BEASTIALITY STORIES

It was summer on a nice clear sunny day with blue sky. I was looking out the window and thought it would be good to go out for a walk. It was late afternoon, I step out the door and my dog is sitting on the front lawn. Tail wagging, he knows he's going out. He's an all white husky. I go up to him and put on a leash and we started walking out the yard.

Were walking towards the back road, a little ways out-of-town, we go to a trail and onto a main road that leads down the lake. I could see the lake From where we are. I stopped and took the leash off my dog. He starts running around, here and there, exploring. He runs way ahead of me and I run to him, to catch up, but as I get close, he runs off-road into the bush. I chased him and ran quite a long ways until I caught up to him, he was chasing a squirrel. I put the leash back on him and I lead the way to the road.

As I'm walking, I trip on a stick and fell straight down. As I'm getting up I'm on my hands and knees, I could feel my dog's nose sniffing my ass through my pants. Then he jumps on me, I feel his body on my back.

I look back and say, "You horny dog."

He pulls me and tries to fuck me. I could feel his cock hitting my hole if it weren't for my pants. I let him finish. He jumps off. He made me so horny.

I get up on my knees and I pull my pants down a little, just enough for my ass to show. I took the leash off the collar. I get down on my hands and he just takes over. He sniffs and licks my hole, he jumps on my back and he humps. The first time his cock goes on top of my ass line (not in my hole) and fucks me. He thinks he's in and continues to fuck me hard, I could feel his balls slamming my ass. I hold on to both his paws I could feel his knot growing I try to squeeze his cock between my ass. He's slowing down, Then I get down on the ground. He gets off. I'm so wet. He cleans himself first then licks me clean.

I get back on my hands and knees and right away he jumps on me. He's humping, trying to get in my hole. I'm waving my ass around and then, he's in, he pulls me and I grab both his front paws and he fucks me hard. His cock so deep in me filling me with his cum. I could feel his knot and cock growing, he's slowing down trying to get off but I don't let him I have both his paws. I continue to push his cock in me until I'm tied. Then he stops and, he still squirting in me. I push him off, he turns around.were stuck ass to ass. I fall to my face with my ass in the air, Were stuck like that about 15 minutes. I could feel his cock starting to get small and he slips out of me. I get up in a pee position and all our cum dribbling out of my hole. I touch it with my both hands Grabbing some, tasting it and smelling it. My dog finishes himself first, then comes and cleans me off.

I pull my pants up. So wet with our cum. I get up on my feet my legs shaking, my dog watching my eyes. Smiling. I didn't bother putting leash on him. I didn't say anything. I move forward and lead the way back to the road. We got on the road and continue our way down the lake where there is a beach. I got in the water with my clothes on. My dig didn't get in with me. Lucky it was summertime too.

After my little swim I got off the water took my clothes off and squeeze the water out, I'm naked standing around the beach but its a really a bushy area. My dog sniffing my ass and licking once in a while. He tries and jumps on me. But I had enough for one day. I put my clothes on and went back on the road. I put leash back on his collar and walked home.

This is my first story and a true story. I hope you enjoyed.
