BEASTIALITY STORIES

(c) 2023 by Mr. Mismatch

As we know, Max now owned Luna, and they were scheduled to mate in front of the master every day for his entertainment. Two days after Max claimed Luna as his fuck toy, Luna had lost her fight to be master's favorite pet and was now demoted to being fuck meat for her rival. Luna was happy she at least entertained master, so he never resisted. On the second day, as usual, Luna was led into the master's room with Max waiting with her 'Max accessories' on.

Instead of having her present, he commanded to give a blowjob to her rightful master. She walked up to Max on her hands and knees. She couldn't face him as she felt humiliated looking at him. Luna bent down and started to lick the tip of his penis sheath, and once his penis protruded from it, she could suck it properly. After 2-4 minutes, she was asked to stop and handed a scroll to read.

Luna started to read aloud, "I, Luna, a fuck toy to my master Maximilian, swear to be loyal to him and be available for his use. I shall transition into a dog bitch whose sole purpose of living is to be pleasure fuck meat for my master. I shall take no dick of any humans in my ass or vagina till my last breath. I will only fuck other dogs if Max wishes to share me with his friends. My licks and kisses will be to my master's asshole as I am now his property."

Teary-eyed, Luna looked at Master John, who angrily scolded her that she no longer belonged to him and should kiss the ass of her true master to show she accepted her place in this house. Luna had no choice but to oblige as she closed her eyes and licked Max's asshole, and a caretaker pressed her face into the dog's ass.

John clapped and exclaimed he would make her give a rimjob to Max tomorrow just as she did to him. The mating went as usual, with Max mounting her and Luna cleaning the floor of his cum by licking it. She didn't pass out this time. On the other hand, Max started to enjoy this as once he separated from her, he peed on her head, claiming Luna to be his property.

As usual, this mating ritual continued for the next three days. Luna would start by giving a rimjob to Max, licking his asshole clean and licking his balls, and end with Max pissing on her. To remove the dog stench, she would be bathed thoroughly every day before sessions to be fresh when she entered the master's room and afterward moved into the kennel with Max.

Unlike every other day, Max didn't leave his bitch's side today once they were locked in. Instead, he spent time licking Luna thoroughly, showing he cared for her as the dog loved licking her. Max reached her asshole and started to insert his tongue into her filth hole. Luna felt weird being licked there, so she lowered her ass and sat so he couldn't lick. Soon to be met with angry growls from Max, Luna knew better than to defend herself like she previously did by breaking his leg, so she was genuinely scared this time and submitted to his demand as she gave her asshole to him.

Max continued to lick and penetrate her for some time, finally mounting her and starting to poke his penis into her asshole. Unable to hit the target, he slightly bit around her neck without rupturing the skin on the neck. Luna knew she should do something to take his penis into her ass, so she widened her legs, peeled her asshole open with her hand, and directed his penis into her with another with her face now on the ground.

As soon as her tightness gripped his penis, Max took Luna to pound town, causing Luna to cry in pain as it worsened with his knott penetrating her. He took time to insert the big knott into her small asshole. Once his knott was locked, the dog started to dump his cum in her gut. He separated from her, with his knott popping out of her asshole as his dog cum leaked. Luna passed out from exhaustion with her ass in the air. Caretakers who came to refill their food bowls saw her gaping asshole and reported it to the master, who was delighted that Max had begun his training.

The next day she was washed, and the caretakers rolled her hair into two pigtail buns. Her collar now had an 'anus princess' tag and old socks. She was given an enema confirming that Luna would be anally expanded today. As she entered, John congratulated her for learning her first lesson from Max and hoped many more tags would be added to her bitch collar, as she expected she was made to peel her asshole and have anal sex with the dog that replaced her.

Max fucked her anally twice that day in their kennel. Within one week, her rectum was destroyed, leaving it gaping 24/7. To prevent her from losing all the cum and shit, she was fitted with a tail plug made out of husky hair shed by Max. Max was also encouraged to take her anally despite the damage, which made her ache for something to penetrate her vagina. She tried to masturbate but was always prevented by growls from Max, showing his dismay.

Luna began to beg Max to fuck her vagina by rubbing her vagina on the ground or try humping him. She used to rub her vagina on the boots of caretakers, roughly looking at Max until her pussy turned red. This begging continued for two days earning her another tag, 'humping cumdump.' Max finally gave the begging Luna her reward by fucking her vagina after three days used only to use her vagina if he was impressed by her humping display.

To show how well Max is training Luna, Max orders Luna to hump John's leg by pointing his paw at his master when Luna tries to open her vagina during their routine fuck show in the master's room. John was happy Luna found someone to subdue her.

Max's two sharp barks meant she should present her behind for mating. Pointing his paw means hump that object. If he sits and barks, Luna should go and suck his dick, earning her another tag, 'good fuck toy.' Max later taught Luna to lick his body clean and affectionate licks on his ass, nuts, and even mouth-to-mouth kisses. This went on as Max would have his tongue hanging from his mouth. Luna would nibble or lick his mouth and tongue, and another tag, 'lick monster,' was added.

She was also disciplined in the way she walked. Whenever Max used to pull her leash as he brought her to caretakers before their daily fuck show for her cleansing, Luna would walk on her hands and knees with her ankles lifted, pointing upwards as if it was her stack position. The tag 'bitch walk' was added.

One day, John arranged a sex party, and the main show was Luna and Max. Max would lead her into the middle as Luna would show her bitch walk with her ankles pointing upwards. She had her hair in pigtail buns with a black and white cover on the bun as if it were her doggy ears and a husky tail plug. She had a new collar with small bells all around. The leash was collected to her newly pierced clit.

Once in the middle, Max's caretakers removed the clit ring, and Max pointed to a guest. Luna would hump their shoes. Guests would throw treats at Max so he could point to them, and Luna would go and hump them. This went on for several minutes, and by the end, Luna's pussy was red due to her roughly rubbing it on their shoes. Max was sitting, and he barked once Luna ran to him and started to suck him after some time, satisfied with his bitch.

He got up and barked twice. Luna presented her ass, wiggling at him. Max tore away the tail plug and started the fuck session, rocking her body back and forth, causing the bells to jiggle as their fuck show went on and ending with Luna dumping the cum deposited in her ass into a bowl and eating it. Watching guests get on, their lust and party turned to its orgy phase as Max led his bitch into his kennel and fucked her pussy to the jingle of her collar bells.

As the days went by, Max seldom used to fuck her pussy even after desperate begging, and once he did, Luna would cry in Joy that her master finally rewarded her. Her desire to please Max grew daily, but she would abandon her bratty attitude, sometimes pissing herself in a kennel when Max wouldn't let her lick him. Although Max used to have her lick it clean, she used to throw tantrums but would behave if Max paid attention.

The 'Attention whore' tag suited her behavior, with Max completing the set of six tags around her collar: anus princess, humping cumdump, lick monster, bitch walk, and good fuck toy. Luna had completely forgotten that she was a human. All she cared about was to have Max's attention 24/7.

And one day, John passed away from natural causes. He had made sure Max and Luna would stay together as he donated them to a local sex museum for freaky people around the world. Luna and Max were the only live display, so he was sure the museum would take good care of them. Museum even employed caretakers from John.

John had two separate funerals first one was for his estranged wife, kids, and friends, which went the usual way. The second was scheduled in the evening when previous attendees would return to their houses. The second had all his BDSM community friends. Few volunteers would take up the steel rod inserts penis of John in their body and fulfill the taboo necrophiliac sex.

During the funeral, Max and Luna were also brought in to witness their master's burial. Bratty Luna didn't care about John at all, pestering Max so that he could pay attention to her. Caretakers and even Max were disgusted by her. It showed what kind of bitch she was. Luna completely ignored the dead master she used to pretend she loved once.

As they started to lower John, Max didn't want John to go without any reaction from Luna, so he got her into position and started to fuck her vagina, granting her tears. She was crying out of ecstasy. Only caretakers and Max knew this. For the people present, it looked like a slave mourning her master.

For the next three days, Max didn't pay attention to her at all, as he wanted her to suffer. On the fourth day, Max's face fucked Luna with his knott, not completely penetrating. It caused Luna to gag and gasp for air. By the end, she was lying in a pool of cum with her hair and face messed up.

Caretakers recognized this new position and added 'gag puppy' and 'fuck tears,' referring to the vaginal sex that caused her to cry. Eventually, they were moved to a sex museum, kept in a glass kennel with a 24/7 surveillance camera live-streaming. Entry to view this kennel was reserved for VIP ticket holders. A field was right behind the kennel for their outdoor activities. Although Max would be taken even outside for his walks, Luna would be confined to the museum walls for her entire life.

Kennel led to another glass pod in the middle of the museum, which used to hold their daily sex show from 10 AM to noon. Max would lead Luna in her bitch walk and put on a show. Whenever Max didn't face fuck her, Luna was ordered to lick the dicks of the audience from the glory hole set in the glass wall. She would lick the dick as her sucking rights were reserved for dogs only. She would be her usual 'Max accessories' with all the tags she has earned.

After a few years, Max would succumb to death for reasons unknown. Caretakers speculated he was upset with the death of his master John. For one week, the fuck show was kept on hold as the museum scrambled to search for a replacement for Max, Luna was denied sex, and due to her strict training by Max, she didn't masturbate. Finally, the museum found a human bitch fucking dog, a Doberman named Jupiter, to match her new fuck master.

Luna would now have a single braid with black lipstick and black eyelashes, and her tail plug was removed completely as she was given a laxative followed by an enema in the morning. Her new collar read, 'Jupiter's moon pie.' All the discipline taught by Max was embodied in Luna, and whenever Jupiter led her to the stage, she would hold her bitch stack. The museum tried to work in a storyline suggesting Jupiter and Luna were long estranged lovers who were the reincarnation of a prince and princess who couldn't be together. Despite being born into different species, they have united in this life.

They even have a winter event where they marry Luna to Jupiter. They would set up an altar in the museum and have Jupiter enter with a golden body chain with a golden collar representing the sun. Luna would enter with a pearl body chain stuck to her body using piercings in her nipples, belly ring, and clit, representing the moon. She would be bathed in cum donated by the fans and have Luna read out wedding vows promising to be a loyal fuck toy concluding by having Jupiter first fuck her ass and then her vagina.

The name tags earned by her training from Max now adorned her body as rib tattoos. The Doberman was not as intelligent as Husky Max, but he was a dominant rigorous fucker making sure Luna would sleep exhausted every at his feet.
