BEASTIALITY STORIES

Early in 2012 my husband Will came home with a holiday brochure from his office, it was an opportunity to go on a North and South American cruise with a special company discount of 50%. Now spontaneity and Will didn't generally go hand in hand, but on this occasion he'd just done it quickly bagging the last of ten pairs of tickets, even upgrading to a small suite at very little extra cost. To say I was dumbfounded was an understatement, but I was also very excited not only was this our first cruise it was a part of the world we had often talked about.

Three months later there we were cases packed with new clothes, beaming excited looks on our faces. Hoping for the adventure of a lifetime, and yes that's exactly how it turned out. We sailed, we ate, we danced had terrific visits, but our story revolves round the end of our trip. Our return port was San Diego, where we would spend three days before our flight home. We had arranged two trips while we were in port, the first was Disney world, which we both loved the second was a trip to Mexico to discover their culture. During the cruise our plans had changed slightly.

We had met two other couples during the first few days, and we all got on really well. Alan and Judy were Australian while Phil and Mandy were like us from the UK. It turned out that all three guys were golf mad, so our arranged trip to Tijuana Mexico would become an all girls day out, while the boys played golf.

Think it may be time for a quick introduction, I'm a thirty nine year old dental practitioner and my name is Barbara but everyone calls me Babs. Will and I have been married for sixteen years no kids and to be honest we never wanted them. This is a sex story so I can honestly tell you that Will wasn't all that much into sex and never had been, that's why I loved holidays it increased his libido, in fact this trip he without knowing had astounded me on two counts firstly we had sex three nights in a row, and secondly one of those day's we did it twice once after our daily trip from the ship, and then once again after dinner with our new friends, a dinner swamped in innuendo about my very revelling dress, a Chinese style with a high neck and a hem four inches above the knee and split down one side almost to my hip, but the main view point (great word) was my nipples my bust is big, 36 cc but my nipples grow and grow and the more looks I got the bigger they grew, and I just loved it soaking it up, and so did Will once he saw the looks and heard all the comments. I sort of suspected he enjoyed me being a naughty wife.

Well the following morning us three girls met up with the tour bus, me and Judy just in shorts and sandals were as Mandy who was a little tubbier was wearing her normal slacks and sandals. It took about forty minutes to reach the Mexican border pick up the guide and get to the starting point of the tour. The poor guide, She had not looked too well when we picked her up, but went down hill really fast and was quickly dropped at a tiny hospital. The driver had no idea what to do but after contacting the ship and chatting with us passengers, each group made their own plans some even going back to the ship.

Mandy had spotted a large shopping centre, so the three of us opted for some retail therapy. Judy bought with much giggling and blushing yet another sexy outfit, while I just plumed for a pair of evening shoes.

We had a very nice lunch in the centre, before later persuading Mandy to buy some really hot lingerie. And that I can say started us on the downward trend.

Maybe it was the wine we had with lunch, but Judy was all for going for another drink and that's how we ended in a taxi being taken to a big tent like club. It also wasn't until we'd got the first tequila's in our hands that we really took in our surroundings. There were quite a lot of holiday makers round us I even recognised a young just married couple of our ship sat at the next table.

Judy spluttered Mandy laughed openly, me I felt my tummy do a giant sickly roll. We'd entered right at the start of a sex show, not any sex show, the couple from the ship were telling Judy everyone came here just to see the donkey show. My first thought was to run a mile, but like the other's I calmed a little, we discussed it a little then ordered more drink....oh we were going to need it. The next couple of hours were going to change lives forever, my own beyond belief.

The show started very tamely, dusky young Mexican beauties dancing in a number of barely there costumes olive coloured breast on show, soon they were joined by a number of muscular half naked black men, the dancing didn't last long, well normal dancing anyway. We sat amazed less than a yard away a bronzed beauty had taken the crab position while another girl tore of her Velcro held thong and started to eat her, we could see the juices from where we sat and the smile's of lust on both girls faces. One of the black men swiftly moved her to one side with one hand while his other he did the same Velcro trick releasing a piece of meat you could only dream of, fully nine inches long and much thicker than my biggest dildo. He was rubbing it along the young girls pussy lips, but he wasn't looking at her he was looking directly at Mandy his sexy eyes rolling, his tongue licking his lips, while his hand guided his cock into that pussy as if he was guiding it into Mandy.

The second girl had moved over the young girls mouth her shaven pussy now naked and glistening with love juice legs wide she limboed over what looked like a very eager tongue. Similar tableau's were under way all round the circular stage, my eyes went from one to the other, two men were using one women and her mouth was empty, yes anal sex, one man was sucking on another black man's penis and he was massive, four or five inches bigger by than the man close to us. The tableau's changed constantly, but although others joined him the same black man was close to us, and he didn't show Mandy any mercy, he was constantly looking at her and waving his appendage towards her.

Mandy on her part was acting as if we weren't there her hand was down the front of her open slacks, she was playing with her pussy we could see her so could the man and anyone nearby. That's when I noticed Mandy wasn't the only one, the couple of our ship were openly playing with themselves. The more I saw the hotter I was getting, my pussy felt like it was on fire. Judy was talking to me and I didn't hear a word.

Things were changing on the circular stage once more, the dancers disappeared and a large wooden contraction was wheeled onto the stage, a slim naked young women was smiling down suspended by leather strapping, her legs were wide and she was shown off to everyone. When she was centre stage we realised what was about to happen when one of the black men flanked by two semi naked girls led a grey donkey out and right in front of the girl. What we were about to watch was a well practised and very sexy routine, the girls slid close up to the flanks of the donkey stroking and fondling the wonderful beast, I could see even at 12 feet the animal was lovely and clean from top to toe. I could also see what effect the girls were having on him, his penis was hanging down more than a foot long and thick as my wrist.

My eye was caught by more movement, two what looked like weight lifters benches were carried out, while Mandy's black friend appeared once more and led her centre stage towards one of the benches while another more mature lady was led out from another table. Judy and I were more than a little shocked and even more shocked with what happened over the next forty minutes. My story jumps around quite a lot now so much was going on.

We watch the two Mexican girls take a tub of what must have been lubricant and spread it all along the donkey cock, yes cock I couldn't think of it as a penis any more, while one of them even took the big swollen head between her lips sucking in a good two inches, that cock was now banging against his belly close to two feet long mottled black and pinkish and now fatter than a man's fist. I was mesmerised by the size and knowing the women suspended in front of him was going to take that monster into her body. Mostly I was unbelievably jealous, how could any women want to do that, but my mouth was dry and pussy felt wet and swollen, I knew I'd take her place I was so excited.

Two men were adjusting straps and lowering the girl in what looked like a love seat she was now free and swung so that massive cock was now banging up and down on her belly, she was handed the ropes while her ankles were hooked up to straps on her molesters back. She now started guiding him towards her pussy drawing her legs back holding herself wider, the head seemed to grow as it approached it's target no-way could she take that surely. She began to swing backwards and forwards, while his pre-cum started to coat her pussy lips the head bumped time and again against her pussy lips. Then suddenly it entered her perhaps three or four inches, gasping noises came from her mouth and sweat poured from her dusky body. She held onto his flanks guiding him further into her body, her juices were clearly visible as his massive shaft pulled back before entering her once more. He was fucking her now 12",14" slowly more and more entered her, soon after a number of small orgasms we could see it building to a crescendo, and it looked like it was too much for both of them, arching her back against her restraints and meowing like a satisfied cat she entered a very long and intense orgasm. We saw the donkey start to buck into his own orgasm spunk seemed to pour everywhere down the girls thighs and between her ass cheeks before pouring onto the floor. It was still minutes before she pulled back from a now deflating cock, I was sure she'd had at least two more orgasms. While I had my fingers rammed up myself.

At the same time this had was going on, Mandy and the more mature lady who had been brought forward, had begun to be seduced by their black lovers both were on their knee's Mandy had lost her top and bra, her tits were really big and the nipples fat and hard. Mandy was lost and loving it working her mouth along the length of a superb fat black cock, not even noticing her slacks being pulled away from her body. It happened so easily, both women were quickly transferred onto the benches. I watched Mandy her big tits flopping either side of the bench her hands cuffed at the front and her legs spread and strapped down. Judy grabbed my hand when she saw what was going to happen.

A group of very large dogs were led out onto the stage, and Judy was right oh I'd heard about such thing but never thought I'd be watching it happen. Neither women even suspected what was about to happen to them, Mandy was sucking on her second black cock while she could feel what she thought was a person lapping at her pussy, it was in reality this total white husky, his big shoulders and flanks towering over her. My lust had completely taken over now and when one of the young smiling girls led me on stage I just smiled back at her. Eyes taking in the vista before me, Mandy was howling with pleasure as a black boy guided a ten inch dog cock into her eager cunt. The other woman was openly sucking on a dog cock while a third was fucking her at a rapid pace.

I was stripped naked, and lifted into the same position I'd seen the girl who'd been donkey fucked. I didn't fight or fuss two men were strapping me up and all I felt pure lust knowing what was about to happen, I looked round me, I could see Judy she was kissing one of the dancing girls deeply while watching on, while at the next table the newly married young girl was lay back across her husbands legs and chest he cradled her head while a fat Mexican man stuffed her cunt with cock, while another younger man used her mouth, others watched on waiting their turn.

Then I saw him black and white smooth coat, he looked much bigger than the first donkey, but I knew he was going to be my lover, I watched as the girls greased him up before one of the black men did the same to me I felt as if he pushed all his hand up me I was so wet.

They lowered me under the donkey, I could see him the size, the head, I was scared to death then by breath was harsh and rapid. His cock bounced high hitting his then my belly, I did what I'd seen the girl do I pulled back lining him up it was easy to manoeuvre myself, he bumped my lips once twice three times. Relax I heard the voices, not so easy when your shaking so badly, and your lovers cock was flying up and down, then someone was guiding him and he in turn was spraying my whole body with pre-cum I was sticky with it. Then I pulled back lined up the head once more, it spread all over my lips covering soaking my clitoris. Then I felt the head of his cock squeezing tight he pushed and I pulled it must have taken four or five attempts then the head popped all the way in, I felt my pussy stretch to accommodate him, I was stretched inwards feeling his thickness the sudden intrusion causing me to yelp with the sudden pain.

A pain that was soon replaced with extreme pleasure, the seat allowed me control the pressure I started to ride him taking him inch by inch more and more, I was feeling every bit of him, his cock so hot not like a man's I realised I could pull right back his enlarged mushroom head held him in pulling on my clitoris from the inside then in to places I never new existed, my G spot was massaged and I was coming time after time, his pre-cum and my squirting juices were soaking my insides making it so much easier to fuck my donkey lover....how much did I take I think it was all of him...people cheered and screamed their filth. The girl alongside me said can you feel him he is close his ball will flood you your his whore. She was right his cock was hardening the head filling me the pleasure I felt was beyond belief my pussy walls felt every move as I dragged myself along his length wanting him more and more my orgasm was almost constant. Then he stopped moving we were totally static apart from a twitching of his hardening cock, then he came, jet after jet was hitting my cervix I was cumming again spurting in ecstasy.

He was filling me my womb, it squeezed past my cunt walls he was still driving into me. Then amazingly I felt another orgasm building as my lover started to soften and fall from my cunt, I felt my tiredness then my legs I knew would be weak, as they lowered me to restrained applause.

I found myself being led into a communal shower, there sat Mandy totally exhausted warm water dripping from her body, and a grin as wide as a river. Judy came back and helped us dress to go back to the ship. All three of us were very subdued in particular Judy which at the time surprised me. We did decide we would keep what happened a secret from our husbands, and hope the other passengers that were there would do the same for the next 24 hours, when we would be flying home.

We boarded a coach supplied by the club to take us to the border, we recognised a few of the other passengers. The young newly-weds looking very sheepish, the mature couple who's wife had gone on stage with Mandy, one or two others who we had never spoken to on the cruise so we felt reasonably safe. When we set off the older man came and sat alongside Mandy and I, listen ladies I'm not sure how you feel but Bet and I enjoyed what happened today, Bet is 63 and never done anything like that in forty years of marriage. We were both looking at him wondering what revelation he was about to make. Well I had smuggled in my video camera, and I recorded it all. Now I know Bet and I will really enjoy it and she wondered if you English ladies would like me to email it to you once it's edited.

Will and I use the same email address so I couldn't, Mandy took his card and she said she'd have it but would probably ditch it immediately. Oh how the best laid plans can go array.

The first thing that happened when we met up for dinner, and the boys had drifted off for drinks, Mandy told us she had admitted everything to Phil. He had known straight away that something had happened and kept plugging her, in her words she'd had no choice. She promised that they would keep it all private. They were as good as their word and we arrived home without incident, well almost I was finding it hard to forget what had happened, and how good that afternoon had been, and unsure about my whole life really. Will by his demeanour showed he new something was amiss, but just like Will never said a word.

It was three months later things started to come to ahead, out of the blue Mandy phoned had me. They had received the video's a week after they got home and wondered if I wanted a copy. They had put it to the back of their minds for a week or two, or rather she had. Phil had discovered a place in Cumbria, a dog and horse breeder who did live breeding shows like in Mexico only two hours drive away. Mandy had to admit to Phil she would do it, just for him. She giggled as she made that statement, then followed it up my saying she had done two shows up to now, and was going back the following Sunday. Also the breeder had picked out a dog for them to take home, I new she was excited by the speed and quietness of her voice. Phil had shared her with his friends and last week she'd had her first gang-bang and loved it...more importantly so had Phil. The funniest thing she'd said was she had lost almost two stone and felt like a woman again, and her new video's were much clearer.

Yes she sent me the video, or should I say video's, it was to long to send in bulk. It wasn't solely of me and only got me from a distance with his wife in the foreground, and also Mandy her chubby body being well used. I didn't realise she had been fucked by two different dogs while sucking on five men, two of these from the audience. When he did zoom in on me it was quite graphic even picking up some of the filth issuing from my mouth, he had got the first entry of my lover and when we orgasmed together and the mess it made.

Like I said I was at that point in my life when I had to make a decision. So with gritted teeth I told Will everything including showing him the video's. I knew he'd be shocked, but I didn't foresee his reaction. For two days he was silent on the subject, but I was sure he'd watched the video's a number of times.

Then after dinner on a Wednesday evening he admitted he wanted to be my cuckold, and he thought he had always wanted it. He didn't want to do it with Mandy and Phil for some reason, but had found a place just twenty miles away and had been in contact. We will be going for our first visit in two weeks, they have sent us some photographs of their horses they look wonderful, but before that we have two black male visitors coming tonight....must go and prepare. xxx
