BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) by sexblog

All Nikki could think about on her way home was how glad she would be to see Enzo. It seemed funny that during one of the lowest points in her life, she could find a lover like Enzo.

But Enzo had changed that.

She was so anxious (and horny) that she had removed her panties before leaving the Animal Clinic so she could finger her cunt on her way home. Nikki began by stroking her inner thighs, the outer lips. Working her way through the folds to the dark red labia below. She teased her clit at the stoplight, wondering what the people in the car behind her would think if they only knew what she was doing. She frigged herself home, stopping just short of climax as she pulled onto the dirt road that led to her small frame house.

Hurrying inside, she dropped her purse on the sofa. There was no sign of Enzo. Where could he be?

“Honey, where are you?” she called.

A stirring in the bedroom soon alerted her to Enzo’s whereabouts.

“Stay where you are, Lover. I’ll be in; in a minute,” she chimed.

She slipped into the bathroom and peeled off her dress. She was a buxom, strapping woman, Amazonian in height and perfectly proportioned except for a massive set of tits. Her short, dark hair framed a lovely face that showed off the qualities she had received from her Latin mother. She cupped her breasts, feeling the weight of them. She then began to brush the large, brown nipples gently, delighted in the sensation produced when they stiffened. ‘Not bad for 38,’ she thought.

After a few minor adjustments to her make-up, she made her way into the bedroom. Nikki stopped short upon entering the door. She felt a wave of passion overtake her as a drop of her love juice trickled down her leg. Enzo was lying on the bed in all his glory. Enzo was a Labrador Retriever.

It was funny how her relationship with Enzo had begun. He had been found abandoned on the roadside, all wet and mangy. Nikki’s heart went out to him when the Vet brought him to the clinic. She felt relieved when the Dr. pronounced him well but underfed.

Since her job was grooming, she made a special effort with Enzo and had him looking fit in no time. She had grown quite attached to Enzo and was thrilled when the Dr. gave him to her. “Something to keep you from being so lonely,” the kindly old man said, embarrassed. Nikki had only thought of him as a pet until that fateful night.

She was watching TV, alone and horny, struggling to keep her mind off her lust and on the show. She faced a long night of dildoeing herself into a frustrated slumber. Enzo broke her reverie. A soft lapping sound startled her—it was Enzo licking his cock. Nikki tried not to notice but soon found herself fingering her slit. Intrigued by her moans and the scent of a female in heat, Enzo strolled over and began to sniff her crotch.

Nikki was stunned. His hot breath aroused her. Opening her robe, she slid off her panties, and Enzo began gently licking her snatch, his tongue spreading her pussy lips and working up towards her clit. Nikki let him lick until she came in a violent rush.

But the dog didn't leave. Nikki soon found out why; Enzo was sporting a massive erection. On impulse, she began stroking his cock. Nikki hadn't held one in her hands for so long. Carried away with the moment, she coaxed him to the bedroom and onto the bed, where she ate cock like never before.

The following day she was in turmoil. What she had done shocked and embarrassed her; still, the illicit encounter had exited her. By the end of the day, she had reasoned that while it was taboo to do such a thing, she needed fucking badly, and since there were no suitable men, what could it hurt. That night she let the dog mount her. He fucked her nonstop with his huge cock giving her several earth-shattering orgasms. The best hot guys fucking and sucking big dicks.

Nikki entered the bedroom. Enzo was lying on her bed, his shiny black fur contrasting with the cream-colored bedspread, the tip of his pink cock just beginning to show out of its furred sheath. Nikki could see his swollen balls hanging out between his back legs. Nikki slid onto the bed, "Oh, Enzo," she said softly. "It looks like you need it as badly as I do."

She rubbed her naked body across his back, her erect nipples brushing against his sleek coat. The sensation sent waves of pleasure coursing through her, and she could feel her lust starting to boil. The juice of her wet cunt began to trickle onto him as the stiff fur teased her pussy. She pressed her cunt down on his back harder, causing the lips to spread and the fur to caress her throbbing clit. Her love juice mingled with his animal scent, and the aroma drove her wild. Gently she placed her open mouth near his and let his tongue slide in.

In his way, Enzo understood their relationship. He'd had owners before, providers, but none like this one. The last master had mistreated him, never feeding him half the time and kicking him around when he came home drunk. Now Enzo was on a dream ticket. Not only was the food regular, he felt like he was the master and not the pet. Sure, at first, it was strange, but this human female could do things no bitch could.

Enzo could hardly believe it when she first put his cock in her mouth. No female Lab would ever do that. He enjoyed it when she stripped off her strange covering and climbed into a warm bath with him, especially since it usually ended with a long, hard fuck session.

She seemed to be always in heat. Sometimes Enzo felt like he could get no rest, but she always got him off. No matter how or when, she made sure he shot his load, sometimes in her mouth, sometimes in her cunt. All he had to do was show up with a hard-on, and she would oblige, and sometimes she tried her damndest to give him one.

Nikki had worked herself into a good lather. She stopped caressing her body with his, "Now for the fun stuff," she said.

She coaxed the canine onto his back, straddling him below the ribs. She braced herself on the bed's headboard and lowered her breasts towards his face. Enzo responded by licking first one and then the other. Nikki gasped as his rough, pink tongue passed over her large brown nipples, each stroke bringing her closer and closer to climax. Enzo lapped greedily for a time, not understanding why or what she was doing. Then Nikki did something he understood. Remaining kneeling, she leaned back and supported herself with both hands, thrusting her cunt towards his face and ever-present tongue.

This he knew about. He had done this plenty of times to dog bitches, but they had never seemed to enjoy it as much as she did. Nikki reached down with her left hand and spread her pussy lips, letting the Lab lick the inner folds and letting his hot breath teased her erect clit, her vaginal fluid flowing out in torrents. Enzo lapped up all he could, the remainder dripping onto her asshole.

The dog tired of this quickly and soon stopped. Nikki sighed as her body shook on the verge of orgasm. Lifting herself, she moved around to Enzo's right side.

"I know what puppy wants," she said playfully.

She reached down and stroked his half-hard cock with her right hand, caressing his ball sack with her left. The dog liked this and responded with a growl. His cock began to stiffen and slide out of its sheath.

Nikki looked at the pink rod. It was at least seven inches long, from tip to base, but she could only get four inside her since his furry foreskin was so close to his body. But four inches was enough. She bent down and kissed the tip, her tongue emerging from parted lips to tease the head of his cock. She set her lips to the end and began gently sucking the head. The dog started to wiggle, his balls tightening in her hand. She let go of the head and began lightly licking up and down the shaft evoking even more growls and whimpers from Enzo.

Moving around between his back legs, Nikki took his ball sack in her mouth, rolling each firm testicle around.

Small drops of the dog's pre-seminal fluid had begun to trickle out of his cum hole. Discovering this, Nikki moved back up to the head of his cock and plunged it into her mouth, letting it bulge out of her right cheek.

She moved her head up and down, fucking him with her mouth. She lightly squeezed his balls while running her tongue around his rod. Even more of his pre-cum seeped out. Nikki savored the taste, moaning while she sucked, finally tightening her lips around the base and slowly sliding the prick out of her mouth. Straightening herself up, Nikki straddled Enzo again, forcing his back legs apart with hers.

Slowly she guided her cunt down onto his canine prick. The sensation of its pointy head parting the folds of her pussy sent a chill through her. She began to ride his cock, initially slowly, then picking up speed. She alternated between long down thrusts, delighting in her ass touching his canine balls, and short quick strokes. Each movement sent a wave of heat through her loins. She could feel her juices rolling out of her cunt, lubricating the dog's pole. She moved up and down on top of him until she felt a hot spurt inside her. The feel of the dog's cum surging in her cunt brought on the final rush of orgasm.

She dismounted Enzo, who immediately stood up. Nikki noticed that his cock was still stiff. Realizing he was still unsatisfied, she climbed off the bed and knelt on all fours, bending her back to indicate her desire for sex.

Enzo understood this and quickly mounted her. She guided his rock-hard, glistening shaft to her asshole, luckily soaked in her cunt juice. The dog was in his element and quickly exhausted himself by banging away at her tight asshole. Nikki came when he did. An even greater amount of cum flowed from her ass and onto her thighs. Nikki sighed as she dragged her limp body onto the bed, easily slipping off into an exhausted slumber, little knowing what lay in store for her and her passion for nonhuman sex.

Nikki was pleased when her boss asked her to watch his farm for a few days. She had been feeling a little down, and spending two or three days in a secluded rural setting appealed to her.

She arrived after work, and the Vet had already left and had placed a key under the mat. Nikki had brought Enzo along. Why she didn't know. Lately, he seemed to have lost interest in her. She settled herself and had just sat down in the den with a good book when Enzo began to whimper to be let out. Nikki did so and returned to her book. She was reading for some time when a sound outside alerted her. Looking out, she discovered Enzo fucking one of the farm dogs.

"Well, if you're going to be that way," Nikki yelled as she closed the door.

She was furious. Nikki had been screwing the dog exclusively for the past six months, and now this! Fed up with the whole situation, she went to bed.

She awoke bright and early, as one does in the country. After a light breakfast, she peered outside. There was no sign of Enzo.

Nikki decided there was more to the world than just Enzo, so she would find someone else to roll in the hay with. Oddly enough, she opted for a four-legged partner instead of a two-legged one since they didn't play with her head like a human would. They just fucked you until they lost interest and then moved on.

With this in mind, she stripped off her robe and headed out the back door to see what she could find on the farm. "Besides, a nice walk in the nude will do me good," she said.

She stepped outside, letting her body soak up the sun's warmth. It was a fine spring day that seemed to make her hornier. A few feet out the back door, she encountered two paths leading to and from the house. She opted to take the one that seemed to go the farthest away.

There was a lot of activity in the forest. Although she knew it would never happen, Nikki wished she could befriend some of the wild things she glimpsed as she walked. Particularly the large, powerful buck she saw from afar. The thought of his power as he slid his cock into her made her pussy burn. Naturally, Nikki sat down and fingered herself into a roaring orgasm.

Walking on a little farther, she came to the kennels. The Vet had told her about this. He kept several animals, especially circus that were too old or sick to perform, that needed special care in a small kennel. Looking around, she saw several dogs; but didn't care for any canine companionship after Enzo. There were also assorted cats, too small for her taste, and a toothless, sick, old male lion.

The size of the lion's prick excited her, but she didn't trust his claws. She stopped to finger her cunt when a movement in the pen farther down caught her eye. Moving on carefully, she came to the last cage. In it was a gorilla. Not only a gorilla but a gorilla who was jerking off. Nikki moved closer, watching the gorilla manipulate his massive member. She had heard that apes deprived of sexual partners did so. Something about the gorilla's cock attracted her. Nikki walked up to the sturdy metal facing the cage and peered closer.

She was startled when the gorilla began to move closer to her, but the cage was strong, with a face of iron held closed by a bar across the top. He was tame. Searching around, she found some peanuts the Vet kept around to treat the gorilla. She took a handful and lured the gorilla closer. The gorilla, never being one to pass up free food, came forward, motivated by curiosity as much as the prospect of food. He had never seen a human out of that strange thing they draped over their bodies. As he moved closer, he began to get a whiff of her pussy.

Nikki watched with growing amazement as his cock grew harder and thicker. She was overwhelmed. Never before had she been in contact with a creature, two-legged or four, that asserted itself so masterfully. The gorilla's power mesmerized her. She felt like bowing down and worshipping his prick.

The gorilla edged towards her, reaching out to grab the peanuts in her hand. As he cracked open the shells, Nikki stroked his cock lightly, hungrily, regarding its full ten inches. Out of pure instinct combined with lust, the gorilla, still totally absorbed in the peanuts, thrust his prick out until the tip cleared the cage bars. Nikki bent down and gently ran her tongue across the tip, tasting the pre-cum that had welled in the head.

The ape grunted his assent and thrust his huge member out even farther. Nikki licked down the shaft to the base of his cock, surprised at how human it was, yet how animal. Looking up, she saw that the gorilla had dropped the peanuts and was standing there glassy-eyed. Wrapping her lips around the head, she took the ape's cock in her mouth, surprised that she could manage its girth without dislocating her jaw.

The ape responded by moving his prick back and forth. Nikki reached down, cupped his swinging balls, and gently squeezed them, which drove the ape wild. He began to hump her mouth, moving deeper with each thrust until his prick was almost down her throat. As he stroked deeper and deeper, Nikki fingered her cunt, rubbing her clit madly as her cunt juice ran down her legs; each thrust brought her face closer to his fur-covered belly.

The gamey odor of his body excited her; as his pleasure grew, he rattled the bars of his cage. Nikki was surprised that she was not frightened in the least. She was absorbed in sucking his cock. The gorilla rammed his tool home, each thrust causing Nikki another surge of pleasure. She felt dominated by the ape like she was there as a slave pleasing her master. The gorilla picked up the pace, each stroke bringing him closer to orgasm. With a grunt of self-satisfaction, he released his load.

Nikki felt his balls jump in her hand as the hot, thick jizm exploded from his cock. It felt like a gallon had spurted out, splattered on the back of her mouth, and gushed down her throat. As his semen began to flow, Nikki felt weak, and an orgasm ripped through her. Sucking the last precious drop out, she slid her mouth back along the shaft of his rod, stopping to lick the cum off the tip.

Nikki savored the wild taste of his cum, much more so than she had Enzo's; or any man's. She tenderly kissed the end of his still-rigid cock. The gorilla snorted and wearily slunk to the back of his cage, resting against the wall; his dick standing straight up. It was clear that he was tired but not satisfied. Nikki reached the top of the cage and undid the bar that held the door shut. She edged her way in. The ape didn't stir, preferring to rest. Nikki moved slowly towards him. The gorilla looked up at her, wondering what she would do. Nikki reached down, stroking his gigantic cock.

Bracing herself against the walls of the cage, she swung her legs around, positioning her pussy over his cock. Slowly she lowered herself down, feeling a wave of lust flow through her as the head of his cock parted the outer lips of her cunt. Nikki slid down as far on his pole as she could, the ape responding with a grunt of satisfaction. The sheer size of his member amazed her. What surprised her even more was that she could take nearly all of it. Her pussy gripped his cock tightly, the position she was in adding to the pressure. The gorilla was amazed. He had seen plenty of humans but none like this.

Strangely, Nikki began to mull the situation over in her mind. Was what she was doing wrong? Somehow she couldn't see why. After all, weren't they living creatures like herself? She initially felt shame, but the idea that this kind of relationship was taboo excited her more. Nikki moved up and down on the ape's cock, each stroke causing it to probe deeper and deeper.

She had never felt pleasure like this. Her cunt juice flowed down her thighs, the odor of her juices mingling with the wild aroma of the gorilla's fur, the scent of their union intoxicating her as no wine could.

The gorilla was captivated by her actions. Her bouncing tits fascinated the ape. He reached up and laid his hand heavily on one, exploring her skin's soft, silky texture. Reaching between her legs, he explored the folds of skin around her pussy as it worked its way up and down his shaft. This unexpected caress sent a jolt of ecstasy through Nikki. Involuntarily arching her back, she lost control and began to cum like never before.

A deep low moan came out of her and rose steadily into a high pitch. Her pussy tightened on the ape's cock, causing him to cum, also. Hot, white semen flowed from his balls through his shaft, rebounding off her insides and flowing back down Nikki's thighs.

When it was over, Nikki felt completely fulfilled. The ape had crawled around into a corner and was sleeping. Quietly she staggered toward the cage door and left, her pussy tingling but sore. As she wearily returned to the house, Nikki wondered what she would do now that she had experienced the ultimate fuck.

EPILOGUE

Nikki visited her simian friend again before she went home, enjoying herself even more. The ape learned quickly to let her do the work, sit back, and enjoy. She tearfully wondered if she would ever see the ape again.

As luck would have it, the old Vet's wife died soon after that. It wasn't long before he was under Nikki's spell. She married him, hoping that she would be able to visit her animal lovers periodically. Much to her delight, his sex drive was almost nonexistent, leaving her relatively free from sexual demands.

Nikki found many opportunities for a good fuck in the kennels.

Eventually, he caught her. Mortally afraid of what he would do, Nikki was surprised to find out that the sight of her fucking the animals aroused him, and not being disposed to satisfy Nikki physically, he was content to beat his meat while she humped any of the animals. He even encouraged her to branch out, supplying her with different animals.

Nikki was thrilled. With his approval and encouragement, she set out on an odyssey of animal sex. Nikki overcame her fear and eventually sucked off the old lion in the pens. But she didn't just stop there. She tried other species of apes, dogs, pigs, bulls, rams, horses, and even a young elephant.

But she always remembered her ape, and with her husband watching, she regularly satisfied all three, finally fulfilling her lust for animal lovers.

The End
