BEASTIALITY STORIES

It has been a while since I have written to you all, but we have been extremely busy here, and a lot has been happening.

We moved house a while ago and are now living on a small acreage. I am also heavily pregnant at the moment and even hornier than ever!

Since we are now living on a property, we decided to get some more dogs to keep our Rottweiler company and to also satisfy my insatiable needs, since it is not a good time or safe time to be visiting our friend down south with the ponies while I am pregnant.

My hubby does a pretty good job at satisfying my needs most of the time, but since being preggers I am constantly horny all the time and when he is at work, and not home, I am finding ways to satisfy myself, and he has just not been enough lately or been able to keep up with my over horniness.

So we decided to go round to the local pounds and dog relocation homes to get some more feisty fella's to keep me occupied while at home on my own. The pounds here will freely give unwanted dogs to new homes, and if you can get them before the Fosterers do, they will still be unsterilized.

We chose large dogs for the cause. A large Great Dane cross Mastiff called Jack, A pit bull called Russ, and another Rottweiler x called Derby.

All were nice looking, large, fine specimens and I was excited to get them home, let them settle in and start their training. It was making me wet just thinking about what was to come!

It took some time for them to settle in. Especially with each other as squabbles for dominance often broke out. I guess we were going to get that with 4 unsterilized males.

We also had to put them all through obedience training, and that also helped a lot as Russ and Jack were both out of control terrors!

Every evening I would have hubby bring in our main Rotti, Onya and one of the other dogs as well into our living room. I would stand in front of Onya and remove my underwear. Onya was full of anticipation, as he knew what was to come. Hubby would hold the other dog on his leash, so he was allowed to watch what was going on.

I would kneel down in front of Onya on my hands and knees, facing my rear in front of his face. Without fail, Onya would already have his hard cock out and ready to jump straight on board. He would find his mark instantly and be inside me, humping for dear life while I felt his cock grow large inside me, enjoying every minute of the sensations I was feeling and allowing him to drill me good and hard. Because Onya got his share of sex every night and sometimes also during the day, he was able to sustain himself for a considerable amount of time before ejaculating, and I was able to fit in sometimes 2 or 3 orgasms before he blew.

Then Hubby would remove him and then allow the other dog to sniff and lick at my pussy. Often his cock would be out, and he would be extremely interested in the smell. Sometimes he would try to mount me, but we wouldn't allow it. Not yet. Only sniffing and licking was permitted to get the dog familiar and interested in what he needed to do.

We performed this, each night with Onya and one of the other dogs, a different one each night to familiarize them with their duty. We did this for 2 months. The dogs became familiar with the routine and would become excited each evening, as they knew what was to come. They were also becoming more and more eager to mount me, but we wouldn't let them. Only Onya was permitted to do so.

It was extremely difficult to keep to this routine ourselves, because it was a massive turn on for hubby and me, and so tempting to want to have a massive doggy fuck fest, but all in good time!

After the 2 months of getting Jack, Russ and Derby interested, we decided to give them all a one on one try, with Onya performing first.

So on night one, we brought in Onya and Jack. As usual, I removed my clothes and knelt in front of Onya, allowing him to mount me willingly. Hubby tied Jack to a table leg so he could watch the proceedings and so hubby could join in with me. I sucked his cock while Onya fucked at me for dear life. It was so hot, and Jack was pulling at his leash and whimpering to join in. I could feel Onya was about to come, and I told hubby, who instead of letting him pull out of me, he pushed him in further, keeping him inside me and not allowing him to pull out straight away. It is the best feeling to feel that cock swelling inside and him squirting all he has deep inside me.

Eventually, he let Onya pull out, he removed him from the room and then let Jack off his leash, which was going nuts by now and was beginning to drag the table across the floor in an attempt to get to me. I remained kneeling in front of him, and his nose went straight to my pussy, sniffing and licking, his cock poking out, I lifted my leg and turned over so his tongue could lick at me more. It was such a good feeling.

Jack was trying to mount my leg, so I turned back onto my hands and knees and put my butt into his face, each time he tried going in the wrong direction. Hubby was guiding him into me, and finally, Jack was inside me and going for it. His cock was larger than Onya's, and he had me moaning and coming in no time as his cock swelled and filled me while hubby held him in place and made sure he stayed in me. Again, hubby didn't allow Jack to pull out of me right away. He held him there and made him remain inside of me for quite some time, as I could feel his cock swelling even bigger and I latched onto it with my muscles, milking him for every drop. When he did pull out it hurt a little because of his big knot, but I didn't care, I was so turned on, I turned around, grabbed Jack's cock and sucked it hard. Hubby got behind me and rammed hard into my pussy, fucking me hard and fast as he was clearly turned on by the 3 some. Before I knew it, Jack Had come inside my mouth, I was sucking warm dog cum, and Hubby was coming inside my pussy. I was dripping wet afterward. It was such a friggin' turn on!

Each night, we performed the same act with Onya and one other different dog. They all performed wonderfully, and I was so satisfied and would be prepared, wet and ready for them when the evenings came, just as much as they would be ready to perform for me.

Eventually, we decided that they were ready for their full performance together as hubby believed I needed more cock and wanted me to take on all 4 dogs one after the other, plus him!

I had been anticipating this moment and was more than eager for the act.

Instead of inside the house, we chose the garage for the occasion. We placed a foam mattress on the floor on top of some blankets to take the coldness out of the room. I walked around the garage naked, as I was ordered to do so by hubby. We let all 4 dogs into the room and hubby tethered them to U bolts he had fixed to the garage walls.

He made me get down onto my hands and knees on the mattress. First, he rubbed my swollen breasts, playing with my hard and sensitive nipples. He then blindfolded me so I could not see. He continued rubbing my nipples, making me moan loudly and making me get oh so wet with the anticipation with what was to come.

His fingers slid down between my legs, and he rubbed his hand up and down against my pussy and my clit, making me want to thrust back against him, and then he slid his fingers inside me, and I moaned loudly. He held one hand firmly in place on my backside as he pushed his fingers of the other hand in deeper until his whole hand was in me and he made a fist and slowly began to slide it in and out of me.

I love to be fisted, and he knows it. He slid his fist in and out slowly, teasing me and then twisting his wrist. Ooh, I love that.

Then teasingly, he pulled out of me, I felt him move and then he was placing nipple clamps with a chain in between them onto my nipples. He clamped them on tight and gave the chain light tugs, making me squeal.

"Nope, not tight enough," and he tightened them even more.

God, they were really pinching my already swollen and sensitive pregnant nipples. I was really getting turned on and moaning by now, and I could hear the dogs were too. They were whining loudly somewhere behind me.

He lightly rubbed my pussy again, and I pushed back against his hand. "Oh, no, not yet, there's more in store."

He left me alone for a few seconds.

Suddenly, I felt paws, and then a nose shoved between my legs, licking vigorously and languorously at my moist pussy. Then the large dog was upon me probing and poking until it found its mark, and he was inside me. Pounding into me for all it was worth. Panting loudly at my neck, while hubby rubbed at my breasts and tugged lightly on the nipple chain, making me moan at the sensations my body was feeling all at once and the pain throbbing through my nipples.

The dog on top, which I assumed was Onya, was humping and humping. Hubby was rubbing my Breasts harder, the pain was almost unbearable, but also so good, and I was panting along with the dog and moaning. Then he grabbed my head and thrust himself deep into my mouth, and I sucked hungrily as my body betrayed me and I came repeatedly. He yanked the chains off my breasts, and I screamed as the blood suddenly rushed back into them and the feeling made my orgasm just seem to keep going. Hubby pushed his cock deeper into my throat as I felt Onya's cock swell and he let go inside me, it was the most amazing feeling.

Hubby pulled his cock out of my mouth, took Onya away, and tethered him back to the wall. A few seconds later there was another dog, eagerly sniffing and licking between my legs and I curved my back, allowing him to nuzzle deeper. Hubby was back in front of me, placing the clamps tightly onto my nipples again. Oh, boy!

Soon the second dog, It felt like Jack because he felt lighter on top of me than Onya, was inside me and giving me all his worth. The smell of come, seemed to make the animal insatiable and uncontrollable because he was pounding into me hard and fast, the other dogs were howling in the background, and I could smell sex and pheromones in the air around us. Again, hubby was rubbing my breasts hard and pulling on the chain that linked them together as Jack's hard and hugely swollen cock continued to pound into me. This time I felt a sudden pressure from behind me and jack, and Jack let out a small whimper, then relaxed again as he continued to hump me, I realized that hubby had come in from behind and entered Jack's rear end, pushing the dog deeper into me, Jack was sandwiched between me and my husband.

Hubby was slowly pulling himself in and out of Jack's ass, getting him used to the feeling. Jack would whimper a little when Hubby would push back into him again, but he eventually became used to the feeling and seemed to relax. His cock growing even larger within me and I could feel it pushing against my cervix, his huge knot deep inside me as hubby thrust on, getting harder and harder and then I came again. He reached under and yanked off the nipple chain again, and I screamed loudly as the orgasm went on relentlessly and the blood rushed back into my nipples, and they stung greatly.

He slowly pulled out of Jack's rear end and allowed the dog to suddenly yank his huge, swollen knot out of me in one sudden tug, causing me to wince.

He pulled Jack away and got another howling, eager dog.

Again, the dog was upon me, sniffing and licking vigorously as I spread my legs wider and curved my back allowing his tongue to probe deeply into me. He licked at me and circled me, licking my still blindfolded face, I would open my mouth to receive his tongue, eager to taste the cum and smell the smell of sex on his breath. Then he would return to lick at my pussy some more.

Finally, he mounted me and forced itself into my wet, dripping pussy, and I could tell it was the other Rottweiler x called Derby. His body was heavy as he leaned all his weight onto me and thrust in deeply, panting at my ear as he went hell for leather inside me. Hubby applied the clamps again, seemingly tighter than before, but maybe it was just because my nipples were already throbbing painfully. I moaned for him not to put him or her on, but he ordered me to shut up, or he will gag me as well and make me scream and said I am getting them with every dog and including him after.

Derby continued to fuck me, until he got carried away and slipped out of me and then I rolled onto my back so he could lick me some more before, allowing him to calm his breathing and get some energy back before having another go.

Back on my hands and knees again, Derby thrust his cock into my ass hole this time. I considered pulling him out knowing full on how goddamn painful it was going to be on the knot, but thought to hell with it and let him go for it, squeezing him tight feeling his cock growing bigger in my ass.

Hubby slipped his hand in from underneath, finding my soaking pussy and forcing his fingers inside me until his hand was in. Holy fuck..... A huge swollen, knotted dog cock in my ass and hubby's fist shoving deeper into my pussy, stretching me to my limits as they both thrust deep into me again and again, I was moaning loudly, almost screaming and panting and coming over and over and then Derby came suddenly and I am like "No! Don't let him pull out yet!"

So hubby got behind and held Derby there. He entered Derby's ass hole as I heard the dog yelp and pull back. Then slowly he fucked the dog as Derby was wedged in between me and him just like Jack was. Derby tensed and tried to pull out, but hubby held him firm, wedged in-between me and him, and eventually, the animal relaxed once more, and Derby's cock swelled inside my ass. I felt so full! The sensation was making me tighten, and suddenly I came as just at that moment hubby reached under and yanked the nipple chains off once more and I screamed loudly as the forceful sensations rushed through my whole body repeatedly.

Then rather meanly, Hubby yanked out of Derby's ass all of a sudden, causing the dog to yelp and pull back suddenly, yanking his swollen knot clean out of my ass and I screamed loudly again as I felt like I was being torn open and my ass throbbed uncontrollably and hurt so badly.

Hubby fingered my sore, swollen ass hole and said, "I should ram my cock deep into your ass right now, but if I do I will surely blow, and we are not finished yet."

He tethered Derby back at his place on the wall and then got Russ.

Russ ran over and sniffed eagerly at my pussy and ass hole, licking me all over, and it felt good to have his cool, wet tongue licking my sore, throbbing ass. Before long though, he was on top of me finding his mark and thrusting into me, going hell for leather as he had been waiting for so long already. Onya and Jack were already rested and whimpering for more action in the background.

Russ's cock swelled quickly, and the friction was making my insides tighten and just as Russ came, I came with him and hubby pulled those darn nipple clamps off again sending me into a cumming, screaming stupor. As soon as Russ had pulled out of me, hubby failed to bother tying him back up, and instead, he crammed his face between my legs to smell and lick all the action that had taken place before him.

He flipped me over onto my back, spreading my legs wide, breathing in the smell deeply and lapping my clit with his tongue. "You smell unbelievably hot right now and taste amazing. This is such a fucking turn on to watch you take on all those cocks."

I was amazed and turned on that he was down between my legs licking me out after 4 dogs had just blown their loads into me. He fingered me and then ordered me back onto my hands and knees again. He put the clamps back on my super sore throbbing nipples. The pain was excruciating now. I was gritting my teeth. Then he again forced his hand into me, making a fist and slowly teasing it in and out. "I love fucking you like this" He pushed his hand in deeper and deeper as far as it would go and then slide it out to force it all the way back in again. Nice and slowly and teasingly he did it, and I curved my back and pushed against him for even deeper penetration.

"Your body is so ready for this; my hand can seem to go in even deeper than before!" He said, thrusting deep and hard into me, hitting my cervix, I let out a long wanting moan... "Please!"

He continued to move his fist slowly in and out, and every now and then would thrust deep into me. Now and then, I would also feel and hear Russ sniffing and licking at me as hubby continued to fist me. "Russ wants more."

I was moaning loudly again as the feeling of being stretched and filled with a huge fist, and his arm was just too much. I was screaming inside for him to go faster and to give me the mind-blowing relief that my body was begging for. However, he continued to tease me slowly.

"Please," I begged

However, he continued his slow torture.

"Honey, please," I begged again, pushing back against his fist.

He grabbed my hair roughly and pulled my head back "What do you want?"

"I want more." I whimpered. "I want you to go faster. I want you to fuck me harder and faster and to twist your hand inside of me. Please!"

He let go of my hair and continued to fist me slowly torturing.

Then suddenly, he gripped my hair, pulled my head back again, and thrust hard with his fist, deep into me, forcing me to yell out in surprise. "Oh FUCK!"

He chuckled and let go once more, continuing to fuck me slowly again.

I was whimpering like the dogs behind me as he continued his slow exercise upon me. In out, in and out.

Then he rammed me again without warning, and I screamed out! "Oh fuck yes! Please!"

He went back to slow motion again.

He removed his hand leaving me wanting. "NO!"

He pulled the blindfold down off my eyes and into my mouth, tightening it from behind.

Then, he grabbed the back of the blindfold, now a gag and my hair and pulled my head back tightly as he suddenly thrust his fist hard straight back into me again, forcing it all the way into me and I screamed loudly against the gag feeling him pushing hard against my cervix. He slid his hand out of me slowly and then thrust into me again hard and fast. Oh, fuck the feeling was full on!

Then he was ramming his fist deep into me, in and out, hard and fast as deep as he could, making me scream loudly into the gag, as he pulled back hard on my hair. "Oh fuck yeah, you deserve this, you dirty little dog whore, I am gonna fuck you like this until you beg for me to stop. Oh wait, you have a gag, so I can't hear you beg! HAHA!"

He kept relentlessly pounding his fist into my pussy, over and over, twisting as he pulled out, knowing just how I liked it and he had my insides clenching and coming in no time, but he continued to pound me relentlessly anyway. "The baby is overdue by a week. Maybe we need to fuck it out. Loosen up your insides."

He kept pounding harder and harder. The pain was almost unbearable as the clamps on my nipples pinched excruciatingly, and he continued to pound his fist into me hard. Not stopping, not slowing down at all, just continuing the relentless pounding and rubbing and twisting until I came suddenly again. Then he yanked those damn nipple chains off, damn near ripping my nipple off with them I reckon, and I screamed loudly into the gag as my body convulsed uncontrollably. I collapsed onto my stomach on the mattress.

"Get up," he growled "I'm not finished..." and he thrust into me repeatedly, his fist sliding freely in and out of my dripping cum ridden pussy.

Then suddenly he pulled his hand out, grabbed my thighs and thrust himself deeply into my ass making me scream again as my ass was still throbbing from the pounding it received earlier. He thrust hard into me until he blew. Moaning and grunting loudly, with the dogs in the background joining in all wanting seconds.

He pulled out me. I was dripping wet, and sweating and hubby removed the gag.

Finally, I could collapse onto the mattress, not caring that it was wet and sticky beneath me. I was completely spent, exhausted, and extremely satisfied.

Hubby took all the dogs from the room and let them go outside, then he came back in and kissed me. "I am going to run you a bath, and then I will come back in here and clean up."

He handed me a blanket to wrap myself in and then left me to rest. Oh wow, that was awesome.

I had my bath and all clean and fresh and very, very relaxed I slept very well that night!

2 Days later I went into labor and had a baby girl. So things have been very hectic as you could understand.

I still have the energy for my fun in the evenings, and the dogs are more than willing to satisfy.

Bye for now. Until next time...
