BEASTIALITY STORIES

Heidi awoke to something cold against her face. Opening her eyes she saw that it was still dark out. She glanced at the wall clock and saw that it was 1am. Buckle, her lover, was butting his cold nose against her face.

"Aw sweetie can't sleep?" she asked with a small pout, she bit back a yawn. Wrapping her arms around Buckle's neck she caught his tongue in a kiss. Her cunt started to get wet from the hot, passionate kiss. She pulled away to breathe but Buckle stuck his tongue back in her mouth. She had to breathe between sucks of his tongue due to his eagerness. She rolled onto her back and pulled Buckle over to lie on top of her as they made out. His sheath was pressed firmly against her bare cunt. She moaned softly as the tip of his cock peeked out and touched her pussy. When she pulled away she turned her head to the side so he could lick her ear and she could breathe properly. "Okay baby, if you want some action to get to sleep I'm game." She panted and shivered at the electricity of his tongue on her neck and ear.

She ground her cunt back against his revealing cock as best she could under the comforter. Buckle climbed off of her and attempted to hump his cock inside of her but sadly he couldn't get it inside her waiting cunt. Sitting up Heidi rolled over onto her hands and knees and let Buckle do the rest. He mounted his lover with ease and shoved his cock inside of her always welcoming cunt, fucking her for all he was worth.

"Oh yeah, fuck me baby." Heidi moaned. "Fuck your bitch."

After 4 years of being lovers Heidi was used to being awoken up occasionally in the morning so that Buckle could have his way with her. Sometimes he would wake up and not be able to fall asleep so he would nuzzle Heidi awake so that he could fuck her and go to sleep. Heidi loved it though! She could never get enough of his cock! As his hot cock drove in and out of her sopping pussy Heidi cried out in ecstasy.

"Fuck me hard, oh good boy!" she screamed in pleasure. "Go deeper!"

Buckle's cock slammed in and out of her well fucked pussy, she could feel his knot forming and banging against her pussy lips. Thrusting back against his thrusts Heidi's cunt accepted his knot. She moaned as it locked them together and his thrusts got shallower and slower but still filled her with pleasure. Using one hand to support her weight Heidi reached under her to pinch her clit and helped herself to her 4th orgasm.

"Buckle baby, your cock feels so good locked inside of me!" she screamed louder, she continued to pinch her clit and moved to massage his twitching balls. She knew he was close, one more shallow thrust and he was shooting her full of his hot sperm. "Oh baby that's right, fill me and soil me." He sprayed her inner walls making her twitch in pleasure into another orgasm.

Heidi basked in the afterglow of her 4th orgasm as Buckle continued to spray her with his cum. After his cum flow stopped he remained locked inside of her, the two locked together like the most natural of lovers should be. Her cunt lips clenched around his swollen knot, she was in heaven. So perfectly filled with her lover's cock. After an hot, shuddering 30 minutes she felt his knot recede and plop out of her dripping cunt; he climbed off of her and laid on the bed. Being the dutiful lover that she was Heidi crawled over to lie on her side between his legs and lapped his cock till it was clean while Buckle's cum leaked from her full pussy. Heidi loved when Buckle took control and treated her like his bitch. Of course she knew her place was to tend to his needs as well which included multiple blowjobs throughout the day, food, a bath, love, and sex whenever he wished where ever he wished. It was quite a wonderful life for the 25 year old. She wouldn't have it any other way. Once Buckle's cock was clean she fixed her night gown that had been raised from Buckle mounting her and laid beside her lover. She wrapped her arms around his neck and pulled him into a heated kiss all while rubbing her moist cunt against his retracting cock. When she was satisfied she pulled the comforter over herself and her lover and fell back asleep.

The sun shone into Heidi's bedroom through the window, it washed over her blonde hair making it glow. Her face scrunched as it washed over it and woke her up. Her eyes opened and she stretched her arms from under the comforter. Beside her was a still sleeping Buckle, he was a strong, fit, 5 year old German Shepard.

He had originally been a gift from her parents when she started her sophomore year at college. At a year old she knew he was her perfect dog, he was fun, protective, loving, and adventurous. She had been excited to get her own dog because she was 18 she had been having sex with her family's dog Ben when she had been living with them. He had taken her virginity. So once her parents gifted her with Buckle she felt like they were unconsciously giving her a new lover and lifetime partner.

For the first year Heidi had taken great care in treating him like a dog; like playing with him, giving him baths, keeping him healthy and so on. She didn't want to have sex with him just yet, not that she didn't think about it a lot. The beginning of her junior year she had decided to take it to the next level. It had started with when she got back from class to her off campus apartment she would play wrestle with him and had taken a chance at kissing him. She would then come back from class and make out with him; the kisses got her excited like they had when she and Ben were lovers. But this was different; she and Buckle were going to develop a relationship so with as much as she had wanted his cock in her pussy she would have to be patient. Buckle didn't seem bothered by this arrangement. He didn't treat her any different than he had before. She was still his loving mistress. It wasn't until a month later that she had decided to take it to the next level. After coming back from class and going through the usual routine of play wrestling and making out she had chanced running her hand down his strong stomach to caress his sheathed cock. It twitched and she was excited as they made out heatedly when she felt his cock sliding out at her slight touch. As inch by inch it was revealed she wrapped her hand around the hot, slimy pulsating cock and proceeded to give him a handjob as they continued to make out. For the next two weeks she would give him a handjob as they made out, and a couple of times when they were lying in bed. It was the start of the third week when she decided to give him a blowjob. Buckle was clearly okay with this arrangement and as hard as it was to prevent him from fucking her after she gave him blowjobs she made up for it with letting him at least taste her cunt after or sometimes during blowjobs. This went on for a month until the beginning of November when she decided that it was time for them to go all the way. The day that they had their first time together Heidi had taken the day off of classes and went shopping for a sexy, yet accessible outfit to wear for the night. She had found a cute brown nightie that fluttered at the end with a cute puppy tail on the rear, pale brown stockings and a black thong. Simple, yet sexy. Most people might think her silly for purchasing a sexy outfit just to have sex with her dog, but to Heidi it was important because he wasn't just her dog. He was soon to be her lover. That night had been magical, even though Ben had taken her virginity when she was 18, that night with Buckle truly felt like her first time. It had been perfect. It had started out with foreplay of wrestling and ended with Buckle fucking her all night long in many different positions until the wee hours of the morning. He had so much pent up sexual frustration from the past 2 months of not getting to fuck her pussy. But once he did, he had marked her as his bitch/lover from that day on. She liked to think another reason that he had fucked her the way that he had was because of the many pheromone scented candles that she had lit. For the rest of her college days Heidi went to classes for her degree and spent her afternoons and nights with Buckle.

Once she graduated she had moved into a single story house yellow house with 2 bedrooms and 1 ½ bathrooms. The backyard was a decent enough size that Buckle could run around to his heart's content and on many occasions Heidi had chanced some sex outside, but she was careful because she did have neighbors and she didn't want to get caught. But all in all this was truly the life. No one was the wiser in her lifestyle, her family was blissfully ignorant, the only friend who knew what she did was her best friend Melina who had her own website and videos of herself being fucked by her horses, and her neighbors thought her a sweet young woman who was still single and living with her friendly dog. She did have a pleasant memory of the first Christmas she and Buckle had shared they went to her spend with her family and while her parents were out shopping she had had a threesome with Ben and Buckle, they both practically fought over her but it didn't get violent between them so she had no worry. But boy had it been hot!

Heidi sat up to stretch, the comforter falling off her to reveal the white nightgown she wore to bed. Her perky 32D breasts just barely fit in the night gown but she didn't mind, it was sexy and easily accessible. Feeling frisky she teased her pale pink nipples through the light fabric, pinching and rolling them until they pebbled under her fingers. She moaned softly and lay back down on her pillow and kicked the comforter off of her. One hand slid down her flat stomach to toy with her naked pussy.

"Oh yeah," she moaned softly she slipped her fingers into her waiting cunt. It was soaking wet as it always was in the morning. Of course the late night pounding from Buckle was still in her mind as well as still dripping from her pussy.

She loved to think that Buckle had permanently marked her for life to be nothing but a dog fucker. Mainly because she would take him to dog parks and it seemed that the minute she entered the park all dog heads turned to her. She would cautiously walk with Buckle to the heart of the park and still the dogs would stare at her. Many times dogs had approached her and a few had even stuck their noses up her skirt or dress. They had surprised her but excited her. Not that she minded it, in fact the very thought of being fucked by a whole park full of dogs and being watched by them got her even hornier. She thumbed her clit roughly as she fingered herself deeper. Glancing at her lover who was still asleep she pouted. She removed her fingers from her soaking cunt and rolled over to pull the comforter off of Buckle. Her eyes locked on his sheath where she knew his delicious cock was. She licked her lips and gently fondled his sheath to reveal the tip of his cock.

"Time to wake up sweetie." She cooed, she lowered her head to lightly lick the tip.

Now Buckle was awake but he lay still as she took it upon herself to massage his cock till it revealed itself inch by inch. He knew that his bitch tended to his every need so he welcomed being woken up every morning to a blowjob and having his hot rod buried into familiar hot folds. How much better could a dog's life get? Once fully exposed she latched her mouth to it and sucked heartily. She would never tire of this taste. As she sucked his hot cock Heidi fingered her cunt with her free hand.

"Oh baby," she moaned as she lapped at his slick cock. "So tasty."

She deep throat him and moaned softly. She massaged his balls with one hand while using the other to jerk his cock slowly in and out of her mouth. Her cunt dripped with excitement and some of Buckle's leftover cum from last night but she was too lost in pleasuring Buckle to pay mind to her own needs. She pulled her mouth from around his cock to tongue the tip lightly, some drool and cock lubricant dripping from her lip and lowered her head back to gobble up his cock again. She sucked roughly and massaged his balls a little more till she felt his cock twitch in her mouth and he shot his hot sperm into her mouth and down her throat. After years of practice she swallowed it all and pulled away from his cock when he was done and lapped up leftover droplets of cum. Once she was satisfied with his cock being clean she rolled onto her back and hung her legs over the edge of the bed. Buckle climbed off the bed and walked around one of her legs and hopped up to wrap his paws around her waist and shoved his hard prick inside his bitch. The two never needed prompting for positions. Heidi knew that when Buckle nudged her thigh he wanted to fuck her the way nature had programmed him to fuck a bitch, if Heidi pressed on Buckle's chest slightly then she wanted to fuck him cowgirl or reverse cowgirl, and if Heidi laid on her back and hung her rear off the edge of something then Buckle would fuck her Missionary. It was a beautiful system that they both had mastered over the years.

"Fuck me baby," Heidi panted. "Fuck your bitch."

Buckle thrust wildly into her welcoming cunt; wet slapping noises filled the room along with panting and moaning. Heidi forced her rear back against his thrusts to match them perfectly; she toyed with her clit as her lover fucked her. Lost in the world of pleasure she felt his knot starting to grow until it was shoved into her pussy and locked them together. Now Buckle's thrusts were shallower which made Heidi cum for the second time. She released her clit and wrapped her arms around Buckle's neck and pulled him do into a heated kiss. She sucked lovingly on his tongue and moaned into his mouth, her already excited and wet cunt got wetter as she made out with her lover. Even after 4 years with Buckle, Heidi would always be turned on by kissing him. Something about mingling their tongues got her so hot! With one more thrust Buckle sprayed Heidi's inner walls with his hot sperm making her pant heavily and moan in delighted pleasure, what a way to start a morning! His cum spray was as endless as it always seemed to be in the morning and filled her practically to the brim of her pussy. They remained locked for awhile, Heidi rutting her cunt back against his locked cock, she shivered at the feel of his cum sloshing about inside of her. 20 minutes later his knot shrank and came out with a wet plop, Buckle hopped off of her and laid on the bed patiently waiting for her to clean his cock like she always did. With her cunt still leaking cum Heidi rolled over onto her stomach and laid between her lover's legs, grasping his thick cock in her hand she licked their mixed juices from it and gobbled it up to make sure that it was thoroughly cleaned. Once she was satisfied with his cock cleanliness she licked her lips of stray cum and climbed off the bed. She removed her night gown and pulled on a jean skirt and tight pink V-neck. After fluffing her hair she walked over to share a sensual good morning kiss and headed out of the room.

She entered her quaint kitchen and began preparing breakfast for herself after opening a can of pricey, albeit healthy wet dog food and poured it into Buckle's bowl. Once she finished fixing and eating it she thought about her plan for the day. She had some errands to run since it was her day off, then wash her car, and then she was going out to dinner with Melina. The mixed juices in her cunt were slowly streaming from it and onto her seat and some down her leg to pool on the floor. It made her shiver in pleasure at the sensation. She slid her hand down to massage her overflowing pussy, it made squelching noises as she rubbed at it. Moaning softly she continued to stroke at her moist pussy. Just a typical morning in Heidi's life.
