BEASTIALITY STORIES

Back to 1st Part

Both sisters screamed for some time looking at each other as best as they could. Madison finally recognized her sister on the bench as the ape continued to rut into her body. She could see Becky's stomach rolling around but could not figure out what was happening to her, only that it looked like something was alive inside her. Finally the ape stopped pounding into her and feeling it pull out of her, he climbed down off the table as Madison slid forward onto her stomach and laid there as her stomach stopped aching from the continued jabbing into her lower stomach feeling the ape's cum dripping out of her.

Ramone stood and watched the scene in front of him with a slight smirk. Looking at Madison laying on the table he could see her eyes trying to focus on Becky as she had finally stopped screaming as the snake continued moving inside her, her throat too sore to continue. Looking further into the compound he could see the ape laying in the grassy area. Telling the cameraman to stop filming he told the worker inside the cage to open the door and bring out Madison, while he walked over to Becky and started to undo the straps holding the tube inside her. Looking at the cameraman again he told him to start filming as he pulled the tube out of her slowly and once out, saw her cunt slowly close up. The snake was still moving around but after a minute or so, they saw her vagina lips start to move then watched as the snake's head slowly started to push out into the open. Becky looked down between her legs as she felt the snake finally move out of her and start crawling up her stomach towards her. Laying her head back down she continued to cry as she felt her hands being untied and her being lifted up off the bench. She felt the snake sliding off of her but not what was happening to her now.

She felt herself being carried and then was laid down on a wooden table and after a couple of minutes she lifted her head and saw that she was inside the cage where Madison had been. Then noticed her sister on her knees, on the bench that she had been on with the snake. Ramone called someone on his phone then looking at Becky laying on the table, walked up to the fence and yelled "FUCK" as he saw the brush moving and the ape coming through the brush and walking towards Becky.

Becky saw the ape coming towards her and again, started to cry knowing what was going to happen to her now. Just as the ape crawled on the table and lifted her up on her knees, Madison's next co-star was led up to her and jumping up on the bench, Becky could see it was a huge dog, but not sure what kind other than looked bigger than the dog that took her that first time at the farm that started her on her way to this ongoing nightmare, that now included her poor sister. Seeing the dog mount on Madison's back, Becky knew what pain her sister was going to be in once the dog knotted inside her. Then heard Madison's small grunt as once again a thick animal cock was shoved inside her small body. Almost at the same time the ape lining up his mass of flesh entered Becky as well to start her ongoing rape that would last for most of the night.

Madison felt the dog's front legs scratching her as it pulled her back onto its thick cock that stretched her more than the ape had. Even having the ape as her first, she felt how much thicker and longer this one was. Unlike the ape the dog entered her faster and harder and then felt the pain worsen as it continued to pound into her stomach. The dog still had not entered all of its cock inside Madison and she could feel it push harder inside her then felt a pain unlike anything before as the dog finally breached her cervix and sunk another couple inches inside her womb. It continued to pound the teen and finally its knot started to swell inside her getting ready to breed his new bitch. Madison could feel something getting bigger inside her and cried out as it felt like someone shoved a grapefruit inside her. She tried screaming but the pain took away her breath and knelt there with her mouth open. It got bigger still, then as she felt it finally stop growing she felt her insides being showered with jets of something that kept on pumping inside her. She felt her womb fill and expand with the volume the huge dog shot inside her and the monster knot holding it all in.

The dog finally stopped pounding into her but still laid on her back as she struggled to hold both of them up. Laying her head on her arms she looked at Becky as the ape moved away from her and grabbing her leg, dragged her off the table and pulled her towards the bushy area. Madison herself had been pulled into many times before the rapes continued. Ramone smiled as he told the cameraman to keep filming until the dog fell out of her but to make sure he got film of it as it opened her up and popped out along with the gush of cum it left inside her. It took another 30 minutes before that happened and Madison fell onto her stomach and laid there. After her second time of being made to have sex with an animal she finally realized what Becky had been through and was now going to join her sister in that same terrifying role.
