BEASTIALITY STORIES

My friend Tina told me this story about another one of her sexual adventures. I always love to hear her stories. Here is what she told me.

I went to a Halloween Party in Niagara Falls dressed like Cat Woman. It was not a real costume, just something I threw on at the last minute. It was a black crotchless body suit. I added a butt plug tethered to a bushy black 'tail.' I wore cat ears with whiskers and a black nose painted on my face. The tail was a big hit at the party, and everyone wanted to pull it out.

As the party rolled on, I got quite drunk on tequila and whatever may have been put into my drink. One guy pulled out my 'tail,' handed me the business end of the butt plug, and said I should clean it off. I popped it into my mouth and purred. Everyone loved that since they knew it had been in my ass all night.

At some point in the evening, it became apparent that I was to entertain the guys. A Biker group hosted the party, and many of the members were quite wild. Someone rolled out a leather ottoman, and I was laid down, belly first, on top of it. I was still in costume, as it were, and my crotchless outfit made both of my holes available. Someone then suggested to duct tape my torso to the ottoman and do the same to my thighs. The tape was quickly wrapped around my legs and the ottoman's legs. I was on my knees on the floor, on my tummy, and propped up by my elbows on the ottoman. I was trapped there, unable to move.

From that point on, there was a steady stream of cocks entering my pussy, ass, and mouth. I was being fucked like crazy and enjoyed it immensely. It was a conga line from my ass to my mouth as the boys delighted in having me suck off my butt juices before they came on my face. Once my ass is lubed up, it does not matter that the dick just came out of it. It all tastes good. I came so many times that I lost track. My face was a gooey mess.

Then, I heard a new group of guys enter the room. A team of softball players was here to party with us. I suddenly recognized my brother's voice in the crowd. I knew he played on a team but had no idea he was associated with this group. He was quite drunk, fortunately, and never knew it was me entertaining the crowd. When I looked up, my brother came over and wanted in on the action. I could not risk him discovering that his sister was supplying the entertainment, so I let him fuck me just like everybody else. He was really good. He rang my bell anyway!

Fortunately, he was drunk enough that he had no clue! He fucked my ass hard, and I must admit he rocked my world. I came several times as he bottomed out in me. He never reached my face and blew his load in my ass. Otherwise, he might have recognized me. I was happy that I had all that cum covering my face, in case anyone else on my brother's team might know me. It was awesome.

My husband wasn't at this party and did not find out about it for about three months. I never told him, but a friend of his there did. That friend claimed he only watched. I did not tell hubby that his friend fucked me twice that night. He didn't think I recognized him, but I did.

One funny thing. These guys feared they would get another man's cum on their cocks. So, they fucked me till they were about to cum, then pulled out and dumped on my face. But I could always feel them cum inside me a little bit before they managed to pull out, so there was cum in me and on me. They are also afraid to catch an STD. All those guys were married or in a long-term relationship, so I was confident that none had an STD. I have never caught anything yet, anyway.

After they all finished banging me, some guy brought his Rottweiler into the party. The dog started licking me frantically! The next thing I knew, the guy was coaxing him, and the dog jumped on my back. At first, he was in my pussy, which wasn't bad. Then his owner guided the dog's cock into my ass. This dog meant business. He kept humping and humping until his dick swelled so big that he could not pull out! I am only one hundred and ten pounds, and I think the dog outweighed me by twenty pounds.

The dog knotted up my ass and stayed buried there for a long time. I could feel the dog's cum pumping into me. Finally, the dog's hard cock and knot started to soften, and it dismounted from me. The sound of the Rottweiler's dick leaving my ass was like a cork leaving a bottle.

The dog had given me more cum than I had ever felt before. The dog's cum boiled out of my asshole like it had injected me with an entire beer bottle. It was very hot and slimy. Up until the point before the dog fucked me, the gang bang was great. I was having a good time and was orgasming continually. The dog's cock was just too large for my poor, little, abused asshole. I was told I was not the first human this dog had fucked, so it knew what it was doing!

It was a night to remember, that's for sure.
