BEASTIALITY STORIES

I am the IT manager for a company that has sales, technical, financial and admin departments. In total there are 32 computers on the network including servers. Part of my responsibilities include ensuring a secure network and making sure end users do not waste time on the internet browsing social networking sites (like Facebook) or porn sites. This is not as simply as it may seem as I have to continuously monitor network usage and then block certain domain names (web addresses) and certain porn-related words like sex, fuck, blowjob, etc.

One day, during network maintenance, my network monitoring software indicated that on one of the sales person's computers downloaded a large number of files from the internet. From the size of the files I was sure it had to be videos so I logged to his computer and quickly found the folder in which the files were located. I hated finding any porn related files on employee computers as it always meant immediate disciplinary or dismissal. To fill in my report I had to view some of the files to report on the type of violation. The videos folders were labelled; "les" (lesbian), "coup" (couple), "3s" (threesome), and it went on with about 8 different folders with a specific genre of sex clips in each folder. The last folder was simply labelled "Z". By this point I would guess what the genre was based on the abbreviation but couldn't guess what "Z" could possibly stand for, so I gave up guessing and opened the folder. When I opened the first video file my mouth dropped open when I saw a beautiful young girl sucking a dog's cock

"What the fuck!"...was all I could say. Now I was grateful that I had decided to work late as I would not have liked it if someone had popped into my office at that point and seen me looking at this type of video. I sat back in my chair in disbelief, after a brief pause to reflect on what I just saw I took a sip of my coffee and opened the next video. This video was of another girl lying on her back with her legs spread while a dog licked her pussy as she moaned in pleasure

"Holy Shit!"...the words just came out on their own. I had to find out just how far these women would go with a dog, so I opened the next video and saw a women playing with a Doberman. After some "foreplay" she got naked, on her hands and knees and tapped her ass to invite the dog to fuck her and that is exactly what he did. He fucked her like she was a bitch on heat and she loved it as she was cheered on by whoever was taking the video.

When I find things like this on our company network, I am required to back it up to my external hard drive, lock the folder on the end user PC and present it as evidence to the company directors. So I followed the procedure and made my way home. When I got home, the images haunted me and I couldn't get it out of my mind. My wife Susan (Su) eventually asked.

"You're more distracted than usual, what's wrong?"

"Just work stuff Love. I think Jim is going to get fired"

"What! Why?" she asked with concern. Sue liked Jim, we often had him over for barbeques.

"I found a lot of porn on his computer, some of it is quite out there" She raised her eyebrow and asked.

"Out there? What exactly do you mean by out there? There must be something you can do to help Jim?"

"I don't think you want to know babe, you might change your mind about Jim"

I should never have said that, she was now so curious that she just HAD to know. After a few minutes of her pleading, I finally gave in and explained what I saw. She was shocked to say the least. Much of our discussion that followed was around the subject of dog sex.

"When you watched those clips, did you get turned on?" she asked. I thought hard about it but couldn't decide one way or the other. Sue and I are always honest with each other so I told her I wasn't sure.

"I'll simplify it for you. Did you get hard?" she asked.

"I was already hard from the other videos I saw and there were some pretty hot naked women with those dogs and... hold the phone, does it turn you on?"

"I'm not sure either. I would have to see it for myself before I could know for sure."

"I'll show you"

I plugged my external hard drive into our flat screen and opened the file. There were over 20 videos in the folder which was about 120min of footage. I started the first video and Sue and I watched in complete silence. After about 5min, Sue turned to be

"Pause it, I need the toilet" We spoke while she was in there.

"I never considered sex with a dog, how can those women do that?" I could see that this was very interesting to Sue as she dealt with human behaviour in her profession.

"So... does it turn you on?" I had to ask.

"Well, are you hard?"

Neither of us answered, we were both embarrassed that we were turned on. We went back and watched all the other video clips before going to bed. Sue and I usually talk for about an hour in bed before we fall asleep, but that night we didn't speak much as our minds were filled with a lot of questions and we needed to process what we had seen.

At about 1:20am, Sue woke me up.

"What's wrong?" I asked because she usually falls asleep quickly and sleeps deeply, so if she wakes me up then something must be wrong.

"I can't sleep"

"Are you OK?"

"I want you to make me cum, I'm so horny" I couldn't believe it, she was turned on by the dog sex. I got hard instantly and fucked her good and proper. After the awesome fuck, we both fell asleep.

The next morning, we got up around 10:00am as it was Saturday. I told Sue about my dream after our good fuck.

"I dreamed that Eddy (our neighbour's Rotweiler) was licking your pussy and we were both happy about it" Sue didn't comment, she just continued getting herself ready for the day. So after a pause I said.

"So you were quite horny last night. Anything to do with the videos we saw?" Sue blushed and couldn't contain her smile.

"Would you like me to invite Eddy over?" I said.

I was joking of course, but I could see a physical reaction in Sue but didn't know if I should be concerned or excited

I waited a little while then said "I tell you what, let's get Eddy over here, let him lick your pussy and then you will get it out of your system and never have to wonder about it again. What do you think?"

"Maybe you're right. I can't stop thinking about it so let's just do it, then it's done and we can forget about it" she replied.

I couldn't believe it, I thought that if I suggested it that she would realise just how ridiculous it was and forget about it, but she seemed like a woman with a mission now. I decided to hell with it, no harm can come of it, the dog probably won't comply anyway so there's nothing to lose.

Our neighbour worked on Saturdays so it wouldn't be difficult to get Eddy over and back home before his owner came home. Eddy would often come into our yard so convincing him to come in was no challenge. Eddy was a big boy, aggressive looking but as friendly as you could get. When he came into the kitchen Su's eyes lit up.

"Let's go to the living room" she suggested.

Once in the living room, Sue crouched down next to Eddy and petted him until he was calm enough to get things started.

"Touch his dick" I told her She took his sheathed cock in her hands and fondled him a while. Eddy loved the attention. Sue sat on the sofa and lifted her short skirt exposing her shaved pussy. She was clearly wet. She started rubbing her clit with her eyes fixed on Eddy. I could see that she was a bit nervous to invite Eddy to lick her, but before she could give it too much thought, Eddy started sniffing at her pussy. I watched as goose-bumps covered her body and as her nipples became extremely hard. Finally Eddy started licking her, Sue groaned from the pit of her stomach as the pure pleasure of Eddy's efforts coursed through her. Su's eyes closed as she focused on the sensation but eventually she opened them to watch as Eddy licked her pussy and even tried to lick her ass.

"Lift your legs" I suggested

Su grabbed her legs by the knees and lifted, exposing her pussy more and now Eddy could lick her ass easily. It didn't take long before Sue was writhing from the orgasm as it built within her until it finally exploded. It was an intense orgasm, pure pleasure like I hadn't seen for a long time. Her body shook uncontrollably until it subsided and she closed her legs to stop Eddy's oral assault. She was short of breathe and totally drained of energy.

"That was awesome" she confessed "I want more"

"More? What, you want him to fuck you like in the videos we saw" Sue looked at me and nodded with a desperate look in her eyes. I couldn't believe how turned on I was and how bad I wanted her to be fucked by this big dog. I coaxed Eddy back between her legs, which was no challenge, and he began to lick her again. I started jerking his now exposed cock to get him to hump like I saw in the videos. It worked like a charm, immediately his instinct told him to mount, he placed his paws on either side of Sue so she edged forward to bring her pussy in range of his thrusting cock.

"Help him" Sue instructed.

I took his cock in my hand and guided it to her pussy. His clumsy humping changed the moment he made contact and penetrated my wife's cunt. Sue was breathless as Eddy's thrusts became more specific. Sue flung her arms around Eddy's neck as he fucked her hard and fast like no man can. Su's eyes rolled back in her head as she orgasmed greater than I had ever seen. Eddy did not even slow down for a second. After her prolonged orgasm, Sue started to recover when she suddenly took a deep breath.

"Holy shit, it just got bigger"

I crouched down to see what she was talking about but couldn't see much. Then I remembered the knots I saw in the videos. I decided that Sue had to see this for herself, so I grabbed my phone and began to record what I was seeing. Eventually Eddy went ridged and began to spasm every few seconds while his cum filled my wife. Sue went over the edge again and had another powerful orgasm.

"He can't pull out, I think he's stuck"

"Don't worry babe, his cock will shrink when he's done with you" Sue smiled a naughty smile and relaxed under the big dog. After a few minutes, Eddy dislodged his impressive cock from Su's cunt and a stream of juices poured from her hole.

"Fuck me!" I exclaimed.

Eddy licked Sue clean, she had another mini orgasm, and then licked himself. When he was satisfied and his cock was hidden within its sheath again he left our house and went home. Sue looked at me with that naughty look of hers

"I know we said I should do it once and get it out of my system, but..."

"Yes? I'm listening" fully knowing what she was thinking.

"I want a dog of our own" I was elated, I definitely wanted to see that again and was hoping she would suggest it.

"What breed do you want?" Sue took my cock out and began to give me a blowjob, but just before I came she said.

"I'll let you choose. What dog would you like to see me fuck?" With that she shoved my cock back into her mouth and I came hard. Sue had never let me cum in her mouth but that day she was beside herself and she even swallowed.

The following week we brought our new dog home. He was a 2 year old, professionally trained Rhodesian Ridgeback (big dog breed for lion hunting). Needless to say, we taught him a few things his professional trainers never did.
