BEASTIALITY STORIES

Janet had one dark secret that the media hadn't discovered. Sure they had pretty much figured out that she liked to sleep with women... Everybody knew she liked to show off her cleavage... But no one knew about Storm.

Storm was a young stud pony Janet had bought as an investment - but she had found a far better use for him over the last few years...

She loved the fact that Storm couldn't tell tales, that he wouldn't run to the tabloids... She also loved the 16" cock that hung between his hind legs and the copious quantities of seamen that he ejaculated like a fire hose at work.

She loved the way he stood so calmly as she sucked on him, and that the end of his cock was just small enough to fit in her mouth (but only just) - and that she could slide almost all of his length into her pussy.

On this particular day Janet was looking for a good send off from Storm before she left for a two month tour...

Janet entered the stable and made sure all the staff had left... Once she had checked the room, she headed into Storm's stall, already removing her jacket and blouse. Her firm breasts were well supported by a black wonder bra, lots of cleavage.

She started to stroke his flanks, slowly reaching underneath his belly to touch his penis. Storm was already getting hard, he knew the routine by now. His dick stretching out, already over a foot long. Janet's small delicate hands reaching forward and wrapping around the animal's slick tool.

Janet arranged two bails of hay underneath Storm, as she always did, and lay down on top of them, directly under the horse. Giggling - she reached down and took the horse's huge cock in her hand, gently rubbing it's head over her pussy lips. Storm started whinnying, eager to feel the tight walls of his human lover's pussy around his cock.

Janet eased the end of the horse's cock inside her, slowly slipping it in, inch after inch... Storm's cock grew even firmer, even bigger, as it entered... Her pussy stretched around the giant cock as it slid into her, she could feel it sliding in, the pain was amazing... Raising her legs around the sides of the horse's flanks, gripping him like a human lover, Janet rocked slightly - helping the horse to fuck her. Storm hunched his back and pumped his rear at the small black beauty. His 16" cock ramming deeper into her - almost tearing her in half...

"FUCK YES!" She screamed as she felt her first orgasm burn through her shivering body.

Storm bucked eagerly into her pussy, his movements becoming more erratic, more excited, she could tell he was almost there...

Janet quickly pulled herself off his hard cock, feeling her pussy walls relax and resume normal shape as she did. Pulling off so that she could get him in her mouth... She licked the length of his horse-cock shaft, tonguing the tip especially, working one hand up and down the shaft as she jerked herself off with the other.

Storm whinnied as he blew a huge wad of sticky hot cum over Janet's face. She caught what she could in her mouth and let the rest fall down her chin and drop onto her Wonder-Bra supported breasts. She swallowed slowly, enjoying the taste. Cum dripped from her chin and down her neck and formed a large reservoir between her tits - which she scooped up a bunch of on her fingers and licked them clean.

She loved the nutty, hot taste of the horse- jism and swallowed slowly savoring the tastes, licking her lips clean before once again wrapping them around the huge end of the horses cock.

She sucked Storm's cock until she had milked every last drop of cum from his huge hanging balls.

Until next time, she thought, as she left the stable.
