BEASTIALITY STORIES

The day had all the makings of a perfect day - temp in the mid 70's - windows open, the cool breeze made me want to stay in bed, pulling the sheets tight around me ... it would have been perfect if it wasn't for the empty space next to me on the large king sized bed.

Rolling on my back, raising my hands to my head, silently to myself, 'I'm such a slut - why couldn't I stay faithful to the one who could have been the love of my life, the one to grow old with?'

When Elaine was told I had Janet staying over while she was out of town on business, she confronted me as soon as I got home, pleading with her that Janet had picked me up, apologizing that she knows how submissive I get when someone puts their hand between my legs stroking my pussy ...

When I tried to justify what had happened, she packed up her things, leaving without saying anything ... now I was a good looking submissive female who had no one to share my life with.

Laying in bed a bit longer, finally getting up, jumping in the shower while I used my vibrator, finally more frustrated than I had been before I got in - this wasn't anything like having my pussy licked in the shower ... even though it had been four months since she left me, I had finally come to the accept the fact, she was not coming back, so I needed to move on - seeing if anyone would be interested in being with me, even though she would know I was as slut that could not be faithful.

A beautiful park was located just a few blocks from my condo ... it was saturday, so one of two days off - that coupled with a three day weekend, Monday was a holiday - slipping on a simple sundress, no bras, no panties - giggling taking one final look in the mirror - I was really good looking - so with some luck maybe I'd get lucky.

The park was perfect, a light breeze blew up under my clothing, feeling like I was being stroked between my legs ... I'd been walking for approximately 45 minutes when I took a rest, finding a nice bench and enjoying my iced water, I'd prepared before I left. Looking back down the path I'd just come, was what had to be the hottest looking woman I've ever seen - She had a steady stride, confident, boobs bouncing up and down - even from this distance I could make out how big her nipples were.

I've heard it said that one lesbian can easily spot a fellow sister - if this was true the one approaching me definitely fit that profile - along with her was a dog on a leash - a beautiful looking dog .. but not just a dog, a huge dog, bigger than I can ever remember seeing - his hair waved in the air, while he and his owner came towards me. She and I locked eyes, sending a small shiver all through my body ... Stopping a few feet from me, "Hi, I'm Jessica - hate to ask you this, but can you watch my doggie while I rush into the bathroom ... I promise he'll be easy to watch?"

I love animals, but I've never had one this close, a few passing me when I am walking or jogging ... but this one was so big ... shaking my head, "I'm not sure he's so big ... not sure ..."

"I promise he'll be perfect and I'll be as quick as I can"

She handed me the leash and rushed off to the building behind me ... she was correct he just sat down in front of me ... that's when I realized he was not looking at me, but between my legs at my bare pussy.

The outfit I had on was far too short to stop him from looking ... shaking my head, telling him not to stare at me like that ... turning to see if she was returning, but no sign of her ... when I looked back at him, he hadn't moved but now visible was about 5 inches of his cock ... I'd never seen a dogs penis - This had me staring at him now,

The more I stared, a strange funny feeling began to take place between my legs ... sensing moisture had started appearing - becoming nervous, knowing how keen their noses are ... looking back, a sigh of relief when I saw the lady coming my way ... "I hope he was ...OMG he's excited - you must not have any panties on. He is definitely a Pussy Hound, he loves looking at bare pussies - I'm so sorry that this happened, are you OK?"

When she took the leash it finally snapped me out of the seemingly hypnotic stare his penis had me in, shaking my head, blushing slightly, "No I seldom wear panties - with this short covering there was no way to hide that fact ... a Pussy Hound? I've never heard of a dog being a pussy hound"

She had sat down by my side ... my question brought on a laugh, "He's a unique hound for sure, I'm sure he'd love to show you just how unique he is, but maybe later. I'm not normally this forward, but you're really cute and I can tell we have similar interests ... I belong to a private club located on the beach not far from here - it is a 'Clothing-Optional' club, wonder if you'd like to visit it with me as my guest?"

Looking at the Double D's she was barely concealing, how stunning hot she was, it took me only a few seconds, "A Clothing Optional club, I'd be happy to go with you, sounds like fun. Can I assume it is a 'Ladies-only' club?"

With her free hand, plunging it between my legs, moving back and forth over my soaked pussy, "The only cocks there will be on the numerous hounds like Maxie here - but one additional thing, you'll need to be on a leash as my slave" At that moment she pushed two fingers up inside me, moving it slowly in and out ... that is and always has been my weakness

Having missed this so much, my head rolled back, eyes lost focus ... legs clamped down on her hand, then opened wide for greater access ... it had been so long since I'd enjoyed a full climax - as soon as she was in me, it began building - without any warning my body shook then exploded all over her hand and down my legs ... Pulling her hand out, tasting one finger - "Maxie come here and clean Nikki up"

The huge dog was between my legs, licking my pussy, inner thighs, over and over again and again on my pussy before I realized what was happening ... I've only had a dog lick my hand, never dreamed of one licking my pussy, but the roughness of the surface, how wide it covered all of me, the super sensitivity of that whole area ... plunged me into an unfamiliar erotic cloud, never been in.

She didn't stop him, I was losing my mind ... eventually grabbing his head ... my hips humping his head, writhing from side to side - needing him to stop ... finally she called him to stop, allowing me to slump down on the bench ... body exhausted ... she ran her fingers through my hair, "Oh Honey you're going to be perfect - we'll pick you up on Friday morning, be ready to spend the weekend with the two of us"

Legs spread wide apart, it took a long time to gain some type of composure - when it finally happened, I sat there for the longest time trying to make sense of what just happened. I'd finally enjoyed the orgasm I had needed for such a long time, but a dog did it .. a big beautiful dog with the softest hair I'd ever felt, was the one who helped me explode ... adding to that I had agreed to be leashed and collared by a powerful lady who had to be the hottest female I'd ever seen.

Between then and the time she had scheduled to pick me up, my life was a blur - I couldn't concentrate on work, mornings and evenings passed in a dream-like state

She showed up, dressed in one of the skimpiest outfits one could have worn, telling me to kneel, I instantly complied while she placed a delicate leather collar around my neck, locking it in place

...when I felt the lick click shut, a wave of submissive feelings took over all of me , “Now I totally own you - I know you’re going to have fun” A leash was attached, a smock over my head ... she led me to a limo waiting ...the huge dog setting in the back, his eyes immediately locking with mine ...

The club took almost an hour to arrive, during the drive my tunic was removed, her hand between my legs, teasing, stimulating me ... carefully taking me to the edge but not allowing me to enjoy the much needed release ... by the time we arrived, I was in a sexual haze ... that was when I first saw what she was dressed in.

Maxie was on one side of her, I was on the opposite .. both on leashes ... my poor pussy was swollen, puffy looking and coated with a heavy covering of pre-cum ... my legs shaky, barely able to walk inside ... once inside - my eyes shot wide open - the place had a large area inside an open area leading to the sandy ocean view - there were maybe a dozen or more women dressed similar to how Jessica looked - a few had huge dogs - only a couple had both a dog and slave girl like me

Several women came up to greet her, each one running a hand over my nude body, some teasing my excited nipples, others rubbing between my legs, each one tasting how good my juices were ... then a lady with a large dog came up to greet her ... the dog zeroed in between my legs, he immediately started licking the moisture - sending me quickly into the haze I’d been in when we first meant - This one had a different way of licking my juices, he was somehow curling his tongue so it slipped up inside me ... my world was spinning out of control - a second lady and dog joined us, the second hound zeroed in on my bottom, separating the cheeks - touching areas that were sensitive but had never been played with before ... let alone licked by a dogs tongue.

Jess handed me a drink, telling me it would help settle me down during the application process . I couldn’t remember anything about that process, only that she had told several people I’d be applying for permanent slave status in the club and Maxie would be helping. Still no clue, but it was becoming harder and harder to concentrate due to the dogs between my legs.

That’s when someone directed everyone to take a seat, “Miss Jessica had obtained a new slave and is here to see if she is worthy of membership to our club”

Two young ladies took me by my leash into a back room, the drink I’d finished was taking effect, somehow being totally relaxed - helping me into a salon type of chair, a different dog was between my legs, licking once again - while my wrists were strapped down to the arm rests ... Jessica was by my side, stroking my hair, “Just relax honey, we’re going to put a nipple ring in each one of your lovely nipples - it will help you during the application process”

A strange device was slipped over each of my breasts, making sure the nipples were in the holes provided - then suddenly a sting hit me in both of them, the device was removed and both nipples had rings hanging freely. Jess played with them a little bit ... “OH perfect ... this is so quick and less painful then the old way - now you’re ready.”

By now I was in need of some relief ... trying to focus on Jess, while the young girls helped me out onto a stage ... leaning me over a heavily stuffed ottoman - securing two short hooks on each nipple ring, then securing my wrists to the edge of the device ... “Jess I really need to cum, please help me with some relief - the dogs have made me so horny - I’m afraid I’m going to pass out”

She patted my ass, just when a cool spray was felt between my legs ... “Oh honey you’re about to cum and cum and cum They just sprayed you with the 'Fuck-me-Spray' ... enjoy how much Maxie has been looking forward to this since he first saw your pussy”

Nothing was making any sense, I tried to pull up, the pain in each nipple was instant, dropping me back to the surface immediately ... then behind me, a dog was licking between my legs again .. my eyes were coming back into focus ... There were a lot of women sitting at tables watching me ... just then Max jumped up on my back His long cock sliding easily deep inside my pussy - that's when it hit me Twisting, turning, trying to lift up, the nipple pain keeping me in place ... screaming ... “No Max, no bad dog OH fuck stop him, someone stop him ... I'm not Ohhhh fuckkkkkkkk”

He was all the way in, deeper than any device had ever been, larger than any of my giant black dildos A strange wave of pure heavenly pleasure shot all over me ... The release I needed so badly, was now building so quickly - on the edge, pushing me over just as he started pounding that long shaft in and out of me ... the explosion was unlike any climax I'd ever experienced - much more intense, coming from a place deep inside me, than triggering every nerve I had in me ... I wanted to scream - but no sound came out ... Applying a steady pressure of pain from my nipples, added to the pleasure he was giving me ... that's when Jess came by my side, slapping my ass with some sort of paddle - everything combined to bring on a longer, deeper, more body shaking orgasm - his pumping never slowed or sped up, just one steady rhythm of in and out A few more smacks, my ass was on fire .. when his huge knot started to apply pressure.

Vaguely in the back of my mind I remembered a dog slips in a huge appendage on his penis to ensure the seed stays in until the eggs are fertilized - his knot was pressing me to slip in, from the pressure being applied it had to be huge - before I could scream for help, he'd somehow pushed it in - the pain was unbelievable, but as soon as it was in, the base landed on my secret sex spot, triggering another body shaking explosion - one that made the previous ones almost forgetful ... my body kept shaking - wave after wave of pleasure shot through me ... his warm seed added enjoyment to what was happening inside me That was all I could take - dropping my head on the soft surface ... waiting patiently until he pulled out. The restraints were released, my whole body was tingling, nipples ached ... some unknown young lady came up to me, holding a microphone ... “So tell me Nikki, when you have rested what do you think you'll want to do first?”

With a voice just above a whisper, “Get fucked again by Max or any dog with a cock”

The crowd erupted in applause and cheers, I was immediately voted in as a new member - before I left the stage, while Max was relaxing, I licked and sucked his cock clean ... Jess helped me to a shower then a well deserved soaking in a hot tub - A tattoo was placed on my right hip, showing dog paw prints below them, “Jessica's Property”

Monday morning I called in to tell the company I worked for, I'd no longer be employee - the collar is permanent - a special smock/tunic type of a gown is what I wear all the time, it is not uncommon for her to take me to the park allowing a strange dog to fuck me - Max fucks me while I eat Mistress Jess' pussy - that takes place multiple times each day I'm no longer a slut, now I belong to Max and Jess and any dog who wants to fuck me.
