BEASTIALITY STORIES

As she sits at the desk looking out the window at the rain pouring down and everything in sight soaking wet and water everywhere, Suzy thinks that it's too bad she is home alone today. Another lonely Monday by herself. She reaches down and rubs her hand across the crotch of her sweatpants, and it sends a chill over her entire body. She uses her other hand to rub the stiff nipple of the breast that is only covered by the old T-shirt she has on. The shirt has a picture of a smiley face and says, "Make yourself smile today!". She breaks into a smile and pinches her nipple as hard as she can. That works for her!

Suzy doesn't hesitate, she reaches down and pulls the T-shirt up and over her head and throws it over onto the desk. She can see her reflection in the mirror on the wall beside her, and she likes what she sees. Not bad for a 32 year old mother. Her profile looks pretty good, and her tits stick straight out, and the nipples are long and hard. She smiles again and then thinks of her hand in her crotch. She rubs her fingers along the little slit that is made by the folds of her vagina and is amazed by the heat that she feels. As she rubs it up and down a few times, she looks down to see a wet spot forming. Again, she smiles.

She stands up, slips her fingers into the waistband of the pants, and slowly pulls them down until they fall to the floor around her ankles. Now Suzy is standing there in her home office completely naked. She doesn't do this very often, as there are usually other people in the house or outside. Today is different as it is raining very hard, and everyone else has gone to work or school and she is all alone. She looks out the window and can't see anyone, only a couple of cars driving down the street. She remembers the time the gardener was working in the yard, and she thought about flashing him. He was a young Mexican man who worked for a landscaping company. She was very horny, and he was pretty hot, but she didn't do anything. Too bad he wasn't here today.

Suzy turned and walked away, and headed for her bedroom. Once she was in her room, she opened the nightstand drawer and looked inside. There was her favorite toy, a 10" long big black dick! This was what she had gotten for herself to use on these days when she was alone and needed something to satisfy the urges she was having. She rearranged the big pillows on the bed so she could lay there and watch herself in the mirrors on the closet doors. She climbed up on the bed, laid down, and checked her view in the mirror. She had a clear view of her clean-shaven pussy. She noticed that her tan lines were almost gone as she had been sunbathing naked all last week.

She licked the head of the dildo, being sure to get it very wet and slippery. Then she rubbed it up and down the slit of her pussy, and she moaned as the feeling it gave her took over. She watched in the mirror as the big black dick was swallowed up in the moist lips of her pussy. She closed her eyes and enjoyed the pleasure she was starting to enjoy. Suddenly, she felt a warm and rough tongue lick the bottom of her foot. She jumped and looked down to see her black Lab looking up at her. She was surprised and had forgotten that Rosco was even in the house. He was sitting at the end of the bed and could lay his head on the bed and her leg was there, so he licked it.

"Good boy, Rosco." Suzy told him, "I forgot about you being in the house." As she talked to him, the dog jumped up on the bed and lay down beside her. Surprised, she looked at him, and he leaned in and licked her face. She laughed and tried to push him away, but Rosco was too big for her, and he tried to lick her face again and instead licked her right breast and got the nipple. His tongue was like fine sandpaper and felt oh so very good when he licked her skin.

Thinking dirty thoughts, Suzy grabbed her breast and offered the nipple to Rosco. He sniffed it and then began to lick it and even tried to suck on it, instinctively, as he remembered from his young dog days. The feeling he gave Suzy was fantastic, and she continued to let him lick her tit and enjoyed the wonderful pleasure it gave her. Soon he was licking the other tit, and the nipple was so hard and sensitive that she was building up to an orgasm. Never in her wildest dreams would she think she could orgasm from a dog licking her breasts. Suzy laid back on the bed and was getting lost in her pleasure when Rosco moved a little bit lower and started licking her navel. The sensation was wonderful, and she let him go and just closed her eyes and felt the start of what was going to be a great orgasm.

When Suzy stopped shaking from her blissful orgasm, she was getting oh-so wet in the crotch. This did not go undetected by Rosco either. The smell of a woman in heat was something he could not pass up and he was following his nose. He stuck his cold, wet nose right in the middle of Suzy's wet hot pussy. The feeling of his nose startled her, and she immediately closed her legs and tried to push Rosco away. She was ashamed of herself for letting him lick her like he had been and thought it had better end there.

Rosco, on the other hand, had different ideas. He had never smelled anything that was that tasty, and he wanted more of what she had let him have so far. He continued to use his nose to try to spread her legs and get to the moistness he could smell. She tried to roll over and get off the bed, but when she rolled on her side, Rosco was able to get his nose between her legs, and she wound up face down on the bed with him licking her from the top of her pussy all the way to her little pink asshole. This caused her to stop and experience the feeling of his big, rough tongue on her swollen lips. When he licked her, his tongue would get inside her lips and eventually run right across her sensitive clitoris. This sent a shot of ecstasy through her whole body. She wanted to get away and make him stop, but the feelings were making her have second thoughts. Wow, it felt great!

Suzy was moaning loudly and was on the verge of another earth-shattering orgasm when suddenly Rosco stopped licking her. She opened her eyes and looked at him and saw that he was licking the long red cock that was between his legs. Not knowing what was happening next, she rolled over on her back and watched him lick the red cock. It wasn't as big as a lot of the men's cocks she had seen before, but it was longer and was pointed instead of having a head like men do.

Rosco stopped and looked at her, and then he went back to her pussy. With her on her back, she opened her legs and gave him access to her entire crotch. He paid extra attention to her pretty little asshole and licked her pussy, getting his tongue in very deep and making her squirm with joy. She couldn't imagine that she could feel this great having Rosco just lick her pussy. Another orgasm caused her to moan out loudly, and when she did, Rosco looked at her as if something was wrong. Suzy grabbed his head and directed him back to her steaming pussy, and he was more than happy to lick up the moisture that was running down into the crack of her ass.

Three fantastic orgasms later, Suzy had to stop Rosco from licking her as she was getting tender from his rough tongue's constant assault on her vagina. She grabbed him by the collar and pulled his head away from her waist, and he wound up looking her straight in the eyes. He leaned in and licked her face and lips, almost like a kiss. Intrigued by the feelings she was having, Suzy opened her mouth and stuck out her tongue. Rosco responded by licking her tongue and even running his long dog tongue inside her mouth. This startled her, but it felt great, and she proceeded to make out with Rosco and sucked his tongue back in her mouth. He continued to lick her face and mouth, and she thought he was enjoying it as much as she was!

Suzy noticed that Rosco's cock was growing and coming out of its sheath, and she couldn't help but look at it. She had never really seen a dog cock up close, and it was different from a man's dick. She continued to watch it grow, and she was full of questions. Should she touch it? Would he bite her if she grabbed his cock? What did it feel like? What did it taste like? Was it hard like a man's cock? Damn, she was so fucking horny, and she wanted her questions answered. She thought she should be ashamed for being such a slut, but she couldn't control herself, and besides, it felt amazing!

As Rosco was licking her face, she reached out and touched his cock. It was very warm compared to a man's cock, and not as hard. It shined like it was slimy, but it wasn't, and it felt smooth. As she looked at it, Rosco turned and licked his cock from top to bottom and then turned back to Suzy and licked her lips again. She could taste his cock on her lips, and she thought that if he licked it, he would be ok with her licking it too. She moved around to where she could put her head under his belly, and she leaned in and ran her tongue from the tip of his dick to the sheath. Rosco looked at her and licked her face again.

Getting braver by the minute, Suzy leaned down and took Rosco's cock in her mouth. It was very warm and soft, and she actually liked the taste. That was when she noticed his knot starting to form. She remembered seeing dogs mating when she was on the farm a few years ago; they would get knotted together, and her dad would laugh and watch them try to get apart.

Intrigued by what she was seeing, she reached out and grabbed the knot. When she did, the cock started to spurt shots of liquid out of it. Pre-cum was what it was, and she just had to taste it. She pointed the cock at her face, and it shot a couple of spurts of the hot liquid all over her face and into her mouth. Suzy could taste it, and it was different than man's cum, but it was not bad tasting. She swallowed what she could and then took the cock back into her mouth and sucked and licked it like an ice cream cone. She was amazed that she was sucking off the dog. She knew she couldn't tell anyone what she had done, and the taboo made her that much hornier.

Suzy rolled around on the bed so Rosco was looking at her pussy, and she continued sucking on his cock while holding it by the knot. It was growing harder and was spitting out more cum as she worked on it. Rosco, in the meantime, smelled the scent of a bitch in heat, and he started licking her pussy long and deep. In a couple of seconds, she had what was the first of many orgasms.

Wanting more of the big red cock, Suzy slid up on the bed and got Rosco between her legs in the missionary position and pointed his cock at her wet opening, and raised her ass to allow him to feel her hot pussy touch his dick. When he felt her, he started humping and trying to get into her. She continued to move and watched as his cock lined up with her cunt, and when the tip went in, Rosco began pumping like a wild man. His cock sank into her all the way in one swift motion, and the pain was almost unbearable. Suzy screamed and tried to pull back, but Rosco was not to be denied.

Almost scared to death, Suzy didn't know what to do. She could not get away from the big dog, and he continued to pump his cock into her wildly. Then she felt the knot at the opening of her vagina. Before she could do anything, Rosco had forced it into her, and it was growing even larger than it already was. She could feel it swelling up, and she had never felt anything like this before. Almost immediately, it sealed her pussy, and then she could feel the hot cum being pumped into her. It was definitely hotter than a man's cum, and she could feel it fill her up. Rosco slowed down his humping and calmed down, and Suzy felt the horror and pain change to a feeling of fullness and pleasure as the warm cum filled her womb.

Rosco looked at Suzy and licked her face, and she opened her mouth and let him lick her tongue with his. All the while filling her with what felt like gallons of dog cum. This feeling was so much more than she could have expected, and she could not begin to count how many times she came. She just closed her eyes and enjoyed the moment.

Suzy had no idea how long she lay there like that, and she felt Rosco tug his cock, trying to get it out of her. It hurt a little, and she grabbed him by the back of his legs and held him in place. He calmed back down and licked her face as if to acknowledge her. Every time she moved, he pumped more cum into her. She could feel it in her, and it was unlike anything she had experienced before.

After several more minutes like this, Suzy thought she could feel his cock starting to shrink. She patiently waited, and then Rosco moved, and she knew his cock was coming out. His dick made a loud squish and popped out of her, and cum went everywhere! It almost exploded out of her and covered everything, the sheets were soaked, and cum was still running out of her pussy.

Rosco stood back, looked at her, and immediately started licking the cum from her crotch. Suzy's pussy was so tender she tried to stop him, but he continued licking, and she had a couple more orgasms before he stopped. He turned, and she watched as he licked his big red dog cock. It was still long and hard, and every time it pulsed, it shot a stream of cum from its tip.

Suzy decided that she couldn't waste this cum, and she moved around to where she could get his cock into her mouth. Rosco seemed to like her sucking his cock, and she proceeded to clean all the cum from it and continued until his cock started to shrink back into its sheath. She turned and looked at Rosco, and he again licked her lips as if to thank her.

She grabbed his head and kissed him on the lips. "I don't know who enjoyed this more, but I can tell you it's not the last time we will enjoy each other!" Suzy giggled as she looked at her new lover.

As she lay there, she could not stop thinking about how Rosco could fuck her, and she knew she would try it doggy style; after all, why did they call it that? She knew she would be on the internet trying to learn all she could about dog sex. There had to be more people who fucked their dogs; she just knew it. Suzy rolled over, and Rosco lay next to her, and they both had a well-deserved nap.

The End
