BEASTIALITY STORIES

There Mel was, laying in bed, cock in hand with her loyal husky sleeping beside her, scrolling through boring video after boring video of the same old porn. "Step-sis catches bro masturbating," Lame! "Redhead goddess sucks and fucks step-dad" Seen it already! Mel's dick was starting to go soft in her hand, so she decided it was time to try something new. There was this forum she had heard about, "zoo something or other?" She didn't really think she'd be into it, especially since she has a dog herself who she'd protect from such perverts with her life. But, she was curious about what she'd find and decided to visit the website.

Upon loading the site in and completing the mandatory registration process, she was met with a plethora of different videos, "German shepherd buttfucked in the woods" caught her eye, so she decided to give it a watch. The video was exactly as described, showing a very cute german shepherd receiving anal. The owner's cock could be seen thrusting in and out of the dog's tight little asshole at a moderate pace. The owner began to thrust faster and harder, but what really caught Mel's attention was the audio. "Good girl! Good doggy! Keep taking that dick!" The owner could be heard saying as he lovingly pet the bitch's ears. Much to Mel's surprise, her cock hardened at the video, and she began to instinctively stroke up and down. The dog panted, as the owner slowed his thrusts and eventually stopped fucking her. As he pulled out, a long, thick white string of his cum could be seen leaking out of the dog's contracting asshole. The dog jumped around, and started sweetly licking the owner's dick clean, just as the video ended.

Shockingly to Mel, she was very turned on, and decided to click another video in the suggested tab. "Trans girls gangbang bitch in heat while dogsitting" This one intrigued Mel even more, as it showed a group of girls not unlike her sharing a bitch they wasn't even theirs. The video opened with the dog standing on a coffee table surrounded by three naked trans women, all incredibly hard and stroking their dicks. The first one to lay a hand on the dog had red hair and freckles all over her body, something Mel really got off to. The girl slid two fingers into the dog's pussy and started to moan, "Good bitch, get that cookie wet for me," She exclaimed, giggling with excitement. Just then, another one of the girls, one with black hair, moved in closer to the dog's face. "I can't wait any longer, I'm fucking her little muzzle." She wrapped around the bitch's face, gripping tightly onto her brown fur, and slowly slid her large, hard dick into the dog mouth. The dog panted and wagged its tail through all of this, clearly enjoying the attention as the black haired girl calmly thrust in and out of her muzzle. Mel liked this too, as she began to stroke faster while her dick twitched in her hand.

The red haired girl pulled her fingers out of the dog's twitching pussy just as the last girl, a brunette like Mel, stepped toward the dog's rear end in hopes for a turn. The ginger stepped aside, still stroking her dick, as the brunette easily slipped her dick inside the bitch's hot, wet pussy. As the two other girls thrust away on both ends of the dog, the ginger began to stroke harder and faster, moaning in pleasure as she was clearly about to reach her climax. She began to smile, "Good doggy! Good doggy!" She yelled as she shot a clear, liquidy string of cum onto the dog's back. Mel's whole body began to shake with excitement as she desperately held herself back from cumming. As the brunette thrust faster and faster, deep inside of the dog's quivering pussy, the goth began to shake uncontrollably as she fucked the obedient dog's mouth. "Fuck! FUCK! GOOD BITCH! FUCCCKK!" she shouted as she visibly shot loads and loads of cum in the dog's mouth. There was so much cum that you could see it leaking out of the dog's mouth. "Yeah, i'm pretty sure this cute little bitch loves me" she says as she pats the dog on the hand. Mel tries to hold back her orgasm as hard as she can. Her whole body begins to spasm before she accidentally jerks her leg, kicking her dog awake. "Fuck!" she mutters to herself. "What the hell is wrong with me?" she thinks before quickly closing her laptop and laying on her back.

As she lays there questioning her life decisions, her dog peers curiously at Mel before sticking her head under the blankets to have a quick look at Mel's throbbing cock. Mel's too in shock to notice, when suddenly she feels a wet, warm sensation on her twitching dick. Mel quickly pulls the blanket off to reveal her loyal husky licking away at her leaking tip. Mel knows she should stop it, but it just feels too good. She rests her hand on the bitch's head and begins to pet her. But as quickly as it started, it stops. The husky once again lays down by her side, but this time Mel is frustrated. She lays there for a long moment, "Am I really about to do this?" she thinks, but she already knows the answer is yes. She quickly flips stomach first onto the dog, putting all her weight on it so it doesn't try to run away. Her husky loves snuggles, so she doesn't seem to mind. Mel slowly slides her middle finger inside of the dog's vagina, as it quickly begins to pulsate around her finger. She thought the dog would hate it, but her tail only starts wagging more and more. Mel pulls her finger out of the dog's pussy and gives it a quick lick, before slowly sliding her dick into her husky's tight, wet hole.

"Oh my god!" Mel can't help but whisper as a pleasure she never even could have imagined overtakes her. She holds onto the dog's tail as she thrusts fast and hard. "Good girl! Good dog!" She yells into the bitch's ear as she fucks her harder and harder. "FUCK!" She yells, fucking her little cookie as hard as she can. Mel instinctively spanks the dog on her cute, fluffy little butt. The dog only pants harder, sticking her tongue out and letting out a light growl. "Take that dick, you little bitch!" She yells into the dog's ear, spanking it again, this time as hard as she possibly can. The dog starts barking, as Mel thrusts incredibly fast and hard while repeatedly spanking the dog's little ass. As she continues spanking the dog with her left hand, she slides a finger into the bitch's ass with her right. With the dog's barks and Mel's animalistic growls and laughter, she can't take it anymore. "FUCK YESSS!!! TAKE MY LOAD, YOU LITTLE CUNT!!!" she screams as she shoots the thickest, most fertile load she's ever produced deep inside to the dog's womb. She collapses onto the dog with exhaustion, as the dog continues panting below. "I love you, you little bitch..." she moans into her precious dog's ear as she begins to tongue kiss the bitch. With a trail of hot, white sperm leaking from the dog's pussy onto the bedsheets, Mel gently rubs the dog's butt, comforting the bitch after the brutal spanking. As Mel slowly closes her eyes, she wraps her arms around her sweet dog. "I love you, doggy" she gently whispers as she falls asleep with her new favorite fucktoy in her arms.

The End
