BEASTIALITY STORIES

Emma was new to the small town of Nelson, she just moved there a couple months ago to live with her step mother and step Sister Lisa. Being a small country town with a population of only four thousand people most of the residence were elderly people and farmers that regularly visited the town for supplies.

Most of the time especially after dark the town was almost empty of people apart from people at the local pubs and bars which closed around eleven o'clock and the odd kids hanging around looking for something to do or to drink.

Most of the time Emma found it boring where she moved to and tended to try and spend time with Lisa to stop herself getting to bored, Lisa on the other hand spent a lot of her time with her friend Taylor and her friends in their clubhouse which was the old chicken coop on Taylor's dad's farm just on the edge of the town limits.

Taylor's dad's farm was a mixture of crops and all sorts of animals, everything from horses, sheep, goats, chickens and dogs.

Taylor and Lisa had cleaned out the coop and put a table chairs. Fridge, sofa and a single bed in the clubhouse and Taylor's dad boarded up the coop walls for her for some privacy while she had her friends over for camp outs.

"Come on Lisa I want to hang out with your friends in your clubhouse and be part of your club, please let me join its so boring in this town I need to meet people and find something to do" Emma pleaded as she had done so many times before but to no avail as Lisa and her friends didn't really know her to well and thought she was a little stuck up and posh for their liking only this time was a little different because they were getting a little sick of her asking all the time and were bored themselves so they discussed a plan between themselves and thought up a plan to initiate her into their club and bring her down a notch or two with a little humiliation and entertainment.

"Ok Emma we discussed this situation and decided to give you a chance to join our club but there is a initiation and rules for you as you will be only a pledge in our club until we decide you will be a full member but you have to pass our initiation game first and only then will you make it to a pledge."

"What's the difference between a pledge and a member?" Emma asked looking puzzled, "a pledge has to earn her place in the club by doing anything a member asks of you, it's like being a slave to us earning points if you do as you are told and losing points if you don't, you have to get 200 points to be a full member and if you don't do as you are told you get a forfeit but we will discuss that when or if you pass your initiation."

"We are having a sleepover at Taylor's place for the weekend starting tomorrow so if you want to join then tell me now so we can organize the initiation game and your welcome to come over and we can organize the initiation but if you do want to join then there will be no backing out or we will punish you really bad for wasting our time" said Lisa. Emma thought for a moment but the desperation of being lonely was too much and said yes I'm in."

The next morning Emma and Lisa were up early with a small bag each packed with their clothes for the weekend sleepover and having breakfast at the kitchen table. "Are you girls looking forward to your sleepover Lisa? It's about time you made friends here" Lisa's mother said as she picked up their two bags and started to move towards the back door to put them in the car.

Emma was quiet and didn't say much thinking of her initiation later that day but with a cheeky smile on her face Lisa replied to her mother “we will have fun this weekend and don’t worry me and my friends will make sure Emma has an extra good time with us.”

After breakfast Lisa’s mother dropped them off at Taylor’s house and drove off back home leaving Lisa and Emma to walk down the old path leading to the clubhouse about six hundred meters away from the house. Emma observed that the clubhouse was quite big when she got up close to it and noticed it was positioned behind some old overgrown bushes hiding it from being seen from the house.

The club members consisted of four girls Lisa, Taylor, and Lisa’s two cousins that were twins and almost identical in looks apart from one had blond hair and one had blond hair with some blue highlights through it.

‘Come in girls now the whole club is here we can get started.’ Taylor said as they all sat down on the sofa and chairs leaving Emma to sit on a chair in the middle of the room facing the other girls.

Emma looked around the clubhouse noticing on the table was a pile of sealed white envelopes and beside them was another pile of red sealed envelopes.

“Emma” Lisa said “You already know Taylor and this is Taylor’s Cousins Kim and Tammy, now because you are here you have accepted the initiation and there’s no backing out now because we have discussed a punishment for you if you don’t go through with it.” Emma thought for a few seconds and replied in a soft voice “what will be my punishment?” Taylor looked at the other girls and then back to Emma and replied “ we will be stripping you naked, keeping your clothes and locking you out of the clubhouse to make your way home naked and we will be doing it just on daybreak.” This made Emma a little worried she may not be able to do whatever activities they had planned for her and the thought of her going home naked in daylight would be too much to bare so trying to put on a brave face she said to the other girls “I will do my best and go through with the initiation.”

“On the table over there you might have noticed a pile of red and white envelopes, the white envelopes have tasks in them and the red envelopes have what you will wear for the task in them, you are to choose a task first and then choose what to wear next, you will keep choosing and doing tasks until we think it’s time to play another of our initiation games.”

Lisa walked to the table and with some hesitation picked up a white envelope then a red one handing them to Taylor to open as she was too nervous to do the first ones herself. Opening both envelopes and reading out the white one aloud “run around the clubhouse five times then come back inside.” That didn’t sound too hard it’s hidden from the house view Emma thought but she still was worried about what she had to wear doing it. Taylor smiled and said to her “you’re lucky girl you have to do it wearing everything except your shirt but we will still see you doing it in your bra so that’s a little embarrassing for you.

” Emma thought this one was easy and she couldn’t believe her luck for her first task and hoping all the tasks would be this easy. So without hesitation and hoping to impress the other girls she placed a hand under each side of her shirt and lifted it over her head and off revealing her little white bra with a tiny blue bow stitched to the middle of it between the cups.

The sight of this amused the girls and they gave a small cheer and whistle embarrassing Emma a little and making her cheeks go a darker shade of red.

To get this over with she immediately ran outside and around the clubhouse three times, on the fourth time around I could see Tammy looking out the door taking a photo with her camera at my shirtless body then disappearing back into the clubhouse leaving me to do my other two laps and back in to finish.

Emma dismissed the photo taking as some small amusement as part of my initiation as she put back on her shirt to the others disappointment. "Well done Emma" Taylor said pouring her a glass of wine from the bottle she got out of the fridge. She had stolen six bottles of wine from her father's wine cellar earlier that day stocking her fridge for the weekend's fun. "Won't he miss them?" Emma asked. "No he knows I sometimes steal wine and he pretends he doesn't know but he actually does, he lets me and my cousins get away with anything as long as we help him out if he tells us he wants us to do something."

"What do you mean by that?" Emma asked looking a little puzzled. "Don't worry about that now I will explain later if the subject comes up." Taylor said as she topped up her glass making her a little tipsy. Once Emma finished her drink Tammy suggested Emma opened another two envelopes putting her arm on her back guiding her over to the table.

Once Emma had been guided back to the table to choose another envelope but this time she wasn't as nervous about choosing next, maybe it was just the thought of knowing she was fitting in with the rest of the group even though it was at her humiliation or maybe it was the affects of the alcohol that they were offering her constantly topping up her glass whenever possible to get tipsy and vulnerable for their plans and leaving her quite drunk and starting to slur her words to the others delight and amusement.

Tammy sat Emma down in a chair handing her a piece of paper with a short song written on it and then telling Emma to memorize the words on it. After five minutes she took the piece of paper back off Emma and proceeded to blindfold her telling her for this part of the initiation she must sing the song she memorized word for word to the others. Emma knew the song was made up to embarrass her but figured it was all in the fun of it and started to sing the song to everyone's delight.

"My names Emma and I'm a fool."

"My tits are small just a handful."

"I love big things up my bum."

"I like it filled with lots of boys cum."

"I like to lick girl's cunts all day."

"I'm a slut for anything that you say."

All the girls applauded Emma's good singing and made her repeat the song another three times. This was mainly for a distraction while Taylor removed the white cards from the table and replaced them with new cards with better tasks in them and then replaced the pile of red envelopes with new ones all containing exactly the same dress code.

Once Emma finished with her singing task she was made to stand up, handed quarter bottle of wine and told she had to drink it in one minute. As Emma tried her best to finish the bottle in one minute she felt a little wobbly on her feet but finished the bottle in time. Knowing she was well and truly drunk and ready to entertain them Taylor then removed the blindfold and guided her back to the table and made her pick a red envelope.

Once opening the red envelope she had to look twice at the paper to see if she had read it wrong the first time but it was still the same. "Come on Emma read it out for us" they all cheered as Emma read out load her dress code. "You must lose all of your clothes and remain naked until all members of the club agree you can wear clothes again."

Emma didn't really want to spend time naked but decided to play along and let them have some fun. "Come on Emma strip or we will strip you ourselves" they all said to her as she used her feet to slip off her shoes then removed her socks. At this point Emma was so intoxicated she didn't really care too much about what she was doing in front of the other girls.

Next she pulled the waist string on her shorts and letting them drop to the floor leaving her panties just covered by her shirt. "Keep it coming off they cheered egging Emma on giving her a new confidence in her task. Lifting her shirt over her head and off gave everyone a good look at her only dressed in her bra and panties, next she reached her hands behind her back and unclipped the hook on her bra and threw it at the small group of girls giving Taylor the opportunity to catch it and put it into her handbag as if it was some kind of trophy and revealing Emma's small breasts for everyone to see.

"More, more, more" they cheered as her panties met the same fate as her bra and went into Taylor's handbag. Once naked Emma moved her hands through the pile of white envelopes to mix them up a little and then selected one to read out. She opened the envelope and read her task out.

"Get tied over a hay bail in barn and let teach of the others fuck you anyway they like with whatever they like." Before Emma could fully take in what she read they each grabbed a arm and leg of her naked body and carried her to the barn to where they had already set up ropes and a hay bail for her, they pushed her down on her knees in front of the bail and made her rest her stomach on the hay bail face down. Next they wrapped a rope around her upper legs and tied a knot in it to hold her in place.

Once they were finished doing that they placed some ropes around her ankles and wrists and tied her down so there was not much movement. Taylor knelled in front of her then with a grin on her face reached into her handbag and pulled out a roll of tape and her panties stuffing them into her mouth and then taping her mouth to hold them in and stop her from making too much noise.

Once the girls were satisfied their prize was securely tied over the hay bale each girl took their turn pushing their fingers deep in and out of Emma's pussy and ass hole and groping her soft round ass until they could hear her faint muffled moans through her panties gag.

"I know what I can fuck her with." Tammy said to Kim "I'm going home to get rex our Kelpie dog he's always got his dick poking out." "Ok but hurry back" Kim said as Tammy hurried out of the barn to get her bike and disappeared.

"What can we do with her until Tammy gets back?" said Taylor. "I know let's play some games with her" Lisa said as she looked around the barn and found a five foot broom handle and proceeded to notch a series of lines one centimeter apart up the broom handle with a pocket knife she had in her pocket.

"Ok here is what's going to happen, I marked this handle with notches and now we are going to play a guessing game where you two try and guess how many centimeters I can push this broom handle up Emma's ass until I think she can't take it anymore and the winner who guessed it or got the closest guess to Cain her ass cheeks with the broom handle that many times as hard as you like."

Kim and Lisa thought about the game and how far a broom handle could go up someone's ass.

Never having seen something like this before they both agreed to play the game then moving over to Emma's face Taylor asked Emma if she wanted to participate in the game. With her mouth plugged up with her panties Emma could only make muffled sounds come out of her gag and go red with frustration and embarrassment.

"I think she said yes she wants to play lots of different games because she's a dirty slut and needs to be used."

"I pick eleven centimeters." Said Lisa and I pick 16 centimeters Kim said as she rummaged through a Taylors handbag pulling out a tube of K-Y jelly and proceeded to lubricate the broom handle and then putting some on her finger she slipped her finger into Emma's ass hole as far as she could and out again until she was satisfied her asshole was ready for the broom handle then Taylor placed the handle against the Emma's asshole and pushed it into the opening of her ass past the first notch as they both counted each notch.

"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen.)

"That's it I think, Emma's squirming and I can see a couple of tears running down her cheek so it looks like you're the winner Kim "said Taylor as she removed the fifteen centimeters of room from her ass and handed the now slightly brown stick to Kim for the fifteen canes on her ass cheeks.

Emma tried to move but the only thing she could move was her bum slightly wiggling it side to side. "Hold still Emma and let Kim cane you and it will be all over fairly quickly."

Lisa lifted the broom handle and brought it down onto Emma's ass making a smacking noise and making Emma jolt her ass forward a couple of centimeters but stopping when her waist hit the hay bale leaving a red mark on her ass cheek and then repeating the action another fourteen times.

A few minutes later Tammy returned with Rex and was intrigued with the state of Emma's red ass cheeks.

"Wow what did I miss; you could have waited until I got back before caning her.) Tammy said as she lead the dog over to Emma. "I missed that part of it but I'm not missing this entertainment. Tammy unclipped Rex's leashes letting him circle Emma's helpless body sniffing and licking her and eventually finding her wet pussy. His cold nose on her pussy made her squirm a little catching her by surprise.

As this was happening Taylor had left the barn for a few seconds returning with her backpack then undoing the flap on it and producing a video camera to record the fun Emma was having for blackmail purposes to ensure Emma was compliant in the future with anything they wanted of her. By this time Rex had found Emma's wet pussy with his rough tongue and was licking the juices from Emma's humiliated body.

"Look at his cock it's just poking in and out of his stealth" Kim said pointing under his belly getting all the girls fascinated and moving closer to watch it come in and out. By now Taylor was filming the events getting a close up video of Rex's cock.

"It looks like Rex is interested, I bet he's never had a human bitch before, gee it's not getting very big though its only out about two inches sticking out." Lisa said to everyone. Just then Tammy had one of her brilliant ideas she gets from time to time as she walked around to Emma's face and said "Seeing Emma's new boyfriend needs some help getting an erection I only think its fair Emma helps him out." With those words Tammy peeled off the tape from her mouth and pulled Emma's panties out of her mouth.

With this action the others caught on what Tammy had planned and grabbing Rex by his collar pulled him to the front of Emma and then Lisa and Kim held one of Rex's front legs each and Tammy holding him from behind lifted Rex up to Emma's mouth stopping only two inches away so Emma could have a good look at Rex's pulsating cock moving in and out of her. The look on Emma's face was priceless as Taylor filmed everything that was going on.

“PLEASE NO, I don’t want to have a dogs cock in my mouth it looks disgusting” pleaded Emma but the others were getting excited about getting the chance to see a girl suck a dogs cock for the first time after all this opportunity only happens once or twice in a lifetime and they only had ever seen this sort of thing online before so poor Emma had no sympathy for from the others.

As Taylor zoomed in on Emma’s face with the video camera Kim placed her fingers on Rexes shief then lightly peeling back the skin a couple of inches revealing four inches of red cock, then Rex was pushed forward sliding his cock into Emma’s mouth past her soft red lips before she could get a chance to close her mouth. “Stop trying to gag on it Emma it’s going to happen whether you want it or not so I sagest you calm down relax and start sucking him and the sooner you do that the sooner it will be over” Lisa told her.

Emma was in a situation where she was over her embarrassment and had no choice so she decided to take the advice and tried to compose herself and closed her lips around his cock moving her head slowly back and forth down Rexes cock trying not to think about what she was doing and wanting it to stop at the same time. This went on for about two minutes Emma’s mouth started to fill with his warm cum making Emma stop moving her head and screw her face as Rex was put back down on the floor leaving Emma wanting to spit out the dogs cum but Lisa’s hand blocked Emma’s mouth forcing her to ether keep the slimy cum in her mouth or swallow so she quickly make the decision to swallow and get rid of it as soon as possible.

Well done Emma you made a good little dog sucker and we have it on film to watch later on if we want to, now we’ve had some fun tonight and I think you enjoyed yourself to so you’re in the club but as our slave as we are going to show the video of you online if you don’t do everything we tell you to no matter what activities we plan for you, do you think you want to do that and the answer better be yes” Taylor said. OK I agree even though I haven’t got a choice anymore.” She replied as they untied her and walked back to the clubhouse.

Once back to the clubhouse Emma spent most of her time naked and serving food and drinks to the others for the rest of the weekend not doing anything much else until everybody was about to leave for home when Taylor said to Emma “from now on if any of us give you a order at any time ether in a letter that we may secretly slip in your school bag or hide where you can find it or just a verbal order at any time we expect you to do it as soon as possible or you know the consequences.” Yes Miss Emma said as her and Lisa left the clubhouse and waited for their mother to pick them up.

It was Friday afternoon and two weeks had passed since the incident in the barn. Emma was still annoyed about what Lisa and her friends made her do in the barn so she had decided that she would not let the incident stick in her mind and tried to concentrate on other things like schoolwork and hobbies to occupy her mind. Most days after school were spent at the clubhouse mainly doing things like serve drinks and food as their slave, mostly topless as that seemed to be their preferred way to make me serve them. Emma and Lisa were in their room changing out of there school dresses into shorts and t-shirts as it was a warm day outside.

“What are your plans for the weekend Emma? “ I haven’t planned much just staying home watching TV seeing mum and dad are away for the entire weekend and were home alone.” she replied. “Do you know whose birthday it is tomorrow Emma?” “No” she replied whose birthday is it” she asked with a curious look on her face. “Its Kim and Tammy’s birthday and the girls have planned a picnic in the park for them tomorrow afternoon then a movie at the theater, the rest of the weekend we will probably just do whatever the birthday girls decide." Lisa replied.

"All of the club members will be celebrating their birthday at the picnic so your plans for the weekend just changed whether you like it or not or I'm sure you could be a internet star and we both know plenty of people that would like a link sent to them after we upload it for the world to see, imagine people that know you seeing you tied up over a hay stack satisfying your boyfriend." A sigh came from Lisa, "Don't remind me, I know and I will be there."

"The girls have requested that I pick out your clothes for the picnic and given me instructions on what to pick out for you" Lisa said as she put her school uniform away and started to rummage through Emma's draws taking out some white cotton socks with a small band of lace at the socks then placing them on Emma's bedside table. "These are a good start now let's see what else I can find you to wear tomorrow. "I think it's going to be fairly warm over the weekend so let's see what dresses you have."

Lisa found two of Emma's cotton dresses and held both of them up to the window to see what one was more transparent. One of her dresses was dark blue and not very transparent in the light so Lisa discarded it by dropping it on the bedroom floor and looked at the other dress which was a light blue dress and with the sun in the right place she thought it would show a faint outline of her body through it.

Placing the dress with the socks Lisa kept looking through Emma's draws until she found her under wear draw. "I don't like your panties, there all so plain and dull so the girls have got you a special pair of panties to wear to the picnic tomorrow." Reaching into her schoolbag Lisa took out a small pair of panties that looked like they were kid's panties. "These are curious of Taylor and you can personally thank her for them tomorrow, she stole them from her younger sisters clothes basket so if you have a good look you will see some brown dried skid marks on them and by she looks of it she got a little exited at some stage because there's some marks where her pussy sits as well."

Emma sat on her bed with a disgusted and humiliated look on her face. "You're not actually going to make me wear a pair of someone else's dirty panties are you? Especially some kids panties?" The panties were about a size too small for Emma but with some effort she would be able to put them on. The panties were pink with three little white bows on them, one in front on the top of the waist band and the other two were on each side of the waist band but to make things worse they had a picture of my kitty on the back of them taking up most of the back. "That's your clothes picked out for tomorrow and you properly realized by now you haven't got a bra to wear, OH and one more thing you have been instructed to be clean shaven from your neck down when you get to the picnic so off you go the bathroom, find some of dads razors and cream and say goodbye to your pubes."

Emma hesitated a little before slowly standing up, bowing her head and headed off to the bathroom as the thought of what would happen if she didn't greatly outweighed her emotions and being a slave to them was starting to have an effect on her making her wet from time to time so doing things to entertain them she could live with. About twenty minutes later Emma returned to her bedroom without any panties or shorts on just a t-shirt only just covering her freshly shaven pussy then lifting up the t-shirt a couple of inches to show Lisa she had done as she was told and shaved. "Good now before you get dressed tomorrow I want you to shave again so you are nice and smooth down there and for now I have decided seeing mum and dad are gone, for the rest of the day you can stay as you are now let's go down stairs and you can make me something to eat and later you can entertain me while I'm watching TV until bed then you can sleep that way as well.

The next morning Lisa woke up to find Emma had already showered and shaved standing next to her bed dressed in the clothing that had been put out for her the night before waiting for Lisa to wake up. "Good morning Lisa I shaved and are dressed so let's get this day over with as soon as possible, do you want to inspect me?" Lisa rubbed her eyes and said "yes please that would be nice to wake up to." Emma with one hand lifted her cotton dress above her panties and with the other pulled down the front of her panties past her showing a smooth hairless pussy. "Very nice Lisa said as she took the opportunity to move her head over to her pussy planting several long kisses on her. What time do we have to be at the picnic? Emma asked. "We will meet at everyone there at nine o'clock so by the time I shower and you get the present from under my bed I bought for us to give to Kim and Tammy we can head off."

The walk from the house to the park took about half an hour and in Emma's little panties it made the walk very uncomfortable making her panties ride up into her slit and ass crack making her fidget as she walked. The park was almost deserted as they walked through it down one of many paths towards one of the gazebos in the middle of the park passing an old couple and a couple of teens making out on a bench.

The gazebo was one of many in the park but this one was close to trees and thick bushes covering the view from the rest of the park. All the others were already in the gazebo and had set up a picnic spread on the table with a big birthday cake with happy birthday written on it and in the middle of the cake was a big white candle about seven inches long and about one inch thick. "Look whose here its Lisa and our slave Emma" Kim said as she looked Emma up and down admiring her nice dress.

"Happy birthday you two" Lisa said as she handed Tammy the present and waited until she was about to unwrap the paper around it. "This present is from me and Emma I hope you two like what we got you, oh and Emma has a another present in there as well she wanted you to have." Emma looked at Lisa with a confused look and started to wonder what Lisa had done as she never had anything to do with the present it was all Lisa's' idea.

Tammy unwrapped the paper and opened the box to see what was inside then pulling out two beautiful necklaces each with Tammy and Kim's name engraved on them. "Oh thank you both they are beautiful" Kim said as they both put them on so the other girls could see what they looked like. A sigh of relief came from Emma thinking she had worried too much about what was in the present but her relief quickly came to a dramatic end when Lisa said "There's more girls, Emma made you up a special card each for you to make sure your birthday presents were extra special for you this year."

Tammy looked back into the box and found two cards in it, one with Tammy on it and the other with Kim on it. Tammy handed Kim's card to her and they both opened the cards at the same time and looked at them giggling. "Thank you so much Emma this the best birthday present we have ever had" they both said together. "What does it say" the others asked as they moved closer to them to hear. Tammy read out what was on the card and all Emma could do was listen and hope Lisa hadn't done something Emma might regret having to do against her will.

Tammy starts to read "THE HOLDER OF THIS GIFT CARD IS ENTITLED TO WATCH MYSELF (EMMA) SUCK ON THE COCK OF ONE ANIMAL OF THEIR CHOICE AND DRINK ITS CUM AT ANY PLACE OR TIME OF THEIR CHOOSING, THIS CARD IS VALID FOR ONE FULL YEAR FROM TODAY'S DATE."

Poor Emma's face went red as the girls gave Emma a cheer and a hip, hip, hurray for her generous birthday present.

Emma thought to herself that she had done it once even though she was forced to, if she had to it with another dog it wouldn't be as bad the second and third time and maybe they will forget about the cards having it valid for a full year.

The picnic went well and the food and drinks were almost gone and the picnic was almost over when Taylor and Kim disappeared into the bushes with a little bag to a small grassed clearing about eight foot by ten foot surrounded by thick bushes just a couple of feet from a popular walking path. "Where are they disappearing to?" Asked Emma in a curious voice. "There just setting up one of Tammy and Kim's birthday surprises." Emma could hear banging like someone was hammering something and wondered what the surprise was. It was getting late and the sun would be going down in about a half hour. It was seven thirty in the afternoon and the park started to get the occasional person walking through it on their way home from work or walking their dogs using the many park paths before it got to dark to see.

"Ok Emma you can help out with the last of Kim and Tammy's last present of the day" Taylor said as she and Kim returned to the group and waited for the odd person walking past to disappear out of site around the corner. "Now Emma no one is walking past on the path so I want you to lift up your dress up to your chin so the birthday girls can see your pretty panties." Emma was past being embarrassed about the requests given over the past two weeks and decided it was in her best interest to just comply and get it over with. Looking around to see the coast was clear from strangers walking past Emma closed her eyes and lifted her dress up to her chin exposing her dress and her little kids panties.

"Now slowly turn around in a full circle please, we want to see the hello kitty on your bum" Emma complied showing off the back of her panties hoping nobody walked down the path then dropped the dress back down again. "You look so uncomfortable in those so why don't you take them off for us." Taylor said as Emma complied relieved she didn't have to wear the tight panties anymore and gave them to Taylor to give back to her little sister.

"Now Emma put your hands behind your back for me" said Taylor as she tied her hands behind her back with a short piece of rope "Lets go" Kim said as Taylor and Kim held each arm and walked Emma through the bushes to the clearing with the others following then making a circle around Emma.

"It's nice and quiet here and if you don't make any noise no one can hear you from the path just a few feet from the clearing" Kim said. Emma could hear people in the distance and hoped no one would come down this track even though the clearing was fully hidden with a Two foot barrier of bushes between the path and clearing. She looked at the grass and realized what Taylor and Kim were doing earlier with the banging and hammering.

They had hammered four wooden stakes into the grass and now they told Emma to lay down in the middle of the stakes and they proceeded to tie her spread eagle to the stakes with ropes that were sitting next to each stake. At least I'm dressed Emma thought, so let them have their fun. Now the ropes were fastened they took delight in pulling the ropes just that little bit further stretching Emma's arms and legs.

Kim looked over Emma's spread eagle body and saying to her "It will be dark in about fifteen minutes but there's a nice street light shining over the bushes that will light up this entire clearing and I know people often walk through the park so I suggest you keep quiet and no one will explore off the path to investigate, were going to the movies so we will be back in two hours to untie you."

One more thing we need to do" she said pulling out a pair of scissors from her bag and cutting off Emma's dress into strips and using one strip to blindfold her. "See you in two hours" they said as they took what was left of Emma's dress and threw it in a bin on their way to the movies.

Emma lay there helpless hearing the odd voice as people walked past not realizing she was helpless there until the girls returned two hours later to untie her then with the final embarrassment Emma was made to walk home completely naked.

A couple of months had passed since the picnic incident and Emma was shared around constantly by the girls in the club and settled down into a routine of slavery, humiliation and sexual pleasuring. For Emma this was now something she began to get use to and began to feel pleasure and sometimes even excitement from some of her tasks as well as a desire to make her club members happy.

"Good morning slut" Lisa said as she awoke to her personal alarm clock which was Emma with her head between Lisa's legs and her tong embedded deep into her pussy. This was now a daily part of her routine to wake Lisa this way then continue until Lisa had a orgasm or Emma made her cum then she would have to use her mouth and tong to clean any mess up Lisa made. "Thank you Lisa for letting me service you" said Emma as this was another rule to thank club members for their tasks as well things like shaving any pubic hair off her pussy every day and a weekly group homework session in the clubhouse where they would all lay in a circle doing their homework with no panties on and Emma's job was to spend the full homework session licking their pussies and changing position every five minutes to a new girl.

RING, RING ,RING, RING Lisa's mobile phone rang as she reached over to her bedside table and picked it up and looked at the screen to see who it was. "Hi Tammy what's up?" Emma tried to listen to Lisa's side the conversation to try and work out why Tammy was calling this early in the morning.

"I think that's a great idea, she will look so pretty"

"You can get things like that at a second hand clothes shop."

"What time?"

"Do you need help setting up?"

"You better give him a wash"

"Ok we will meet at your house"

"Where have your mum and dad gone?"

"Ok see you then."

"That was Tammy, it's your special day today, we have seen how much you love Rex, and after all you must think he's special sucking his cock and all, he's going to be your groom and you his bride at your wedding this afternoon in Tammy and Kim's backyard.

Poor Emma didn't know what to say but by now she knew it was easier just to do as she's is told and not complain rather fight things because she never won and by now there was plenty of videos and pictures of her that would destroy her social life forever. She finally found her place in life and it was a submissive slave.

"What will I be wearing for my wedding?" Emma asked as it was the first thing she could think up to say.

Kim and Tammy are going to the secondhand clothing shop to see what they can find for a wedding dress and I'm going to do your hair and makeup now go shower so you are nice and clean for your big day and then I will do your make up. She complied and went to shower.

A few hours later Lisa and Emma walked down stairs through the kitchen where their parents were sitting at the kitchen table towards the back door so they could get their bikes out of the garage for their ride to Kim and Tammy's house. "Wow you look pretty Emma it's good to see you playing with makeup and I see you have done your hair as well." They both said as Emma thanked them for their comments as they walked through the back door and into the garage.

Arriving at Tammy and Kim's house they went through the back gate into the yard and looked around to see how well they had decorated the yard. The trees were covered in white ribbons and the gazebo in the middle of the yard was decorated with pink, blue and white balloons. "Hi girls, you go up to my room Emma, Tammy and Taylor are up there with your dress." As Emma complied with her instructions and went upstairs to get ready Lisa helped Kim set up the rest of the backyard.

"Can I come in?" Emma asked as she knocked on the bedroom door. "Come in Emma and undress for us so we can get you into our wedding dress." Emma complied without hesitation then stood in front of Taylor and Tammy completely naked. Reaching her hand to Emma's bald pussy to check as she was freshly shaved Taylor said to her. "Good girl nice and smooth, you want to look your best for your big day."

While Taylor was putting some beautiful white flowers and small ribbons in Emma's hair Tammy put a white satin full length nightgown on her that stopped about three inches above her ankles and a pair of white satin stiletto heel shoes Tammy decorated by putting tying little white ribbons on the straps then she gave her a big bouquet of flowers. When she finished dressing Emma she headed to the backyard to let Lisa and Kim know she was ready.

"Will I have any panties or bra for my big day?" Emma asked as she looked in the mirror thinking she actually looked quite pretty all dressed up. "No underwear today, Taylor said as she headed down stairs escorting Emma to the backyard. As Emma, and Tammy stood at the back door looking into the backyard waiting for the word to escort Emma down the aisle Emma could see Kim standing in the gazebo with a book in her hand like a wedding celebrant and sitting in front of her was Rex on a leash being held by Lisa. Lisa reached over to the small table beside her and pressed play on the CD player playing Puppy Love by Donny Osmond.

Tammy took Emma by the arm and they both walked slowly down the aisle until she reached Rex and let her arm go. Once Emma was in place next to her husband to be Kim started the ceremony.

"Friends and Family of the BRIDE and GROOM thank you for being here on this important day. "

"We are gathered together to celebrate the very special love between BRIDE and GROOM, by joining them in marriage."

"And the highest form of love between two people is within a committed relationship."

"Marriage is going to, define you as a couple, and deepen your love for one another."

"Do you Emma take Rex the dog to be your lawfully wedded husband to love and obey, to perform your marital and sexual duties as a wife at least once a day by the means of oral and fucking? "I do" replied Emma looking down at Rex thinking how I get myself into something like this. I now pronounce you wife and dog, you may kiss the groom.

Emma looked around at the girls then dropped to her knees and kissed Rex on his nose to the congratulations and applause of the others. Then standing back up she threw her bouquet over her shoulder towards the girls getting caught by Tammy.

Lisa and Kim went to the garage while Emma posed for some wedding photos with Rex and bought an old mattress and put it in the middle of the gazebo and called Emma over. "now the marriage is all done its your honeymoon and you to are having it in the gazebo so we can all watch and make a video of it so you have some memories of your honeymoon.” Emma took Rexes lead and moved to the mattress and the others sat down to watch. Emma paused for a few seconds to compose herself in front of her audience then lifted her wedding dress up and over her head and dropped it on the floor leaving her completely naked apart from her shoes.

Rex seemed to remember the incident in the barn and rolled over onto his back for her giving Emma a good view of his sheath as Emma keeled down next to her new husband and gently started to rub him until she could see his cock poke its end out of his sheath then with two fingers holding the top of his sheath rolled it down and brought her lips down on it consuming as much as she could and lifting her head back up again as if she was on a mission to do well for the girls entertainment. For about ten minutes she sucked, taking in a two loads of cum swallowing most of it and letting some run from the side of her mouth leaving a trail down her neck.

Now Rex was exited Emma changed position getting on all fours giving Rex access to her pussy. It didn't take long for Rex to mount her thrusting his underbelly against her ass cheeks causing her to orgasm several times and spit some of her cum out of her pussy several times to the delight of the girls.
