BEASTIALITY STORIES

The romantic drama

Sasha was a ballerina at 23. She was the lead in the plays and was very arrogant in her demeanor. A local billionaire, Mr. Stephane, a 55-year-old businessman, had a crush on Sasha, but whenever he approached her, she would shoot him down, making him feel embarrassed. A beauty like her definitely knows the gaze of lust, so she never wants anything to do with Mr. Stephane. Being an orphan, she had to struggle to get where she was, but she was a flawed personality. She was racist and treated her underlings very harshly. Despite her age, she never had a boyfriend, nor did she lose her virginity, which made Mr. Stephane desperate to have her virginity as a trophy.

Fed up with Sasha's rejections, Mr. Stephane plotted to have her fall in love with the help of his niece Rene, who was a handsome fellow in his regard. Stephane's plan was to have her fall in love with Rene, and when the time was right, Rene would dump her harshly, paving the way for Mr. Stephane to swoop in. He was well-versed in human psychology, so he was confident in his plan. Rene has unleashed on Sasha, who himself was a Playboy. He would change girls he fucked like socks. No girl stuck for more than 3 days. Rene was bisexual, so he had a couple of twinks to fuck as well.

After relentless tries and artificially creating coincidence moments with Sasha with the help of his uncle's connection, Rene finally scores a date with her. Mr. Stephane employed one of his friends, who was an expert in psychology, to plant seeds in Sasha's subconscious mind to obey Rene's every command as if it were the law. It took 2 months to break her first guard and have a passionate kiss. Mr. Stephane knew it would be extremely difficult to have her submit her virginity, but their attempt to have her become Rene's slave was actually successful. She would obey his words whenever there was no conflict with her principals, so everything was actually going according to plan. With the help of Rene, Stephane had placed spy cameras in Sasha's room, and he developed the habit of jerking off to videos of nude Sasha in her room. On the other hand, with no hole to fuck for so long, Rene was frustrated.

During one sleepover in Sasha's room, Rene jumped the instructions and tried to fuck her. He was fingering her and was about to insert his dick. She suddenly felt weird and threw Rene off and threw him out of her room at midnight. Mr. Stephane was furious that Rene was about to take her virginity. They had a falling off, but Rene didn't stop seeing Sasha. So Stephane had to create one more trap for his original trap.

Stephane enlisted a muscular dominatrix to tame his niece, which worked, and through her, he managed to smooth the relationship with his niece so that her niece would introduce Stephane to Sasha. With this, Stephane kind of became the third wheel in this relationship and a close friend to Sasha. Meanwhile, Rene would be sexually intoxicated by the dominatrix and her ways of domination. Rene would go to any extent to have sex with her, so using that leverage, Stephane set up Rene to dump Sasha and transfer all his master powers over to Stephane, although the hypnotic effect was not complete due to Rene's fuck up still Sasha became subservient to Stephane but with some sash.

Rene's fall

Once Mr. Stephane had his hands on Sasha, he decided to take revenge on Rene for attempting to take his trophy. Dominatrix turned Rene into her loyal doggy, and in the coming days, she would have Rene wear chastity devices to prevent him from cumming. She would further cuckold him by having him be a cameraman when she had sex with another person. Eventually, she completely banned Rene from having sex with her; instead, his reward would be to hump her leg like a dog and lick the cum from her vagina after cuckold sessions.

Rene would be forced to wear butt plugs and sissy clothes. In a few days, she even resorted to pegging Rene. The final straw of Rene's sanity was when the dominatrix's boyfriend entered the picture, dominatrix would be submissive to the boyfriend, and Rene would have to ask permission from him to cum which he never gave.

Extremely blue balling Rene and even stopping pegging made Rene desperate for any action. In fact, Rene started to beg their dominatrix boyfriend to fuck his asshole. So, eventually, the dynamics around these three turned in a way where dominatrix would be a submissive girlfriend, and Rene would be a sissy girlfriend getting his ass fucked by anyone.

Sasha breaks

After Rene made Mr. Stephane Sasha's master. The very next day, Mr. Stephane had Sasha quit her ballerina job and move into his mansion, that evening he had Sasha sit on the couch with him as he marveled at her beauty, all while Sasha had a smug look as if she was doing a favor to him just by being there. He ordered her to remove her dress, Sasha obliged and went just topless. Running his finger along her decent-sized breast, he ordered, "I want your nipples to be darker next time. Now remove the skirt as well."

Sasha stood and took off her skirt and stood there, showing her naked body to him. Stephane examined her pussy, to which she flinched due to awkwardness she had never faced, but this earned a slap on her face from Stephane.

"You are a slave. You should learn to be honored to show yourself to your master."

As a punishment, he whipped her. Although her bratty attitude was preventing him from taking his trophy, his slave having pride made him extremely horny. Even when she would be stripped naked, she would shout at black housework when she entered the room or boss her around. Mr. Stephane had immense pleasure in hurting her ego.

So, one day, he stripped her and made her wear a collar and leash, declaring that she would be the new dog in the house. He would have her walk on all fours behind him and would have her feed from a dog bowl. As Mr. Stephane's birthday neared he knew what he wanted for his birthday.

On that day, Sasha was made to wear jewels only and cleaned her thoroughly. On that night, he ordered her to present herself, so she climbed on the bed with her ass up and face down and spread her ass cheeks to expose her pussy to her master. Mr. Stephane lubricated her hole and was about to penetrate her, but he didn't feel like taking her virginity now itself, so he went and lubricated her asshole and took her to pound town through anal intercourse since he was old he lasted for 1 minute but ejaculated in her asshole.

The pain from anal penetration made Sasha cum and pass out. From that day, Sasha would have anal stretching activities like having a butt plug in her 24/7 and anal beads from time to time. She hated anal sex and had no control over her asshole. Once while getting fucked she shit on the bed. Olga, the African house help had to clean it.

Despite weeks of anal training, she did it again in later days, so, as punishment Mr. Stephane locked her in the toilet and would fuck her there so that her leak was easily cleaned. She was supposed to apologize to Olga, and she would be set free from the toilet. But the racist dog thought sleeping in the toilet was better than bowing in front of a black person.

Mr. Stephane was upset with this behavior and didn't go to fuck her for 2 days; meanwhile, he forgot to feed her also. Realizing his mistake, he rushed to feed her, but instead, he caught her drinking from the toilet, and when she saw Stephane, she started to beg him to fuck her ass. Just two days of isolation broke Sasha, extremely disappointed Mr. Stephane started to ignore her as she was no longer the egoistic slave he wanted to win over.

Trophy claimed by an unlikely candidate

Sasha was shut off from sex altogether, but she was still a dog in the house, along with an old German shepherd, Tommy. As dogs of the house, they would be kept together as it was easy to feed them that way. As the days went by, Sasha grew desperate for dick, so during the night, she started to suck off Tommy as it was only the dick she had access to other than Mr. Stephane. One night, Olga caught her and reported it to Mr. Stephane. He confronted Sasha

"You became so desperate for dick that you betrayed your species and chose to be a bitch to Tommy?"

Sasha was hanging her head low with extreme shame as she realized the severity of her actions now,

"Very well, it suits a bitch like you, so I'll arrange your marriage to Tommy. You will serve him with sincerity."

This made Sasha's heart sink, thinking her marriage would be with a dog!! Despite her dilemma, her body reacted differently as this news made her really wet. In the evening, they arranged the marriage ceremony. Olga led Tommy and he had a bow tie on his collar. Sasha was made to crawl towards her future husband on all fours, wearing only a pearl necklace and a white veil.

Stephane read the vows and declared them: "Dog and his bitch." They applied lubricant on her pussy, and to get Tommy in the mood, they smeared female dog hormones on Sasha's ass. After smelling his bitch Tommy was eager to impregnate her. Before mating, they brought a huge mirror and placed it in front of Sasha so she gets to see who was fucking her. With help from Olga, Tommy was able to mount Sasha and penetrate her pussy. Stephane took photos of Sasha's first vaginal penetration.

Once in, Tommy started to pound his bitch continuously. Sasha was not even able to breathe properly but had cum 3 times already. Finally, Tommy stretched Sasha's pussy to the limit with his knott and got off of her going ass to ass as he started to dump his cum in her. During this time, Sasha's eyes locked in with Olga standing behind her through the mirror. As dog cum started to flow in her gut, she felt extremely shameful and bowed her head as Olga's eyes were throwing daggers with the satisfaction of seeing her in this state.

After that, Sasha was given a big dog bed to sleep in, and both of the dogs were moved into the living room. Sasha would be nude with only a collar on her with a name tag that read 'Sasha, Tommy's bitch,' both their beds were side by side, but they would always have sex in Sasha's bed, only resulting in Sasha sleeping in her cum, there were three bowls in front. One for water shared by both. Another was labeled Tommy. Another labelled 'Tommy's fuck toy.'

The photo of Sasha getting dicked down by Tommy for the first was hung on the wall behind them with the caption, 'Sasha preserved her virginity and offered it to her husband, Tommy.' Tommy no longer needed help from Olga to mount his bitch so that he would fuck her whenever he wanted, and Sasha was to obey without question. The hierarchy was set in the mansion, with Sasha being at the bottom; every living creature that set foot into the mansion would be superior to her, and she must obey whatever demands they had. Stephane even made Sasha kiss off Olga whenever she refilled food and water.

Tommy was getting old and had multiple organ failures, so he had to be put down. Sasha didn't feel anything regarding the death; instead, she missed getting pounded.

Story of Two Holes

Within days of Tommy's passing, he was replaced by a black Great Dane called Moris. He was a special breed with a bigger dick than normal Danes. Tommy's position in the mansion was handed over to Moris along with his toy i.e., Sasha. In their first meeting, Moris fucked Sasha 10 times in a day, leaving Sasha in a mess of cum and saliva. Their relationship was established as Sasha was supposed to be the girlfriend of Moris. Her name tag now read 'Moris's darling,' and her label on the food bowl was 'Moris's fuckmeat.' In addition to this, Sasha was made to wear a butt plug with Tommy's tail attached at the end to prevent Moris from fucking her asshole. Now whenever she wanted to shit, she was supposed to beg Moris to pull out her butt plug.

Whenever Mr. Stephane had guests, he would entertain them by ordering Moris to "mount his bitch." Sasha was supposed to maintain eye contact with the guest until Moris dumped his cum in her. The young dog mansion's living room would be ringing with Sasha's moans all day.

One day, Mr. Stephane's mentor, Mr. Frank, visited him and was entertained by Sasha and Moris. Frank developed a crush on beautiful Sasha as he had seen her ballet shows multiple times, so when he inquired about it, he got to know that her asshole was a dog free, so Frank requested Stephane to lend her a day by proposing that Stephane should turn Sasha into a whore for two species her pussy will be exclusively for dogs and asshole for humans, this excited Stephane. He requested Frank for a week time before he could have Sasha, as Stephane had some modifications in his head.

After a week, Stephane visited Frank with a hooded figure following him. Stephane explained that he made changes to Sasha, and now she will be a whore for humans and dogs, as suggested by Frank. Stephane took off the robes, revealing Sasha. Her hair was tied into a bun with makeup, which multiplied her beauty, she has ear piercings all along her ear and hanging of text "man" on one ear and "dog" on another ear. Her septum was pierced with a golden ring,

She had a pearl necklace around her neck.

Her nipples were turned dark, and she had gloves that reached to her elbows.

She had a belly button piercing.

She wore a thong that covered her pussy but exposed her asshole, but there was a leash attached through her thong connected to her pussy. Stephane unclipped the leash and made her remove the thong.

Frank gasped at what he saw, her pussy lips were sealed shut through piercing rings, and a ring was pierced on her clitoris to hold the leash.

Her long legs were exposed with high heels, and at the end of her shin, there were two tattoos on both legs.

The right one read: 'Property of Mr. Stephane.'

The left one read: 'Property of Moris.'

Stephane explained that he had found another dog to leash, Sasha, for a day after Frank. He congratulated Frank, saying he would be her first client. Stephane further explained not to open the pussy piercings as she carried dog cum in them and showed a small tube insertion which Sasha would use to pee without opening her pussy. Her asshole on the end has gone through intensive enema, and they have injected her asshole to make it taste and smell nice for the next 3 days.

Sasha was ordered to put her thong back on, and Stephane clipped the leash and handed the leash to Frank. Sasha's life as a whore began as she followed Frank into his bedroom to get her asshole railed for a week.

Stephane came to collect her, and he saw a golden chain around her waist. Frank was so pleased with her that he gifted her that chain. Mr. Frank also informed him that Sasha was freshly loaded with his cum in her asshole before being sealed by a butt plug. He further suggested Stephane continue this tradition of loading her with cum of her previous client before giving her to the next one. Stephane thought that was a brilliant idea. They took Sasha home, collected the cum in her asshole, and cleaned her thoroughly. They loaded her again with the cum in her asshole and sealed it with Tommy's tail plug, and without giving her time to rest, they took her to her next client.

Here, Sasha was made to crawl on all fours. Her hair was let loose, no piercings on her body. She had her collar and leash on and nothing else. She was given to Rody, a Doberman, for a day. Thus, she was officially a prostitute for dogs and men.

Later, she was taken back home, and the next day, Stephane had arranged for a grand party in his home. At the center, there were two mannequins and something in between them covered in a robe. One mannequin had piercings and everything similar to that of the outfit Sasha wore to Frank, and another one had collar and tail plugs like the outfit Sasha wore for Rody.

Stephane gathered everyone around and started to explain that one mannequin was whore for humans and another was a whore used by dogs that he was offering to everyone. People in his party were eager to have a look at these whores. Stephane calmed everyone, saying he would now introduce these whores, and lifted the robe in the middle revealing Sasha in an owl mask. She stood up and felt like some object in front of these people.

Stephane further explained that two whores are Sasha herself—her asshole was dedicated to humans and her pussy for dogs.

He later removed the mask, revealing her identity. Sasha never felt exposed as she was now the exhibitionist, feel made her extremely uncomfortable. He then had a chain dangle from the top and cuffed her hand, then attached it to the chain over her head. Ordered Sasha to spread her legs for the audience as he started to undress and started to fuck her asshole in front of everyone. Sasha was filled with euphoria. She was crying as Stephane deeply kissed her as she was being fucked in her ass in front of everyone.

Once he was done, she was freed from handcuffs and was made to go on all fours as Moris was led onto the stage. In her position, she looked at the audience and saw a woman that looked like Rene in a black dress with a hole in the crotch that exposed his dick, kissing a big muscular man with another girl giving him a handjob.

Rene and Sasha locked eyes when Moris penetrated his bitch, Sasha, for some reason, felt her condition was better than Rene's as she was pounded madly in her pussy. Once done with Moris, Sasha was made to turn around, showing her violated asshole and pussy dripping with cum from man and beast.

Within hours, she was booked for 3 months, and she would alternate from human to dog. For humans, the outfit remained the same, but for the dog, she had another harness on her thighs and ankles hooked together to make her walk on her knees. She was whored to old men, young kids, and dogs from Saint Bernard to mutts.

The most embarrassing was when was fucked by a chihuahua supported on a stool, and the small dick didn't even make her feel anything; still, the shame made her cum twice. After her whore tour, she was returned to Moris, who fucked his fuck meat with no regard.

Epilogue

Sasha continued to be whore, and at home, she would be fuck meat exclusively to Moris. Mr. Stephane never fucked her; instead, Olga would make Sasha eat her ass and pussy. At the age of 28, she was set free, but Sasha failed to integrate into society, so she desperately went to Mr. Frank to turn her into a sex slave again.

Mr. Frank took her in and then sold her to rich Saudi sheiks who were astonished by her two holes, her clitoris was surgically removed, and she would be a sex slave to Salman and his pet lion. So, she was turned into a lioness and concubine for a sheik.
