BEASTIALITY STORIES

It was a gorgeous afternoon, and I decided to play hooky from work and take the afternoon off. I decided to go for a long walk through the park near my house. It is a huge park with lots of places to explore. I liked it because the deeper you went into the forest, the less people you would see. And since it was a weekday there would hardly be anyone around anyways. In case I forgot to mention it, I'm a bit of a loner.

So, after about 45 minutes of walking, I'm in the middle of the forest with not a soul around. Or so I thought. As I walked, I thought I could hear something following me. I turned and looked around, and from behind me appeared this huge dog. I looked down at him, kind of startled, and he quickly began wagging his tail.

"Hello there, my shaggy friend," and I patted him on the head.

My new hiking partner and I resumed our walk, and we continued exploring. Me being me, I was looking all around except where I was going, and I tripped over a root and fell face-first into a huge mud puddle. I was completely covered in thick, stinky sludge.

"Aw fuck!" I screamed as I pushed myself onto my feet and headed for dry land.

I sat down on a stump and looked to see if anyone was around. I was alone, except for my new canine pal, who was sniffing around up the way.

I stripped off my shirt and pants and wrung them out. What a mess. Even my boxers were soaked. This was so embarrassing. I peeled off my boxers and wrung them out as well. I didn't think anyone would see me since I wasn't on a trail. So I hung all my clothes in the sun and leaned back against the stump. By this time, the dog had come back to see what was keeping me. He stood in front of me, giving me a funny look as if to say, 'Why are you naked dumbass?'

The next thing I know, he sticks his nose in my crotch and starts licking my balls. For about a millisecond, I thought about shooing him away, but it felt so good. His big tongue sliding up my balls and my already stiff cock. He licked and licked. Before I knew it, I found my hand jerking on my cock while he licked my balls. I sat on the stump and spread my legs, exposing my ass to him. He quickly started licking my anus, and the sensations drove me over the edge. I had a huge orgasm shooting cum all over his head and my stomach and legs.

"Oh man, that was intense," I said as he licked my spunk off of me.

I dropped onto my knees, with my buddy sitting in front of me. I looked down, and I could see I wasn't the only one who was aroused. About 2" of his pointy red cock was sticking out of his sheath. I started to scratch his belly, finding myself scratching lower and lower each time until I found myself with my hand on his unit. He twitched a bit when I touched it but he didn't growl or anything. It was wet and really hot to the touch. As I caressed, it extended about another 2" out.

Crazy ideas began to go through my head, and my mouth began to water. I wanted to taste it. I lowered my face between his legs until I was only a few inches away from it. It smelled musty but not unpleasant. I put my lips around the tip of it and started sliding it into my mouth. The dog stood up, and this cock slid another 3" out of its sheath and right down my throat. He then started fucking my face. This long, salty cock was being driven in and out of my mouth, it was kind of uncomfortable, but I was really turned on. I also got a first-hand view of his knot growing in front of me.

I should have realized what was coming, but it still caught me by surprise. The dog shot its load into my mouth. It hit the back of my throat, making me gag. I pulled away from the dog, but it just kept cumming, blasting jizz all over my face and chest. 'Wow!' I thought. 'He had a big orgasm.' We separated for a minute, so I could wipe the cum out of my eyes. I looked over at my canine lover, and he still had a huge boner.

"That's impressive," I said to him, and I rolled onto my knees to get up.

Well, he still had one surprise left for me and quickly jumped up onto my back. Obviously, he wasn't completely satisfied yet. I wasn't sure I wanted this, but he wasn't going to take No for an answer. I knew I needed some lube, so I scooped some of his leftover jizz off of my chest and reached around to my ass. I slid a finger in and then two. I could feel his hard cock sliding up my butt crack, trying to find my fuck hole. I slid my fingers in and out a few times and decided I was ready.

I was really nervous, and my hand was shaking as I reached back and grabbed his cock. I took the pointy head of it and led it to my twitching bum hole. I didn't let go in right away, I wanted it to go in slowly. The hot tip touched my ass lips, and my balls began to quiver in anticipation. Slowly the tip of his dick pushed against me, and my anus began to give way. I could feel it open more, and his tip went in. So far, there hasn't been any pain. Wider and wider, I opened until he was in up to the very beginning of his shaft. He pushed more I could feel his length go deeper inside of me. I let go of him, and he slid his cock into me until I could feel his furry sheath tickling my bum cheeks.

Now that he was fully impaled inside of me, the slow gentleness was gone. And He started bucking wildly. Pulling his meat pole halfway out and slamming it back into me. Now, it was hurting, but I didn't care. I moaned and cried in ecstasy as this stray dog made me his bitch. My own cock was now as hard as a rock. I looked underneath me, and I could see his huge, hairy balls colliding against my own with each powerful thrust.

I could feel his knot growing once more. I knew there was nothing I could do. He was going to tie with me and finish mating. I could feel it pushing against my ravaged ass hole. With each thrust, it felt like it was almost in, but then he'd pull out again. Finally, my man pussy gave way, and it drove in with the force of someone jamming a bat up my ass. I cried out in pleasure and pain. I began pulling on my own cock, and I quickly came. My sphincter felt so full, and I could still feel him expanding. I licked my excess cum from my fingers, and I heard the dog begin to whimper. With another huge explosion from his balls, I could feel him deposit his seed into me. It squirted out from around my ass and ran down my leg.

The dog collapsed onto my back, panting in my ear. Its canine cock continued to twitch in my ass. The dog didn't move for about 10 or 15 minutes. I stayed still and didn't panic. Enjoying the sensation of feeling the dog's cock go limp. It was almost as if the dog knew when to pull out because it slid off my back and turned ass to ass with me. With one quick tug, I felt my ass stretch one last time, and his member pulled out. Followed by what seemed like a gallon of cum.

I rolled onto my back, completely exhausted, and fell asleep. I awoke about an hour later. My clothes were dry, but my canine sex master was nowhere to be seen. I got dressed and walked home, kind of bull legged I might add. What a day. I had to get a dog.

The End
