BEASTIALITY STORIES

Julie loved her horse. Lexington was a thoroughbred stallion, she had had him for about 5 years, and was the best horse she had ever had. She had been riding since before she could walk. Lately she had become even more attached to him, because she had begun to think of him in a sexual sense. He was so beautiful and powerful! She had begun to notice his cock more and more, whenever he ran it out. It made her pussy wetter every time he did it!

She had stroked his cock a few times, but that was all she had done. She wanted desperately to suck it and have it deep in her pussy. She had gone out riding with him a few times, wearing a short but wide skirt, with no panties. She rode him bareback, and it had made her cum to feel him moving between her legs. There was no privacy at the stables she boarded him at, and too risky when out riding, but she determined that she WOULD have his cock inside her soon!

Julie was married, and she and her husband Kent had done some swinging, and tried a lot of pretty wild and kinky sex. They had always done everything together, and she decided that they would do this together too. She began to plan how she would approach him with it. She hoped he would not be disgusted with her, but thought it would be OK with him as long as it was something they did together.

That night she cooked him a nice dinner, and when they were ready for bed she wore her most attractive and sexy lingerie. She got into bed with him and made love to him, doing all the things he liked the best. He was a good lover, and had her moaning and cumming as she sucked his cock while he ate her pussy. Then he fucked her till she thought her brain would explode... but in the back of her mind she was thinking about Lexington's huge cock! After they were done, she snuggled up to him and whispered in his ear that she had thought of a sex game to play, and wanted him to hear the details.

He told her that he was always interested in a new sex game with her, because she was his best friend and lover and wanted to make her happy. She summed up her courage and said "I want to have sex with Lexington!" He sat straight up in bed and said "Your HORSE Lexington??" She told him all about her desires and frustrations, and begged him to understand and help her. Kent told her that it was OK... he was not upset with her, just a little surprised. He told her to relax, he would come up with a way to help her get what she wanted. They hugged and kissed and fell asleep in each others arms. Julie was a VERY happy woman! She knew that Kent would figure it out, and make sure it was safe and that she was taken care of.

The next day when she went riding she told Lexington all about it, and he perked up his ears and twitched his tail like he understood!! She spent her day in a blissful state of anticipation. When Kent came home from work they did not speak of it immediately, but after dinner when they were sitting on the couch together, he told her he had been thinking about it, and had a plan. She was so excited she jumped up and down on the couch and threw herself into his arms and kissed him deeply. She asked him to describe his plan, and he told her he would when they went to bed, but he had a little preparation to do first.

When they went to bed, Kent turned on the TV and did something to the computer... and a video from ZooTube popped up on the screen. It was a video of a horse fucking a woman. Julie immediately started to get wet. Kent said "Look how big his cock is, you can't take that unless we do a little to get you ready. You have to get used to taking something that big in your pussy. We will start by me fingering you, adding more and more fingers to get you used to having your pussy open wide enough to take Lexington."

Julie eagerly spread her legs, and he looked at her beautiful pussy. It was just the way he liked it, hairy and wet, with her lips swollen. He started to finger her, adding fingers until he had three inside her. He said "What I'm going to do is do this every night, until I can fist you. If you can take my fist and forearm, you can take Lexington's cock." He folded all his fingers together and put four fingers in her. He could tell it was getting a little uncomfortable for her, so he just kept his fingers in her. After awhile he could feel her relax, and he started to move his fingers in and out of her.

They kept doing that every night for a week, till he could almost get his whole hand, up to the palm into her. On the eight night he said, "OK baby, its time to see if I can put my hand all the way into your hot little cunt!" She said "Honey, this has not done much for you, and you have been making me cum every night. Why don't you jerk off while you are fisting me tonight, and when I cum, you can cum on my tits!" She knew he liked to do that, and he said OK and began to get ready. He lubed up his hand and started fingering her, stretching her pussy wide, and finally said "Here we go baby" and folder his thumb over and pushed his hand slowly into her gaping cunt.

"OMG, OMG, OMG' she screamed and began to cum over and over again. He was excited as hell watching her writhe and squirm, his hand and forearm deep inside her. Slowly he pulled his hand out and moved over her and started to jerk off and cum all over her beautiful tits. She grabbed his cock and stroked and squeezed every drop out of him, then licked and sucked his cock clean. They did this every day for the rest of the week, until he could ram his whole hand and arm up into her pussy. She was loving this, and said "Honey, I love you! You are so good to me! I think I am ready for Lexington now, how are we going to do that?"

Kent explained that they would take Lexington and go camping over the weekend. He knew of an isolated little spot on a hill that had a small clump of trees. They would set up camp there, and he would erect a little enclosure by wrapping some black plastic around a small group of the trees, so that nobody could possibly see what went on inside. The ground there was covered with pine straw, dry and soft. Julie was as excited as a school girl... jumping up and down on the bed. She said "Honey, I knew you would figure it out.. you take such good care of me!"

After work on Friday they loaded up the camping gear, hooked up the horse trailer, and went and picked Lexington up. He seemed to know something was up, prancing and throwing his head. They drove to the camp site, and Kent told Julie to take Lexington for a nice ride, while he set up camp and the enclosure. She jumped on Lexington bareback and took off. He set up the camp, erected the enclosure, and then sat back and drank a beer while he waited for her.

When she got back, the took Lexington into the enclosure. "OK, honey... here's your chance, why don't you get naked and suck his cock first?" She stripped and went up to Lexington and began to talk to him, and reached under him to stroke his cock. He ran his cock out and she knelt down and began to lick his cock. Kent got naked too, and went up behind Julie and rammed his cock into her ass. He fucked her while she sucked the giant horse cock. He was pretty damn excited too, and blew his load up inside her ass in short order.

Julie moved to sit on the ground under Lexington, licked and sucking his cock. She was enjoying his cum, rubbing his cock between her tits and over her pussy. He started cumming hard then, spurting huge loads of cum between her tits. The cum ran down her belly, through here pubic hair and over her swollen pussy lips. She spread her lips and shoved as much cum as she could inside her. "OMG" she sad "I have wanted his cum inside me FOREVER! Honey, FUCK ME, I NEED YOU TO FUCK ME NOW!" Kent's cock was standing out, engorged with blood. He was really turned on by watching his sweet wife get drenched with horse cum! He grabbed her, feeling her cum-coated body against him. He felt like a stallion himself. He mounted her and fucked her furiously. She was screaming and cumming, and he had the most intense orgasm of his life, thrusting his cock as deep in her as he could get it, spurting his hot cum up inside her dripping cunt.

After a while they got up. Julie caressed and talked to Lexington while she cleaned his cock and sheath. Kent built a campfire and started to grill some steaks. They would need the protein if tonight was any judge. They sat around the campfire and talked. Julie thanked him and told him it was better than she had imagined so far, and could not wait to actually get Lexington's cock inside her. Kent confessed that he had never been so turned on and was looking forward to watching her get speared by that giant cock, and get filled with horse cum.

They went to bed, laying in each others arms, and slept soundly. In the morning Julie took Lexington out for another ride. Kent scattered fresh pine straw over the cum-soaked ground of last night. He brought in the padded bench he had made for Julie to lay on while she was being mounted. When Julie came back, he brought Lexington into the enclosure. Kent told Julie that her dreams were about to come true. "Enjoy it, baby... I love you". She talked to Lexington, saying "OK, big boy you know what to do... be gentle with me."

She began to play with his cock, and he obligingly ran it out. She licked the tip and started rubbing it against her pussy, which was already wet. Kent moved the bench under the horse, and she laid down on it and guided Lexington's now erect cock to her opening. The horse gently thrust into her, and she began to moan as more and more of his cock went into her. She was cumming already, the mushroom head of the cock swelling inside her. She could feel her pussy filling with the horse cum, and Lexington keep thrusting into her, while she screamed and screamed with pleasure. He finally exploded inside her, and she saw stars as her pulsating cunt was filled with cock and cum. She turned her head to look at Kent, just in time to open her mouth and catch his cumshot as he spurted and spurted into her mouth.

Lexington made one last thrust, and his cock fell out of her, the cum just poring out of her as he did. Julie just lay there, stunned and exhausted. Kent pulled her out from under the horse and cleaned her up before taking her to her bed to let her rest. Julie mumbled "Honey, it was the best fuck I have even had. Thank you for giving it to me." Kent kissed her and said "You are welcome sweetheart... take a nap and we can do it again, and we have all day tomorrow. Her eyes got very bright, and a smile lit her face. Then her eyes began to droop and she was asleep.
