BEASTIALITY STORIES

This is the story told to me by a lady friend whom I discovered enjoys having sex with her pet border collie.

Carol is the average looking woman who's not some raving beauty in any way, shape, or form.

Just a average woman who is about 5 foot 6 inches tall: With straight willowy hair that reddish blonde and more dirty blonde and reddish tint than red I guess.

She has small breast which are just good handfuls each with nipples that get that swollen and almost puffy look to them when aroused and they look as if fire is filling them when that way.

Even her mound of pubic hair that is above her vulva are the same blondish red and of more a sparse covering than a forest of thickness. She has those almost flat lips that are thin but slightly swollen and a nice pair of semi wrinkled lips protruding off her outer lips and the same sparse coverage of pubic hair over the outer lips as her mound has.

But what clearly stands out about her cunt is that she has along clearly visible upside down v to her clit that is a full part of those thin lips and when aroused it stands out like a little finger from inside it's cavern and when she's aroused as hell her outer lips swell into nice sized lips of red blooded awareness...

She and her husband had gotten a border collie named Shadow somehow and were taking care of him. And it was then that when I would come visit and be around her and shadow that I began to talk to her about women having their pets as lovers.

I came by several times to visit when her old man was working and being alone with just she and I and shadow that I really began to discuss the pleasures of it more openly with her.

She had told me of an experience that she and a girlfriend of hers had in their earlier years, which she told me only little this and that's about.

But her general thoughts were that yes she'd known and had experiences in petluv ... And the more I began to talk to her about it the more aroused and interested she became about it!

One day while visiting I was telling her how a man would have more women than he could handle at his door if he had a tongue like a dog. Which is one of my phrases I guess would be a better way to put it into the context it is.

Plus I kept asking her to go get him and let him lick that cunt of hers so I could watch him pleasure her with his tongue.

Of course she would make up an excuse for not doing it and said she couldn't do that in front of a man.

But the truth of the matter was I sure as hell had implanted in her mind the thoughts about letting him do it!

Another of my phrases came to me as I thought plant that seed in that mind and watch it grow.

I had moved out of that area and so our conversations often after that were over the phone...

Then one day I called and she was like I've got something to tell you and this is where the story both begins and is about...

Her old man had gone out of town on some business or some related thing to business on something of a training seminar being held by their company but at another location in another town where they also owned a factory there as well and there for several days.

Carol began telling me that the second night of his being gone, she was all alone and bored as hell and decided to have a few of her favorite drinks being, Jack and Cola.

Which indeed does get that girl horny and ready, so no doubt she was primed for action after she drank four or five of them.

She said she was sitting there then hornier than everything and her mind started thinking about my discussing about Shadow pleasuring her.

In her now horny lust filled state of mind, she got up and let him inside the house.

With some deep in her mind thought about having pleasure with him, but, also just for comfort of him being in the house...

She really had forgotten about him and was just enjoying listening to music and drinking her drinks.

Which by then had her aroused as hell, she got up and got undressed and went into their bedroom and lay on the bed and began to stroke herself and was fingering her cunt fast and furiously.

Suddenly, Bam! She felt Shadow push his snout up between her legs that were hanging off the bed and he began to lick the hell out of her fingers and lips and she said she went crazy and was squirming all over the bed and thrashing her long legs about so much she hit Shadow and he got the hell out of there whimpering from being hit.

At that point his tongue had not done anything but lick at her driving and working fingers and the sides of her lips but she said it drove her crazy!

So she stopped her finger action and sat up to make sure poor Shadow was not injured or hurt by her flying legs.

He was laying on the floor some ways away from her and was acting as if she'd just scolded him good about something he'd done wrong.

Which made her feel bad, because she hadn't done it to stop him but had gotten so damn wild that she accidentally hit him with her legs.

Got up and went to him and was making sure he was o.k ... Which he as fine just a bit bewildered from her doing that to him.

She pet him a few moments and was apologizing for kicking him and saying to him that it was to much to take when he began to lick at her fingers and raking his tongue over her cunt lips.

And from her describing his actions as she did. That it was as if he felt she'd punished him and he was doing all this trying to make up for what she had done to him.

She then had said that she felt so sorry about it that she had no idea that the next thing she said was indeed that, She had gone back to lay back on the bed and let him lick her if he wanted to!

It wasn't until she lay back on the bed with her legs off the end of it and spread wide open with her ass resting on the edge that she was aware that she was now offering herself to her damn pet for pleasure.

Before she could get her thoughts back in order he was up between her legs and sitting there, then stretched his neck out and again began to lick over her whole cunt area and she jerked wildly as hell as she felt his full tongue raking over from the very joining of her cunt and mound tight into her furthest reaches of her inner thigh joining and that drove her absolutely crazy with the feel of it.

She wanted so badly to stop this and her mind reeled in the thoughts of how could she let her dog do this?

Yet her feeling the absolute desire of it was driving her crazy, in which she couldn't help but squirm about and moan out in the feeling of pleasure his rough flat tongue was doing to her and when he raked it up and over her clit she said that she came right there and then!

Her mind was trying its best to want to stop this, her legs rose up and spread wide as she could get them and now her feet rested on the edge of the bed.

Before her mind could stop her body actions, she was shoving her ass at his licking tongue trying to get it ever more over her cunt lips, she began moaning aloud and each time his tongue would rake up and over her clit she'd jump and scream out from it!

Over and over he raked his long flat tongue over her lips to her clit. As she was in the throes of a complete and total orgasm.

Then she felt him starting and trying to drive the tip of his tongue and fold it through her lips parting them open, with the sides of his tongue filling them like like everything and feeling what was not filling her parted lips rake over the tops of them, that drove her even wilder as through them he licked then ended in lashing right over her now tortured with desire clit.

She was thrashing her ass up off the bed now squirming in wild wanton desire, as he was giving her the tonguing of her life...

Then felt the very tip of his tongue trying to seek out her now soaked opening, then all at once he drove his mighty tongue into her, she screamed out and bucked her ass about wildly and her legs thrashing about as the desire of it all was driving her wild with the desire and pleasure from it!

She could feel every bit of it trying to shove into her and open her out to take his furious driving tongue, and suddenly she felt it as it finally had shot into her going ever deeper and deeper with each stroke of his curled up rough tongue, as it folded out going inside her and raked the tip of it right then and there over her g spot, she said she bucked and and screamed out and about saw stars and fireworks that very moment...

While faster and faster he did it going as deep as he tongue would go and she coming down from her most powerful orgasm ever could now hear the sloppy slurping sounds his tongue was making as it shot into her depths no mans tongue had ever gone and brought out her juices in the folded lap of his tongue as she said she came over and over and over again one powerful orgasm after another in never ending session as he tongue pleased her!

Then when at last she was gaining more of her mental ability to know what was going on that she felt his tongue slowing it's might lashing into her cunt, then he stopped as she collapsed her upraised and thrusting ass onto the bed and her legs fell to the floor as she was so far gone from the orgasm of a lifetime and the spent energy of it all.

Having absolutely no idea how long she lay there in this condition and only realized once she was even able to raise up and look that she saw him laying on the floor between her collapsed feet and legs on the floor as she felt inside her that she'd been torturously licked and tongue fucked by her own dog!

She said her cunt lips were soaked with her juices and swollen and were all but throbbing from the lashing she'd gotten from his powerful and long tongue, her clit was swollen out and throbbing itself when he had licked his rough tongue over it wildly dance about as he had done that.

And as if time stood still and having no idea how long she'd laid there this way and to spent to even move and once fully recovered she got up only to realize her legs were like rubber and she shakily moved into a sitting position on the bed and saw that her juices were covering his entire snout as he would rake his huge tongue over them as if savoring the taste of her woman juices!

She tried to get up but her legs came out from under her and she fell right back onto the bed this time her body laying over it half on her belly and half off the bed as she just tried her best to push herself further but to give out to move any further and she just lay that way for several moments to catch her breath and get herself back together.

That was all it took as he saw her laying now on her belly with her ass pushed off the bed, her legs spread open in their limp state of being so out of energy to move a muscle, suddenly she felt him rise up between her legs, then suddenly she felt his body come crashing down onto her hips, he grasped them firmly and slid his front legs around them and pulled her back towards him, while he was moving his lower body closer, and closer, with his hind legs until she felt his furry sides touching her inner thighs and forcing them out, as he was pushing himself ever further between them.

Then suddenly she felt a red hot pointy things hitting her inner thighs wildly and dancing about as he was trying his damndest to get his hot cock in her!

While she was trying her best to move and get up but her body was so wasted from the energy and after affects of the huge multiple orgasms she'd had from his tongue and all she could do was thrash her head about and scream out; "Nooooo sssshadddowwww Noooo"

But he cared little of her crying out as he was thrusting his hind legs fervently now to find her entrance, and then she felt his red hot pointy cock hit her lips, then shot up through her ass cheeks making her scream out as she feared he was going to stab into her ass!

And then she sighed a moment of relief as it slide back through them and across her wet and still swollen cunt lips, and then she felt the very hot tip of it seek through her lips and then insert itself into her very opening the fiery heat made her throw her head up and screamed; "Nooooo ssshhadowww, Nnnnooo"

But all she felt was that red hot tip enter into her, she wanted to scream out from the heat of it but her mind so full of the very thought that she was going to get fucked by him had her mind in full thought of trying to stop this and then suddenly she felt his hips thrust at her as her entire cunt was being stuffed full with the hottest cock she'd ever had in her life!

Deeper and deeper it went filling her with such burning heat of his red hot cock as she felt the tip of it bouncing and stretching her walls out and driving ever deeper and deeper until she felt it lodge at the very back of her cunt, she shook all over and screamed out as she felt the fiery red hot tip hit bottom.

And suddenly he was thrusting back and forth into her, and out of her, driving that red hot tip against the very back of her cunt making her scream out from the heat of it and the way it seemed to be trying to burst through bottom and render her asunder inside, she was trying her best to move her ass about to relieve the hot torturous pain she felt it nudging and trying to gain entrance into something she'd never felt before. Right into her cervix!

She was trying her best to move and stop it but she couldn't move a muscle and all her ass did was dance about in trying to stop him but all she did was help out to further his fire hot cocks entrance.

Then she said she felt something that was like a hot needle trying to stab through the material of her bottom wall, then it lodged into something at the very depths of her and began to work like crazy into it as he was thrusting and bouncing her back and forth with his powerful thrusting.

Clasping her waist ever tighter with his front legs and she said suddenly all she remembered was she flung her head up and screamed from the agonizing hot torture of her deep insides, that hot as hell needle like tip was doing things she could not even describe.

Then she felt the burning tip of his cock go deeper into her and then she felt his entire cock begin to swell and throb inside her pussy, and it felt like it was on fire from the heat of his swollen throbbing cock, as something swelled out just inside her pussy throbbing against something she had never felt before in her life, making her scream and cry out from the humility of it, yet in the terrible pain and pleasure as well.

And she remembered just before she lost every sense of life and anything going on she felt as if some super powerful orgasm was happening and then she just went totally blank!

My damn dog made me orgasm she told me over the phone, going on to say it again, my damn dog made me orgasm!

She had no idea how long she'd been so out of it but when her mind came around and was fogged with getting any sort of her senses back she was feeling as if her belly were being filled with some red hot fluid, that seemed to be jetting into her, and filling her ever more, and more with it, she felt something now throbbing and stretching her cunt like she'd never been stretched in her life, rubbing her g spot like hell as she tried to scream out but only seemed to manage to go yet again into orgasm land.

How long she was out of it she couldn't tell me but when she finally got her senses back, Shadow was laying over her back his head laying down onto it, as she could still feel him shooting his hot come inside her and making her belly swell even more from it, the huge thing lodged just inside her cunt was still throbbing from hell and back and rubbing her g spot like everything!

While she didn't loose all her marbles this time she said she was cuming like she'd never cum before ... And so strong and rocking through her body were they that she was shaking like a leaf in the wind from it all and all the while she could feel something like this red hot bony thing all bumpy and stuck through something at the very back of her cunt and she was still being filled out with his shooting cum though no as fast as she'd first felt it but squirts of it were churning inside where she'd never had anything before and pressuring her up to hell and back with it...

Then at last she felt the swollen and throbbing part of what was just inside her cunt start to go down, shadow was moving a bit which drove her even crazier as it rubbed her g spot from hell and back doing that and she came even harder and longer and then suddenly she felt his entire cock shoot out of her and she said it was as if a cannon of his cum seemed to come out of the part of her belly that was so pressured up and filled.

She gasped out at the relief of that and felt all the red hot liquid shooting through her opened pussy, as she fell flat onto the bed and he dislodged, and dismounted, while she fell into some world of uncaring fog!

When at last she came to and was able to move a muscle one and slid off the bed onto the floor with her legs and was slumped against the end of it with her body as she felt wave after wave of hot liquid shoot through her cunt and spill out down her thighs and onto the floor.

It took her some time to gain even enough energy to try and stand, then when she did she said it felt like her whole abdomen was out of place and she felt as if she had this cavernous opening inside her.

Finally she got enough strength to crawl into the bathroom and get a tub of hot water ran, then she slithered over into it and let it relax all her spent leg and belly muscles as she was finally able to at last look between her legs.

Her pussy was gaped wide open, and swollen out like as if she'd been stung by something there and she could feel the hot water sloshing through her open cunt and back out as she moved!

She did say that she tried her best to wash his cum from her cunt but that even after doing that when she was finally able to get out of the tub and getting around the house her belly hurting and slightly swollen, that every once in a while she'd feel some tinge of heat needling it way out deep inside her and then cum would rush through her, and she had to get a pad and wear it all that night and the next day when then she'd called me and told me about her and shadows affair.

Yes she was hooked on it from then on...

And while I truly never got to first handed see it she had once in a while called me and let me listen on her speaker phone while she got pleased from him.!

Well I hope you liked my story and I hope I have told it in a way that speaking from third person and someone's story to me that I have done it justice and glory.

This is actually my first ever story in which I have told it from a story someone else has relayed to me.

So sort of strange in that fact to me writing it all to you all.

The End
