juices that issued from his shaft.

Then the dog stiffened and began to shoot his hot cum into Cherane's tortured cunt. Cherane's orgasm blew into final explosion as she felt the hot jets hit her womb and fill her pussy. Captain came in massive blobs of sticky white dog sperm, quickly overflowing the woman's convulsing opening. He thrust his prick with lust-crazed force to jam his hot semen into her uterus and impregnate his bitch. Then suddenly Captain stopped.

He would have to wait until his now engorged cock receded enough to pull it from her hole. Cherane gasped for air and bathed in the glow of the most satisfying fuck she had ever had. But it was not over yet.

Cherane's over-ravished body slumped to the mattress. She fell asleep almost immediately; while Captain lay on the other side of the room licking his huge cock clean of the residual evidence of Cherane's lubricating fluids. Moments, later after finishing, he suddenly got back up on the bed and began to lick Cherane's battered pussy once again.

She awakened from her restful stupor and realized what he was doing. She tried to push his invading muzzle away, but it was to no avail. His long wet tongue began to send sexual impulses through her body again, completely beyond her control. She unconsciously began to undulate her curvaceous ass towards his lapping tongue, turning onto her belly once again. Flat against the mattress, her buttocks were pressed together but still Captain managed to fully reach her entire crotch with his tongue.

His wetness slipped between her asscheeks to her puckered asshole and bathed it with his saliva. His drooling further lubricated the crack between her cheeks until the combined fluids of the dog's saliva and Cherane's cunt juices bathed her ass in wetness. She began to raise her ass from the mattress to further expose her pussy to the dog's fevered licks. But the exhaustion from the previous session left her in only a semi-awakened state.

Captain once again mounted her in dog-typical fashion and began his entry preparation thrusts. But Cherane was a bit low this time. His huge cock was bumping against, not her sweet pussy, but her anal opening! Suddenly with a fast and powerful thrust, Captain shoved half of his cock up Cherane's unsuspecting asshole! Cherane's eyes popped open wide in surprise and part in pain. She tried to shake the sodomizing beast off, but Captain was too quick and was quickly shoving the remainder of his lubricated prick up her stretched asshole.

“Aaarrghhh!” Cherane gasped as she felt his invading shaft pumping her colonic tube with bestial lust. Captain was even more excited than before by this new tightened opening. Again his cock began expanding in all dimensions, further stretching Cherane’s ass to new limits.

Cherane began to experience tingly pinpricks all around her hot and sticky crotch. The pleasure/pain connection had been made. She reached back and tried to spread her asscheeks even further apart to allow Captain’s massive prick to penetrate to deeper depths.

Then she let her hands drop to her dripping snatch to rub her now swollen clit and perhaps reach a more powerful orgasm than she had before. Every thrust expanded Cherane’s tight asshole and brought delicious pleasure. She could feel his prick sliding in and out of her ass through the thin barrier in her wet cunt. Cherane was actually being ass- fucked by a dog!

Soon Captain began to heave and thrust heavily as his cum boiled up from his huge balls. Cherane met each thrust with a thrust of her own. She began to pant in synch with the dog’s rapid breaths.

Then Cherane felt Captain’s massive cock expand one more and blast forth its sperm into the depths of her heaving belly. The feeling of cum filling up her asshole pushed her own orgasm over the brink as her sphincter muscles milked the sperm from the enormous shaft. Cherane was in heaven as Captain’s labored thrusts subsided. His cock slowly shrank and popped out of Cherne’s gorgeous ass with a final plop. Captain returned to the living room rug, cleaned himself, and fell asleep.

Cherine felt both revulsion and excitement over what she had just experienced. Animal unbridled lust was now part of her life and Cherane would never again be hesitant to explore the unknown.
