BEASTIALITY STORIES

Somewhere in the Arctic Circle

Jessica Thompson moaned as nine inches of wolf cock slammed into her wet and willing pussy repeatedly. It was a cold arctic day but she was only wearing a parka, snow boots and gloves. She was relying on the young wolf to keep her exposed cunt warm and he was doing a fantastic job. Her pussy juice practically sizzled as it splattered in all directions only to freeze as it ran down her inner thighs....

New York

A month ago the 26 year old woman had lost a grandfather that she had loved dearly. Evidently he had felt the same because he left his vast accumulated wealth to her as the sole beneficiary. After the funeral she began to contemplate how she could spend the money. Her friends had suggestions of course, but it wasn't until a week later while she was knotted with a stray dog in an alley that she knew what she wanted to do. There was a whole planet of exotic animals to play with and now she could reach them! After that it was a flurry of activity as she packed and made preparations for her private excursions. She hired some men to prevent other animals besides the chosen object of her desire from reaching her and to assist in any awkward sexual situations that might arise but otherwise she wanted to mate undisturbed .

Arctic

Once security had setup their perimeter they gave her the green light to "play". Once she removed her pants and underwear she stepped out of the main building on the arctic research base she had rented and sought out the wolf she had selected earlier. When she saw him she immediately got down on all fours with her butt in his direction. Curiosity brought him over to her but her obvious sexual arousal is what kept him there. Soon she was teasing him so much he began to get a little crazy. "Come on boy! Do you want me?" Jess cooed seductively as she unzipped her parka and freed her boobs from captivity. She was actually overheated from the excitement as the wolf was finally permitted to lick her pussy without any further delays or mock resistance. How much he wanted her was evident in the way his tongue worked over every inch of her womanhood.

"Oh!" Jessica whimpered as the warm tongue slid between her moist folds stimulating her nerve endings. She was pushing back into his face as she opened her legs a little wider to grant him more access. The wolf was starting to whine and dance around a little and he even made a few attempts to mount her before returning to her clitoris again. The intense licking was yielding results as mini explosions began going off from the overstimulation she was receiving. Suddenly the wolf mounted her with new determination as Miss Thompson's climax faded unrealized into nothingness. Now she was getting frustrated, but the wolf stayed on top of her back as he searched for her opening and constantly adjusted his position. Jess also tried to connect with him by raising herself up a little higher and then it happened! The cock began roaming around inside her pussy as it grew to full length going deeper and deeper into the warm love tunnel. "Nooo!" Jessica screamed in annoyance as the wolf's dick slid all the way out of her. But he soon found his way back inside as he really started banging her helpless pussy.

Copulating with a big wolf out on the frozen tundra was really driving Jessica wild. Especially when a rather sizable knot began to bash against her cunt. "Yes! Ooh! Yeees!" Jessica almost cried with need as the wolf's thrusts became more frantic as he sought to bury his cock all the way inside her to complete what nature had intended (not his fault he had been presented with a foreign pussy). He was practically crawling all over her as he finally got sufficient traction to shove his knot into her now orgasmic cunt. "AAAAAAAHH!" Jessica screamed with satisfaction as she became fully tied with the huge wolf and her hectic climax continued to torture her sensitive nerves.

Every time she thought she was settling down a sudden motion would set her off again. This went on for half an hour while wolf jizz was pumped into her.

At last the knot shrunk down enough to allow a safe exit and the wolf hopped off of her to go attend to his own business elsewhere. Even though she was completely happy with her encounter a wave of sadness enveloped her as the canine dick pulled out leaving her empty aside from a faint twinge of pleasure as it stimulated her one last time. "Oh wow!" "That was so hot", Jessica said to herself . "Which is ironic considering how cold it is here" she added with a chuckle, as she headed back inside the base to get some hot cocoa and plan her next mating session.
