BEASTIALITY STORIES

© by unknown

I am a 42-year-old lady who has recently gotten into the K9 scene. It had been a fantasy of mine for several years, but only lately that my husband, John, decided, and I decided I needed a dog for me. I am an overweight person who loves sex just as much as the smaller ladies. My 265-pound body needs to be loved, and my fat pussy needs to be fucked, too, just like a slimmer woman's does. I have very big breasts and a plump pussy that I keep well-trimmed and groomed. I love sex! Anal, oral, or anything in between.

One of my favorite ways of being fucked by John was when we would talk about me being fucked by a dog or horse. It turned me on, and I would cum so hard as John would talk dirty to me while he fucked my fat pussy. I love being talked to dirty as John fucked me. Sometimes if I felt like it, I would let him take my ass and give me a good fucking back there. I loved being fucked! And I loved to fantasize about me being fucked by a dog as I masturbated.

After talking about us finding a dog for me to fuck, we started our hunt. We looked around and finally found one on a site we visit a lot. The lady we emailed said she had exactly what I needed. A big dog that loved to please her. We got in touch with her, and she told us he was well-trained to please her and that she would sell him to us for $500.00. Both John and I made arrangements to go to her house the following day and for me to try him out before buying him. We wanted to be sure we got what I needed, a dog that would satisfy my pussy and my dog cravings.

We arrived at the lady's home that morning, and she welcomed us inside as she introduced herself as Marie. She was not bashful about discussing her fucking the dog and brought him into the living room where we sat. She told us that his name was Butch and that he had serviced several ladies in the past. She took his cock into her hands and held it there for me to see. Then, she asked if we wanted him to demonstrate his abilities.

John and I looked at each other as she made him sit down between her legs as she lowered her panties and spread her thighs for him. She was sitting on her sofa, and we saw her smooth-shaven pussy as her fingers went to it and opened her thick lips. I watched as Butch lowered his head to her pussy and started to lick it in long strokes with his tongue. Damn! It was making me so hot to watch her as his long tongue lapped at her bare pussy.

"He loves to taste me," she said, "But he really likes this." As she reached for his cock as I saw it sneak from beneath its sheath. "Watch this, but be careful. He will slide it to your ass if you don't watch out."

We saw her take his big red cock and start to stroke it as it began to grow so long and hard. His cock was larger than my husband's! She had her fingers wrapped around his slimy dick as he kept licking her pussy. My pussy was on fire as I watched in awe of his big-sized cock in her hand.

"Now, I will show you the best part. Butch likes me on my hands and knees so that he can fuck both of my holes sometimes," she said as she got onto the floor in front of us. "He is very good at this. Just remember he has a huge knot when it gets good and hard. It can rip your ass if you are not careful."

I watched as he mounted her hips from behind, placing his paws on the sides as she reached under her and took his cock into her hand once again. His big red cock was so slimy looking as she guided that doggie cock past her upturned ass and into her slick pussy as we watched. My pussy was dripping now as I saw that huge red meat going in and out of her, my fingers dropping to my cunt as I looked on. I could see the pleasure she was getting from his cock as it slid into her bare pussy.

"You want to try him?" she asked, "Then get down here with me. He has enough cock for both of us."

“Go ahead, baby. ” John said as he was rubbing his cock, “You have been wanting it for so long. Now is your chance. Go for it! Let him fuck that fat pussy of yours!”

I got to the floor beside her, slipped my shorts off, and lowered my damp panties to the floor. I got down onto my knees as she was doing and watched her as she reached down and took the dog’s cock from her pussy. She then took Butch and helped him mount me as I felt the dog’s paws on my wide hips. I was so wet!

“Now, John, take his cock and put it in her. Let her feel his lovely cock in her wet pussy,” Marie said. “See how bad she wants it?”

I felt John as he took the doggie cock and started to rub it along my excited slit, taking the wet head and rubbing it up and down as he went as I spread my fat pussy lips wider with my fingers. That doggie cock was feeling so hot as I wiggled my ass and told him to put it in me. I wanted it now!

John held it to my nether lips as I opened my fat pussy for that huge doggie cock. I felt the thickness of it as Butch rammed it in me, making me gasp as it took my breath away as it entered my wet pussy. Feeling that dog cock slide in me was the best feeling I ever had in my pussy! He was filling me with that hot cock. I felt him jamming it faster to me as he hunched.

“Fuck that cock, baby! You are such a slut! Letting that dog fuck you!” he said, “Now show me what kind of slut you are. Fuck that doggie cock!”

“Oh, my God! Oh, Yes! He is so good! His cock is so damn good!” I shouted as John started sucking on my large tits as one hand went under me to play with my clit. “Oh, John! He is so big inside me!”

John was working on my tits and clit as Butch was pounding his doggie cock to me. I felt his huge cock grew even larger as his knot began to swell inside me. It pushed past the entrance to my hot pussy as it swelled up inside me, locking my pussy to his huge cock as he pounded my cunt. My pussy was spread so wide! I was full of cock, hot doggie cock!

I started to cum as he rammed it to me, fucking me with those fast strokes as he filled my cunt. His big red cock was sinking its knot so deep in me! Every time he pushed in, I would cum! Butch had me cumming over and over as I felt that big knot in me. Then I felt the dog’s cock as it throbbed inside me, knowing he was cumming as his hot doggie cum began to fill me. My pussy was on fire as his hot cum flooded me! I was loving it!

“Cum for us, you sick fuck! Shoot your cum while he fucks you. You are such a nasty bitch! Fuck his cock! Fuck that doggie cock!” said John as I took every inch.

I looked over to see Marie as she was fucking herself with a long dildo. It rammed so far in her pussy as she watched me getting fucked by her dog. John had his cock out, too, as she was sucking on it as he played with my clit while I continued to cum.

Butch was fucking me so good, and I loved every second as his cock sent his hot doggie sperm so deep into my pussy, filling me with that hot doggie cum.

Then I felt Butch as his dick started to shrink inside me. The huge knot was going down as I felt my pussy returning to its original size. His cum was flowing out of me as I felt his cock disengage from me, leaving my pussy with an empty feeling.

John paid her the $500.00, and we took Butch home with us that day! This was the beginning of a long relationship between me and Butch. I had told John that I would only let Butch fuck me when he was there with me. This lasted a couple of weeks until I got so horny one day that I took Butch to our bed and had him fuck me for over an hour!

After that, I would let him fuck me almost every day, and then when John came home that night, we would do it again! I never told John any different, as I had my hot, fat pussy satisfied several times a day. John never knew what was going on. I even go to where I had Butch trained to let me suck his huge doggie cock! He loved me sucking on it as I would take it into my mouth as I played with his balls. I got to where I loved sucking his cock before he slammed it into my fat pussy.

Then one night, John had me laying on the bed with my legs on his shoulders, pounding his nice-sized cock into me. I watched Butch as he came up behind John. I saw his huge doggie cock as he straddled John and felt him when he surprised John and thrust his cock up John's ass in one stroke! John's cock went so deep in me as Butch's cock plunged into John's asshole!

"Oh, shit! Oh, shit! Butch! Get off me! You are hurting my ass!" John cried out, "Get off me! Damn you!"

But, Butch did not do as John wanted. Instead, he rammed his doggie cock deeper into John's ass, and I felt him being pounded by that cock. John was so deep in me, and I could feel him each time Butch rammed his cock into John's ass. I looked over his shoulder to see Butch as his cock plowed into my husband's ass. I could see that bright red cock as it plunged in and out of his ass! This made me cum that much harder as I felt the dog pumping his cock to my John's ass. I grabbed his ass cheeks and pulled him to me as I climaxed once again.

Butch never did slide his knot to John that time, but he really gave him a good fucking in his ass. After that time, I also learned to take Butch's doggie cock up my ass. I would get on my hands and knees and guide his cock to my ass sometimes if I felt like having him fuck me back there. I got to where I loved his fucking my ass almost as good as when he pounded my cunt.

Since then, John and I have gotten another dog, a big black Lab, and we are training him now. He has learned to mount me from behind and loves to lick my pussy. I am waiting on the time when I can have him fucking John in his ass as he fucks me.

The End
