BEASTIALITY STORIES

I've been married to a wonderful, sexy little minx for 10 years. It's been great, good living, great home life, good sex life. A few weeks ago., she was missing for the better part of an afternoon. When I asked her where she had been, she told me she was working on a surprise and would not speak about it. Everything was going along fine then my wife came to me a telling me she had become a bitch to a neighborhood stray dog and loves it. She wants me to watch her being taken. It really excites her and she thinks she would like to be fucked with an audience of people I choose. So much has occurred that I'm was in shock when she came to me with all this.

Not more than two days after her telling me her shocking news that I got a call from a man that told me he makes animal porn and had set up my wife with the dog that was fucking her. He saw her at the local grocery and thought she would make a wonderful addition to his dog slut stable. He had one of his goons slip drugs into her coffee at the coffee shop and led her into the alley where another goon was waiting with the dog and a van. She was taken in the van with the dog to a "studio" where she was fucked stupid for hours. The entire day was filmed. He told me to keep my mouth shut and she could stay living with me as my wife. She would be doing beast films on a regular basis. She would be well paid for her movies. I sat speechless. He told me to look in my mailbox and there was a DVD of her day at the studio. "I'll be in touch soon" he said and hung up. I could not help myself, I went and got the DVD. I put it in the player. There was my wife begging some guy to get the dog on her back wanting to get fucked. It was hours of her getting dog fucked, sucking the dog's cock and looking like she was loving it. I've never seen her looking like that. She had a wild look in her eyes, obviously high on some kind of drug.

My wife called me later that day inviting me to a filming that was going to happen later in the afternoon. I accepted and a car came to get me later that day. When I got into the back seat I was told that I needed to wear a blindfold so I'd not know where the filming was happening. When the car stopped, my wife came and led me into an industrial looking building, once inside she took off my blindfold and I saw her dressed up like a whore with gaudy makeup. She smiled and kissed me saying how glad she was that I was there. I knew she was on something as her eyes were wandering and her speaking was a bit slurred. I met a man named Paul that was the man that called me regarding my wife's newfound adventures. He said I was more than welcome to watch the filming, but since it was my wife and I would no doubt be shocked I needed to be restrained in my chair with a gag so I didn't disturb filming. Assistants got me situated, then the filming could begin. The house lights dimmed and out my wife was led dressed in a leather corset. She was led to a Red leather looking bench and her wrists and ankles were strapped on. She was panting waiting for her costar. A Large Irish wolfhound was brought to the bench by a lovely girl that started working on him getting his big member out of it's furry shethe. When I looked at his cock, it took my breath away as it looked to be 10 inches long. My wife, Carol is her name was writhing around on the bench. The first dialog I heard was the girl asking Carol " Slut, do you want this big dog cock in your pussy? Carol begged her to get him into position. The girl applied some lube to Carol's pussy and got the big dog into position guiding his big red dick in to Carol. Once he was started he needed no help as he started pounding into her like a jackhammer. Carol was moaning saying she loved his big cock and that he was her master. I realized why they had restrained and gagged me as I was frantic trying to get free and get that dog off of my loving wife. I closed my eyes shut hoping this was just some insane dream but I knew it was really happening. The sweat was rolling off Carol's forehead as she was being pounded like a female bitch in heat. She was moaning begging for it not to stop. This went on like this for 5 to 10 minutes before the beast rammed his big knot into Carol and pumped her full of his cum. Carol's eyes rolled back in her head as she continued to moan. He pumped her for a few minutes then threw a leg over her so they were ass to ass and tried to pull away from her. As he pulled he must have been putting pressure on Carol's G-spot as she was climaxing over and over until he shrank enough to pop free. A gush of dog semen came out of her as he pulled out. The young girl returned to the scene with a towel wiping down Carol's forehead and back. Carol was a sweaty mess. The girl released the straps holding Carol but she just laid there trying to catch her breath. The girl offered her a bottle of water which she slugged down. The director yelled CUT and filming stopped. The restraints were removed from me and the gag also as I sat there blinking at what I had just witnessed. The last week is just a huge blur for me. Last week I had a beautiful sexy wife that only wanted to be my wife and live our contented life. Now I'm sitting trying to grasp what has occurred. Paul approached, sat down and said "she's amazing, don't you think? She went from suburban housewife to dog slut in only a week. And it's so obvious she really loves it." I really disliked this guy and thought about punching his lights out. He has some nerve. He had kidnapped my wife, drugged her and got her fucked by a dog and filmed it. I thought about going to the police but he had video of Carol begging to be tied up and dog fucked. I was dumbfounded.

"I know you are weighing your options right now" Paul said to me " But if you do anything stupid, My guys will put you in the hospital, or if you think you want to go to the cops, I'll just take Carol to another country and you will never see her again. Relax, it's only a little dog sex, besides look at her, she loves it and wants to do it. Just keep your head until you talk with Carol."

Carol was dressed and came over to saying " We need to talk. I love you, but Paul awakened a part of me that really makes my blood boil. Darling, I love dog sex. It's like nothing I've ever felt. You've got to admit, it's really hot." she reached over to my zipper and opened it, took out my cock which was oozing precum. She leaned over and started a extreme blowjob. "See, you were so turned on your underwear is soaked"she told me as she sucked me like never before until I blew my wad in her throat. I was trembling as she finished and licked me clean. I sat dumbfounded when she told me "this is who I am now. I'll keep you satisfied like never before and in turn you will help me enjoy the dogs." I am not sure what to think. I sat there just blinking wondering, what the hell is happening.

Just a month ago we were planning a vacation to Hawaii, now I'm watching my wife fucking dogs. I know I love her, always have, but this is so out of anything I could ever of dreamed. She tells me to take her home so we can talk more, In private. We get into her car and we went home. When we got home she took off her clothes and laid on the floor fingering herself telling me to fuck her. I was so turned on watching her I was hard as a rock and stripped, jumped on her and pounded for all I had. She told me that was nice but nothing compared to the pounding a dog can give. She held me and said soon enough she would have more dog cock. She went and made us a nice dinner and we ate then went to bed. When we got up in the morning, she said to me "Been a crazy few days don't you think honey?"I said, "If you mean in the last month you started having sex with dogs, then, yes it's been a bit crazy." " You're mad at me,"she said."No, I'm just confused. We've been married for over ten years and only now you want to start having sex with dogs, I just don't understand is all. I replied She said when she was kidnapped, drugged and had a dog gangbang, it woke a part of her she never knew exisited. She said she loves being taken and having little power to stop it. I have to admit, seeing my hot wife getting pounded senseless by some dog is really hot.

Paul called and said he had another shoot if Carol wanted tomorrow. She told him of course she wanted it. She just paces waiting for the phone to ring hoping Paul has another shoot ready for his little dog whore, as she calls herself. We went to bed with her telling me she wants more. She says anything I can thing of to catch her off guard and turn her on. I tell her that's going to be quite a chore as she now wants to get pounded by big dog cock, but I'd think on it. She proceeded to ask me to rape her ass. Just lube up and ram it in and pound her ass as hard as I can. I was really turned on by her slutty talk so I did just what she wanted. I was ramming in and out of her ass until she squirted all over telling me how much she loved me. When we got up in the morning she was telling me how her asshole was hurting but she made it clear she not bitching, but loving the pain. We got ready and off to Paul's studio we went.

We got to Paul's and Carol was itching to get going. Once we got there she went to get ready. Paul asked if I could stay quiet during filming and I told him I could. Carol was led out sitting on a chair in front of the red breeding bench. The young girl assistant who I found out was named Barb led out a big Rotweiler and Carol got off the chair petting the big boy and reaching under him to get his cock out of the sheathe. It was huge. I was guessing a good 11 inches and really thick. Barb suggested " hey slut, why don't you suck his big cock?" Carol got down and started licking the big pink cock while her eyes rolled back in her head. Soon she was sucking for all she was worth. Her mouth looked like it could not take any more of his big cock but she kept trying to swallow him deep. Carol was panting and sweating staring at his big cock. Barb eased her up on the breeding bench and strapped her on. Carol was begging for his big cock. Barb got him up on Carol's back and guided him in. Once the tip got in, he drove in deep as Carol got the wind sucked out by his thrust but was saying how much she was loving it. The big Rottie was fucking Carol like she has never been fucked before. Her eyes were rolling back in her head and she was dripping in sweat. She kept begging for more. After about 5 to 10 minutes his knot started swelling and he was pushing hard trying to get it into Carol. It looked like a large orange and he rammed it into Carol. She actually passed out. Barb waved some smelling salts under Carol's nose and she shook her head and woke up getting pumped full of dog cum. Barb got a bowl and put it under Carol's really stretched pussy. The rottie quit pumping and started trying to untie with his bitch. He flipped his leg over Carol's back so they were ass to ass and started tugging. Carol was going crazy with orgasms. When he popped out Carol's pussy gushed cum out filling the bowl. Barb led the dog off to another assistant and went to get the bowl after Carol's pussy stopped leaking into it. Barb released Carol's wrists and handed the bowl to her telling her to drink the cum. Carol put the rim of the bowl to her lips and swallowed as fast as she could licking her lips as she did. When she finished she handed the bowl back to Barb. Carol was sweating like a pig and Barb handed her a towel. Barb handed Carol a water and a capsule. Carol took it taking the pill and drinking the water. I realized the pill was a drug to keep her high so she'd be open to more dog sex. "You ready for another dog, slut? Barb asked Carol. She said " Yes please". Barb refastened Carol's wrists and went and brought out a big great dane. Barb said "This is Rocky and he has 12 thick inches of dog cock for you slut". Carol just looked up smiling. Barb reached under Rocky stroking his sheathe exposing his big pink monster. He was already humping the air as Barb led him over to Carol. She guided his cock tip to Carol's dripping pussy and he started pumping hard driving in deep. Carol jump let out a loud moan and lifted her head while her eyes were rolling back in her head. She was trying to get him in deeper pushing back against the straps moaning like she was crazy. This went on for a good 5 to 10 minutes until he forced his big knot into Carol, and started pumpin her full of dog cum. Again Barb put the bowl under Carol's distended pussy lips waiting for the gush that would take place soon. Rocky quit twitching, threw his leg over Carol, again she was ass to ass with a big cocked dog being pulled on as he tried to get his big knot out of her. Carol was thrashing around having orgasm after orgasm until she just passed out again. Barb was right there with the smelling salts to revive her as Rocky pulled free with a gush of cum filling the bowl. Again Barb released Carol's wrists and handed her the bowl telling her "drink his cum, slut" Which Carol was more than happy to do licking her lips and smiling the whole time. Once the bowl was drained, Carol went about licking it clean the handing it to Barb. Paul called out and came over to Carol tellin her, There's someone I'd like you to meet. This is Janet and she is much like you, very sexy and horny. "Hello Carol" Janet said, "I have a great desire for big dog cock, and I also have a desire for pony cock so I got my own pony. Want to try a big pony cock, Carol? I'm happy to share my little Pedro with you to see if it excites you." Paul said "cameras and crew, out to the barn, this will be interesting" Barb offered Carol another water and capsule. Which Carol happily took and drank. When we all got to the barn, Carol needed to sit down she was stumbling all the way She looked at me and whispered "I'm so fucking excited" and started finger-fucking herself, then working in more fingers in her dripping gash. I'd seen that crazed look in her eyes before but she was hotter than ever this time. Janet brought out Little Pedro and tied him near a small table with horse blankets laid on them. She greased up his thick cock and laid on the table. Barb helped guide Pedro into Janet's pierced libia into her pussy. I watched Carol licking her lips and rubbing her pussy. As Pedro started pumping Janet, Carol was panting watching the whole scene. Janet was thrashing all around saying how much she was loving Pedro's big cock. She was thrusting up to try to get him in deeper. Janet shuddered and came all over Pedro's cock and fainted. Barb eased him off Janet. She gave Janet smelling salts to wake her. Janet told Carol if she was going to be getting fucked by ponys, she should think about getting her labias ring pierced to ease the big cocks in. She lubed up Pedro and got Carol situated on the table. Barb asked Carol if she wanted to try pony cock. Carol had a wild look in her eyes and said "Of course". Barb helped get Pedro into Carol's pussy. Soon Pedro was pumping into Carol and she was loosing her mind. I could not believe Carol was taking that huge cock and loving it. Soon Pedro started snorting and filling Carol with his cum. It was coming out all around his cock where it was plugging Carol's pussy. Carol lay there panting and smiling. Janet led Pedro back to a stall, then came back and help Carol up. Carol looked a bit blinky but was getting her wits about her soon. She went and showered and got dressed. We went home and she rested on the couch. I asked her if she was okay after her wild adventures of the day. She told me she felt a little sore but was going to be fine. I did not press her and let her take a nap. I was thinking where we are now considering where we were just a few weeks ago. Just a few weeks back we were a run of the mill loving couple, then Paul Kidnapped Carol and she was drugged and raped by multiple dogs.

Carol asked me if we could get a big dog of our own. So we are going to the shelter tomorrow looking for a new addition to our home. My shy conservative wife is no longer around. She has become a wild sex machine. She can't wait for her animal pimp, Paul to call. I wanted to talk with her about her pony adventure. Carol said they keep her high on ketamine, which drops her inhibitions and makes her desire kinky things. When she is high, she wants perverted things to happen to her. The more extreme the more she likes it. Paul called and said he had an idea, since Carol now loved the ketamine and lots of sex. He suggested he whore her out to sex parties. Carol said she'd love to try it. Paul made arraignments for a intro party next week. For days before the party, Carol was putting on porn and masterbating. She asked me for another hard ass fucking with no allowing for her to adjust to being fucked in the ass. Just lube up my hard on and jam it up her ass. She likes the pain these days.

The weekend of the party Carol dressed like a dirty slut in a black corset, thigh highs, and a sheer thong. She wore a top coat to cover up until we got in to Paul's. There were many high end cars in his parking area. Paul said she was going to offered as a party dog slut and general slut for anything the hosts wanted. Carol squirmed in her chair when Paul went to the mic and called everyone's attention to the slut being presented for rental. A breeding bench was moved to the center of the room. Paul announced " Pontential customer of this slut, enough ketamine will be supplied to keep her high for the duration of her stay with you. The only restriction is no animal anal sex. She enjoys anything else as long as she is buzzed on special K. Tonight she will bemounted and fucked by two large dogs for your entertainment. If interested in booking a party with her see a member of the staff." The house lights dimed and Carol was given a drink and a couple of pills. Barb leaned over and whispered in Carol's ear. She nodded yes and Barb gave her a bottle of poppers. Carol took a big sniff and handed the bottle back to Barb. Carol took off her thong and got on the breeding bench. Barb strapped her in place and a spotlight shown on her. Barb came out leading a big great dane, She leaned over and stroked his sheathe exposing his big pink cock. Carol was watching, licking her lips writhing about on the bench. Barb led the dane over to Carol's head. She looked up and opened her mouth sucking on the big pink cock. On the big screen was a closeup of Carol sucking that cock for those not close enough to get a clear view. Barb pulled him back and lined up his cock with Carol's juicy pussy. Once the tip got in, the big dog started pounding driving his big cock into Carol. She was moaning "Oh yes, fuck your bitch." The big dog pounded Carol for what seemed like 5 to 10 minutes, with his knot swelling and being pressed against Carol's pussy. His knot swelled and was forced into Carol. She was panting and sweating as the big boy filled her with cum. Once he stopped filling her, he threw his leg over Carol and was now ass to ass. He started tugging trying to get free. As he pulled Carol was on fire climaxing over and over. When he finally pulled out with a gush of cum flowing out. Carol fainted and collapsed on the bench. Barb waved smelling salts under her nose to wake Carol up. Carol shook her head and tried to clear the cobwebs from her mind. Barb led the dane off the stage to an assistant. She came back and released Carol from the bench. Carol just laid on the mat next to the bench trying to catch her breath. Barb came and helped her up and guided her off stage. Paul came back stage telling Carol and I she was getting booked up for the next few weeks. He returned to the stage and announced "Our slut will be back in a few minutes." Backstage Barb gave Carol a ketamine capsule and water. Waiting about 10 minutes, Barb put a collar and leash on Carol then led her onstage. "You want some more cock, Slut? She asked Carol to which Carol looked up at her begging to be fucked. Barb got Carol up on the bench and strapped her in place. She went back stage and returned with a big mastiff. She stroked his sheathe exposing his huge pink cock. She led him over to Carol's face. Carol wasted no time and started sucking his squirting cock. His cock looked huge, I'd say everybit of 12 inches and 2-1/2 thick. Carol licked and sucked him getting him hard then Barb guided his cock tip to Carol' dripping pussy. Once the tip was in, he knew what to do. He rammed into Carol's pussy and in 3-4 thrusts was in all the way. Carol was babbeling incoheriently as her eyes rolled back in her head begging for it not to stop. His knot swelled to the size of a grapefruit and Barb helped work it into Carol. She screamed as it finally popped in and he started filling her with squirt after squirt of dog cum into Carol. Carol looked like she was 2-3 months pregnant when he finished filling her. He started tugging trying to free himself which rubbed his cock up on Carol's g-spot making her climax repeatedly for over 10 minutes. He finally popped out with a big gush coming out. Carol laid there mumbling about how she loved being a dog slut. She was led off stage as Paul came out and announced Carol was booked up for the next two months and no more bookings were going to take place presently.

I fear Carol's mind is gone. She now can't wait for the next animal sex encounter. It's all she speaks of anymore. I sat her down trying to make sense of all this. I asked her if she remembers our courtship and dating, falling in love and getting married. She said she does remember but that it's fuzzy. I love the person she was before all this craziness started. I guess I miss my wife so much, I dont know what to do. I still love her but I miss who she used to be. The loving, sexy shy, woman that could take my breath away with her entrance in a room. I am still stunned when I see her except I can't get the animal sex out of my head. Paul sees to it we are well compensated but has no problem using my wife as he sees fit. Paul gave Carol and I her schedule for the next two weeks. She was booked at 10 parties. I was just there to transport her and Barb. Barb has moved into our spare bedroom. Carol is excited waiting for next week. So Monday morning we sat having breakfast preparing to leave mid-morning for her party. We arrived by 11:30 and our hosts came out to the car. Barb gave Carol her first ketamine and a water. She put a collar and leash on Carol. Carol was obviously excited looking around for a dog. We were led around back of their big house to a lovely courtyard. There in the center of the yard was a breeding bench which Carol was strapped on to. We could hear deep throaty barks coming from what had to be a kennel. Barb was shown to the kennel and she returned with a large german shepard. He was well behaved until he got a whiff of Carol's dripping pussy then he was pulling like crazy at his leash. By the time he got to the bench his red tip was protruding out of his sheathe. Barb helped him up on Carol's back and he knew what to do. He strated slaming his hips at Carol's ass and Barb help guide his pink spear into Carol and he went crazy thrusting into carol's sopping pussy. She was moaning, loving the fucking she was getting. Barb was directed back to the kennel and returned with another shepard. He was led to Carol's face and was soon pumping into her mouth.

Carol gurgled around his thrusting tool. Soon the dog in her pussy had his knot swelling up to the size of a baseball and jammed it into Carol. He was soon filling her up with his doggy cum. Carol was busy swallowing the spearing cock in her mouth as he was trying to fuck her face. She was moaning, loving the pounding she was getting. The dog in her pussy threw his leg over her and was ass to ass with his bitch pulling and tugging, trying to get free. All the movement was making his cock push on Carol's g spot and she started squirting over and over. He finally pulled free with a gush and went and laid down cleaning himself. Carol was trying to get the dog cock in her throat to cum. She was insane with lust. Soon she got what she wanted and the dog in her mouth unloaded in her. She swallowed gasping as she did. She sucked him dry and he joined his fuck partner licking himself clean. Carol laid on the bench sweating like she'd just ran a marathon. Barb released her wrists gave her a towel, water and another ketamine. One of our hosts said "this is just beginning as we have 8 dogs in our kennels, Bitch." Barb headed back to the kennels with the spent shepherds. She returned with two big great danes. Carol was pinching her nipples and rubbing her clit furiously. One of host assistants held the leash on one of the danes. Barb reached over and restrapped Carol down. She then started rubbing the sheathe of her dog exposing a monster pink cock. Carol's eyes got big and she licked her lips. Barb guided the beast to Carol's still dripping gash. She eased in the tip and he took over driving in much of his huge cock. Carol gasped as he kept pushing, trying to bury himself in Carol. She was begging for it. He must have been all of 12 inches of pink spear driving Carol out of her mind. She was thrashing all over as much as the straps would allow saying how much she loved his big cock. His knot swelled up the size of a softball and he tried to get it into Carol. Barb helped get the big knot into Carol. Carol screamed as he popped in. Her eyes got wild as he started pumping her full of his cum. Carol mumbled incoherently something about being his bitch and he should have his way with her. He threw his leg over and was ass to ass with Carol and started tugging trying to get free. His cock was rubbing Carol's g spot and she went nuts squirting everywhere. He finally pulled free with a big gush of cum going everywhere. He went and laid down cleaning himself. Barb went to Carol releasing her wrists offering her a drink and asked if she wanted more. Carol nodded yes and Barb gave her more ketamine. Carol took it swallowed it with a big swig of water, Barb started toweling Carol off wiping her face and chest. The girl holding on to the other dane said "This is Goliath and he has a 13 inch cock that's 3 inches thick and he will fuck you like you've never been fucked before. No single man will ever be able to satisfy you again, Ready to give yourself to him?" Carol trembled and shook her head yes. Barb leaned under Goliath stroking his sheathe exposing his monster pink cock. Carol's eyes got wide as she stared at his cock and shivered. Barb put lube on Carol's pussy and guided Goliath over to Carol. He mounted her and Barb helped guide him into Carol. He started jamming into Carol. She gasped as he pressed forward inch by inch impaling her on his cock. Carol kept screaming how she was his bitch and begged for him to fuck her until she passed out and how she was his forever. She was out of her mind. He pumped into her until his knot started forming. It looked as big as a cantalope and he tried to force it into Carol. Barb tried to help him get it in. she could not get that big knot into Carol. He just came like a faucet and withdrew. He pulled his huge cock out of Carol and she started crying pleading for him to keep fucking her. This was something to see. Carol will never be the same. She laid there panting and sweating. Barb offered her water and a towel. Her breathing slowed down a bit then Barb released the straps from the bench. Carol just collapsed and laid on the mat next to the bench. The girl that held Goliath told Carol she could rest a few minutes before the party would continue. Barb took the danes back to the kennel. Barb returned offering water and ketamine for Carol which she took. The Goliath girl returned from the kennels with a Rotweiler and an Irish wolfhound. She told Carol the rottie loved blowjobs and she was going to suck his cock. The Rottie's leash was attached to the bench as Carol started stroking his sheathe exposing his 10 inch pink spear. Carol licked her lips and sucked him into her throat. Barb held the wolfhound's leash while stroking him to expose his 10 inches. The goliath girl returned to and from the kennel with another wolfhound. Barb had the hound lay on his back and Carol sat on his cock. Goliath girl got her hound's cock exposed and guided him to join the other hound into Carol's pussy, to get her filled with two huge wolfhound cocks pounding away in her pussy as she kept sucking the rottie. Carol was climaxing over and over as the wolfhounds were pounding her. Also the rottie was filling her throat with his cum. She swallowed all that came out of his shaft and licked her lips saying how tasty he was. The male hosts each took a turn for a blowjob from my wife. She has become a complete slut, and I hate to admit it. I love watching her suck strangers cocks. By the time she finished blowing the men it was 2 am and we got ready to leave. She washed up, dressed and we all left. All the way home she would not stop talking about Goliath's big cock and how much she loved getting fucked by him. Her next scheduled party was not until Thursday. She asked me to take her to a porn theater Wednesday to give strangers blowjobs while I watched. I was excited thinking how much I liked to watch her suck strangers cocks. We went and she was soon asking strangers if she could blow them. Not one guy said no. she had 20 guys lined up in no time. Before I knew what was happening, she was on her knees sucking every cock that got near to her. She sucked cocks for over 3 hours and had cum all over her face and in her stomach. She cleaned up and we went home. When we got there, she wanted me to slam my hard cock up her ass. I was more than happy to do that. My wife has changed so much in the last month, I barely know who she is. She has become such a dirty slut. All she thinks about anymore is some kind of sex with her being used. She was naive when we first met. Now she is like she is a seasoned nympho. Paul has turned my sweet petite wife into a dog slut and porn theater cocksucker. We went to her Thursday party and it was quite like her last party without big cocked Goliath. She did get gangbanged by 6 dogs and a couple of men fucked her ass. Her obligations were finished for the next 5 days so she asked me to take her back to the porn theater for another blowbang. I sat her down to talk with her. "I love you Carol but I don't know you anymore. You have become a dog slut and cocksucker of strangers." Carol said " John, I love you too and I know a part of me was awakened by my kidnapping and dog fucking. It does not mean I don't love you. I will do anything to keep from losing you. Please don't be mad at me, but I am so happy being a slut." "I know, but I just am a little confused. Have you been unhappy with our sex life? Have I left you wanting more? I feel I've led you to this wild side." I responded to her. Carol told me there was nothing missing in our lives, but after Paul had her kidnapped drugged and dog gangbanged she was changed. She continued that if I wanted this to stop, she'd try to give it up, but I need to know she loves being used as a slut. In fact if it bothers me so much she would ask Barb if her husband could drive her to her parties. I didn't even know Barb was married. Turns out they are in the throws of getting a divorce. I told her no, now that I know her thoughts, I will continue to take her. I said I would like to work at easing Paul out of our lives. She agreed but that currently he was the source of our income so we needed to time it so we have plenty to live on after we dump him. I told her I've invested wisely with her big paydays and we are in good shape financially. She explained Paul is the one with the connections to all the wealthy people with their big dogs, and if we cut off our connection to him, we may not be able to line up dogs for Carol to have sex with. So, I said, "You want to keep fucking dogs. You would not care about Paul if he were not your dog Pimp."

"John, I can't help it, I've turned into a nasty slut and he knows all the people with the dogs. I'll try to quit but it is going to be tough. For you, John, I'm willing to try".

I told Carol " I just can't get used to sharing you with animals all the time. I guess I'm not as twisted as I thought I was. I guess we try to get through all these parties Paul has booked you up with then figure out what we can do." She said "Thank you John, I was hoping you would say that." Over the next couple of months, Carol continued doing her parties. I was driving her to her parties and watched her fucked by multiple dogs. Barb was always there feeding her the ketamine so she'd do whatever the evening's hosts wanted. When the group of party bookings stopped, I sat Carol down and asked her if she was going to stop now that she attended all the parties Paul had setup. She told me at the very least, she would take a break from doing parties, possibly stopping all together. After a few weeks she called Paul to tell him she was done doing the parties. Paul said he understood and told her good bye. Some time later Paul called saying "Did you still want your own dog?" Carol said yes. Paul said he contacted the owner of Goliath the dane and bought him as a gift for Carol if she wanted him. "You were the best dog slut I ever turned in all the years of turning regular women into dog sluts. With all the money you made me, the least I could do was get the biggest cocked dog for you to fuck at home." Paul told Carol. I guess in some weird way, he did care about her. We brought home Goliath later that evening. He is a huge gentle beast. We got him a big dog bed along with all the other things we were going to need. Carol is looking forward to getting his big cock on a regular basis. "John are you ready to see me get impaled on Goliath's 13 inch monster?" She got down on the floor stroking his sheathe exposing his huge pink staff. She licked up and down his wet cock. She got on her knees patting her ass trying to get Goliath to mount her. Goliath covered her as she helped guide him in. After 2 to 3 thrusts he was buried all the way up Carol's cunt. "I am your bitch, master" she said as he pounded Carol. She was moaning and panting while Goliath started forcing his big knot into Carol. Watching her pounded like this had me hard as a rock and I shoved my cock into her mouth and forced it down her throat. Carol was loving getting fucked from both ends. Goliath started filling her with his cum which got me so excited I started shooting down her throat. Sweat was rolling down Carol's face and dripping off her nipples. She sucked me dry and cleaned my cock smiling and panting. I got up and got a bowl to catch Goliath's load for my dogslut wife to drink. Goliath threw his leg over Carol and started pulling and tugging to get free. I positioned the bowl under her pussy as he pulled and tugged free with a gush. The bowl quickly filled as her pussy gushed and gurgled dripping cum into the bowl. When she finished it looked like there was two cups of cum in it. "Let me drink my masters hot cum" she said as she brought the bowl to her lips. Carol put the bowl to her mouth and drank Goliath's seed down. She licked her lips smiling the whole time. When she emptied the bowl, she licked it clean of every drop. She looked at me smiling asking "you want my ass sweetie?" I didn't answer except to drop my pants stroking my cock at her buns. I got behind her as she pushed herself right on to my cock. She just kept pushing until I was in balls deep. I then pounded her ass hard and fast, cumming deep in her bowels. After I pulled out she licked and sucked my cock clean. This is great but I still miss my quiet, shy, gentle wife. I do miss conventional sex with Carol as her pussy is so streached out by Goliath's big cock I can't even feel the sides when I fuck her pussy. But I do get regular access to her throat and her sweet ass. Every so often Paul will call and see if he can talk Carol into doing anymore parties, which she always says no to. Barb is now living with us and keeps Carol supplied with ketamine. I did not know she was filming Carol with Goliath and sending them to Paul. So there was a cost to Paul "giving" Goliath to Carol. He gets home movies of her and the beast Barb films for him to sell. I guess bottom line is Paul only cares that he gets dog fuck movies he can sell. Paul called and said he spoke with Janet and wanted to know if Carol was interested in trying some more of Pedro's big cock. He said "Since goliath has been pounding your pussy, I thought you might want something a little bigger to give yourself a thrill" Carol said she loves goliath's big cock, it would be nice to try a little Pedro boner for a bit. She got Janet's address and we agreed to go to her place on Friday of this coming weekend. We got to Janet's early and her driveway had three trucks with horse trailers attached. She has a big farmhouse and Barn out back. When we arrived, Janet came running to meet us saying how happy she was we decided to come. I asked Janet about the trucks with the horse trailers and she told me she was having a little party for friends who had ponies and horses. It should be a fun time. I noticed Paul had arrived and his crew was heading to the stables. He came over saying how glad he was to see we decided to come. Seeing Paul there meant to me someone will be filmed getting fucked by animals and I'm pretty sure he had Carol in mind. He came over asking how we were enjoying having Goliath as a member of the family. Carol explained he fit right in and thanked Paul again for gifting him to us. Janet came over telling us who tonight's guests were. "That's Charles and his wife Gail, they have a pony and a horse and a couple of rotweillers. And that couple is James and his wife Christy, they have two horses and a couple of great danes. And finally the couple over near the door is Wilhelm and his wife Catherine, they also have a pony and a horse and a pair of belgium meloius" "Ladies and Gentlemen, if you please, this couple is John and Carol. They've decided to join us this evening, and of course you all know Paul and his film crew. I hope everyone has a lovely evening" and with that she started moving around the room chatting with all the guests. Janet was directing the guests to the stables where I saw a sling in the main viewing galleries. Janet was slipping into the sling as people filed in. Once she was firmly in place her assistant led her pony Pedro out to the stage area. Janet was panting anticipating what was coming, Pedro's big pony cock. Her assistant gave her a snort of something and eased her towards the big cock she was wanting so bad. Her pussy was lined up with the big pony cock. Pedro knew what to do and pushed forward trying to get into Janet deep. Janet was moaning and saying how much she loved his big cock. Janet's head was laying back and her eyes were rolling back in her head as Pedro buried himself deep pumping Janet like she was his mare that needed breeding. He was pumping her full of cum as some oozed out around his cock from her cunt. As he shrunk and dropped out of Janet, James had gotten one of his horses in place with his wife Christy working on the big horse cock trying to get him hard. She asked Janet if she wanted to try the horse's big cock. Janet just nodded yes and asked her assistant for another snort of poppers. Christy lined up her stud's cock with Janet's gash and patted him on his hindquarters which had him drive forward into Janet. She gasped as he pushed in, her head falling back as she took a deep breath asking for more cock. Janet was thrashing all about as the big cock drove in deeper. Christy was smacking her horse on his butt trying to get him to pound Janet with his huge cock. He neighed and started filling her with cum. It was dripping out around his huge cock that was still buried in Janet's pussy. "Did you enjoy?" Christy asked Janet. Janet just nodded and smiled. The horse finally plopped out of Janet and a flood of cum followed. Janet's assistant put a bowl under Janet's pussy catching as much as she could. The horse was led back to his stall by James. Once Janet was empty, the bowl was lifted to her mouth and she drank it all down smiling as she did. Christy helped Janet out of the harness and helped her to her feet giving her a water to drink. Christy disrobed and laid down on the harness. James returned with Pedro in tow and tied him to the wall. He helped Christy get strapped into the harness. He gave Christy a snort of poppers and she laid her head back in the sling. James led Pedro over to his wife and lubed up Pedro's big cock. He guided the head to his wife's pussy. Pedro knew what to do and started pounding Christy's pussy until he was balls deep. She was gasping and moaning saying how great it felt. The other couples were watching the horse and pony fucking taking place. Out of the corner of my eye I could see Carol was licking her lips and her breathing was labored. Barb offered Carol a water and a capsule. Carol accepted and swallowed eagerly. Barb helped Carol into the harness and offered her a snort of poppers. She asked Carol if she wanted some of Pedro's cock. Carol nodded yes as Charles led Pedro out of his stall. Barb knelt down stroking and licking Pedro getting him ready then lubed him up. She guided the head to Carol's wet pussy. Once the head was in he knew what to do and started pounding it into Carol. Her mouth was hanging open and she was moaning how great his cock was. He pounded Carol for about 5 to 10 minutes with her orgasming the whole time. Pedro slowed his pumping as his cock softened and dropped out of Carol. Barb asked Carol "you want some horse cock, slut?" Carol begged her "Yes please". Charles led Pedro back to his stall and led one of the stallions out near Carol. Her eyes got as big as saucers when she saw his huge cock dangling from his sheathe. Barb knelt down stroking him and licking it all over getting it hard. Once it was hard she lubed it all over then offered Carol a sniff of poppers. She started fingering Carol filling her with 3 then 4 fingers then her whole fist got in. She asked Carol "You ready to be fucked by this big horse cock, slut?" "Yes" Carol said nodding her head, breathing hard and thrashing about. Barb placed the huge cock head against Carol's pussy and she wiggled herself on to it, working it in deeper, moaning the whole time. Carol pulled hard on the harness driving more of the huge cock into herself. Barb smacked the stallion on his rump and he started pumping making Carol scream in pleasure. He was in 11 inches deep and Carol was begging for more. She was sweating profusely screaming for more cock. As he drove more into her, I was afraid he would split her. Carol would not stop trying to get him buried into her grossly stretched cunt. Barb got a bowl to catch the load when he finally filled her with his big load. Just a couple more thrusts and he snorted and started filling Carol with cum. His cock shrunk and plopped out with a gush and Barb caught the cum in the bowl. Carol was trying to catch her breath as she laid there panting. Barb asked her if she wanted his cum, which Carol nodded yes and took the bowl from Barb and raised it to her lips gulping down the thick load. It looked like 3 cups of cum and she kept gulping it down until the bowl was empty then licked the bowl. Barb helped her out of the harness toweling off the sweat. Carol was led to a chair sitting gingerly as her pussy was no doubt sore. Paul came over to her telling her how hot she looked on video. Carol said she was done for today and asked if we could go home. This is the first time I've ever seen her quit early since all this craziness started a couple months ago. I put my arm around her and hugged her close telling her okay we will leave and we did. When we arrived home I asked Barb to run Carol a hot relaxing bath. I helped her to the bathroom and eased her into the hot tub. Carol just oohed and ahhed as the hot water eased her aches. She said "Maybe I do need to stop this craziness. Tonight went a bit too far, that horse actually hurt me. I do like being used as a slut but tonight was too much. John, do you still love me?" "Of course I still love you darling, You are everything I ever wanted. I do want you to be more careful with the wild animal sex." You have Goliath to give you his huge dog cock whenever you like."

After her nice hot relaxing bath, Carol was ready for bed. I carried her to our bed and laid her down. She told me she was sorry for hurting me by being such a slut. I admitted I was a bit hurt by her actions but also said it was not just her fault. After all, Paul was the one that had her kidnapped, drugged and dog gangbanged. I told her to stop being so hard on herself and forget what's happened and for us to go to sleep. Goliath came into the room and laid by the foot of her side of the bed. Later, I was woken by Goliath pounding her. She looked at me saying "sorry we woke you, I don't know how we got started" I just enjoyed the show and stuck my rock hard cock in her mouth. She moaned around it and took me deep into her throat until I unloaded my cum. I laid back down and let Goliath finish breeding his bitch. We all just drifted off to sleep again. When I woke in the midmorning, I could hear Carol down in the kitchen singing. I made my way downstairs and there she was making bacon and eggs twirling and singing like she was the belle of the ball. "Hello sleephead, are you hungry, I hope so" She smiled to me. I sat drinking a coffee and eating my breakfast. She said "a good night's sleep does a body good, don't you think dear?" I said "Yes that and 13 inches of thick, hard dog cock also helps." She smiled and said "I guess that too" I asked her "Did you really mean what you said about stopping the animal sex parties?" she replied "Yes, you and Goliath are more than enough to keep me satisfied." I thought to myself "Oh I've heard that before, Let's just wait until the next call comes about a animal sex party and we'll see". Weeks went by and we had not heard from Paul. Carol had told him the last time they spoke she was not doing anymore horses period, They are just too big. Barb has been in contact with him on a regular basis. He asked Barb to try to talk Carol into doing another dog and pony party. He said he'd make sure Janet was there with her pony Pedro, and we should bring Goliath. Barb did work at talking Carol into another party. At first Carol said no way, but over a couple weeks of Barb telling her how much she would miss out on, Carol gave in and said yes. I was told over Dinner a week before the party was happening. I screamed at Carol "You said no more animal sex parties. I should have known, Paul has turned you into an animal sex freak." She said "Now you are angry with me, But there will not be any horses." I retorted "I knew eventually you'd be doing more parties. He's turned you into an animal slut. I'm only here to give you a bit of stability to the chaos that has become your sex life. Carol, We had such a good life, just us two, now we have Goliath and you get a big cock anytime you want. Our sex life is relegated to a blowjob or me fucking you in the ass. Your pussy has been so stretched out by your "big boy", I can't even give you pleasure in your pussy unless I use my fist. How long do you expect me to stay as your driver? I love the Carol I married, but I don't see her anymore. I'm at a loss"" John, it will be okay, please. I love you and this is just a passing thrill. I thought you liked the sexy new me. You always look so happy when I look at you. Just because I enjoy being used like a slut does not mean I don't still love you with all my heart." I guess I don't know how long I can go on watching my wife fucked by strangers and animals. It's just not normal, But I nod my head okay and will live to discuss this another day.

So Friday rolls around and off we go to Paul's party central with Goliath in tow. We arrive and mingle a bit then Paul grabs the mic " welcome Ladies and Gentelmen. Tonight we have a special treat. Our old friend Carol has come and has brought her big Dane to share with the ladies. He is quite the stud, ladies. Especially those that like to be stretched open. Her boy has 13 inches 3 inches wide to open you up. And for something a bit more exotic our good friend Janet is here with her favorite pony, Pedro. So folks enjoy the night and let's mingle. I notice a very lovely Red haired woman is chatting it up with Carol inquiring if she could have a go with Goliath. Carol gives the nod and the Redhead is on her knees in a second stroking Goliath's sheathe exposing his big thick cock. She leans in and starts licking up and down the sides as his big spear stands at full hardness. Carol offers to help get him situated on the redhead's back and guide him home. The redhead has been playing with her pussy while she was licking our big boy. She is now dripping as Carol gets goliath up on her back. Once his tip is in , he know just what to do and starts drilling into the redhead as she was gasping for air saying she did not realize just how big he was. She was moaning, loving every inch as he pounded her then his knot swelled the size of a baseball and was pushed into her. She yelped but smiled as he filled her with his hot seed. Carol positioned herself under the redhead's pussy so when Goliath pulled free she could get all his cum. Goliath flipped his leg over his bitch and started tugging causing multiple climaxes for the redhead then popped free with a gush. Carol dove right in and drank all that came out then ate the redhead's pussy dry. Barb came over, whispered into carol's ear, handed her a water and a ketamine which Carol smiled and took. Then Barb led Carol out to the stable, I followed along. Carol stripped and laid on the leather harness as Barb and Janet got her strapped in. Janet went and got Pedro and walked him over Carol. She stroked and sucked Pedro getting him good and hard. She then raised Carol into position and guided Pedro's head to Carol's pussy lips. He didn't need anymore direction as he tried to bury his big cock in Carol. She was pulling on the harness onto Pedro's big cock trying to bury him all thr way in moaning and begging for more. Barb went and got a bowl to catch Pedro's big load when he gushed out of Carol. Pedro pumped Carol for about 10 minutes then neighed and started filling her with his load, some frothed out around his cock as he filled Carol. When he finished and started to shrink out of Carol, Barb was right there with the bowl to catch all the cum. With the bowl filled she offered it to Carol which she gulped it down like she was dying of thirst then licked the bowl clean. Barb toweled off Carol's forehead and chest releasing her from the harness. Carol sat trying to catch her breath, relaxing smiling at me. Once Carol's breatheing got normal, Barb offered her some water and another ketamine whispering in her ear. Carol smiled and nodded yes and took the water and the special K. Barb got a short table that had some horse blankets laid on it. Carol laid on the table and a donkey was led out of one of the stalls over to where barb was tending to Carol. Barb got the donkey so Carol could suck his cock, which she did with out asking. Sucking to get him hard which was happening. Carol spun around and started guiding the donkey into her juicy pussy. Once the head was in he started driving into her. Carol was out of her mind with lust saying he had the best cock she'd ever had and begging for more. Once his 13 inches were buried in her pussy Carl started squirting all over. He pumped Carol with such a fury I though Carol would pass out. She kept yelling how much she loved his big cock. Then she did pass out. He was filling her with cum when she woke back up smiling at me. Barb again got the bowl for another creamy load for Carol to drink. His cum was frothing out around his cock as he shrunk and slipped out with a gush. Barb made sure to catch it all and then offered it to Carol which she gulped down with a frenzy licking the bowl when done. Carol laid her head back trying to catch her breath. Barb again toweled her off helping her to sit up. Carol said she'd had enough and could we find our dog and go home which we did. She got a hot relaxing bath when we got home. Talking with me, she said " That little party should keep me happy for a good long while, but no promises about no more animal parties. I'd be lying to you and myself if I agreed to that. It finally sinks in to me, My wife has changed forever and I just have to enjoy the show. At least she's no doing animal sex tapes anymore. We've saved enough that we now employ Barb as our livein household assistant and she is no longer on Paul's payroll. And Carol is happy to share Goliath with her. We still get a call from Janet from time to time, she of the Janet/ Pedro the pony that wants to get more of Goliath in exchange for some Nice ole Pedro. I have no say as to whether that meeting will take place. That is completely up to Carol and Barb, and of course Janet. I'm just the driver, Observer and possible filmer. I do request that Paul be kept out of the loop on this party ideas, as he always wants to put his twisted spin on things, usually trying to get one of the ladies to do a horse or donkey. I think that point is well taken as he can't be trusted.

Well Carol and Janet have agreed to a little party at Janet's next weekend. We arrive Friday night, stay through Sunday and animal sharing will be had by the sluts. We arrived right on time and Janet was waiting to greet us. When we went in the house there was another couple there, "This is Charles and Gail. Gail was hoping she could get a taste of your Goliath, She has already been had by Pedro." I am asking myself, "Why is it the hottest ladies want the big animal cocks?" Gail is a hot 30ish brunette with a knock out body and is stunning. Carol is more than happy to share her big boy Goliath. We had a drink and chatted a bit then Gail asked if she could be bred by Goliath. Carol agreed and Gail just disrobed. Charles said his wife is a real slut and her getting naked in front of strangers is not new. "She'll fuck anyone" He told us. Meantime Gail was laying on the floor fingering herself which got Goliath's interest as her odor was filling his nose. His big pink spear was starting to make an appearance which caused Gail to reach out and started stroking him. She got under his belly and started licking his wet cock cooing and thrusting her hips with her fingers fucking her pussy. Soon Goliath was fully out and erect. Carol moved to help Gail into position to be fucked by Goliath. Carol lined up Goliath with Gail's pussy and he knew just what she wanted and started jamming into her. Her eyes got wide and she gasped as he drove into her. Once he was about half-way in, Gail started cumming and driving back for more cock. I was used to seeing Carol get his big fat 13 inch monster but seeing a new woman impaled was really something to see. I sometimes forget that only two months ago we were living a normal life just going to the store, shopping for groceries for two and planning our vacations. Now we have Goliath and I can no longer satisfy my wife sexually vaginally, and my wife seems okay with that. Thank you Paul, you divient. Carol's pussy will never be tight enough that my 7 inch penis will please her vaginally. Oh yeah, and animal sex parties are something we do on a semi regular basis. Our old group of friends is no more, now our friends are zoophiles of one type or another. As I sit here watching Gail loosing her mind getting stretched beyond anything she could have ever dreamed, panting, begging for more, I am reminded of Carol's first go with Goliath. Gail was moaning speaking incoherently babbling about how she belonged to Goliath and was his bitch. Charles asked where did we get our big boy so I gave him Paul's number telling him he was a gift to Carol from Paul so he would know where another like him could be aquired. Carol got so excited watching Gail and Goliath, she's asked Janet about fucking Pedro right away. Janet smiled and led Carol out to the stable where she got Carol strapped on the breeding bench. She then lubed Carol's pussy and used some numbing cream also. She offered Carol a ketamine which she turned down. Janet got Pedro and stroked him hard. Once he was rigid she put the head of his cock at Carol's pussy lips and smacked Pedro on his hindend. Pedro drove in and drove the air out of Carol's lungs. He continued pounding her as she mumbled incoherently how much she loved his cock. Carol came in a gush as Pedro unloaded into her oozing out around his cock. Goliath untied with Gail with a gush of cum and pussy juice. Gail looked lost trying to gain her composure. Goliath had fucked her senseless. She was quiet just blinking, looking around. Charles went to his wife helping her up and helping her get dressed. Carol just laid in a puddle of Pedro's cum on the breeding bench trying to regain her bearings. Soon Barb was able to help Carol to her feet leading her towards me. I take Carol in my arms comforting her. Later we collect Goliath and head home. Arriving, Carol immediately goes to bed and is fast asleep.

Since her last adventure with Pedro, Carol has been pretty quiet, There haven't even been any banging Goliath until she collapses situations. I bet he's thinking something is wrong with his bitch. She hasn't fucked him in weeks. I asked her if she is okay and she just tells me to leave it alone. Part of her being a dog slut is my fault. After she was kidnapped, drugged and gangbanged on film by dogs, she got hooked on it and I just went along. Honestly seeing her banged by dogs especially Goliath her huge cocked great dane was a turn on for me.

So Carol finally told me what's been eating at her. She really wants to go back to fucking Goliath, but thinks I will think less of her. She knows how conservative we both were until she was kidnapped and dog raped. I explained just how much it turned me on to watch her with Goliath. Also even though I did not mention it, she's so open now I can't even have regular sex with her. My little 7 inches doesn't even touch the sides after all her getting banged so much by Goliath and his 13 thick inches. Anyway she is going to start fucking him again. I hope it will help her mood. So yesterday I came home to find her on her hands and knees getting pounded by Goliath, her voice raspy, forehead sweating, speaking jibberish. She looked up at me smiling like the cat that ate the canary. She got herself up came over to me hugged me then kissed me and ran off for a shower. When she finished her shower she came bounding down the stairs wrapped only in a bath towel, dropping the towel telling me to pound her in the ass, which I was happy to oblige. Goliath came over sniffing around and when I collapsed off Carol's ass, she stuck her pussy in Goliath's face. He gave her pussy a few licks and jumped on her again. She's back. Barb heard all the comotion and came into the room. When Goliath finished and pulled free, Barb dove right into Carol's dripping pussy. Our lives have changed greatly since Paul got my wife hooked on dog cock. I was shocked to hear Carol to ask Barb to call Janet to see if there could be a Pedro fucks Carol party in the near future. I recently found out Barb and Carol have been having a hot and heavy lesbian affair for months. Barb is not a huge fan of sex with men, mostly dogs and loves eating pussy. Barb does like me as a friend plus she is in love with my wife. We actually employ her as our home assistant, housekeeper, and she also manages the rest of the staff. She and Carol share Goliath's big cock. He is a very lucky dog, he has two human bitches.

Occasionally we get a call about another party and sometimes attend. Our last one was with Janet and her big cocked pony. We were asked to bring Goliath. He got Carol opened up a bit and Barb worked her hand in after he finished getting Carol open so she could take Pedro. Janet brings in Pedro and works on his big cock, getting him ready to fuck Carol. Meantime Barb is fully fisting Carol, with Carol saying she is ready for some big pony cock. Barb lubes up Carol's pussy and Janet lines up Pedro's big cock to Carol's juicy pussy guiding the head in. Pedro starts pushing in. He knows how to properly fuck a slut like my wife. Soon Pedro is driving into Carol's pussy making her crazy with lust. He's going to give her 13 thick inches hard and fast. Ever since Carol was kidnapped, and dog gangbanged she has not been the same. I guess deep down she was always a submissive, only not to the extent that Paul led her into.

I think I've become adjusted to my wife being such a slut now. I just never dreamed she'd love being used like a sex toy or slave so much. Just a couple of months ago we were just going about our lives, then Paul had Carol kidnapped and dog gangbanged. It has been a crazy ride since then. This evening I took her to a porn theater and had her in a booth at a gloryhole sucking strangers. She is loving it, moaning as each new cock appears. She sucked cocks for 4 hours, then when she got home asked me to fuck her in the ass, which I was happy to do. She is such a dirty little slut. I got a call from a guy who'd been at a party where Carol was dog fucked and has a dog of his own he'd like to see fuck Carol. He invited us to his house for Carol to meet a new dog. Turns out his dog is a big Mastiff. His name is Bill and his dog is Bull. Shortly after we arrived Bull was sniffing Carol's crotch. His big pink spear came out of the sheathe. Carol reached down and stroked him until he was fully extended, about 10 thick inches. She bent down and took him in her mouth. He started pumping at her face. She slipped out from under him and got on her hands and knees. Bull knew what she needed, He mounted her and pumped his big cock into her pussy. Carol was moaning how she loved him and his big cock. He covered her twice more that night. I used her mouth when she was getting fucked by the big dog. She has come to love being double teamed like that. Bill and I gave her a hard DPing. She came three times as we pounded her. We each took turns in her ass and pussy. She has become so insatiable I am going to have to find more ways to keep her satisfied, she's wearing me out. Bill pulled me aside and inquired about using Carol as a passaround whore at a party in the near future. I told him to get me details and we will work it out. I mentioned being a passaround slut at a party and Carol is thrilled and can't wait. Bill called and told me all the details were worked out for the party. It's set for two weeks away. My wife has really changed in the last few months. I've changed also. I've become a sick twisted bastard wanting to watch my wife be a what a few months ago would be described as a sick Party Pig. Passed around like a party favor to each sick fuck to use. She loves being a set of holes, being passed from one cock to the next. Humans and big dogs. This passaround slut thing seems to turn her on so much. She stripped, put on a leather collar and got on her hands and knees shortly after we got there. She just can't wait to be used. There was a line of guys waiting for their turn at pounding the party pig. It is going to be a long weekend. Carol will be used until she'll be asking me to take her home. It seems all she wants anymore is to be used as a sex toy by many people and some dogs. I guess it could be so much worse, at least she's not trying to hide it from me. I wonder sometimes if we will ever be the vanilla couple we were not so long ago.
