BEASTIALITY STORIES

Nikki Eagletown could hear the sounds of hammering and sawing from the back garden and knew that the carpenter she had hired was busily at work constructing the dog kennels in which she intended to board dogs while their owners were on vacation. She had already advertised in the newspapers and was eagerly waiting for her first customer to phone. She expected a good response to her ad because she wasn't charging very much at all, offering a real bargain.

Nikki had her reasons for going into the dog-boarding business, and money was the least of her concerns. In her mid-twenties, Nikki had inherited a big house and a substantial income, and whatever work she chose to do was a labor of love.

Literally-she loved dogs.

Nikki had never married, although she was a gorgeous girl who had had plenty of offers. She had never wanted to tie herself down to one man and, knowing full well she would cheat on a husband, she didn't think it was fair to marry a guy-nor did she want the inconvenience of having to cheat on the side instead of being a free agent and getting her love where and when she liked.

And Nikki liked her love in all forms and species.

Nikki hadn't dressed yet, and, wearing only a frilly nightgown, she wandered over to the window and looked out to check on the progress of the kennel builder, wanting to make sure that accommodation was ready when her first boarder arrived.

Jake, the carpenter, was stripped to the waist. His lean torso glistened with sweat as he hammered away at his task. There was something quite erotic about watching that hammer rise and fall, thought Nikki, who found lots of things erotic.

She wondered if she should fuck Jake as a bonus.

Watching his muscles ripple, she figured it might well prove to be a bonus for them both. She was tempted to call him in and seduce him. But she didn't want to interrupt his work, and with a little shrug, she turned back from the window.

Her deep cleavage showed at the top of the frilly gown, and as she walked, her long, shapely thighs emerged. Her full hips swung provocatively, tantalizingly, although there was no one in the house to entice at the moment except for her big, shaggy, black mongrel dog, Thor, who was curled up, sleeping in the corner.

Nikki had golden-blond hair that she wore long, framing a lovely face atop a spectacular body. Her tits were full and thrusting and capped by ever-stiff tips. Her waist was tiny, and her ass and hips swept out in voluptuous abandon.

She was usually feeling horny, which added a glow to her face and a suggestive rhythm to her movements. She was horny at that moment, too.

She curled gracefully into a chair beside the peacefully slumbering mongrel.

She crossed her long, sleek legs, and as she did so, the heated aroma of her aroused pussy drifted out. Nikki sniffed and smiled. If her musky fragrance registered so strongly on her senses, she could imagine how it must affect the far more sensitive nostrils of an animal, how exciting and compelling it must be. But Nikki didn't really have to use much imagination on that score-she knew it for a fact, having turned more than one male beast on.

As if to verify her thoughts, Thor's nose twitched, and he stirred in his sleep.

Was the doggy dreaming about chasing bunny rabbits? she wondered, or dreaming about some hotter and juicier quarry?

Poor old Thor, she thought. You're just a mongrel. Will you resent having lots of pedigreed doggies staying here? But she giggled at the idea.

She stretched out one long leg and languidly rubbed her toes against the mongrel's flank.

Thor opened his eyes and blinked, then raised his head. The scent of Nikki's simmering cunt was becoming more noticeable, and the doggy sniffed and whined.

"Think I need a fuck, do you, boy?" she said.

"Does your nose tell you my pussy is hot?"

Thor cocked his big blunt head as if he was trying to comprehend the meaning of her words. He looked so humanly inquisitive that Nikki giggled. She had often wondered just how much the dog understood of human conversation and emotion.

But having already made up her mind to give the carpenter a fuck, Nikki didn't feel in the mood to get fucked by the dog at the moment. That didn't mean that she couldn't fool around with him a bit, however, as she got even hotter for the carpenter's cock.

Her toes slid up his muzzle, and she parted her thighs wider, letting her fragrance pour from her crotch. Thor's black snout rippled, and his shaggy flanks began to heave.

Inspired by the aroma of her hot pussy, his big prick began to poke out from his loins, lengthening and thickening. Nikki, always fascinated by a dog's emerging erection, gazed at his cock. The angry red tip of his elongated cockhead appeared. Then all of his fat slab of naked cockmeat came squeezing out from his hairy black sheath, while at the other end, his balls began to swell with a load of dog jism. His long, wet tongue lolled out from his jaw.

Nikki opened her negligee and arched her slender back, pushing her gently rounded belly out. She ran an open hand down her stomach, then caressed her flank. Cupping her cunt bush in her palm, she dipped her fingers into her groin, shuddering as they made contact with her throbbing clit.

Thor woofed with enthusiasm, drinking in her delightfully scented arousal with greedy nostrils.

Nikki fingered her pussy lips apart, shuddering at the sensation as her clit expanded. She ran her fingertips up her unpeeled pussy folds and flicked them against her clit. Her nugget of lust felt like a stick of dynamite ready to go off.

Bringing her hand up to her lips, Nikki licked at her sticky fingers, then pushed them into her mouth and sucked, thrilled by the delicious flavor and aroma of her cunt juice. Nikki, among other things, enjoyed sucking cunt.

She had often wished that she were nimble enough to go down on herself and eat her pussy out, getting both ends of the pleasure at the same time. She had tried but failed, her hot tongue just reaching her cunt mound but falling frustratingly short of the target of her clit. But there Were always plenty of other girls willing to give head and pussy, and, of course, there was Thor.

The dog was gazing at his mistress in canine wonderment, his head bobbing up and down and his long tongue starting to slobber heavily in anticipation of that succulent dog yummy.

Nikki moved her hand up and down, scooping up cunt-cream and then licking it from her fingers. She rolled her nipples in her other hand, shuddering as the sensations exploded. Her whole body was responsive to arousal, and her fit-tips and her tongue got as hot as her clit. She began to alternate hands now, fingering her pussy with one while she lapped up her cunt seepage from the other. Her hands dipped into her crotch, wet with saliva, and came back to her lips drenched with pussy nectar.

She shuddered, almost climaxing. But that would be a dreadful waste, she figured. With a cunt-hungry doggy drooling at her feet, why give herself a hand job?

She slid down to the edge of the chair, her ass perched on the rim and her long, smooth legs extended, widespread, along the floor. She tilted her fragrant groin upward.

"Come and get it, Thor," she purred.

Thor got to his feet awkwardly, the enormous lever of his cock hindering his movements. He stood stiff-legged astride his prick and bowlegged around his bloated balls.

"Dog food, boy-lap it up!" she whispered.

The horny, hungry brute needed no further invitation. He moved in and licked at the flesh of her inner thigh, slurping up a trickle of pussyjuice that had run down her leg. He whimpered, lapping higher, gathering up the overflow as his head neared the source.

His cold black snout bit her clit, and Nikki jerked at the sensation. She arched her. Back deeply, offering her pussy like a meal on a tray. Cunt-cream was spilling from her unfurled pussy-slot, lathering her crotch and seeping into the tight crack of her ass, and pouring down her trembling thighs.

Thor whined urgently. Arching his neck, he began to lap at Nikki's dripping pussy. She moaned and trembled as his hot, wet lapper slapped into her fuckslot. He licked up her cuntlips and slurped at her clit, and Nikki squirmed, pumping her ass and hips in a fucking motion as she worked her cunt against his muzzle.

She reached down and took the dog's tongue in her fingers, whipping it against her distended fuck-button. Then she spread her pussy folds wide open so that the doggy could tonguefuck her deeply, his lapper running right up into her fuckhole. His meaty tongue felt as big as a prick as it slid through her cuntlips and into her pussytunnel. Thor had the taste now, and the big brute was lapping away with enthusiasm, stabbing his slobbering tongue up her fuckhole enthusiastically.

Nikki wriggled down, shoving her ass right off the edge of the chair. Thor continued to slap it to her with juicy relish. He flattened his tongue and slurped up her cunt-slot, his head going up and down like a rocking horse.

Nikki tilted her loins higher, and the dog's tongue strokes began in the crack of her ass and glided up through the folds of her open cuntslot and across her burning clit, then flipped out into her cunt bush. She was coated with do drool, and the brute's tongue was dripping with her cunt-juice.

"Ahhhh-that's right, Thor-lap it up, boy -ooooh-I'm gonna fucking cream your tongue!" Nikki wailed.

She shot her lush hips out, working them like pistons as she fucked her cunt against the dog's eager tongue. Thor whimpered and growled as he worried her pussy like a terrier shaking a rat. Cunt-cream juiced from her pussy-gash and poured down her groin, seeping into the tunnel between the firm cheeks of her ass. Thor greedily slurped the sweet nectar from the crack of her ass. As his lapper slid up, doggy saliva streamed down, blending with her pussy spillage.

"Oh, shit-it's so fucking good!" the horny animal-lover cried, pumping frantically against his shaggy snout.

Thor was trembling all through his body, and his prick was swinging under him, extended so long now that the naked meat of his cockhead was halfway up his belly. His haunches humped, fucking the air, shoving his neglected prick in and out as his tongue did the work of a cock, stabbing into her fuckhole relentlessly, drooling all over her steaming pussy.

Nikki's frenzied clit detonated. Her cunt started to melt. As the overflow got hotter and thicker and creamier, Thor whimpered with doggy joy. Nikki was nearing the peak, waves of bliss rippling across her loins and shooting like electric currents up her trembling thighs. Her cunt-juice was turning to cum cream, driving the mongrel wild with the flavor and the fragrance.

Wanting to prolong the thrill, Nikki grasped Thor by the collar and yanked his head out of her crotch. He whimpered, his drenched tongue lolling out, dripping into her golden triangle. Her cunt was gaping wide open, steaming and streaming like the crater of a volcano about to erupt. Cum-juice slid down her groin, and the dog's shaggy muzzle was coated with the pearly nectar of her seepage. She held his head away for a few moments, then dragged his muzzle back into her crotch, and Thor began lapping away with renewed vigor. Pussy-cream welled up in her fuckslot and the dog slurped it up as more fuck-juice poured into her cuntgash. Thor was yelping and whining as he feasted.

Nikki threw her shapely thighs around his shaggy shoulders, hooking her knees around him and clamping him in a velvet vise. She locked her ankles and drummed her heels against his haunches. Then she slid her feet down and began to massage his pounding prick between them.

Thor heaved his cock out, fucking her between the feet. His cock throbbed, and Nikki pulled her feet away, not wanting to risk bringing the brute off too soon. She had better plans for his doggy spunk than a foot job. She clamped him tight, then threw her legs wide open again to give the beast free rein in her groin.

Thor was tonguing her furiously now as the flow from her fuckhole got richer.

She hiked up, and his lapper slid through the soaking crack of her ass and rimmed at her shit-hole, adding a tangy spice to the feast. His soaking tongue slid back up her asscrack and through her Unfurled fuckslot, whipping against her explosive clit. He stuffed his lapper meat up her pussyhole, and Nikki cried out with joy. The waves of ecstasy were coursing through her now, coming higher and faster, each separate wave rushing upon the next and then coming so quickly, one upon the other, that they were merging into one tidal wave.

She tossed her head back, jerking her lovely face from side to side, her countenance a mask of lust. Her long blonde hair whipped across her cheeks, and her eyelashes fluttered. Her slim belly pumped, and she rolled her lush hips and churned her ass wildly, dancing against the dog's muzzle, squirming on his tongue.

"Ohhhh-creaming-keep it up, you big son of a bitch! I'm melting on your fucking tongue!" she wailed.

Her foaming girl-jism frothed from her cunt, and Thor slurped it up and wolfed it down greedily. Own cream dripped from his jowls, and his tongue was floating in the slimy sea, fairly splashing as he shot it up her soaking fuck-slot.

Her climax ripped through her loins, and Nikki shuddered, her whole voluptuous body shaking and vibrating. Her heels banged against the floor, and her thighs trembled spasmodically. The waves of her orgasm kept lashing through her. She was at the highest peak and holding there as Thor's tongue mopped up the flow, and Nikki's pussy washed his snout with lavish lashings of cum-juice.

She pulled at her tit-tips, then slid a hand down to finger her fuck-button.

Her other hand slipped under her grinding ass, and she nudged a finger into her shit-hole. Thor lapped steadily away, rumbling deep in his throat as her fuckcream poured down his gullet. Then, with a wail of bliss, Nikki came crashing down from the crest.

She sighed with contentment and sprawled back in the chair, panting heavily.

The big, cunthungry mongrel continued to slurp away, gathering up all the delicious cum cream from her crotch and the crack of her ass. He tongued it all up and replaced it with his foaming do slobber. Nikki moaned and stroked his big, blunt head tenderly, loving the brute for the pleasure he had given her.

The dog stepped back, turning slightly to one side. His tongue was hanging out, dripping, and his cock was throbbing urgently.

The doggy needed to empty his balls.

And Nikki owed the brute a favor...

Nikki often had difficulty in deciding whether she wanted to fuck the doggy or suck him off, but today she had no hesitation. Planning to fuck the carpenter and wanting to be hot and horny, she figured that the best way to deal with Enzo's booming hard-on was with her mouth. Her cunt was well satiated by his tongue, but now her tongue was as horny as her clit had been in the moments before she creamed.

Nikki loved getting fucked in the mouth as much as she loved getting her cunt stuffed with cock. The horny girl had a cunt that sucked like a mouth and a mouth that fucked like a cunt as Enzo, that lucky mongrel, knew full well.

Nikki's mouth was watering as she gazed hungrily at the dog's massive prick, happily anticipating a nice long suck followed by the creamy reward for her efforts.

She slid from the chair and curled up on the floor beside the dog's heaving flank. His head twisted around as he gazed expectantly at her, anticipating the treat in store. Being only a dumb animal, Enzo had never quite understood what a blowjob was, nor why his mistress sometimes chose to use her mouth for a cunt-hole, but he knew how lovely that hot, sucking mouth felt, and he loved it.

He stood stiff-legged over his prick, his flanks rippling in and out. Nikki didn't touch him for a moment. She stared hungrily at his cock and balls, licking her lips. His cockhead was glowing like an incandescent light bulb, and his balls were like hairy, over-inflated balloons, full of succulent doggy cum.

"Does the nice big doggy want a suck?" she whispered.

"Woof!" Enzo yelped.

She reached under him, palm upwards, and cupped his balls, lifting as if weighing their contents.

She could feel his jism load in the hairy bags. Her hand slid on up, and she folded her fist around his cockshaft, pushing back toward the roots so that the naked meat of his angry red cock-knob flared out. She could feel the fiery heat of his prick wafting into her lustful, radiant face as if she were holding a glowing torch. His hard fuckrod throbbed in her hand. Pushing her head under him, she slid her tongue out and licked at his balls. The brute yelped. She lapped him hungrily, savoring the musky flavor of ball meat on her tastebuds and feeling his cum-load shift around. The thought of swallowing that massive dose of fuck-juice caused her to whimper. She drew back and gazed at his cock again, like a hungry child looking into the window of a bakery, licking her lips and drooling.

Nikki slid under him again, her eyes turning inwards as she stared at the angry red slab of his cockhead. His naked fuckrod is pulsing in and out like an inhaling lung, smoking hot and mouth-watering. His pisshole was gaping open, and as the cock-hungry animal lover stared at it, a glob of pre-cum oozed out and ran down the slick slab, sluggish and frothy and white, like whipped cream on a plum.

"Ummmm!" she moaned at the succulent sight. She felt as if her tongue were melting.

Her radiant face pushed forwards, and she slid her tongue out, lapping up the glob of doggy slime. She let his delicious cock goo run around on her tastebuds for a moment. Then her throat pulsed as she delicately swallowed it down.

"Yummy!" she sighed.

That initial drop had whetted her appetite, and the horny girl was slobbering hungrily for cockmeat and cum. Enzo humped, shoving his prick out so that the slimy tip brushed against her lips. She kissed his cock-knob. It felt like a lump of iron encased in a red rubber sheath. She licked him, then pushed the tip of her tongue up into his pisshole. Enzo whimpered and trembled. She laved all over his naked cockhead, adoring the flavor of his smoking hot fuckmeat.

She panted, blowing down his cock-stalk. Enzo humped again, pushing his cock against her lips, eager to begin using her mouth for a cunt-hole. But Nikki didn't take his prick into her mouth yet, savoring a lick before the sucking.

She slurped all over his fiery cockhead with her agile tongue. Saliva dribbled onto his prick. Another drop of pre-cum squeezed from his parted pisshole.

Nikki greedily tongued it up. It felt as hot and thick as melted lead as it rolled on her tastebuds-rich and musky and succulent. She swallowed it and lapped up another glob as it oozed from his cockcleft.

Speaking with her lips brushing the tip of his naked cockhead, Nikki whispered, "I'm gonna suck your guts out now, Enzo-I'm hungry for your doggy cum-I need a bellyful of your hot, thick fuck-juice, you big, black, hairy bastard!"

She kissed his slippery fuck-knob again, and this time she let her lips part, slowly feeding his succulent cock into her mouth. Enzo whimpered with pleasure as her hot maw engulfed his cockknob. Her lips collared his hairy fuck-stalk just behind the head, and she began to nurse hungrily on the tasty mouthful. Her cheeks drew inwards, and her lips unpeeled around his fuckrod. As she sucked on the smoking hot wedge of dog meat, her nimble tongue flashed against the underside, bathing his cock with saliva. Dribbles of spunk trickled from his cock-cleft, giving her tastebuds a tantalizing hint of the treat in store for them.

Nikki, whimpering with joy, cupped his balls in one hand and folded her other hand around his thick fuck-stalk, holding it at the root and skinning the sheath back so that his cockhead ballooned in her mouth. She squeezed his balls tenderly, but her other hand stayed at the hilt of his fuckrod, not stroking him. She knew that the quickest way to bring the beast off was to use her hand and her mouth at the same time-jerking him off as she sucked on his cock-knob.

But Nikki was in no hurry today, wanting to enjoy a nice prolonged mouthful of cockmeat before she drank the creamy reward for her oral efforts. Holding him steady and fondling his bloated balls, she sucked softly and moistly and flashed her wet lapper around on his dripping cock-knob.

Enzo tensed, and his powerful hindquarters rippled. He began to fuck into her face. His fat prick slid deeper into her mouth, and Nikki gagged as his fuck-knob clogged her gullet. He fucked in and out, tilting her blonde head back on his thrusts, and Nikki sucked greedily through every inch of his naked prickshaft.

Moving in counterpoint, Nikki pushed her head down to meet him as Enzo poured his prick into her. He buried his cock in. her head, his balls slapping under her chin.

“Umphfff!” she gulped as he stuffed his cockhead right down into the entrance to her throat.

It felt so hot that she thought it might blister her gorge. Then he pulled back out until only his cock-knob was in her lips, and she sucked through every delicious inch, purring hungrily with joy.

She drew her mouth from him for a moment to gaze lovingly at his naked cockhead. More pre-cum frothed out, and she lapped it up, then sucked him back into her hot mouth and nursed on his fuckmeat with relish. Her face twisted from side to side as she wound her lips onto his fuckrod like a nut onto a bolt.

Enzo fucked in and out frantically, stuffing her head, and Nikki moaned as she fed on his delicious fuckstalk, pushing her lips down to his hairy cockroot. She was deep-throating the horny brute, swallowing all of his long, vibrant fuckshaft, gorging on his fuckmeat. Her eyes were glazed with lust as she savored the tasty treat. Her lips collared him, and her hot tongue flashed on his slick prick-knob, slurping up more preliminary cock-juice as it trickled out.

Enzo's long shaggy tail twirled around like a propeller behind his heaving haunches, and his hind feet scrambled on the carpet as he fucked into her willing head with vigor. Nikki took his cock into her cheek, then turned her face and took a thrust into the opposite cheek. Then she took him down her throat again. As he jerked his fuckrod out, saliva dripped from his vibrant fuck-stalk, steaming and streaked with pre-cum. His pisshole was bubbling freely and heavily now, heralding the massive dose of dog jism that she hungered for, driving the cock-crazed dog-lover wild with lustful expectations.

As Enzo pulled back, Nikki sucked so hard that her mouth dragged nearly inside out. She could feel his balls swelling in her fondling hand and knew the brute was going to unload his jizz at any moment. Nikki was enjoying the meaty snack, but by this time, she was so greedy for his cum that she couldn't bear to prolong it. Her blonde head darted up and down faster as the horny mongrel fed his meat to her with frantic, urgent jolts and violent jerks.

Cream me! she urged silently, yearning for his fuck-juice. Shoot that sweet slime into my fucking mouth, Enzo! Hose my throat with hot, thick dog juice!

The woman was panting and whimpering like an animal herself, abandoned to passion. Her cunt was steaming again now, and her tongue felt as hot as her clit as it rippled on his cock and lashed at his hairy fuck-stalk. He pumped Sin, and her head pushed down to meet him, enveloping his prick to the roots, taking him ball-deep into her head. She was cherishing every inch of that throbbing cock. His prick was expanding with every thrust, filling her mouth to the brim.

Nikki was sucking so desperately that she seemed to be trying to inhale the mongrel's cock right down into her lungs, taking him so deep that his doggy goo was spilling out straight into her belly. Enzo pumped it to her with frantic vitality, his hairy haunches a black blur as his prick sped in and out. His spine twisted into an S shape as he shoveled his fuck-knob down her gullet.

Enzo howled and slammed in, and Nikki gasped, feeling his balls spasm in her hand and his cockshaft jolt as the creamy dog jism rushed up his fuckrod. Then she gurgled with cocksucker's joy as his steaming hot fuck-juice hosed her mouth.

The first jism jet splashed in her throat and flooded down into her belly directly so that she didn't taste it. He shot another wad out on the recoil, and the delicious slime skimmed over her tongue. The frantic dog pumped fuck juice into her cheeks, and a spurt splattered on the arched roof of her mouth.

Nikki sucked and swallowed, gulped and gurgled, milking his prick voraciously.

Cock spume squirted from his gaping pisshole in fiery jets and slimy coils, flooding her mouth. Nikki was drinking the delicious stuff as fast as she could, but his load was too much for her. Foaming ribbons of spunk overflowed her lips and trickled down both sides of her jaw. Her throat pulsed as she gulped his jism down, and her lips pulled more gooey ropes from his fuckknob.

Enzo's balls seemed bottomless as his cum continued to hose the wanton girl's mouth with steaming geysers. Her head tipped back as the brute stuffed his prick into her, then bobbed down as he withdrew, milking him hungrily.

Don't stop shooting, boy-she thought, with her belly already full of dog spunk but still greedy for more.

Her mouth was full and overflowing. Each time she gulped a load down, the dog fed her another to replace it. Cum swirled in her cheeks, sloshed through her teeth, and clung to the roof of her mouth like stalactites. Her tongue was awash with the slimy stuff, floating around like a pliable log in a swamp.

Enzo yelped, jamming in hard as his last creamy spurt burst from his flaring cockhead. He faltered, whimpering. Nikki kept on sucking, dragging the last trickles out by the suction of her mouth, working away until she was certain that she had drained him dry. The mongrel's prickmeat began to soften and diminish in her mouth. She nursed on it and managed to pull a last thick cum drop from his pisshole. She sighed softly, sorry that the meal had ended, wanting more. She drew her slimy lips from him with a last loving slurp.

Enzo's fuckrod swayed up and down under the brute, his slick red fuck-knob dripping with cum and saliva. Nikki leaned in and used her tongue to lap it up, not wanting a single precious drop to be wasted on the carpet. She slurped all over his cockhead and sucked it back into her mouth for a final taste. Enzo was panting and trembling, dazed, his brains sucked out. When his mistress pulled her lips away again, the doggy stepped away, shaking his big head as if he had been poleaxed.

Nikki leaned after him, lapping at his shrunken balls and gathering up a few errant slime drops. Then she sprawled out on the floor, on her back, legs spread wide. Her cunt was steaming and overflowing, and her clit stood out like a stump in a swamp. There was still lots of jism left in her mouth, and she threw her head back and let the succulent stuff slide slowly down her throat. A few creamy drops had splashed down on her fat tits, and she ran her open hands over her lit globes and brought them to her lips, licking the jism from her palms like a cat at a cream bowl, purring and whimpering.

Now that her mouth was satiated, Nikki's fuckhole was yearning for a load-of hot prick, hornier than she had been before the doggy had lapped her off.

She cupped a hand over her smoldering pussy and looked hopefully towards Enzo.

But the powerful brute was drained. He had lost interest when he lost his load, and now he staggered away, head hanging. His big prick was limp, his fuck-knob drooping down and starting to retract back into his hairy sheath slowly.

Nikki sighed wistfully. She was thinking that she really needed two dogs-one for her mouth and one for her cunt.

Then she remembered that soon she was going to have all the dogs that a girl could want! In the throes of passion, Nikki had forgotten all about her plans, but now they came back to her, filling her with a surge of happy anticipation.

She heard the hammering from the yard again and grinned.

A kennel builder was about to get lucky...

The End.
