BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2006 by Cest4u

The first time I shaved my pussy, I looked at it as I was masturbating and loved the new look. I have a fat little pussy and a wide ass. My labia has such profound lips as they are quite puffy. I love to watch as I take my toys or my husbands cock between my puffy lips.

It is so hot to see as I am being penetrated and watch as my pussy opens up. I love sex and always have. I have big breasts and love to massage them while I am being fucked. Doggie style is my favorite position and I also love oral and anal sex.

We have a big Great Dane named Buster that my husband had gotten a couple of years back. We night as my hubby and I were making love, he asked me if I would like to have Buster fuck me. The thought of a doggies cock had never entered my mind until then. I was a little afraid to try it but my hubby, Jim wanted me to try it so I did. He helped me get onto my hands and knees as he called Buster into the room.

As Buster got onto the bed, my hubby started to play with his cock as it grew so large. He then began to rub his fingers over my wet cunt as I was playing with it, as it was already so wet. I looked between my thighs to see the largest cock I had ever seen, waiting for my hot pussy.

He then helped Buster to mount me from behind as Jim spread my thick pussy lips as he put that big doggie cock to my pussy. He rubbed it along my slit and then put the huge cockhead inside me as I felt it slip in. It was so hot in me! That doggie cock was so big and so hot as it went in.

As Buster started to fuck me with that huge cock of his, Jim slid around and offered me his big cock to suck on. I began to suck on it as Buster started to give e a good, hard fucking. His doggie cock had me spread so wide as he thrust more of that large dick to my wet pussy, making me gasp as I sucked on Jim's cock.

My pussy was not all that small, but when Buster began to thrust hard to me, his huge doggie cock formed that knot! With one hard lunge he sank that huge knot into my tight pussy, causing me to almost bite my husbands cock as the initial pain hit me. Then he held in to me as I felt that big knot inside my wet cunt as I began to like the feeling of being so full of cock.

He was making me cum so hard as he rammed that doggie cock so deep to me, my cunt having convulsions as he fucked me. I was cumming over and over as he thrust it to me. Then I felt his cock as it began to swell, knowing that he was ready to shoot me full of his cum.

Then I felt the hot cum as it started to erupt inside my well fucked pussy. His cum was so hot in me as he pumped it so deep, making me quiver as he filled my hungry cunt. I was loving it as he just kept pumping me full of his hot cum.

Jim's cock began to swell in my mouth and I knew he was cumming too as I greedily sucked harder on his cock as it began to spew, filling my mouth with his hot cum. I was being filled from both ends with nice, hot cum as both dog and man pumped their cum to me.

"You like that doggie cock, don't you? Did his cum feel good to you?" My husband asked as he slid his soft cock from my lips, "He sure has a nice cock, doesn't he? I bet you would love to fuck him everyday."

"Yes, He is big. And only when you are with me to help. I need you to help me with him." I said, "His knot is still in me. Help me get him loose. He is hurting me now. My little pussy is so sore. Make him take it out."

It was another few minutes before that hot doggie knot went down and he pulled free of my dripping pussy. Then his cum flowed from my cunt in buckets as it leaked out and ran down onto the bed covers. My pussy had been well fucked and I was a little sore from having that big doggie cock in me.

About two days later, Jim came home drunk. He then decided that it was time for me to have Buster fuck me again. I followed him to the bedroom and stripped out of my clothes as Buster came onto the bed. He had to get on my hands and knees as he played with my wide ass. This time he wanted me to suck on that doggie cock as he fucked my ass.

Since I had never sucked a doggie cock before, I was a little apprehensive about it, but Jim being drunk, took Buster's cock and held it to my lips.

"Now suck on his cock, bitch! Suck on it while I fuck your hot little ass!" he shouted to me, "We are going to both fuck you in your ass tonight! I know you want his big cock in your ass and you are going to get it!"

I took Buster's slimy cock and began to slowly suck on it as Jim held it for me as his other hand found my ass. That big cock was tasting a little tangy as I took more of it into my mouth as Jim got behind me. I felt him as he spread my ass cheeks, placing the head of his cock to my tender asshole.

He reached up and sat on his fingers as he lubricated me with his spit before he started to ram his cock to me. I like anal sex when I am ready for it, but I was not ready for the assault he was doing to me now. He was real rough and it was painful as I felt his big cock thrusting so hard up my ass.

There I was, on my hands and knees, sucking on a big doggie cock and being fucked in my ass by my drunken husband. But, I was loving it! Buster's cock had become so silky in my mouth and his cock wasn't that slimy any longer as I began to like the feel of that hot cock as I sucked on it. My ass was being ravished by a nice sized cock and I was starting to glow inside as I felt the two cocks pounding in and out of me. I just didn't want my little ass to be ripped apart by that huge doggie cock.

As Jim thrust hard into me and held his cock to me, I knew he was on the verge of filling my bowels with his hot cum as I wiggled my ass back to him, making little circles with it as I worked on his cock with my muscles. Then he began to shoot that hot cum to me, the heat was so good as I felt it going inside my hot little ass. That was when Buster's cock began to swell in my mouth.

He too, was coming as I took his doggie cock and sucked the hot cum from that doggie prick. They were both cumming at the same time as they filled me with their cum, so hot to me as wave after wave of pleasure swept over me as my own climax started. Both cocks in me were so big as they emptied their hot loads of cum to me as I took every drop I could and milked Jim's cock with my ass as the doggie cum ran down my chin and onto my tits.

"Damn! Bitch, that was good!" Jim said to me as he withdrew his soft cock from my slick ass. "I hope you are ready for some doggie cock in your ass. Cause just as soon as he gets hard again, I am going to have him fuck your ass!"

"Jim, he is too big for me. His big cock will hurt my tight ass." I said as he wiped the doggie cum from my lips and tits, "Don't make me fuck him. I am afraid he will hurt me."

"Bitch, as wet as your ass is with my cum, he won't have any problems getting it in you, " he said, "Besides, I want to watch you taking his doggie cock up your ass."

Jim took me and rolled me up onto my knees once again as he called Buster to me. I felt him as he mounted my hips, his paws on each side of me as Jim took his huge cock and stroked it for him, getting it good and hard for my ass.

The cum from Jim was still leaking out of my ass as he placed that huge doggie cock to my tight entrance. Then he held the big, red cockhead as Buster gave one hard push into me. He sank that huge cock so deep in me with one powerful thrust, sending me down into the pillow my head was resting on.

“OH, MY GOD! His cock is so big!” I cried out as that cock sank all the way into my little ass, “Oh, Jim! He is so big! Does it look good, his cock in my ass? Oh, BABY! YES! It feels so good!”

Jim had his cock in his hand as he stroked it, watching the doggie cock fucking my tight little ass as he jacked off. I watched as his cock grew so big as I took that huge monster of a doggie cock up my tight ass. Then Jim lay down beside me and began to massage my tits as he stroked his cock, me having my ass filled with that big doggie cock as Buster pounded it to me. The only thing that was missing was his big knot and from the feel of his huge cock in me, there was no way it would go in me as he seemed to sense that.

As Buster started to cum in me, I went wild! That hot doggie cum was almost burning my ass as it shot into me. As it spewed forth, the warm feeling of his cum in my ass made me cum, over and over as he filled my tight ass with that hot cum.

Jim had passed out as he was sucking and playing with my tits as Buster’s cock slipped from my ass, his cum running out of me like a river. I stood up as I felt it running down my legs. As I cleaned myself up, I looked over to see Jim laying on top of my pillow, his ass in the air as he was sound asleep. Then a thought went through my mind. What if I tied him up to the big posts on our bed and had Buster fuck him in his ass! What a lovely thought!

I went and got the padded handcuffs he used on me sometimes and brought them to the bed. I moved his ass and placed yet another pillow under his hips, raising his ass higher into the air. It took a bit of doing, but I finally got him positioned just right. Then I took his arms and put the cuffs on his hands, fastening each hand to the bed posts as he lay there spread eagle with that ass high in the air. I began to massage his ass as I took the KY jelly and laced a big glob of it on his ass. Then I called Buster up onto the bed once again.

As I took Buster’s doggie cock and stroked it for him until he started to get good and hard. Then I led him over to Jim as I placed his paws on Jim’s hips. I took his slimy doggie cock and began to put it to Jim’s virgin asshole with one hand as I reached under him and took his limp cock into my other hand. As I began to play with his cock, it started to grow back to life about the same time that Buster rammed that doggie cock to his upturned ass!

Buster and I was raping my husband as Jim woke up in a frenzy, Buster’s big doggie cock going up his ass as he screamed out loud. There was no getting free of his doggie cock as Jim squirmed and shouted for us to stop. I watched with pleasure as Buster thrust that huge cock to my husband’s ass.

“How do you like that now? You did want some of his doggie cock, didn’t you? ” I mocked him as I played with his hardening cock, “How does that feel to your ass? Let him fuck you, Jim, just relax and enjoy it.”

Jim sort of relaxed as Buster rammed that doggie cock to his tight ass, fucking him so hard as his cock pushed further in. Me and Buster was enjoying ourselves as I watched his cock going rapidly in and out of that ass.

After a few minutes of this, I saw him thrust his cock to Jim and hold it as he started to cum. Jim was actually beginning to enjoy it too as I saw his ass buck back to Buster's cock as he pumped his ass full of his hot doggie cum. Buster filled his ass so full of cum as I felt Jim's cock began to shoot his load as I stroked it for him while Buster finished cumming in his ass.

After it was over with, Jim admitted that he sort of liked being as fucked by Buster. From that day on, he always asked me if I wanted Buster to fuck me and never once made him do it to me.

Both Jim and I still have not had his knot in our ass but Buster loves to slide that huge knot to my pussy. I love to feel his huge doggie cock as that knot fills my poor little pussy as he slams it to me.

Now our favorite way to fuck is for Jim to get on me missionary style and start fucking me as Buster mounts him and slides his doggie cock to his ass. The movement of Buster ramming Jim's ass sends his cock deeper in me as we both get fucked. I have learned to put my legs on his shoulders as he plummets my pussy, Buster fucking his ass as Jim fucks me. Then we all cum together and I turn my ass up for Buster's big doggie cock while Jim lays there and lets me suck on his big cock.
